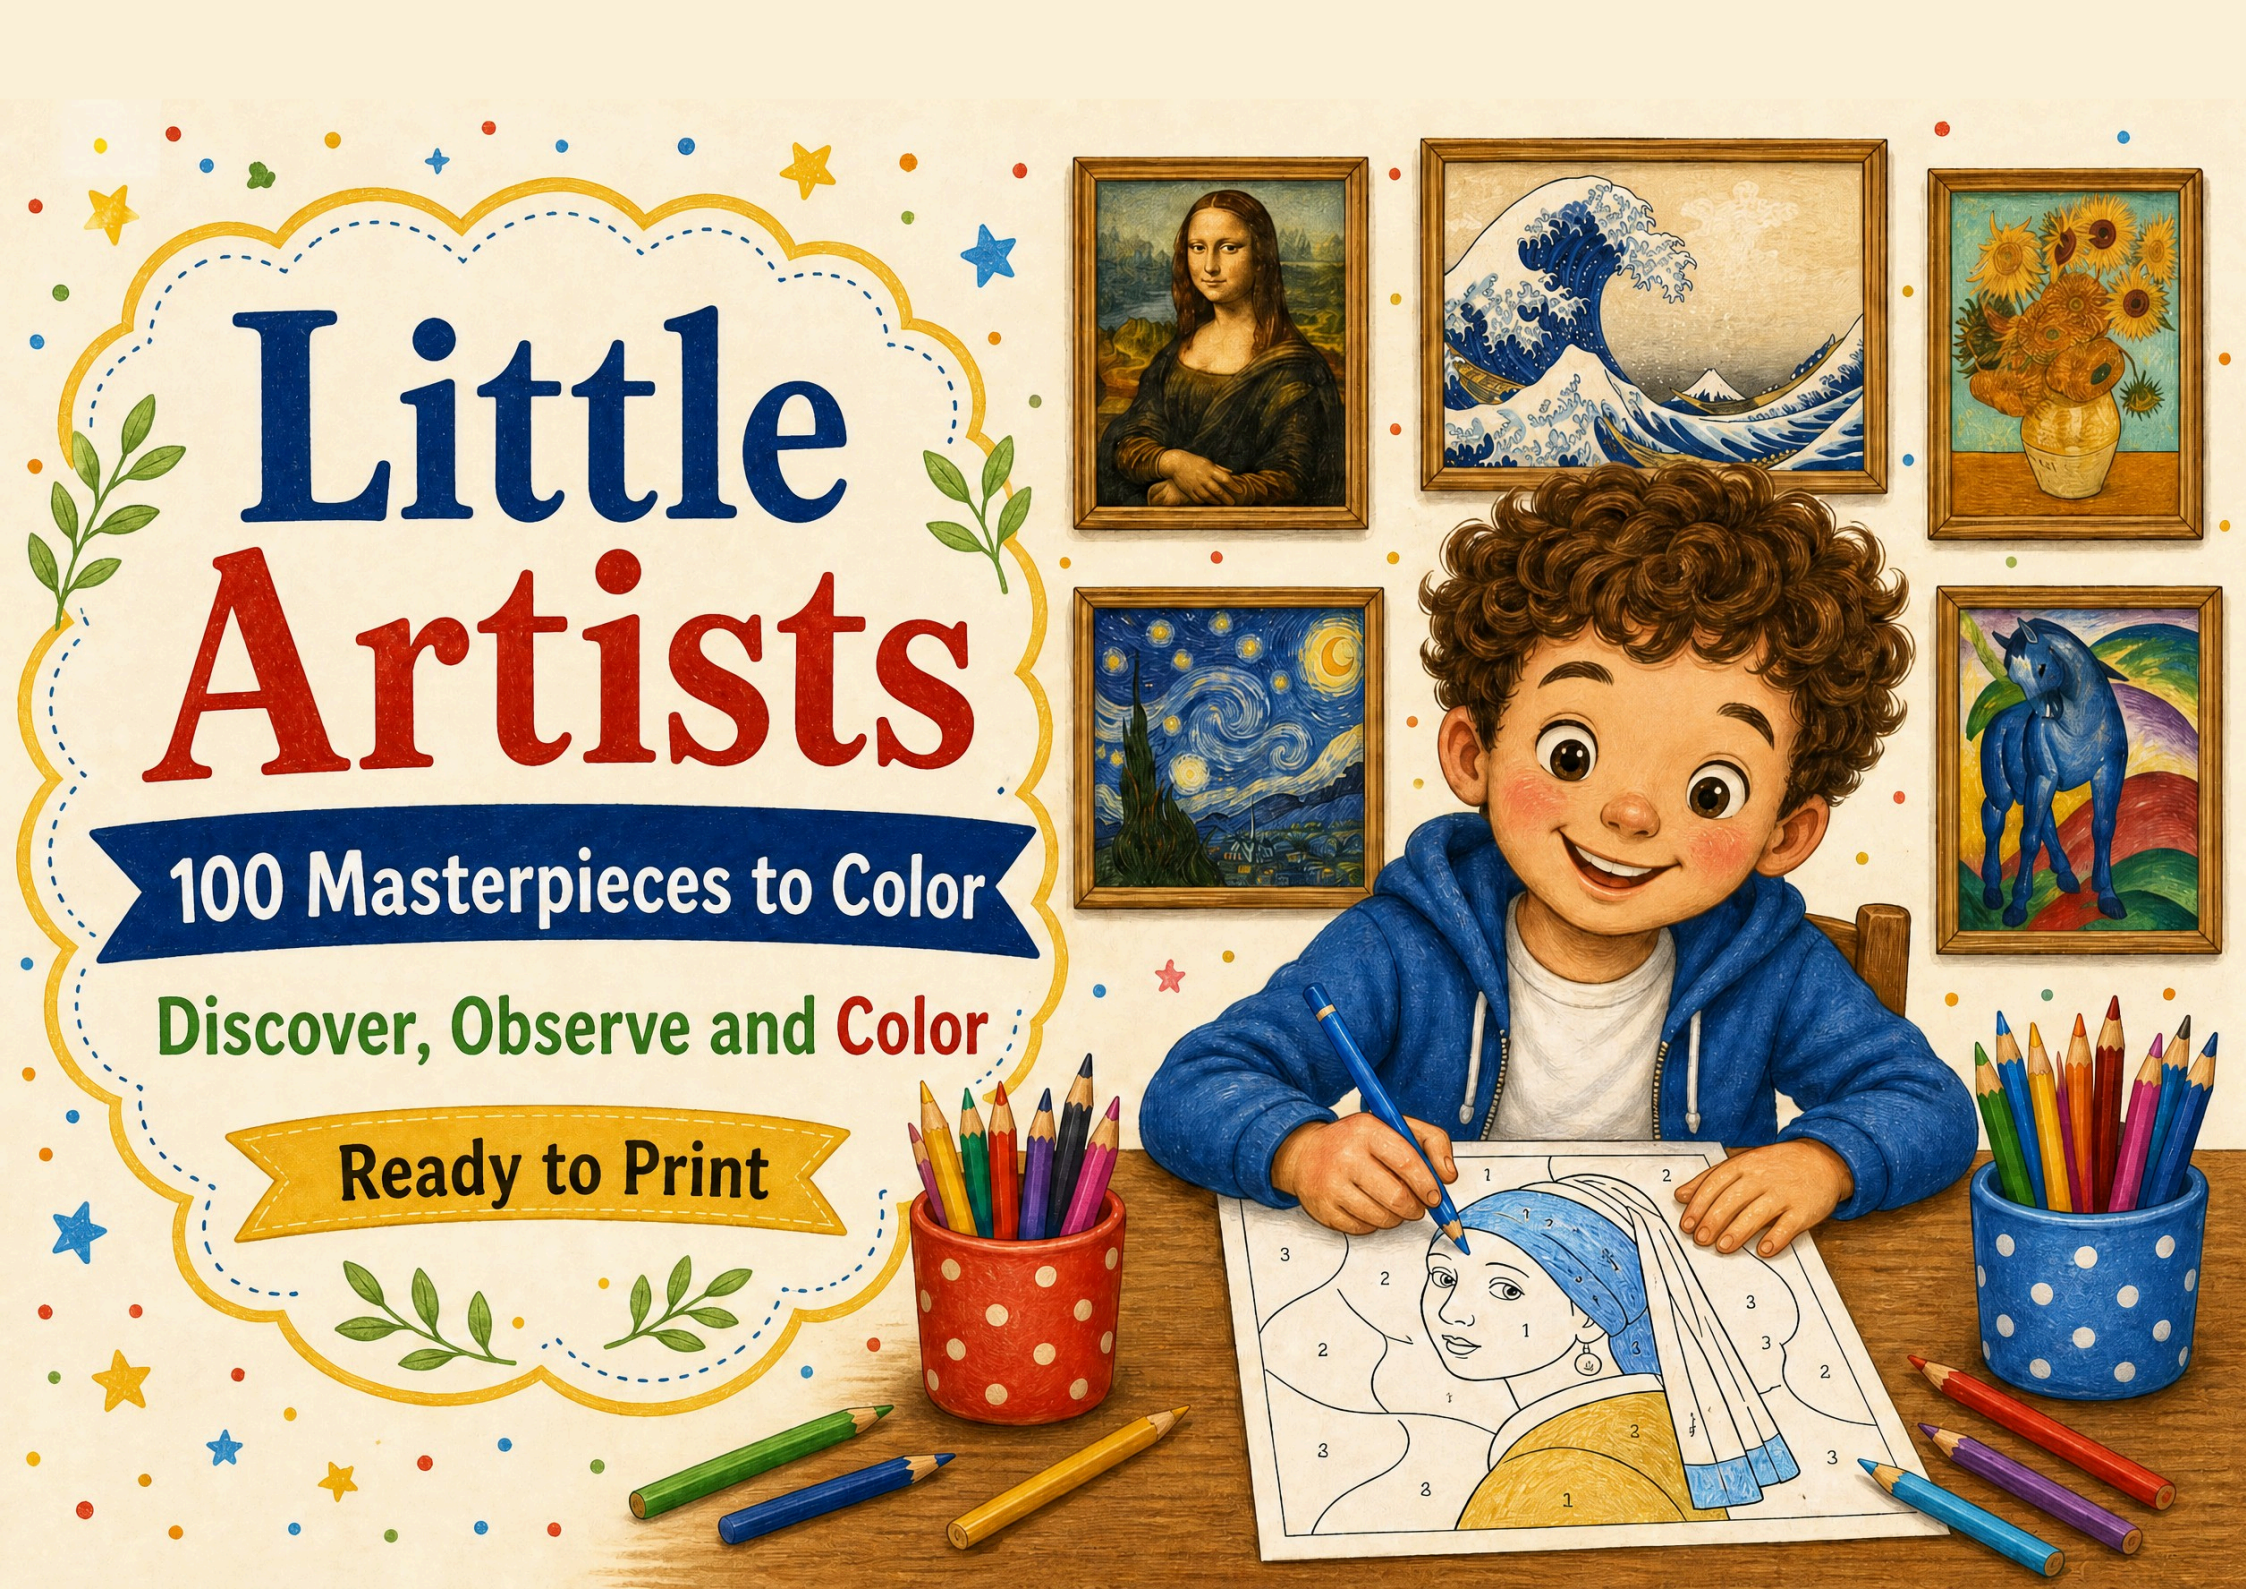
Little Artists

100 Masterpieces to Color

Discover, Observe and Color

Ready to Print



Map of the book

100 pages in 7 great eras, from Giotto to Matisse

1 Middle Ages and Renaissance

Nos. 1–12 · 1297–1515

Giotto, Fra Angelico, Piero della Francesca, Leonardo da Vinci, Sandro Botticelli, Perugino...

2 Masters of the 16th and 17th centuries

Nos. 13–22 · 1548–1665

Titian, Pieter Bruegel the Elder, Paolo Veronese, Giuseppe Arcimboldo, Caravaggio, Hendrick Avercamp...

3 Venice, London and the Romantics

Nos. 23–33 · 1730–1821

Canaletto, Jean-Siméon Chardin, George Stubbs, Thomas Gainsborough, Caspar David Friedrich, John Constable

4 Great landscapes of the 19th century

Nos. 34–49 · 1831–1869

Katsushika Hokusai, Thomas Cole, J. M. W. Turner, Edwin Landseer, Gustave Courbet, Utagawa Hiroshige...

5 The Impressionists

Nos. 50–66 · 1871–1886

James McNeill Whistler, Claude Monet, Berthe Morisot, Winslow Homer, Edgar Degas, Pierre-Auguste Renoir...

6 Van Gogh and his friends

Nos. 67–85 · 1888–1906

Vincent van Gogh, Claude Monet, Henri Rousseau, Georges Seurat, Edvard Munch, Mary Cassatt...

7 Modern art

Nos. 86–100 · 1909–1953

Gustav Klimt, Joaquín Sorolla, Franz Marc, Henri Matisse, Paul Klee, Wassily Kandinsky...

100 masterpieces to color · pages ready to print

Contents

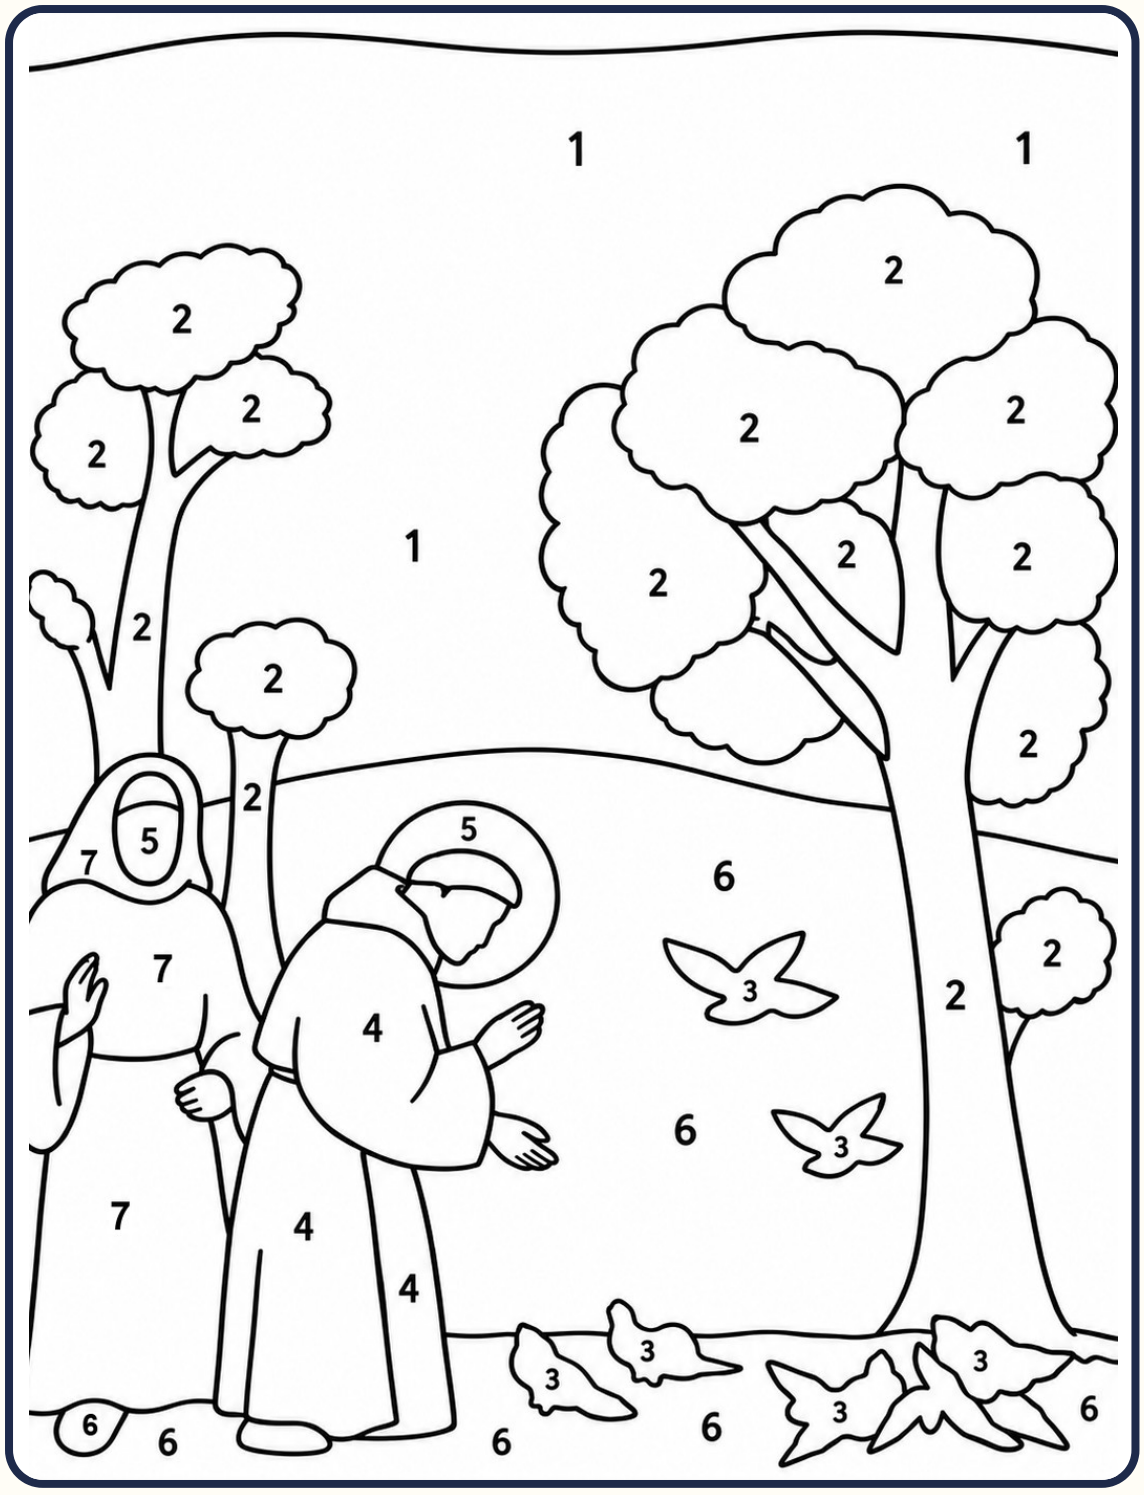
The masterpieces go from the oldest to the newest: a real trip through time!

1	Saint Francis Preaching to the Birds	Giotto
2	The Flight into Egypt	Giotto
3	The Adoration of the Magi	Giotto
4	The Annunciation	Fra Angelico
5	The Baptism of Christ	Piero della Francesca
6	The Annunciation	Leonardo da Vinci
7	Primavera	Sandro Botticelli
8	The Delivery of the Keys	Perugino
9	Lady with an Ermine	Leonardo da Vinci
10	Young Hare	Albrecht Dürer
11	Mona Lisa	Leonardo da Vinci
12	Rhinoceros	Albrecht Dürer
13	Charles V at Mühlberg	Titian
14	The Tower of Babel	Pieter Bruegel the Elder
15	The Wedding at Cana	Paolo Veronese
16	The Hunters in the Snow	Pieter Bruegel the Elder
17	Summer	Giuseppe Arcimboldo
18	Basket of Fruit	Caravaggio
19	Winter Landscape with Ice Skaters	Hendrick Avercamp
20	The Milkmaid	Johannes Vermeer
21	The Courtyard of a House in Delft	Pieter de Hooch
22	Girl with a Pearl Earring	Johannes Vermeer
23	Piazza San Marco	Canaletto
24	The Return of the Bucentaur	Canaletto
25	The Grand Canal and the Salute	Canaletto
26	Soap Bubbles	Jean-Siméon Chardin
27	The House of Cards	Jean-Siméon Chardin
28	A Regatta on the Grand Canal	Canaletto
29	The Thames in London	Canaletto
30	Whistlejacket	George Stubbs
31	The Blue Boy	Thomas Gainsborough
32	Wanderer above the Sea of Fog	Caspar David Friedrich
33	The Hay Wain	John Constable
34	Red Fuji	Katsushika Hokusai
35	The Great Wave	Katsushika Hokusai
36	The Oxbow	Thomas Cole
37	The Fighting Temeraire	J. M. W. Turner
38	Rain, Steam and Speed	J. M. W. Turner
39	The Monarch of the Glen	Edwin Landseer
40	The Meeting	Gustave Courbet
41	Sudden Shower over Shin-Ohashi Bridge	Utagawa Hiroshige
42	Plum Park in Kameido	Utagawa Hiroshige
43	The Gleaners	Jean-François Millet
44	Niagara	Frederic Edwin Church
45	Souvenir of Mortefontaine	Camille Corot
46	Beach at Trouville	Eugène Boudin
47	The Fifer	Édouard Manet
48	Among the Sierra Nevada, California	Albert Bierstadt
49	The Magpie	Claude Monet
50	Whistler's Mother	James McNeill Whistler

Contents (continued)

The masterpieces go from the oldest to the newest: a real trip through time!

51	Impression, Sunrise	Claude Monet
52	The Cradle	Berthe Morisot
53	Snap the Whip	Winslow Homer
54	Poppies	Claude Monet
55	The Dance Class	Edgar Degas
56	The Butterfly Hunt	Berthe Morisot
57	Woman with a Parasol	Claude Monet
58	Dance at Le Moulin de la Galette	Pierre-Auguste Renoir
59	Flood at Port-Marly	Alfred Sisley
60	Paris Street; Rainy Day	Gustave Caillebotte
61	Little Girl in a Blue Armchair	Mary Cassatt
62	The Golden Stairs	Edward Burne-Jones
63	Luncheon of the Boating Party	Pierre-Auguste Renoir
64	A Sunday on La Grande Jatte	Georges Seurat
65	The Young Shepherdess	William Bouguereau
66	Carnation, Lily, Lily, Rose	John Singer Sargent
67	Sunflowers	Vincent van Gogh
68	Cafe Terrace at Night	Vincent van Gogh
69	The Bedroom	Vincent van Gogh
70	Irises	Vincent van Gogh
71	Wheat Field with Cypresses	Vincent van Gogh
72	The Starry Night	Vincent van Gogh
73	Almond Blossoms	Vincent van Gogh
74	Haystacks	Claude Monet
75	Surprised!	Henri Rousseau
76	The Circus	Georges Seurat
77	The Scream	Edvard Munch
78	The Child's Bath	Mary Cassatt
79	Breakfast under the Big Birch	Carl Larsson
80	Boulevard Montmartre at Night	Camille Pissarro
81	The Japanese Footbridge	Claude Monet
82	Apples and Oranges	Paul Cézanne
83	The Port of Saint-Tropez	Paul Signac
84	Mont Sainte-Victoire	Paul Cézanne
85	Water Lilies	Claude Monet
86	The Tree of Life	Gustav Klimt
87	Walk on the Beach	Joaquín Sorolla
88	The Large Blue Horses	Franz Marc
89	The Yellow Cow	Franz Marc
90	Blue Horse I	Franz Marc
91	Goldfish	Henri Matisse
92	Two Cats, Blue and Yellow	Franz Marc
93	Senecio	Paul Klee
94	Composition VIII	Wassily Kandinsky
95	Yellow-Red-Blue	Wassily Kandinsky
96	Castle and Sun	Paul Klee
97	Cat and Bird	Paul Klee
98	Composition with Red, Yellow and Blue	Piet Mondrian
99	Broadway Boogie Woogie	Piet Mondrian
100	The Snail	Henri Matisse



1

Saint Francis Preaching to the Birds

Giotto · c. 1297

Proto-Renaissance

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Giotto

Who was Giotto?

An Italian painter who was one of the first to paint people who look alive.

Why is it famous?

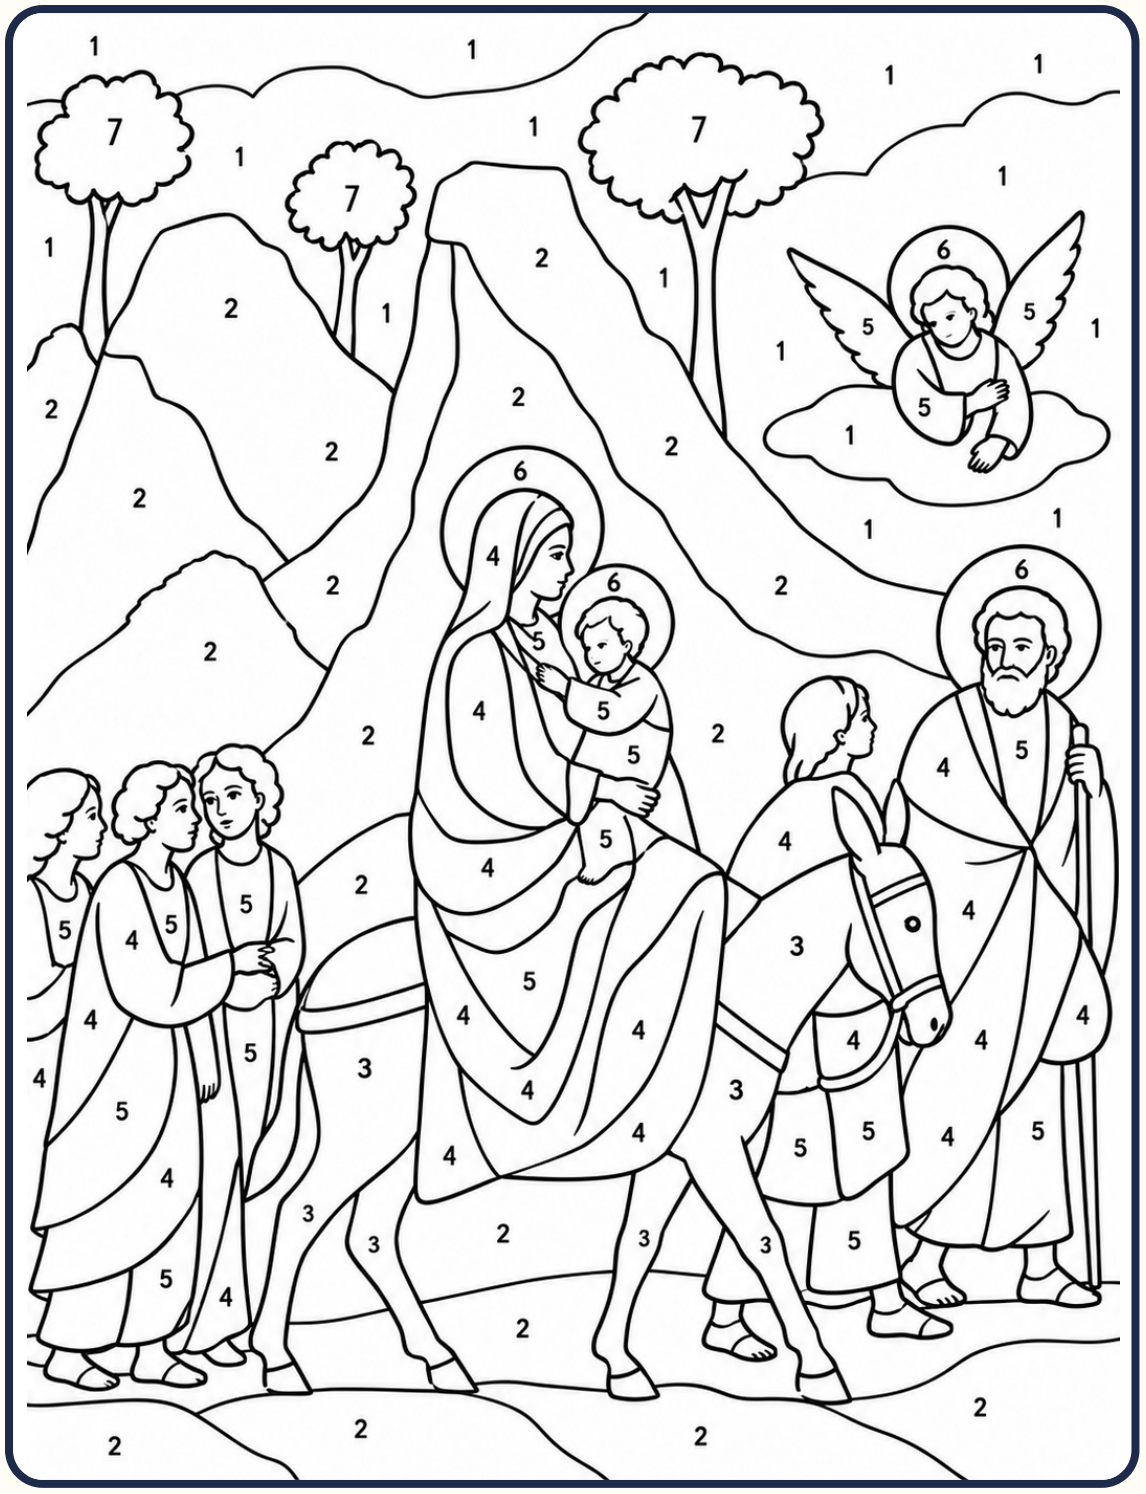
Saint Francis talks to the birds, and the birds listen quietly.

Did you know?

Legend says that as a boy, Giotto drew his sheep on rocks.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Tree	Birds	Robe	Halos	Ground	Companion



2

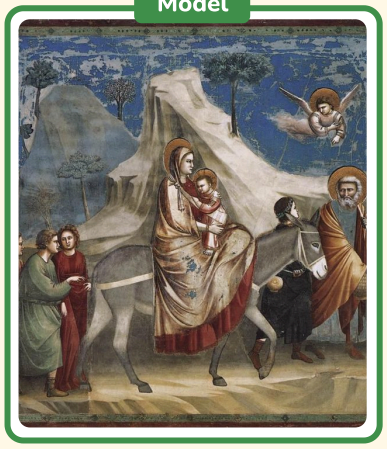
The Flight into Egypt

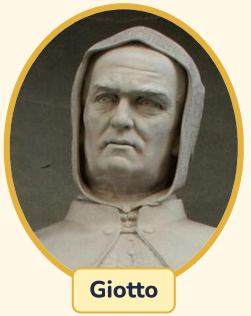
Giotto · c. 1305

Proto-Renaissance

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model





Giotto

Who was Giotto?

He painted every wall of a chapel in Padua, from floor to ceiling.

Why is it famous?

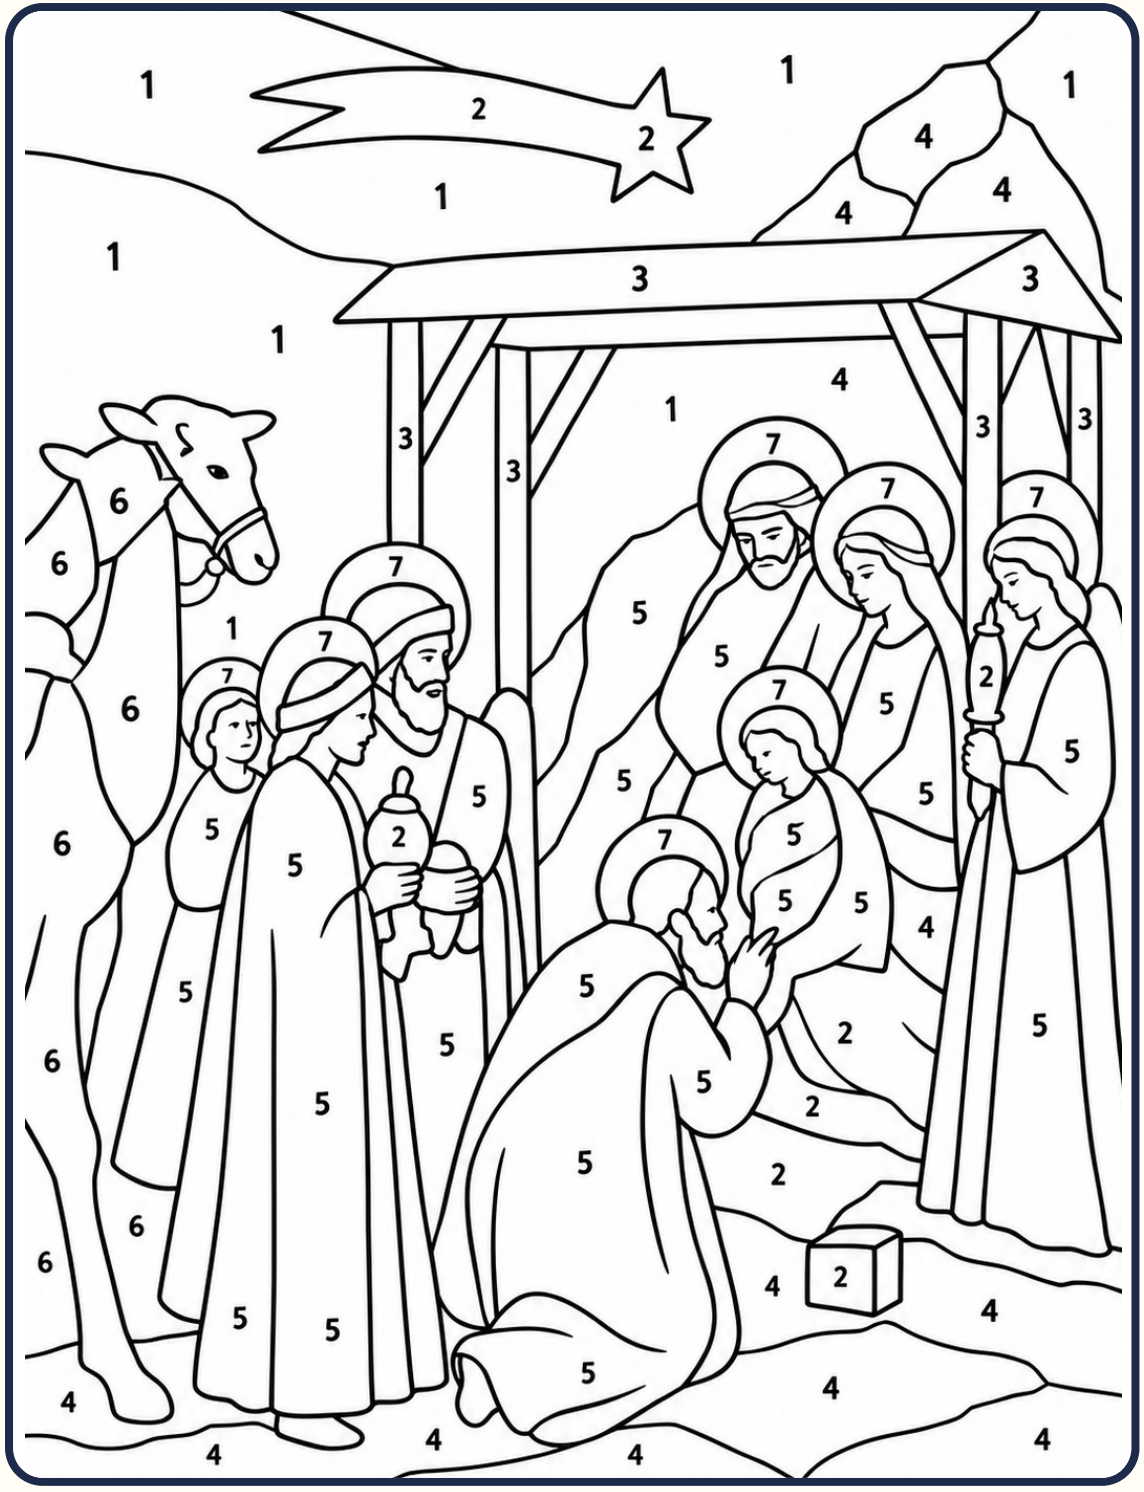
Mary and her baby ride a donkey, led by an angel in the sky.

Did you know?

The chapel's sky is painted a precious blue made from a stone.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Mountain	Donkey	Cloak	Robes	Halos	Trees



3

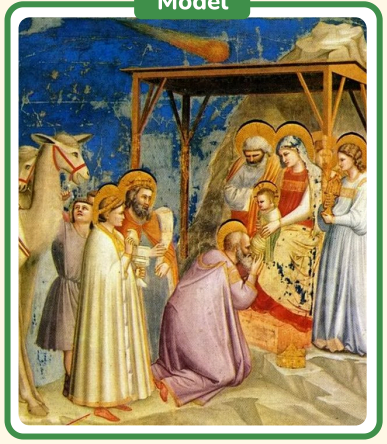
The Adoration of the Magi

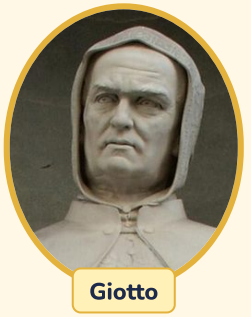
Giotto · c. 1305

Proto-Renaissance

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model





Giotto

Who was Giotto?

He is often called the "father of modern painting."

Why is it famous?

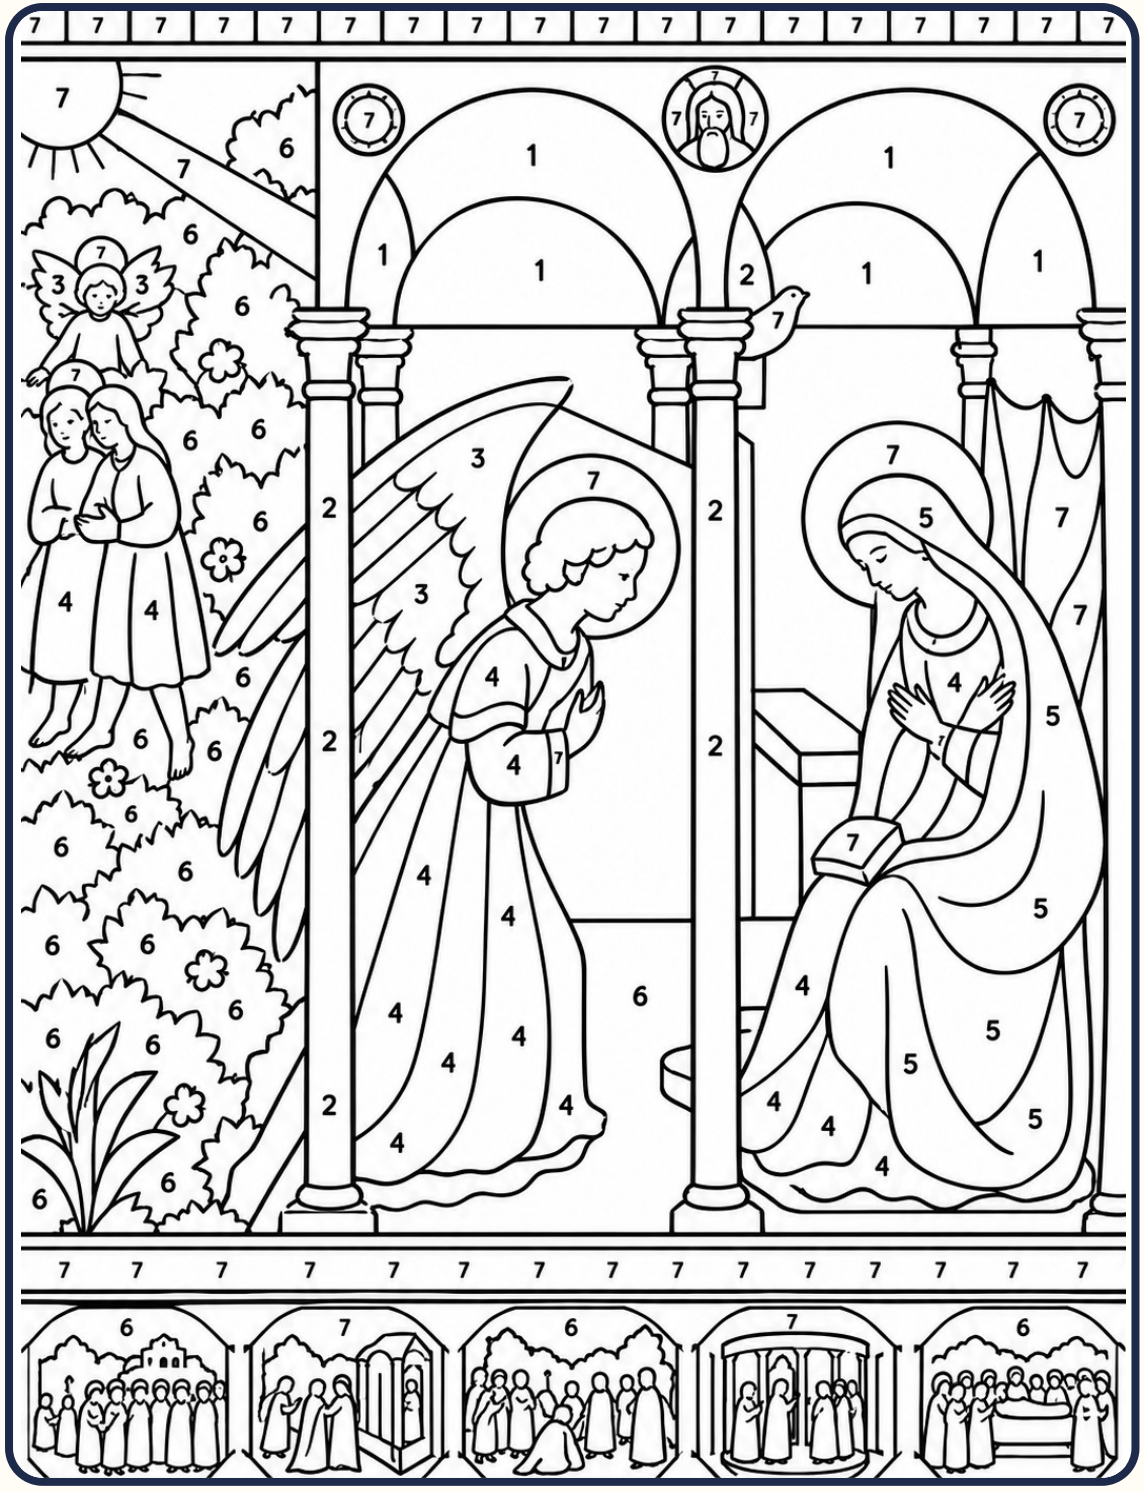
Above the manger, Giotto painted a real comet with a long tail.

Did you know?

A space probe sent to a comet in 1985 was named "Giotto" in his honor!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Comet	Roof	Rocks	Cloaks	Camels	Halos



4

The Annunciation

Fra Angelico · c. 1426

Renaissance

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Fra Angelico

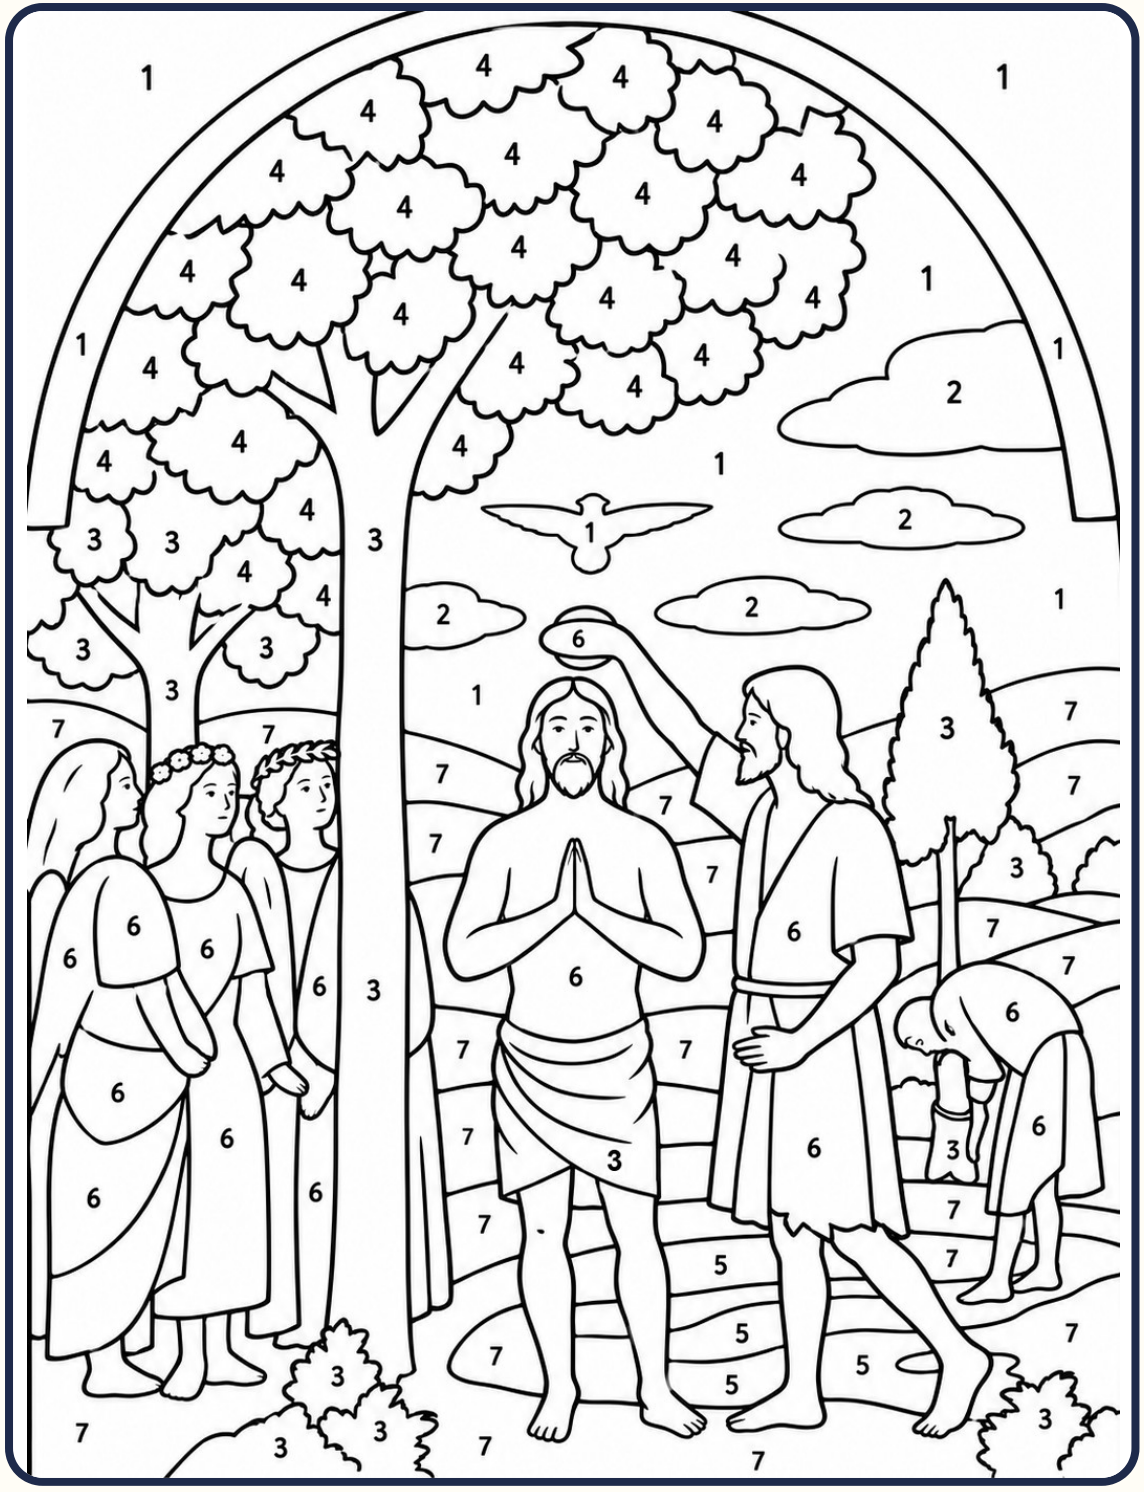
Who was Fra Angelico?
A painter monk from Florence, known for his soft, glowing colors.

Why is it famous?
The angel has wings of every color, like a rainbow.

Did you know?
His real name was Guido. People nicknamed him "Angelico," the painter of angels.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Arches	Columns	Wings	Pink robe	Blue cloak	Garden	Gold



5

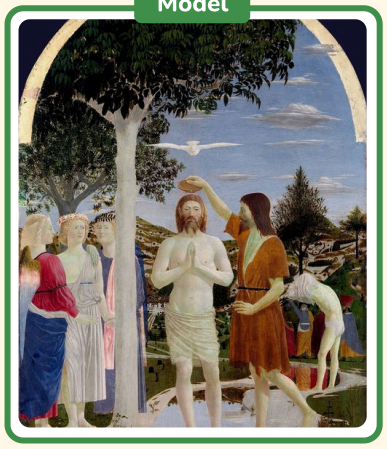
The Baptism of Christ

Piero della Francesca · c. 1450

Renaissance

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Piero della Francesca

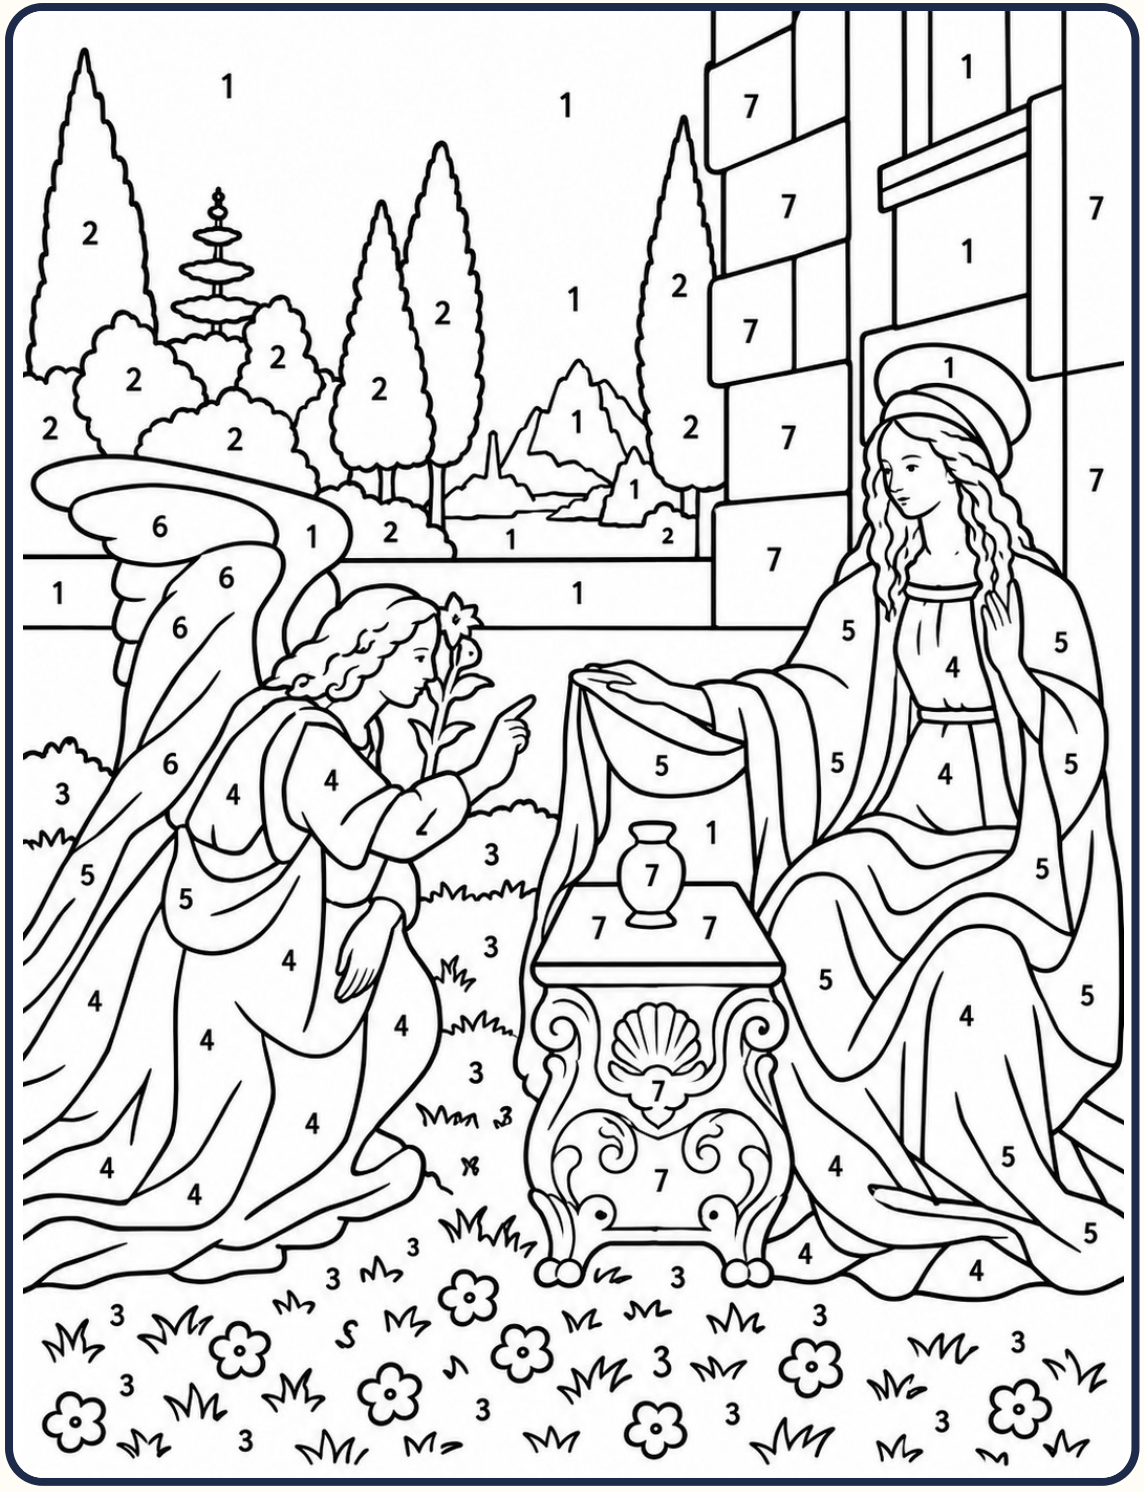
Who was Piero?
An Italian painter who was also a great mathematician.

Why is it famous?
Everything is calm and perfectly balanced, like a geometry puzzle.

Did you know?
The white dove at the top has exactly the same shape as the clouds.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Tree	Leaves	River	People	Hills



6

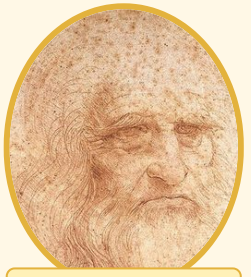
The Annunciation

Leonardo da Vinci · c. 1472

Renaissance

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Leonardo da Vinci

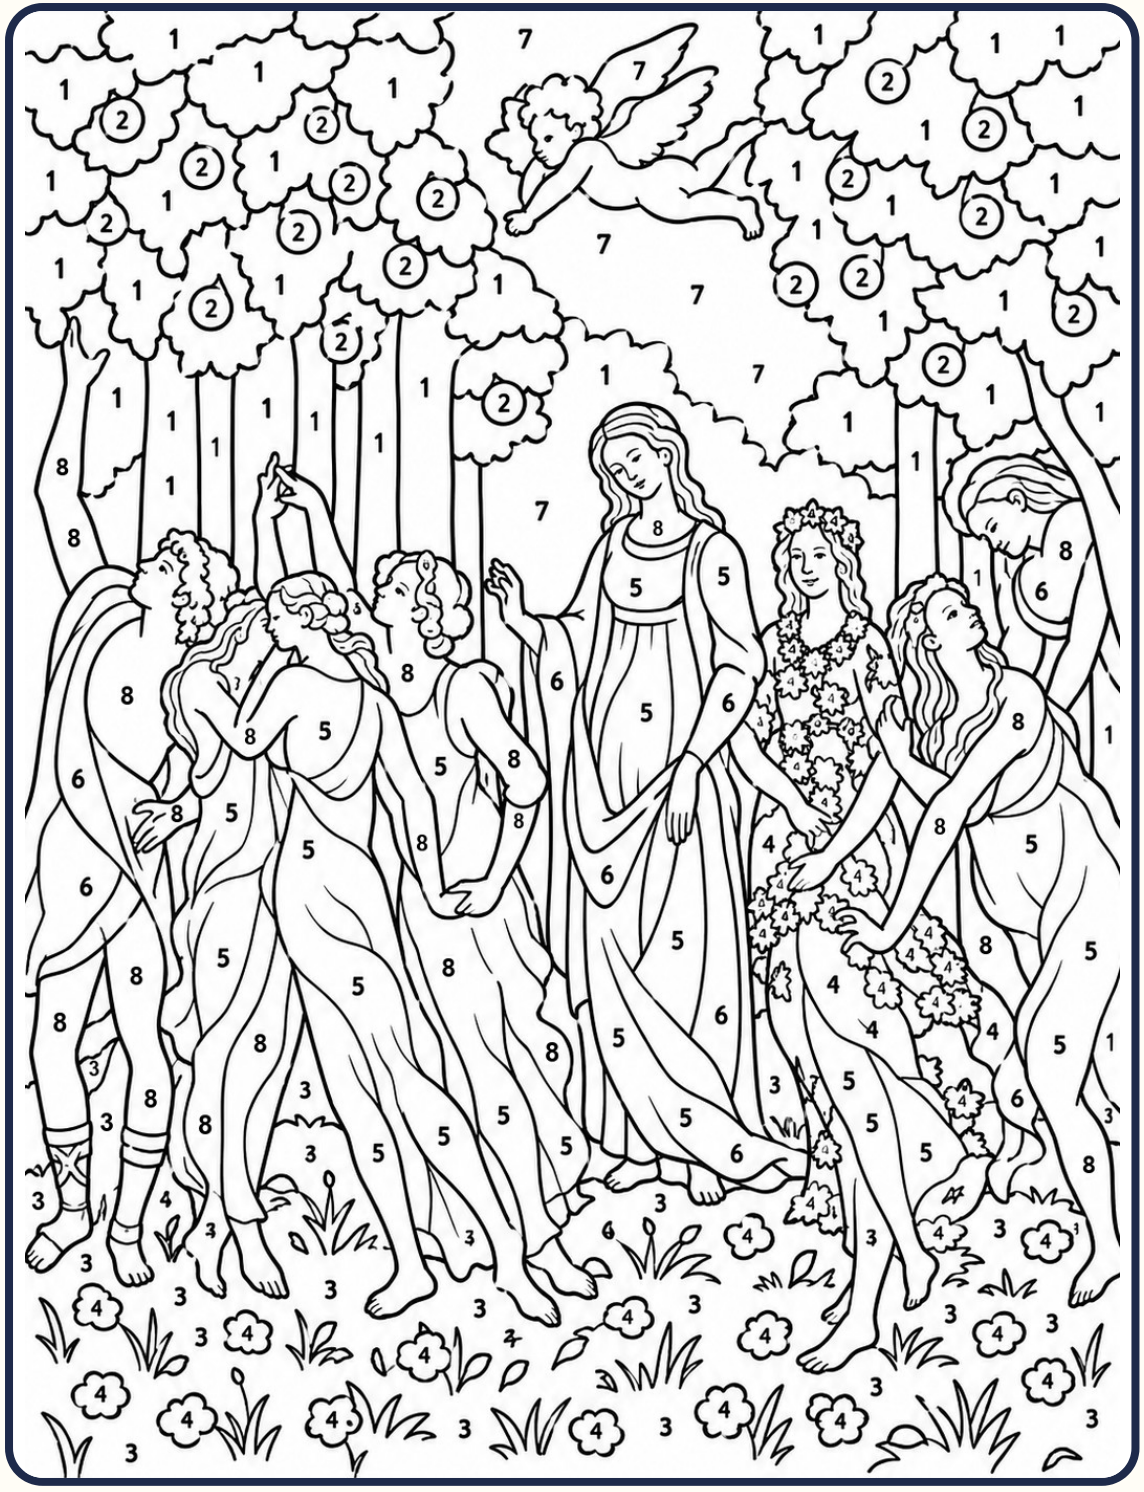
Who was Leonardo?
He was still a young apprentice, about twenty, when he painted this.

Why is it famous?
An angel with big wings brings Mary some very big news.

Did you know?
The angel's wings were copied from real bird wings.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Trees	Grass	Red dress	Blue cloak	Wings	Stone



7

Primavera

Sandro Botticelli · c. 1480

Renaissance

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Sandro Botticelli

Who was Botticelli?

A painter from Florence, in Italy, who loved stories about gods and flowers.

Why is it famous?

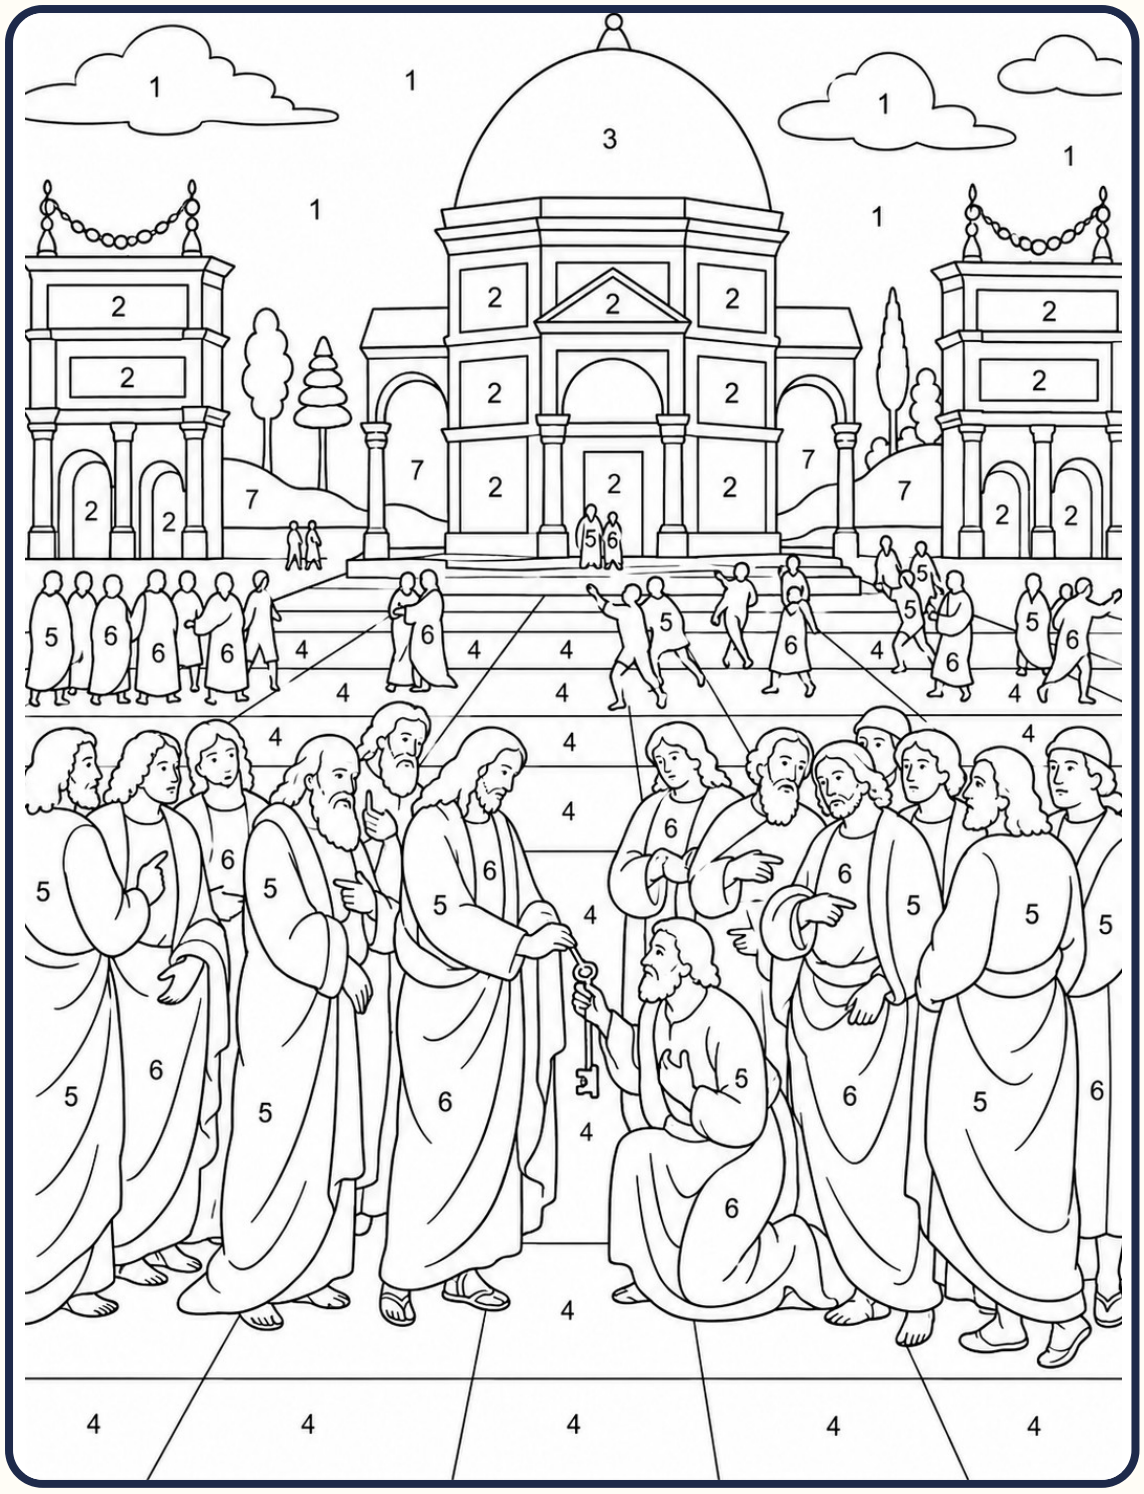
It shows about five hundred plants, including nearly two hundred different flowers.

Did you know?

The little angel flying at the top is blindfolded: it's Cupid!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Trees	Oranges	Meadow	Flowers	Dresses	Red cloak	Sky	Skin



8

The Delivery of the Keys

Perugino · 1482

Renaissance

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Perugino

Who was Perugino?

An Italian painter who was the teacher of the great Raphael.

Why is it famous?

Behind the people is a huge square with a perfectly drawn temple.

Did you know?

This painting is on a huge wall of the Sistine Chapel, in Rome.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Temple	Dome	Square	Cloaks	Robes	Hills

9

Lady with an Ermine

Leonardo da Vinci · c. 1490

Renaissance

🖍️ Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

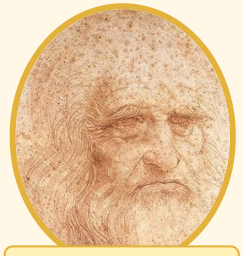
Model



Leonardo da Vinci

🔍 Who was Leonardo?

An Italian genius: painter, engineer, musician, and a great observer of nature.

⭐ Why is it famous?

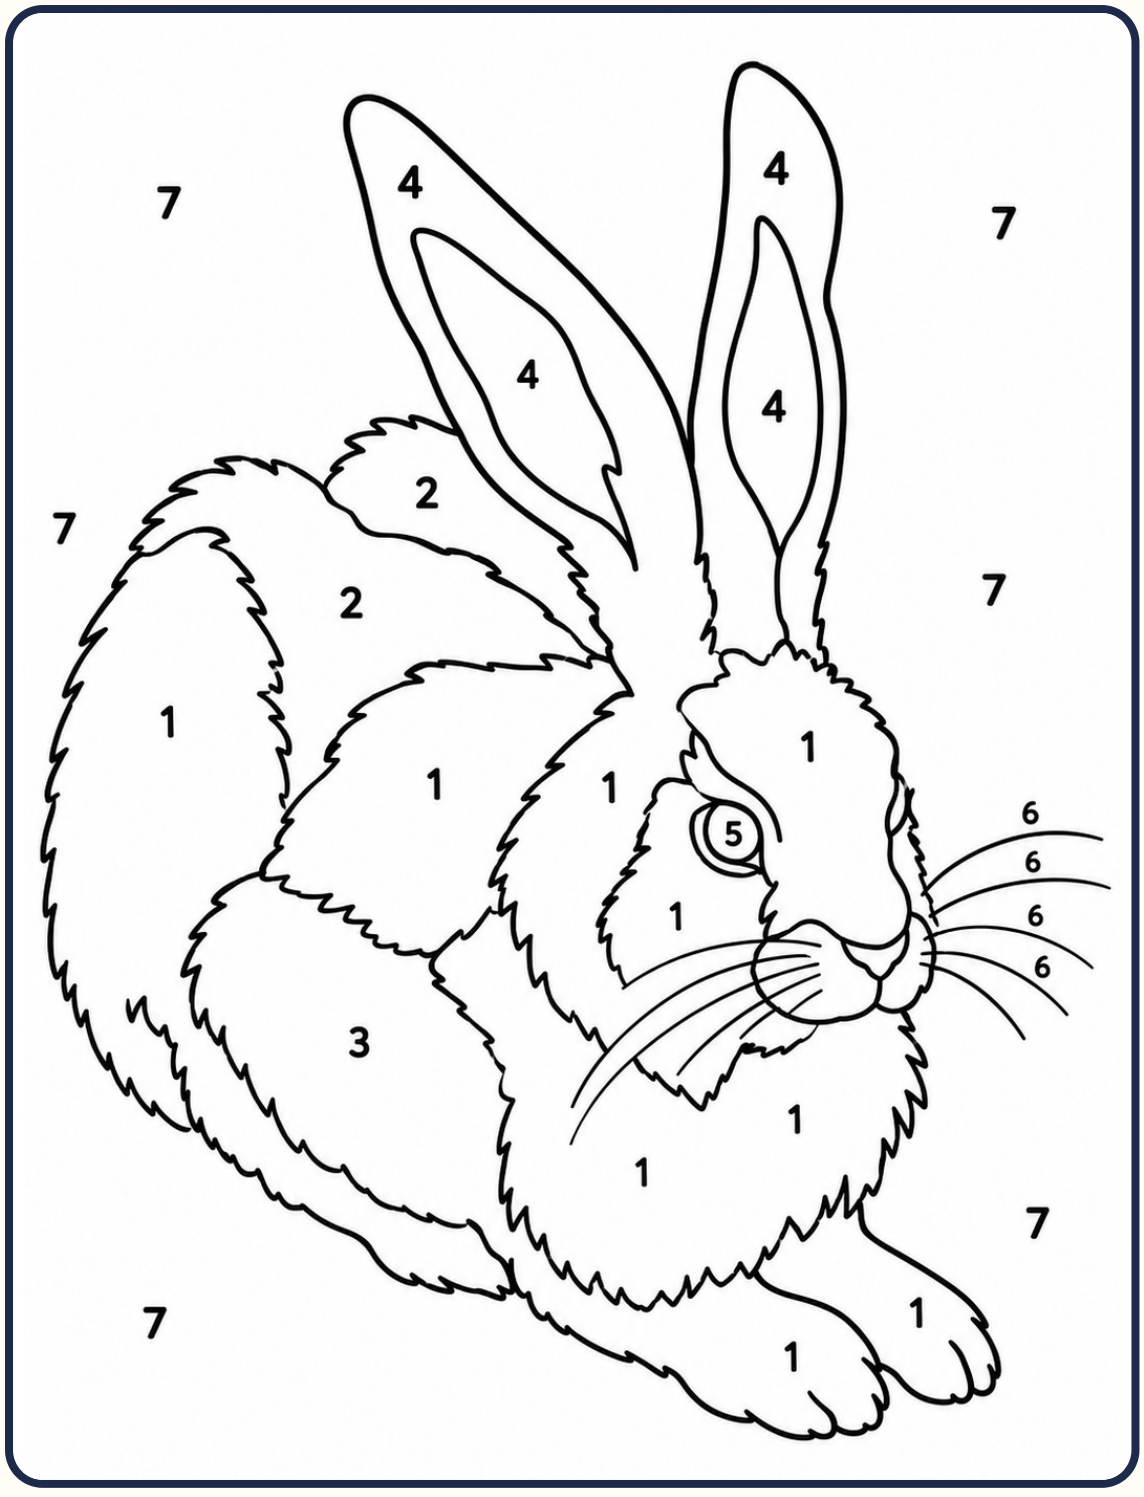
She holds an ermine, a small and very elegant white animal.

💡 Did you know?

This is one of only four portraits of women that Leonardo painted.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Background	Skin	Ermine	Red dress	Blue sleeves	Hair	Necklace



10

Young Hare

Albrecht Dürer · 1502

German Renaissance

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Albrecht Dürer

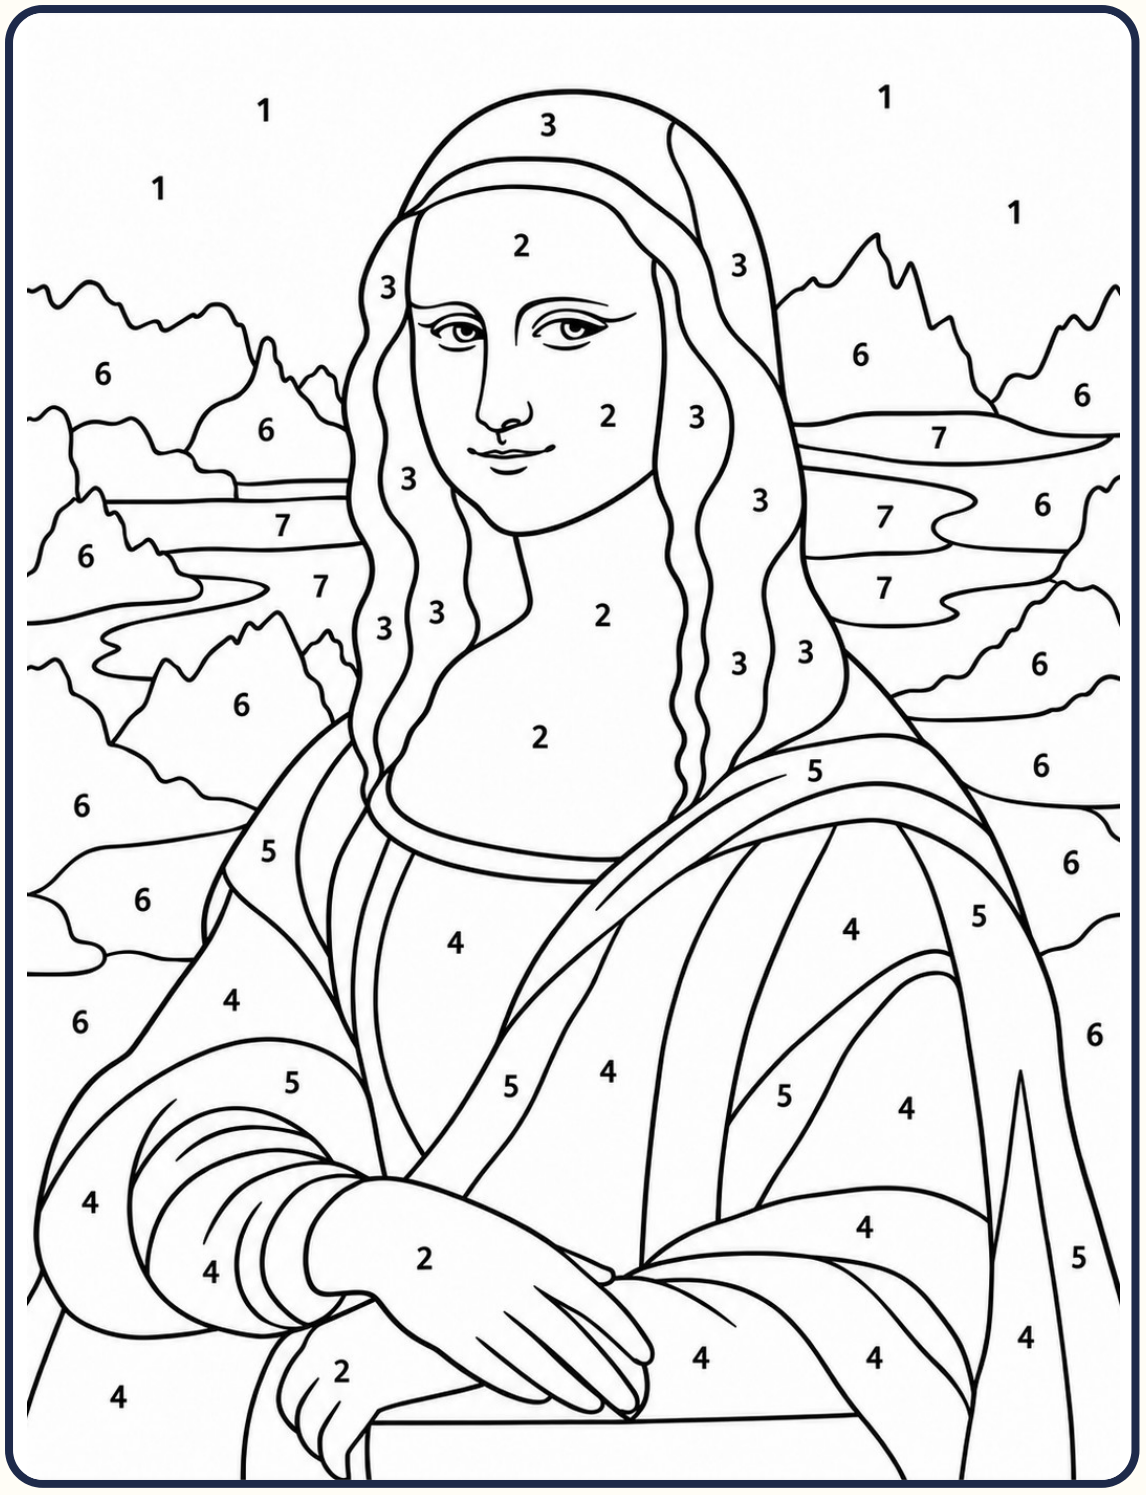
Who was Dürer?
A German artist who drew nature with amazing detail.

Why is it famous?
Every hair of the hare is drawn one by one. It makes you want to pet it!

Did you know?
Look closely at the hare's eye: you'll see a window reflected in it.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Fur	Back	Belly	Ears	Eye	Whiskers	Background



11

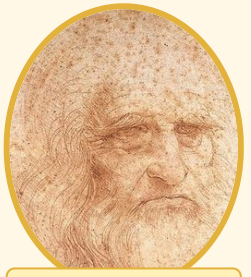
Mona Lisa

Leonardo da Vinci · 1503

Renaissance

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Leonardo da Vinci

Who was Leonardo?
An artist and inventor who drew flying machines long before airplanes.

Why is it famous?
Her mysterious smile seems to change when you look at her.

Did you know?
She lives in the Louvre, in Paris, behind a special glass.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Skin	Hair	Dress	Veil	Landscape	River

12 Rhinoceros

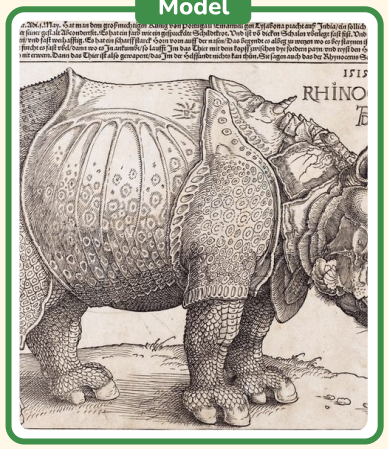
Albrecht Dürer · 1515

German Renaissance

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Albrecht Dürer

Who was Dürer?

He was also a great printmaker: he carved his drawings into wood to print them.

Why is it famous?

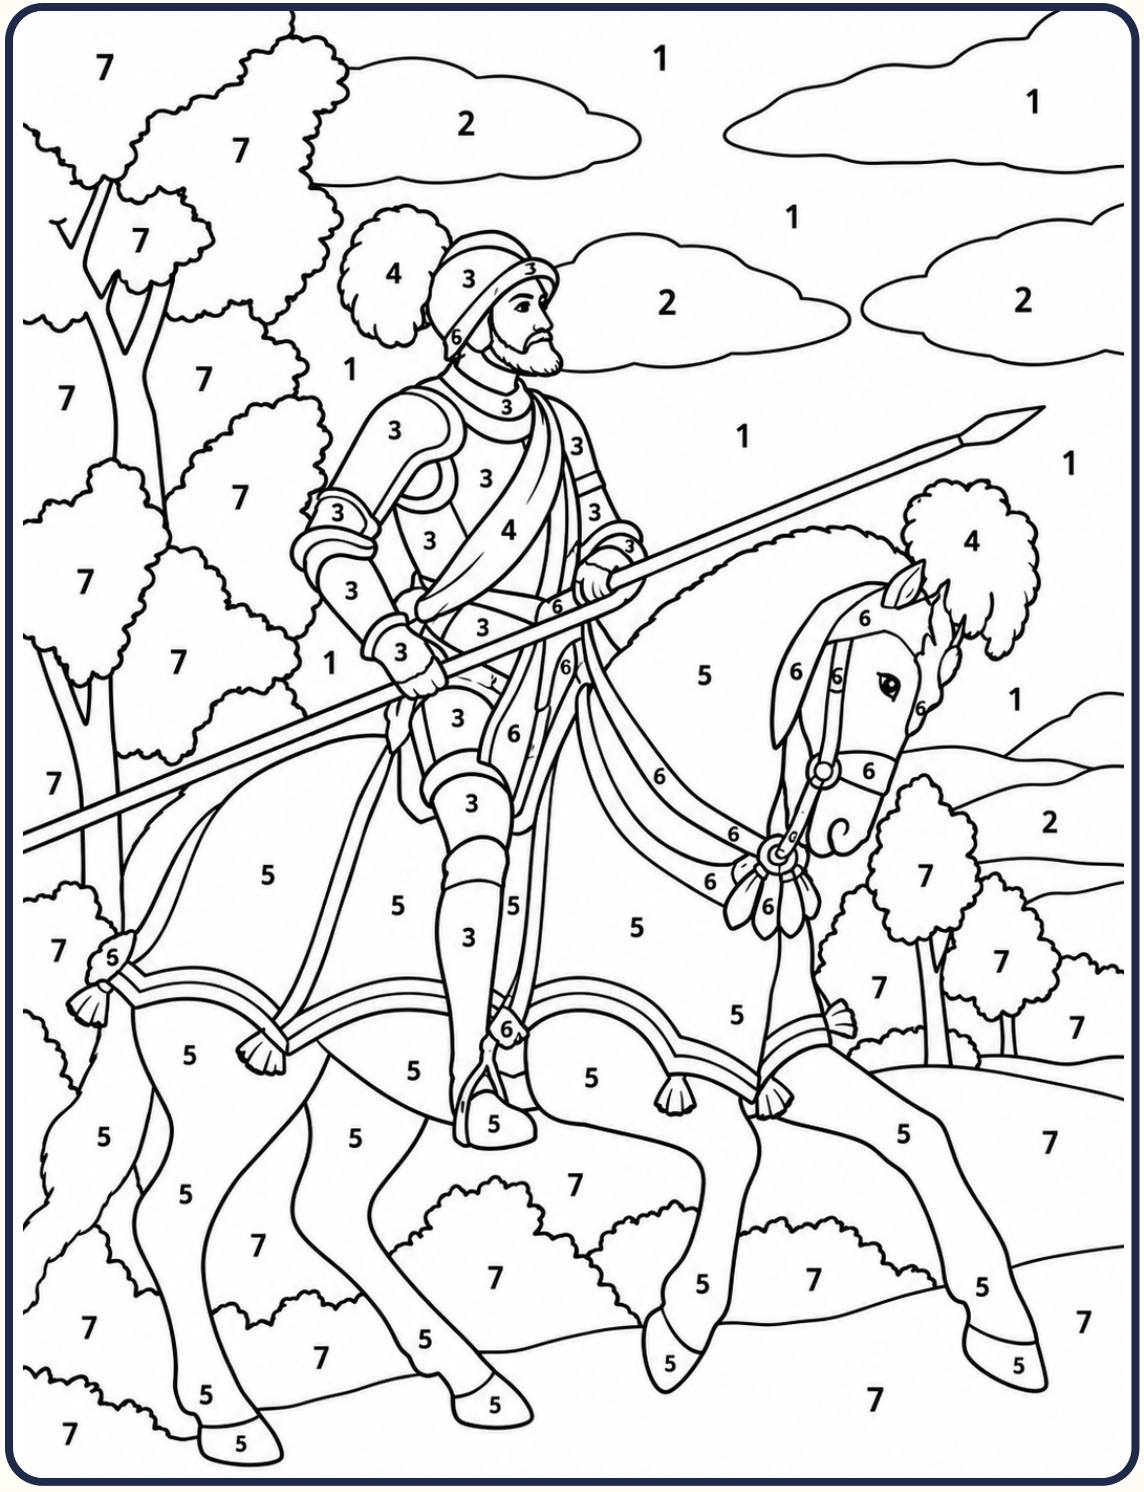
Dürer never saw a rhinoceros! He drew it from a letter that described it.

Did you know?

That's why his rhino wears armor and has a little horn on its back.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Skin	Plates	Scales	Horn	Legs	Ground	Background



13

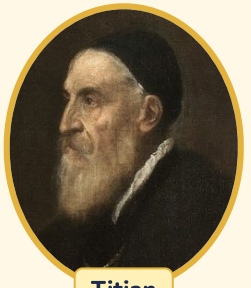
Charles V at Mühlberg

Titian · 1548

Venetian Renaissance

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Titian

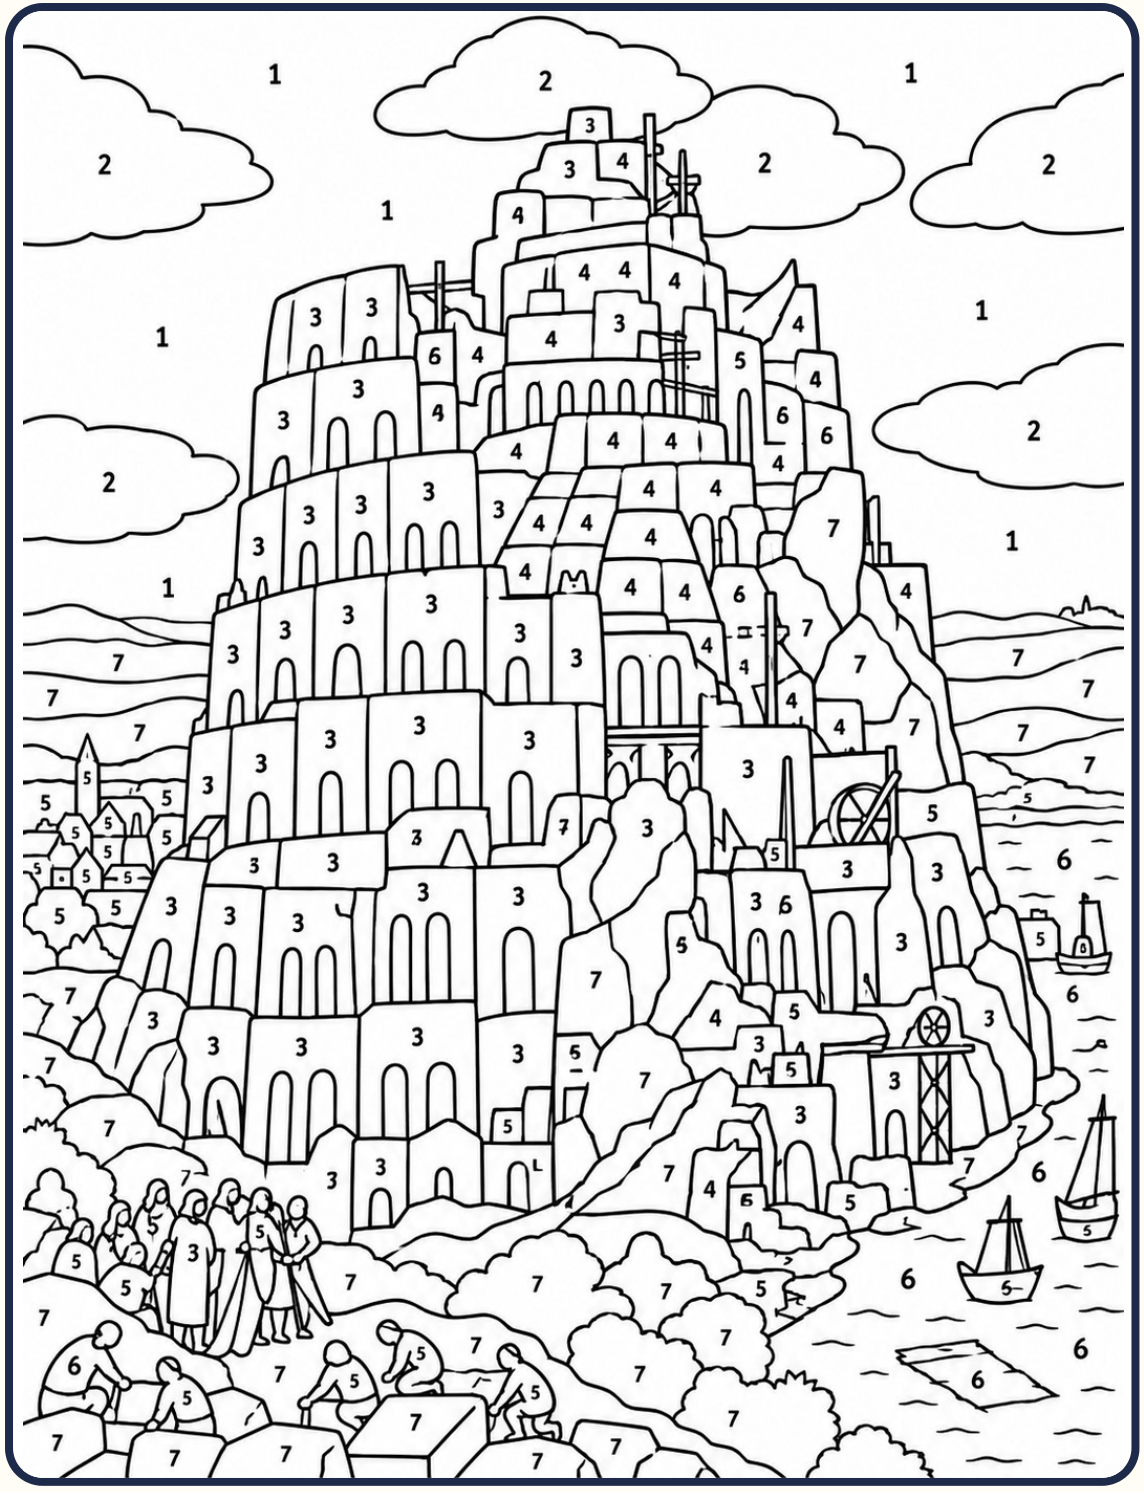
Who was Titian?
The greatest painter of Venice, who lived to be almost ninety.

Why is it famous?
The emperor, in shining armor, rides his horse like a knight.

Did you know?
Legend says the emperor once bent down to pick up Titian's paintbrush.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Armor	Sash	Horse	Harness	Trees



The Tower of Babel

Pieter Bruegel the Elder · 1563

Flemish Renaissance

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Pieter Bruegel the Elder

Who was Bruegel?

He hid hundreds of tiny details in his paintings for us to find.

Why is it famous?

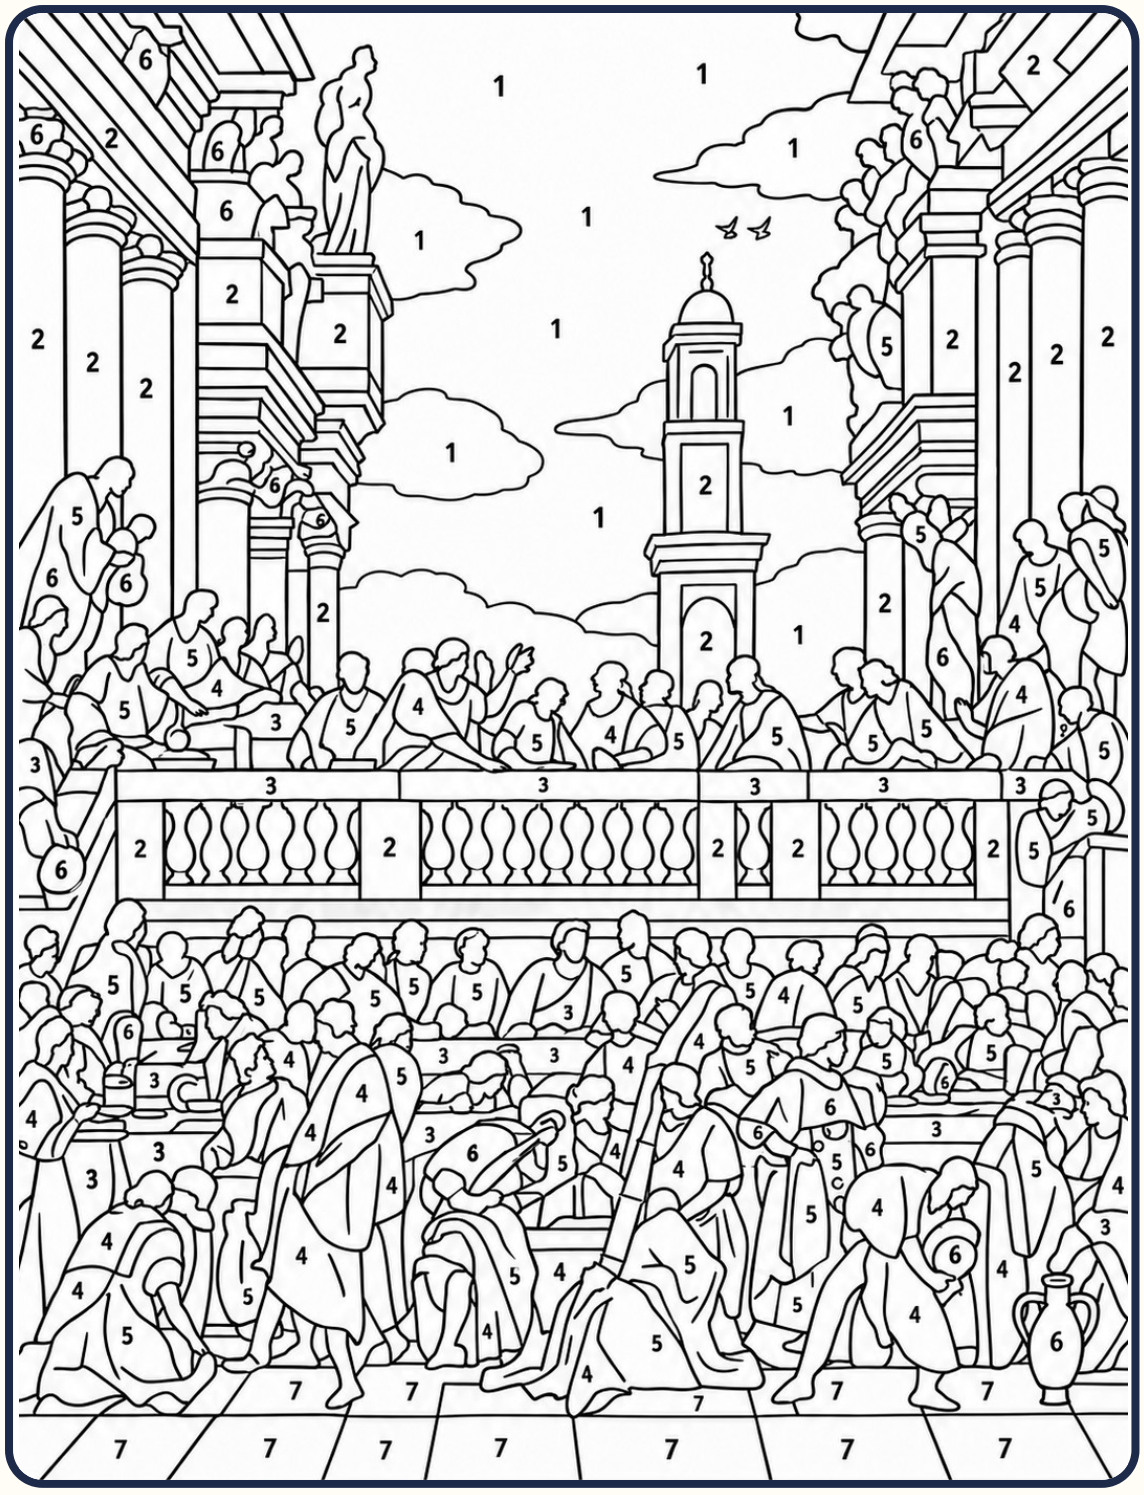
A giant tower rises up to the clouds, with workers everywhere.

Did you know?

With a magnifying glass, you can count cranes, ladders and even ships in the harbor.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Tower	Bricks	City	Sea	Countryside



15

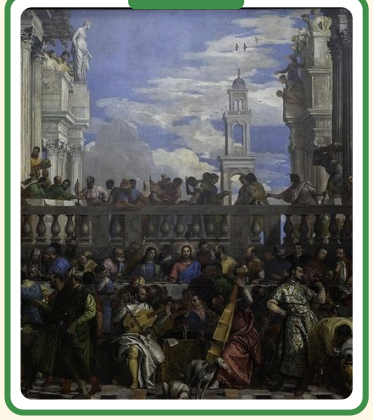
The Wedding at Cana

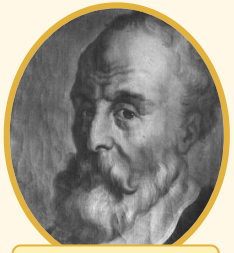
Paolo Veronese · 1563

Venetian Renaissance

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model





Paolo Veronese

Who was Veronese?

A painter from Venice who loved big parties full of people and colors.

Why is it famous?

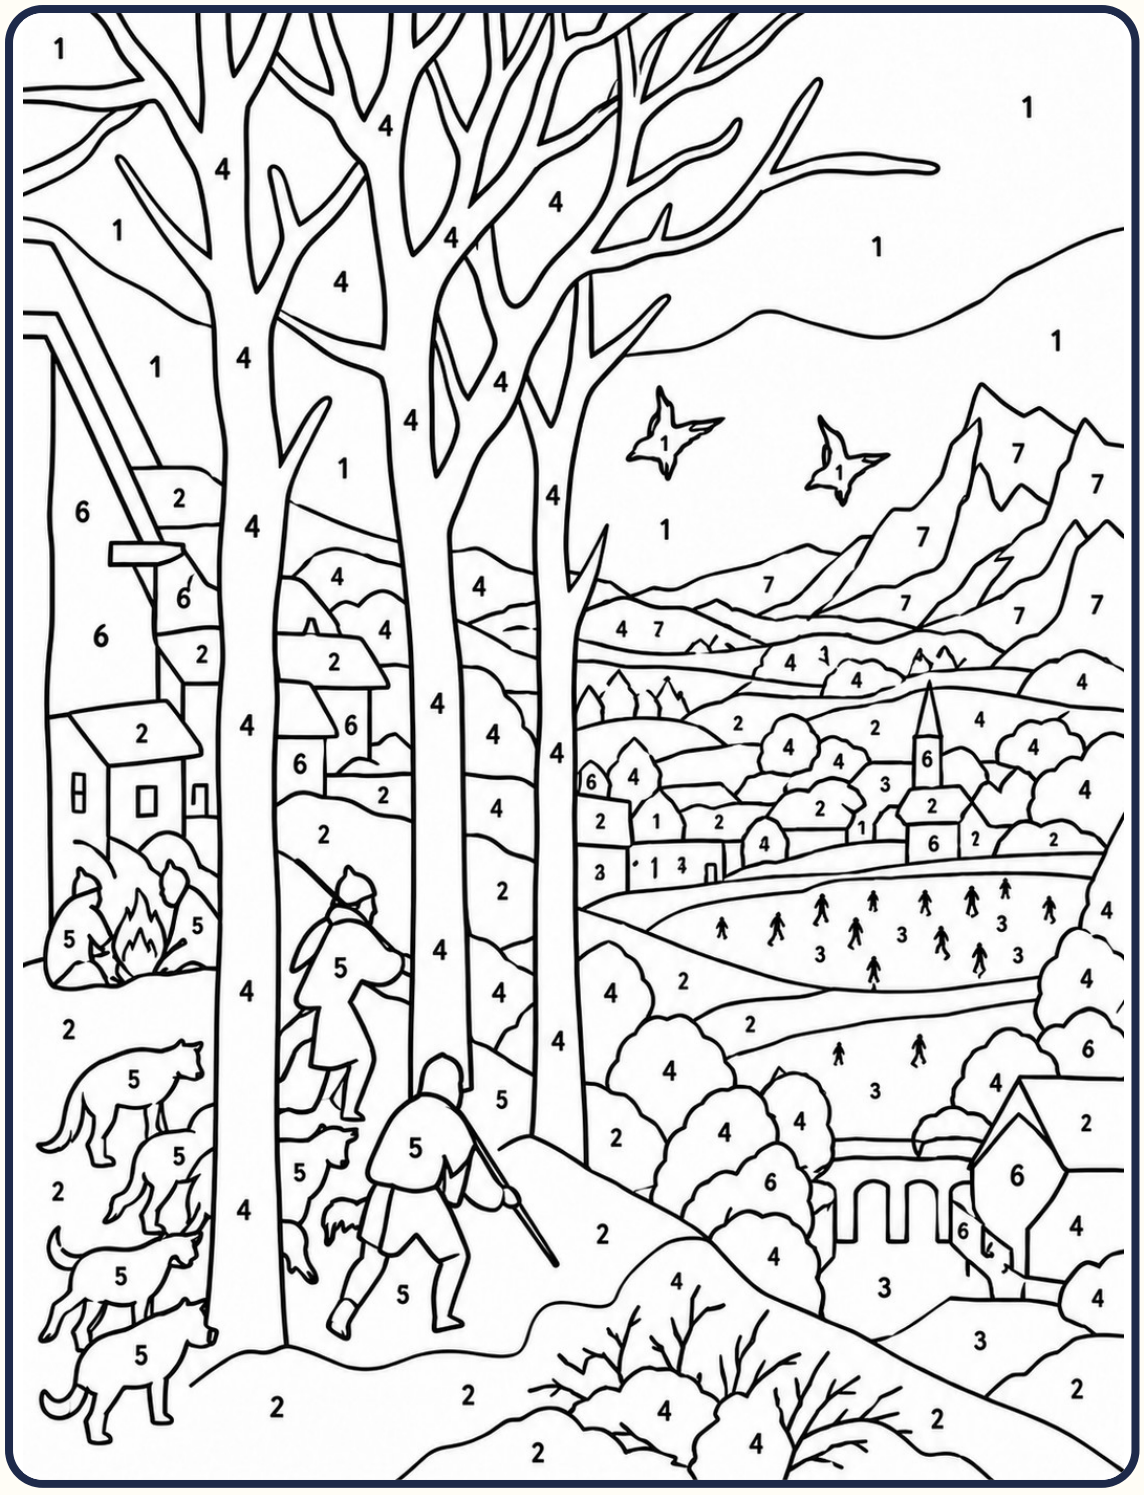
It's the biggest painting in the Louvre: almost 33 feet wide!

Did you know?

It hangs right across from the Mona Lisa, in the same room.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Columns	Tablecloth	Cloaks	Robes	Gold	Ground



16

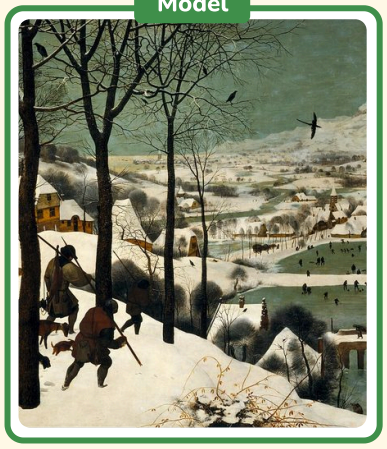
The Hunters in the Snow

Pieter Bruegel the Elder · 1565

Flemish Renaissance

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Pieter Bruegel the Elder

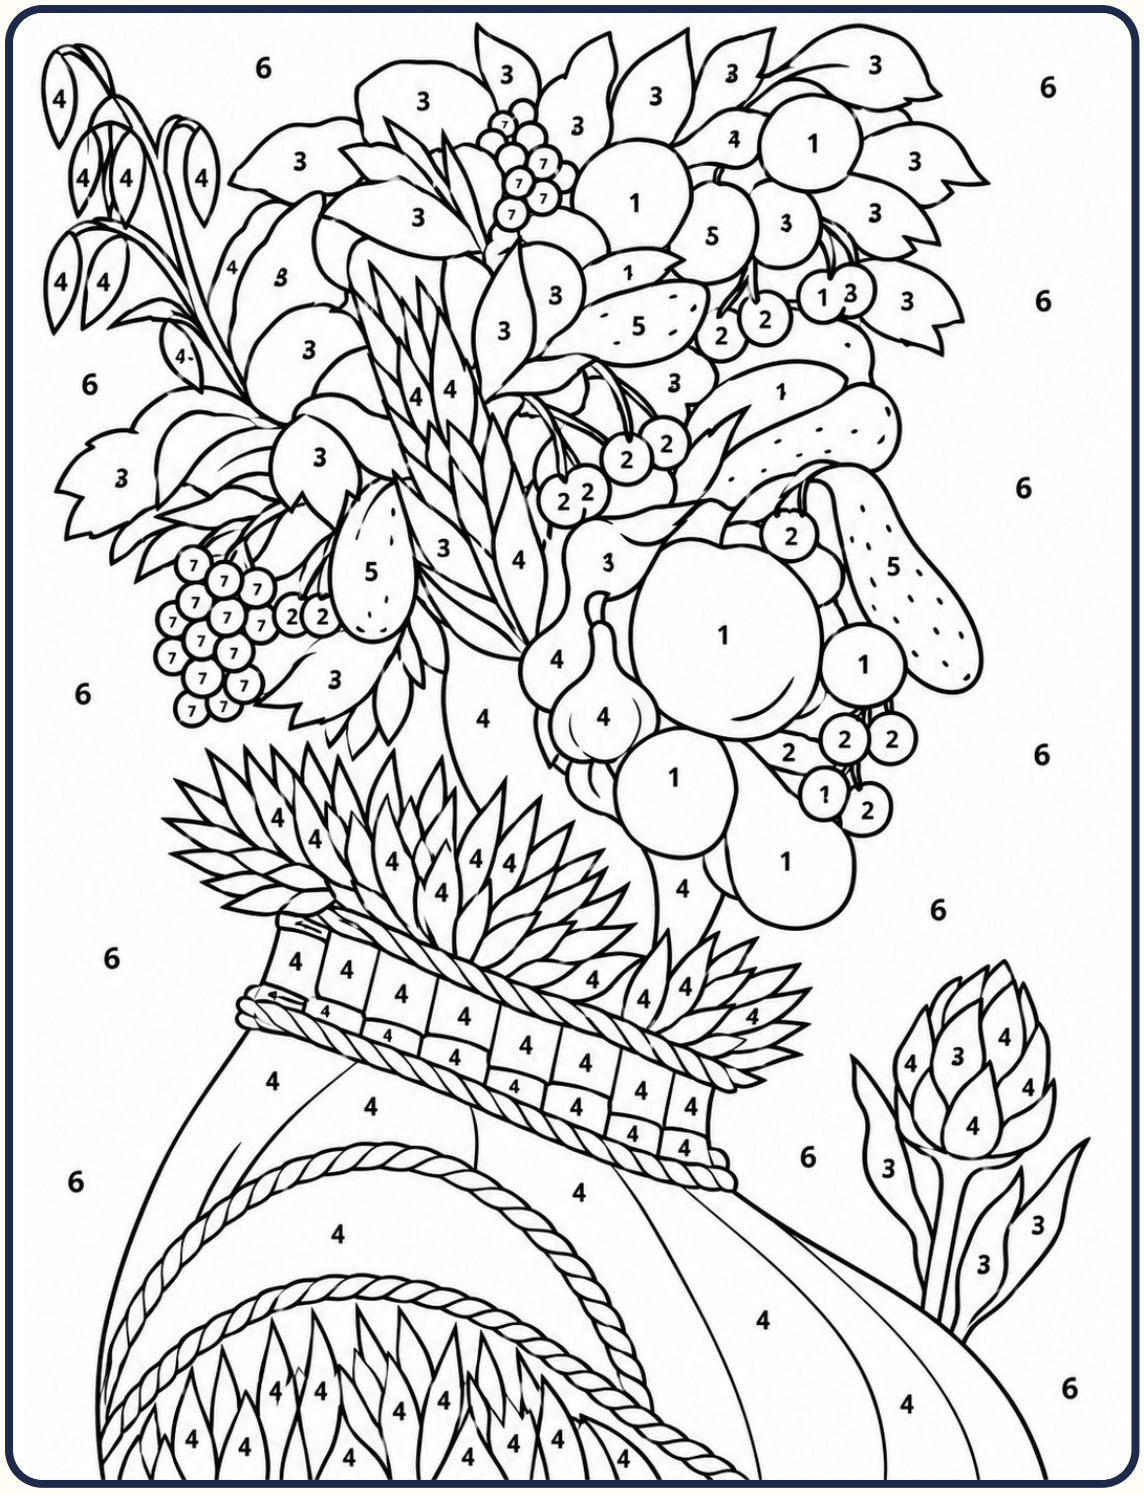
Who was Bruegel?
A Flemish painter who loved showing the everyday life of village people.

Why is it famous?
Down in the valley, dozens of people skate on the frozen ponds.

Did you know?
This painting is part of a series about the seasons. Here, it's deep winter.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Snow	Ice	Trees	Hunters	Houses	Mountains



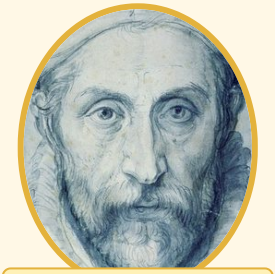
Summer

Giuseppe Arcimboldo · 1573

Mannerism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Giuseppe Arcimboldo

Who was Arcimboldo?

An Italian painter who made faces out of fruit, vegetables and flowers.

Why is it famous?

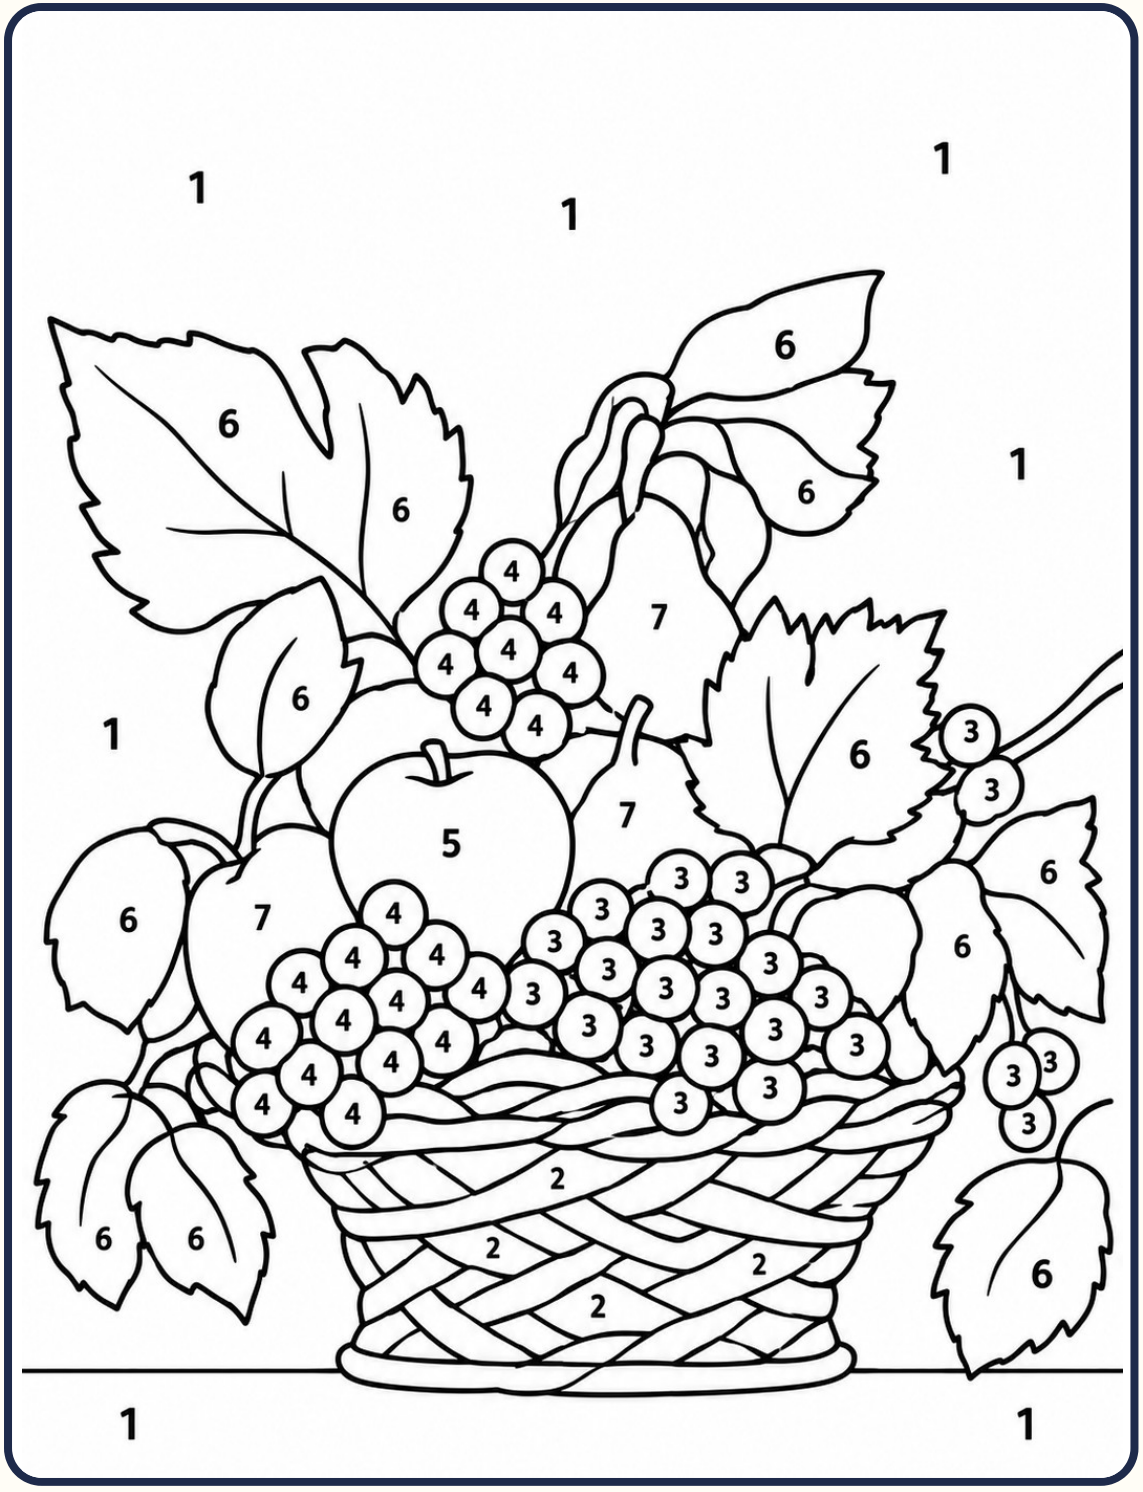
The nose is a cucumber, the cheek a peach and the ear an ear of corn!

Did you know?

He painted all four seasons, each with the fruit and vegetables of its season.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Peach	Cherries	Leaves	Wheat	Cucumber	Background	Peas



18

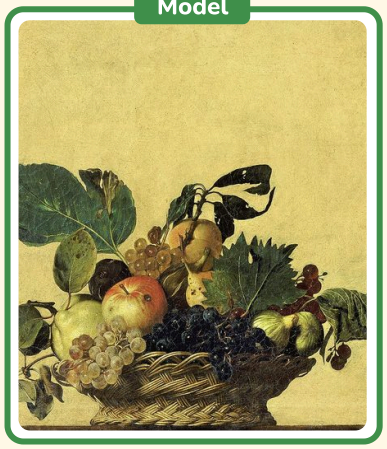
Basket of Fruit

Caravaggio · c. 1599

Baroque

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Caravaggio

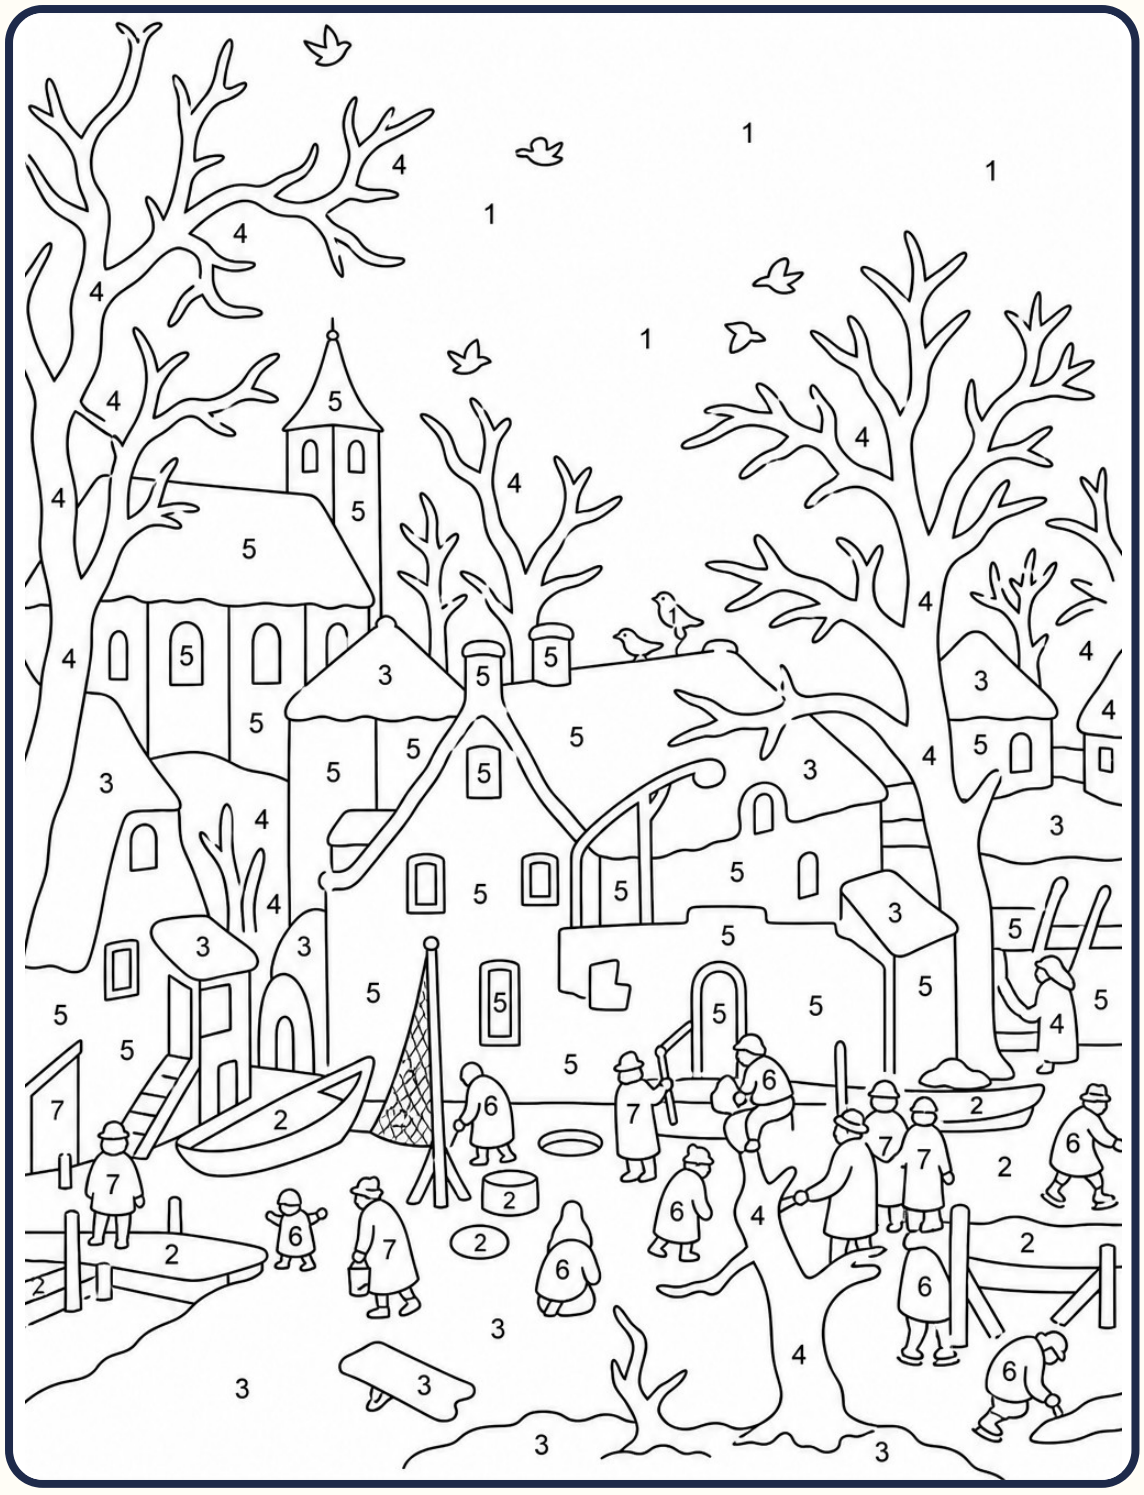
Who was Caravaggio?
An Italian painter famous for very strong light and shadow.

Why is it famous?
The fruit looks so real you want to reach out and grab it.

Did you know?
Look closely: a worm made holes in a leaf, and the apple has a little spot.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Background	Basket	Dark grapes	Green grapes	Apple	Leaves	Pear



19

Winter Landscape with Ice Skaters

Hendrick Avercamp · c. 1608

Dutch Golden Age

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Hendrick Avercamp

Who was Avercamp?

A Dutch painter who could not speak, but watched everything.

Why is it famous?

Dozens of people have fun on the ice: skaters, sleds, players...

Did you know?

Back then, winters were so cold that the canals froze for months.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Ice	Snow	Trees	Houses	Clothes	Coats

20

The Milkmaid

Johannes Vermeer · c. 1658

Dutch Golden Age

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Johannes Vermeer

Who was Vermeer?
He painted very few pictures: we only know of about thirty-five.

Why is it famous?
She pours the milk so gently you can almost hear it.

Did you know?
Look at the wall: Vermeer even painted the tiny nails and holes.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Wall	Cap	Yellow jacket	Blue apron	Red skirt	Bread	Jug

21

The Courtyard of a House in Delft

Pieter de Hooch · 1658

Dutch Golden Age

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Pieter de Hooch

Who was de Hooch?

A Dutch painter who showed courtyards and houses full of light.

Why is it famous?

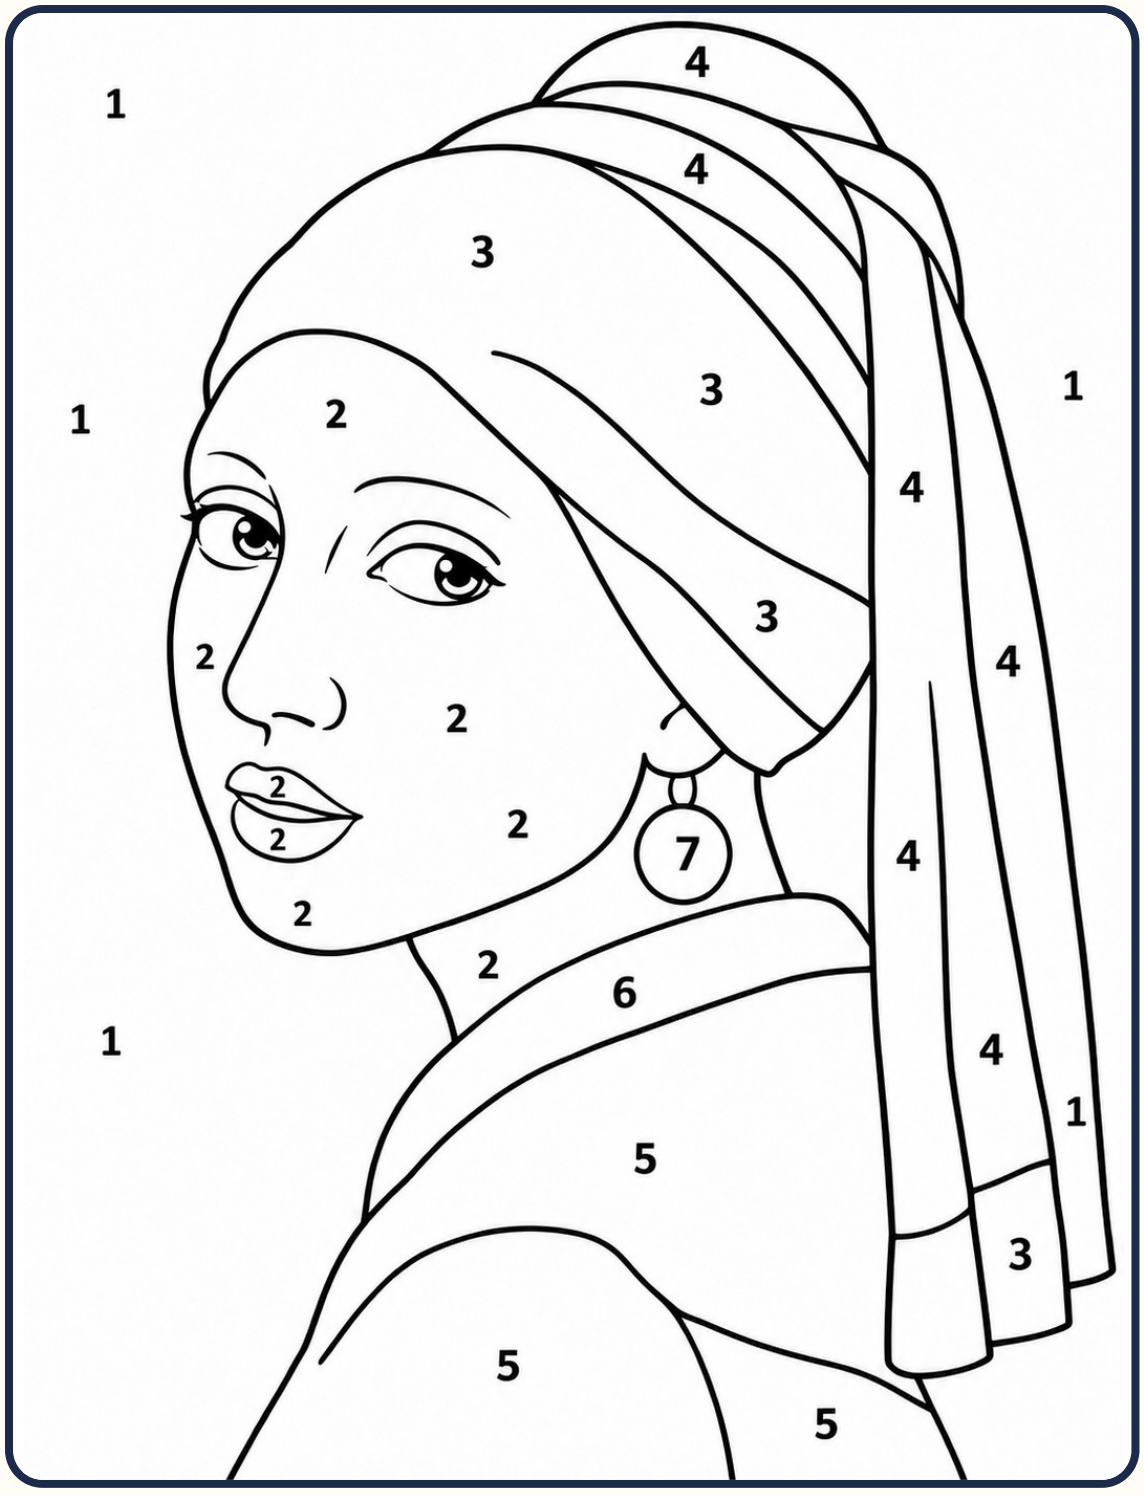
We look down a hallway all the way to a sunny street at the back.

Did you know?

He lived in Delft, the same town as Vermeer, at the same time.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Bricks	Paving	Sky	Doors	Dresses	Apron	Vine



22

Girl with a Pearl Earring

Johannes Vermeer · c. 1665

Dutch Golden Age

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Johannes Vermeer

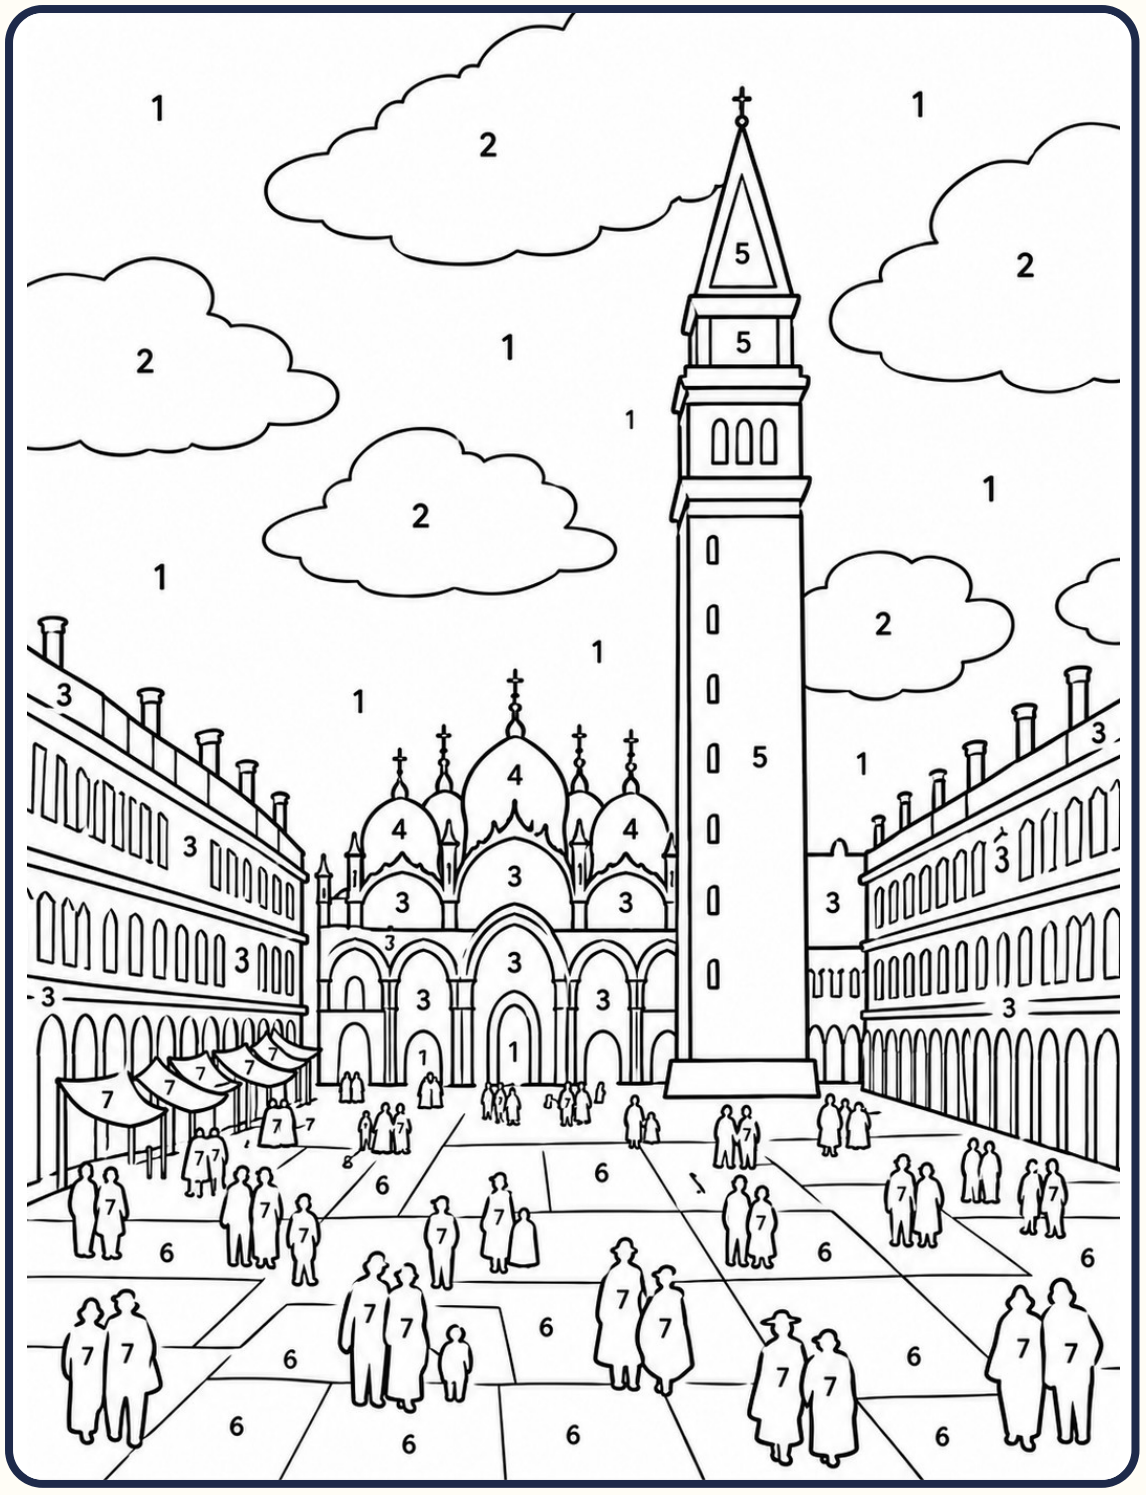
Who was Vermeer?
A Dutch painter who painted the soft light coming in through windows.

Why is it famous?
She looks at us over her shoulder, as if someone just called her name.

Did you know?
Nobody knows who this girl was: it's still a mystery!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Background	Skin	Blue turban	Yellow turban	Jacket	Collar	Pearl



23

Piazza San Marco

Canaletto · c. 1730

Vedutism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Canaletto

Who was Canaletto?
A painter from Venice who painted his city as sharp as a photo.

Why is it famous?
We see the big square of Venice, its golden basilica and tall bell tower.

Did you know?
To be very exact, he used a special box that projected the view: a camera obscura.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Basilica	Domes	Bell tower	Paving	People

24

The Return of the Bucentaur

Canaletto · c. 1730

Vedutism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Canaletto

Who was Canaletto?

His paintings were the favorite souvenirs of travelers visiting Venice.

Why is it famous?

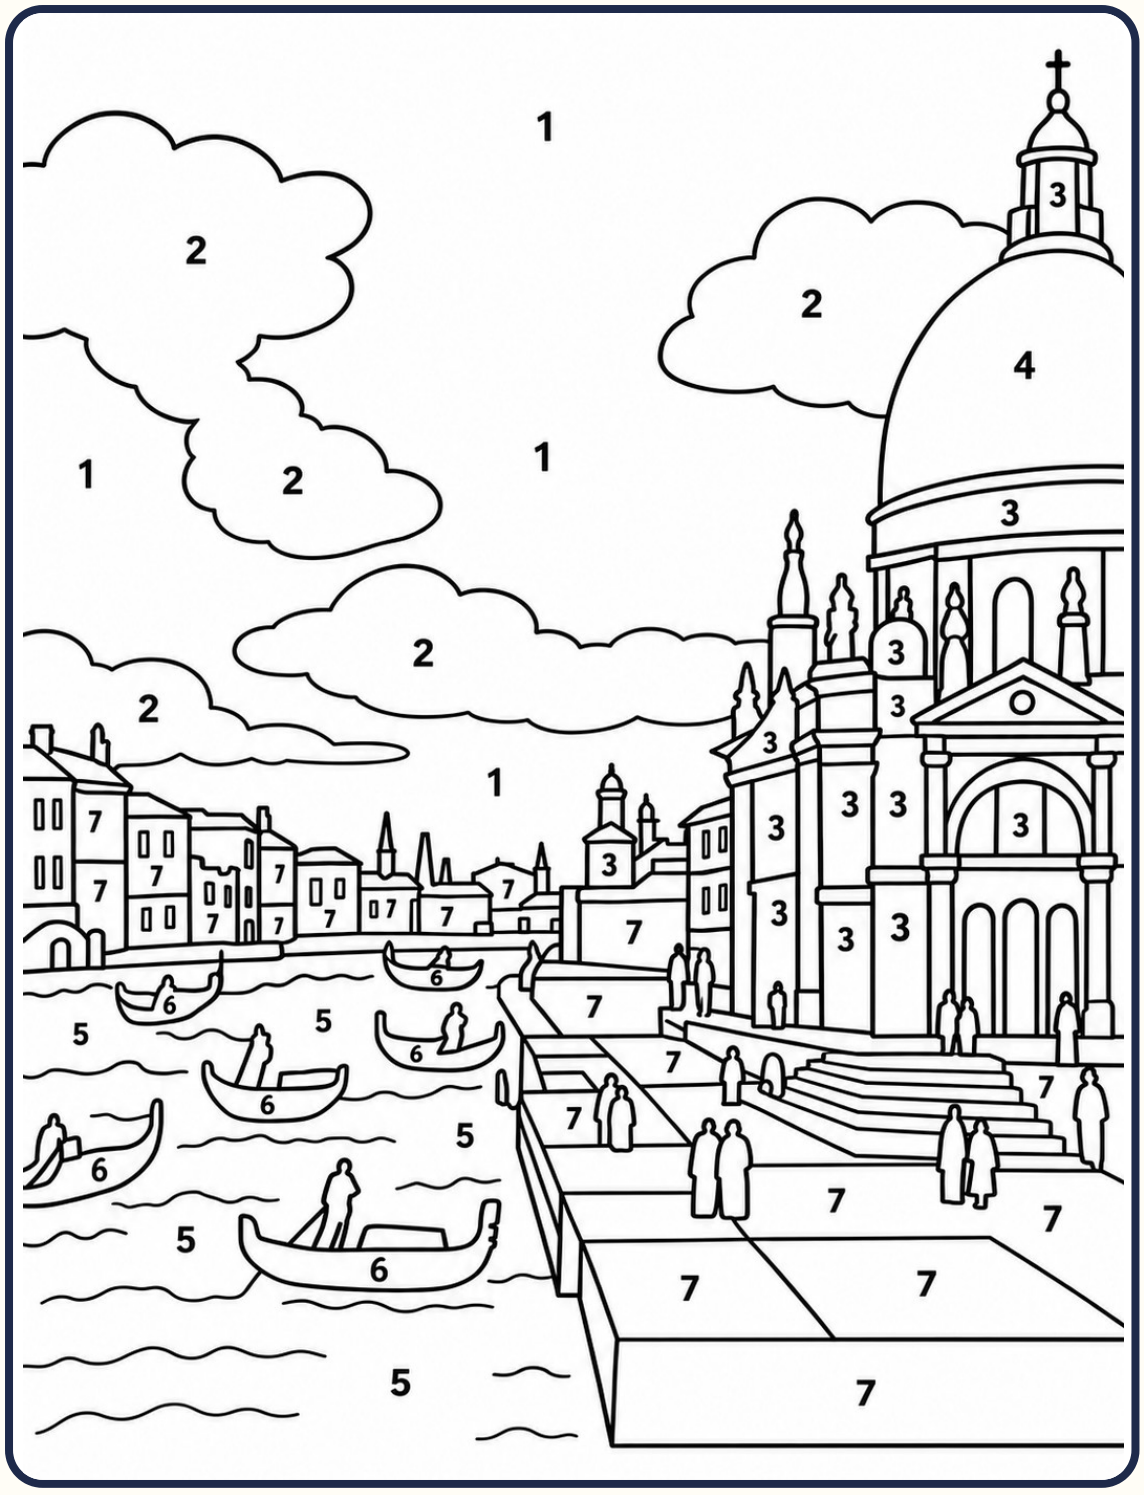
The golden boat of Venice's ruler crosses the water in the middle of a party.

Did you know?

Every year, the ruler of Venice threw a ring into the sea to "marry" it!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Water	Bucentaur	Gondolas	Palace	Roofs	Flags



25

The Grand Canal and the Salute

Canaletto · c. 1730

Vedutism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Canaletto

Who was Canaletto?

He sketched outdoors, then finished his paintings in his studio.

Why is it famous?

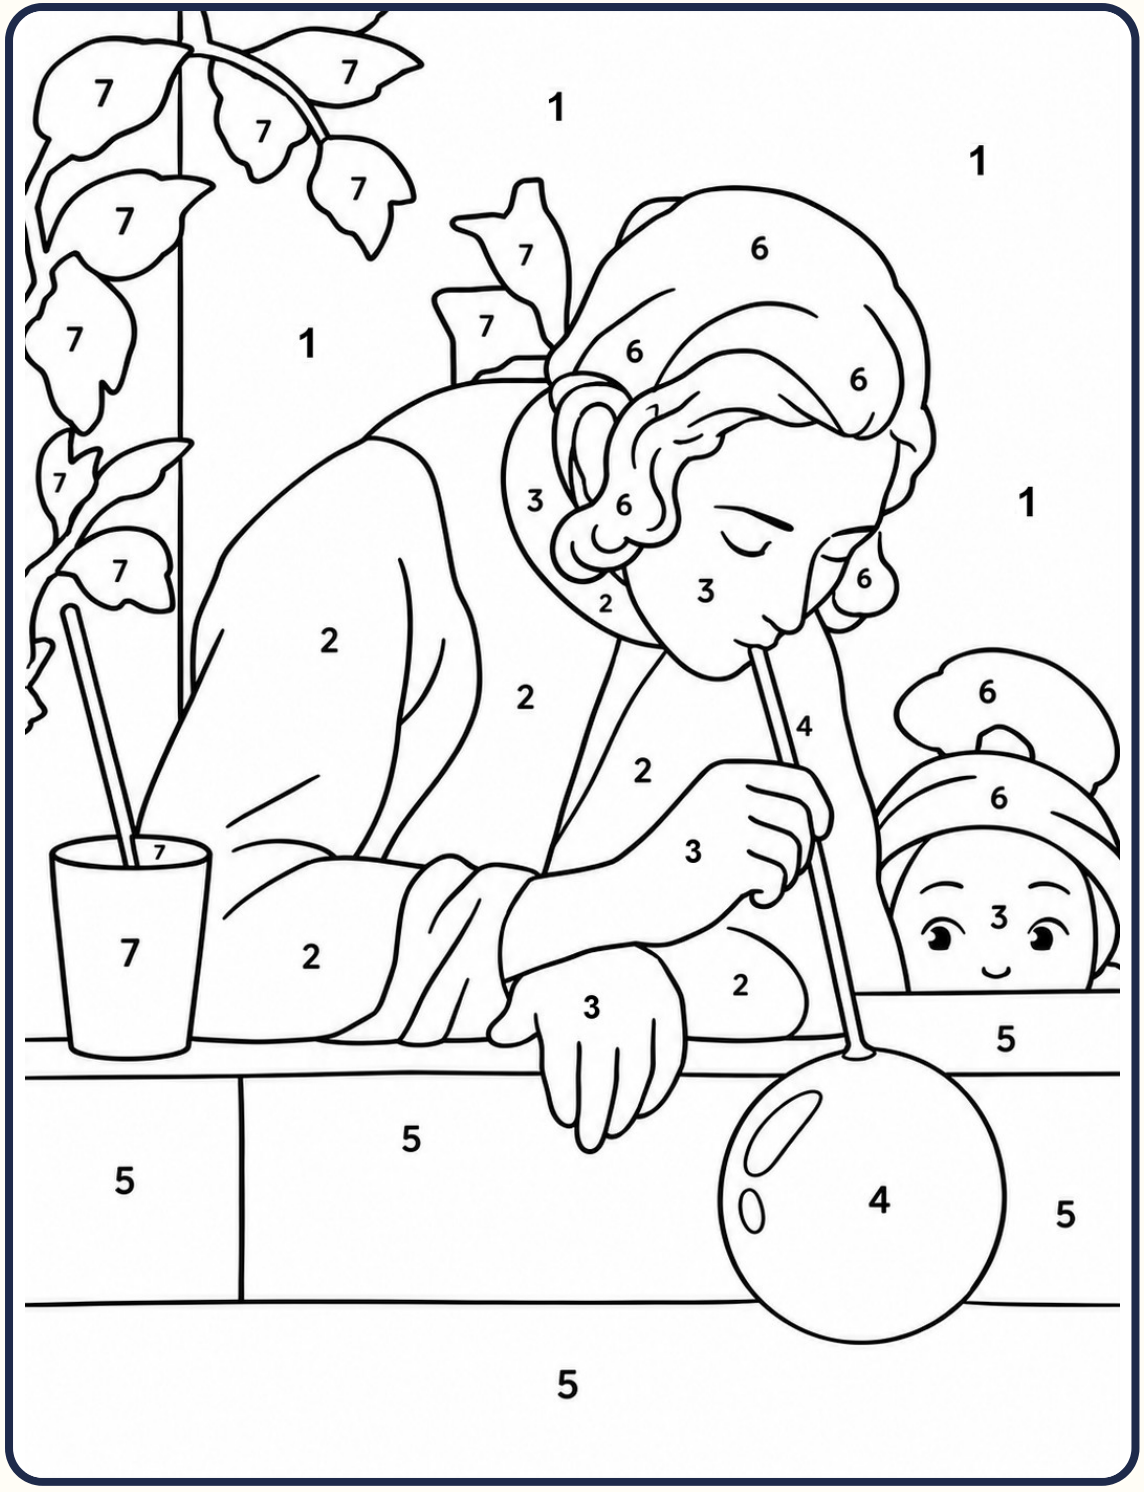
A big round white church is reflected in the canal's water.

Did you know?

This church was built to give thanks for the end of a terrible sickness in Venice.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Church	Dome	Water	Gondolas	Houses & quay



26

Soap Bubbles

Jean-Siméon Chardin · c. 1734

Genre painting

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Jean-Siméon Chardin

Who was Chardin?
A French painter who loved quiet scenes at home and everyday objects.

Why is it famous?
A boy blows a giant soap bubble while a little child watches it grow.

Did you know?
Chardin painted this game several times. Kids loved it 300 years ago too!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Background	Jacket	Skin	Bubble	Wall	Hair	Glass & leaves

27

The House of Cards

Jean-Siméon Chardin · c. 1737

Genre painting

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Jean-Siméon Chardin

Who was Chardin?

He painted slowly, with lots of patience, like the children he painted.

Why is it famous?

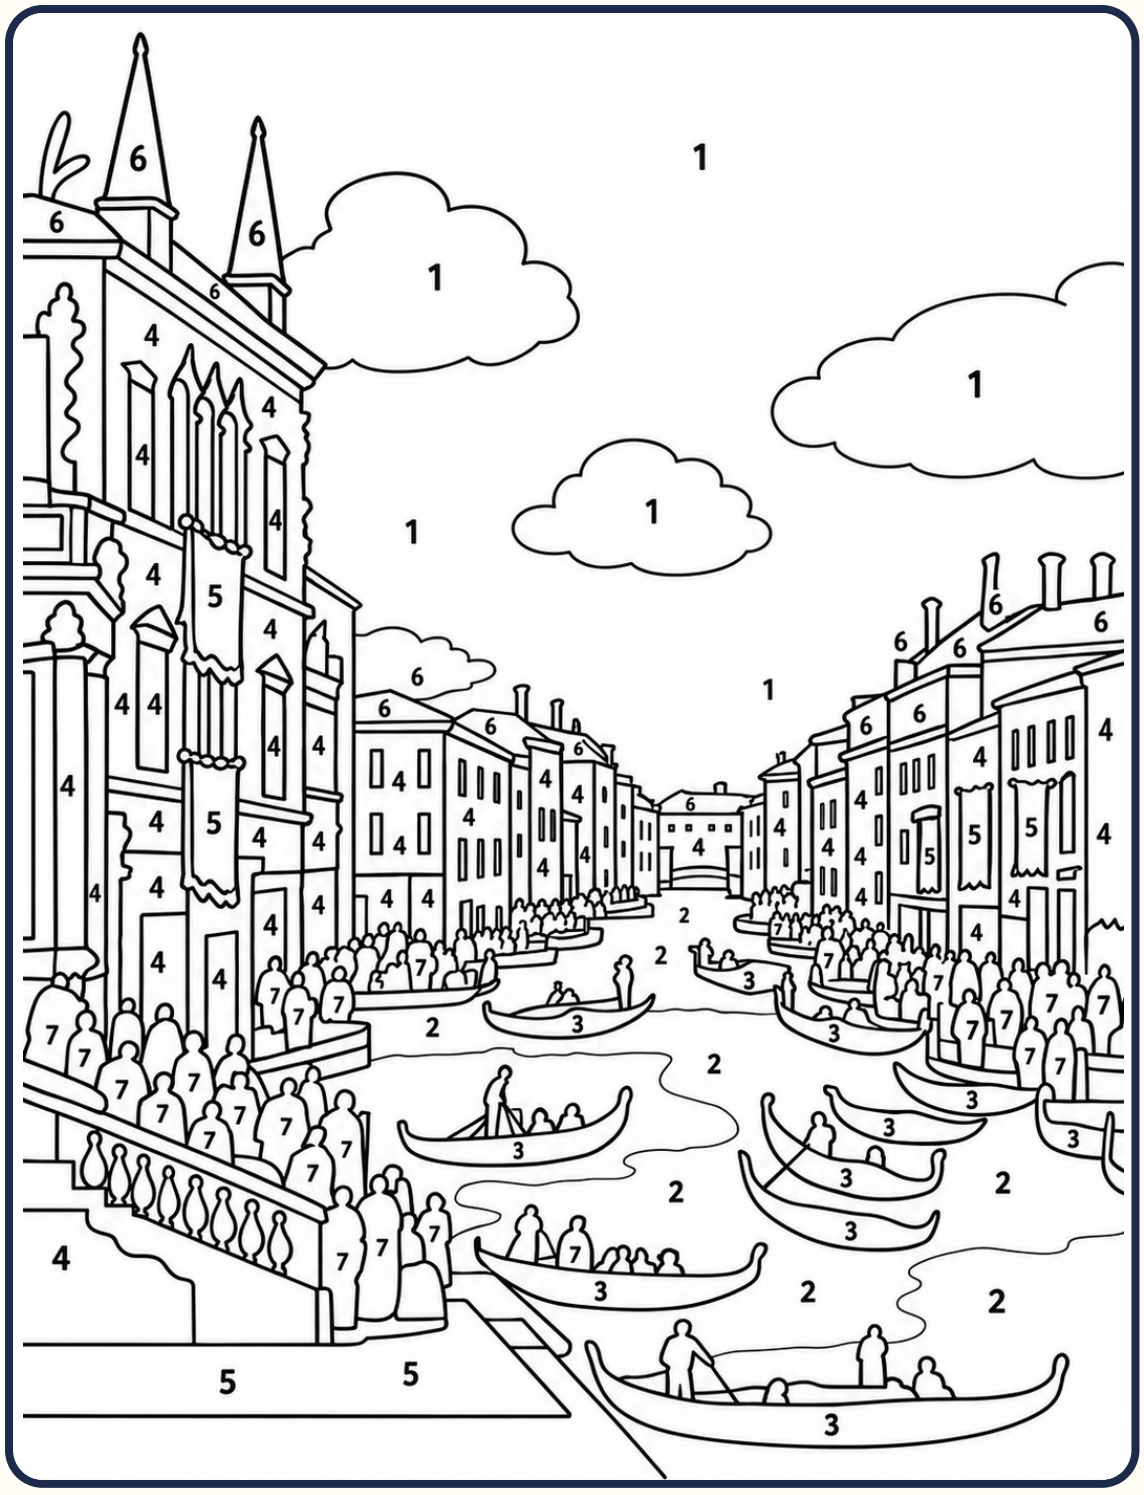
A boy builds a house of cards, holding his breath.

Did you know?

The half-open drawer and the card sticking out are there to build suspense.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Background	Table	Jacket	Cards	Face	Hair	Drawer



28

A Regatta on the Grand Canal

Canaletto · c. 1740

Vedutism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Canaletto

Who was Canaletto?

His real name was Giovanni Antonio Canal. "Canaletto" means "little Canal."

Why is it famous?

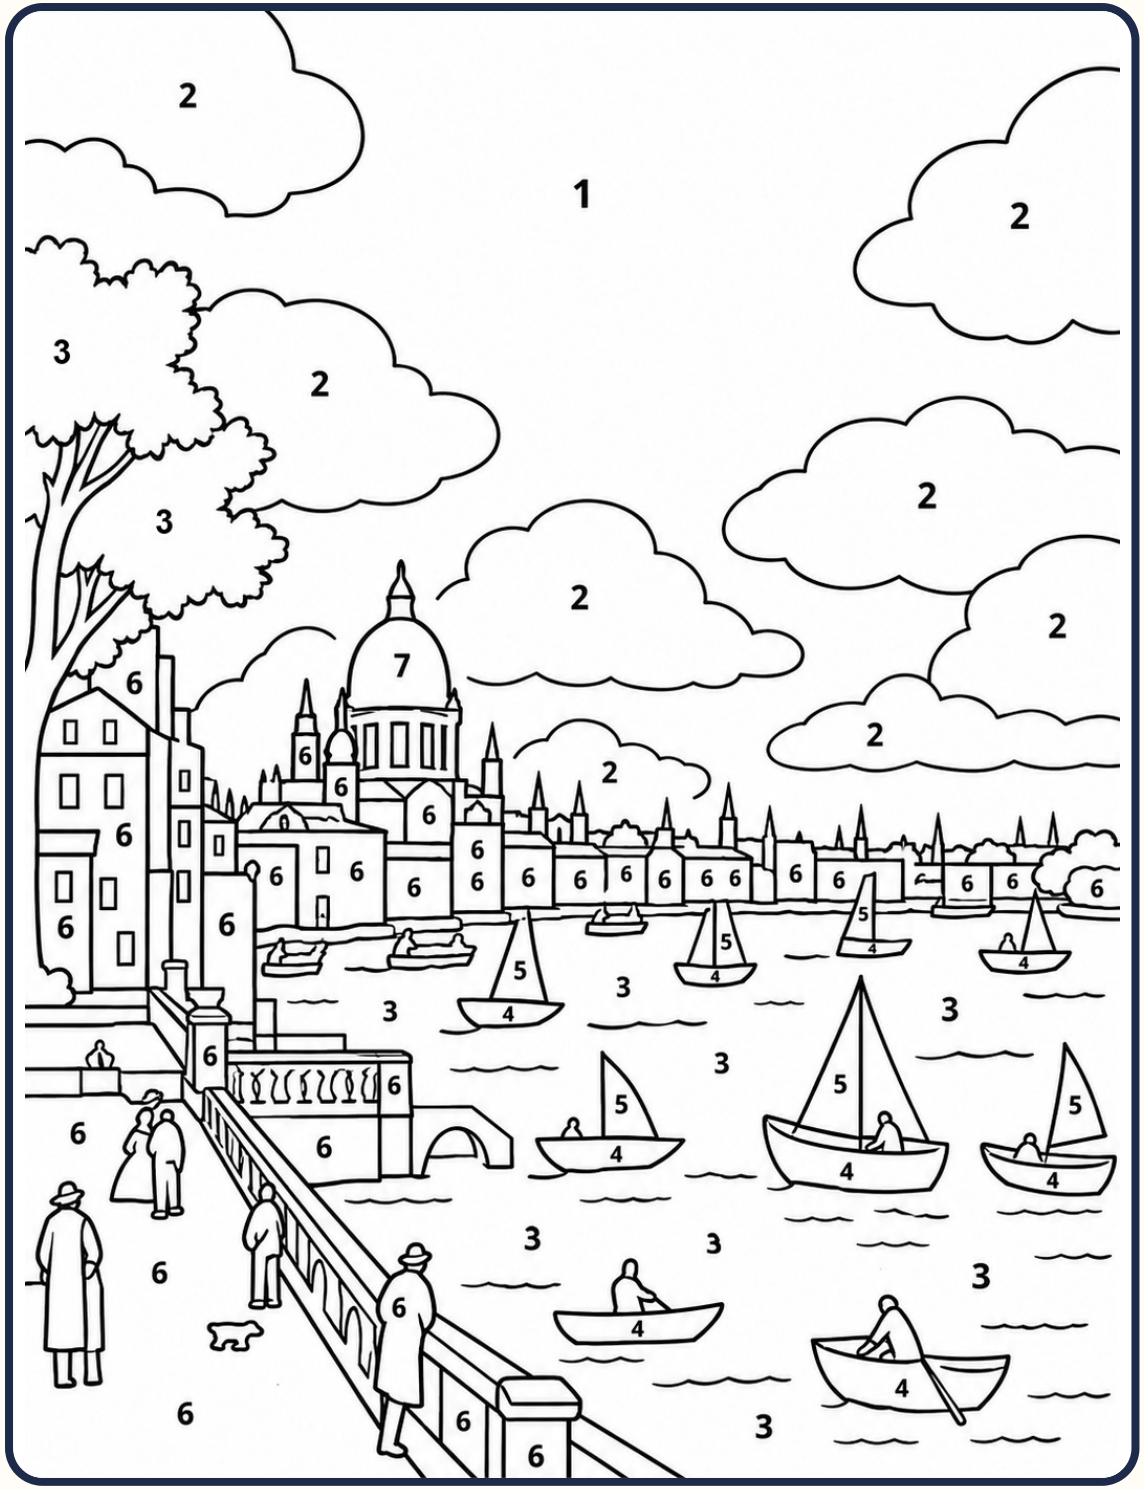
The whole city leans out the windows to watch the gondola race.

Did you know?

Venice's Historical Regatta still happens today, every September.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Water	Gondolas	Facades	Rugs	Roofs	Crowd



29

The Thames in London

Canaletto · c. 1750

Vedutism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Canaletto

Who was Canaletto?

He left Venice for nine years to go paint London, in England.

Why is it famous?

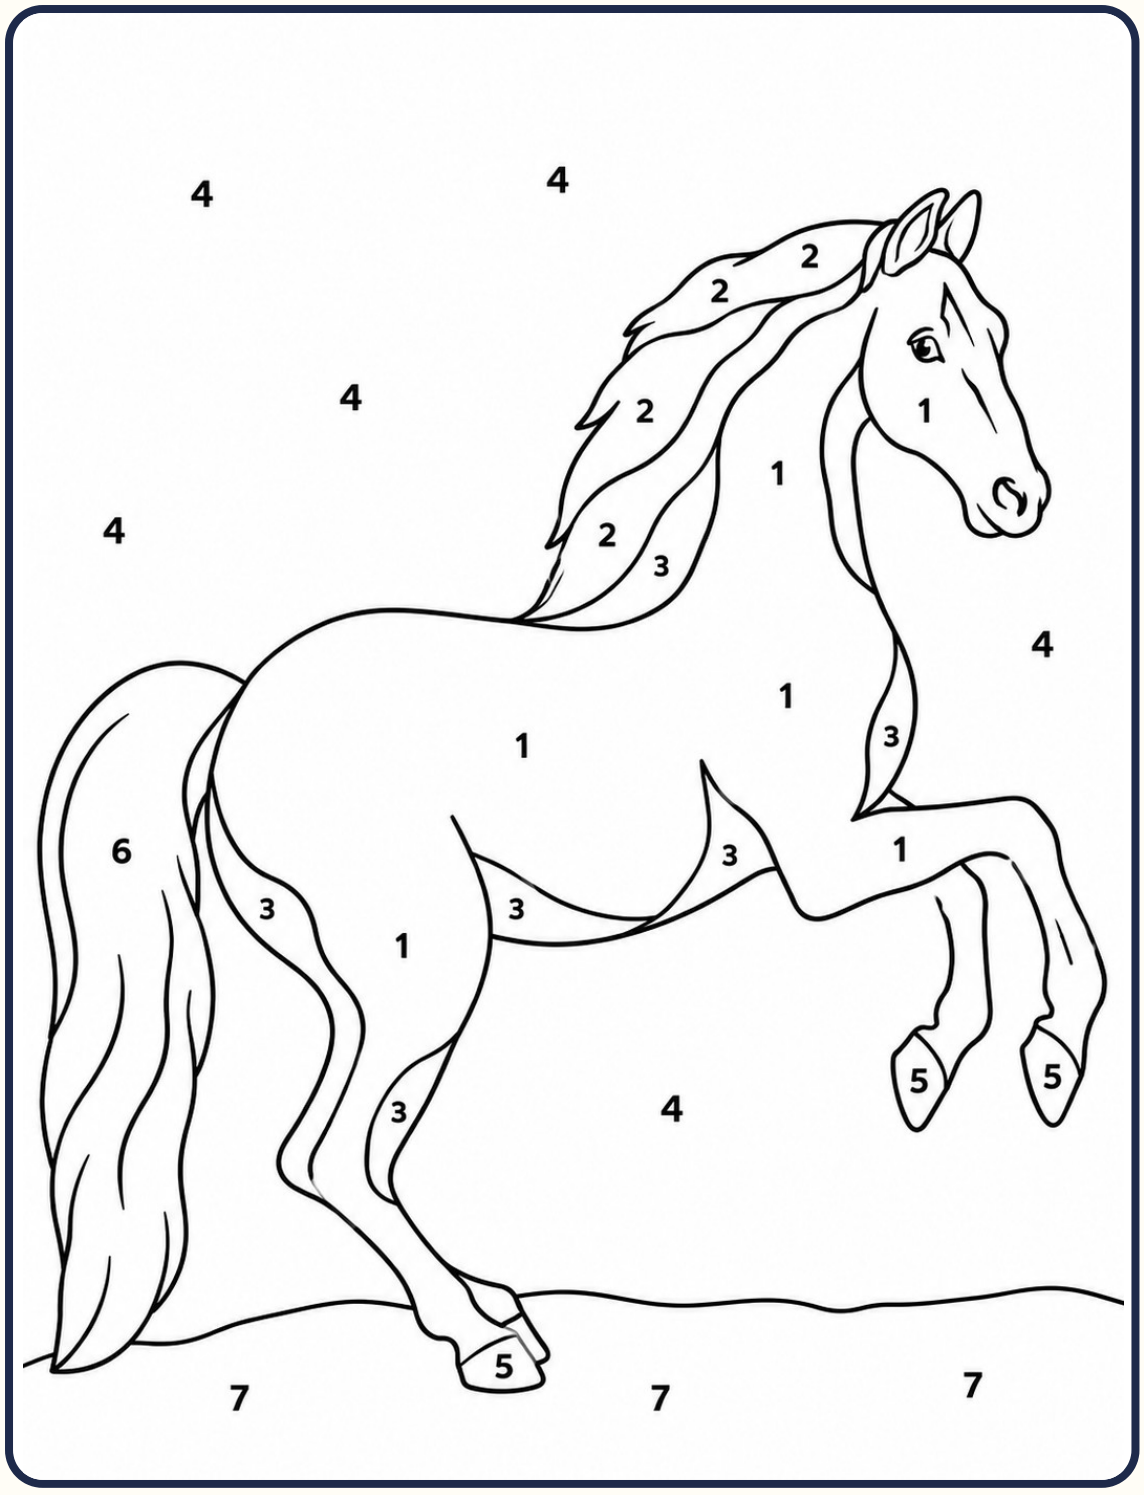
We see London almost three hundred years ago, with its boats and church towers.

Did you know?

The big dome far away is St. Paul's Cathedral, which is still there.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	River & tree	Boats	Sails	Buildings	Dome



30

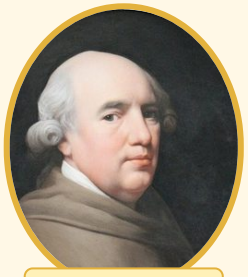
Whistlejacket

George Stubbs · c. 1762

Animal painting

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



George Stubbs

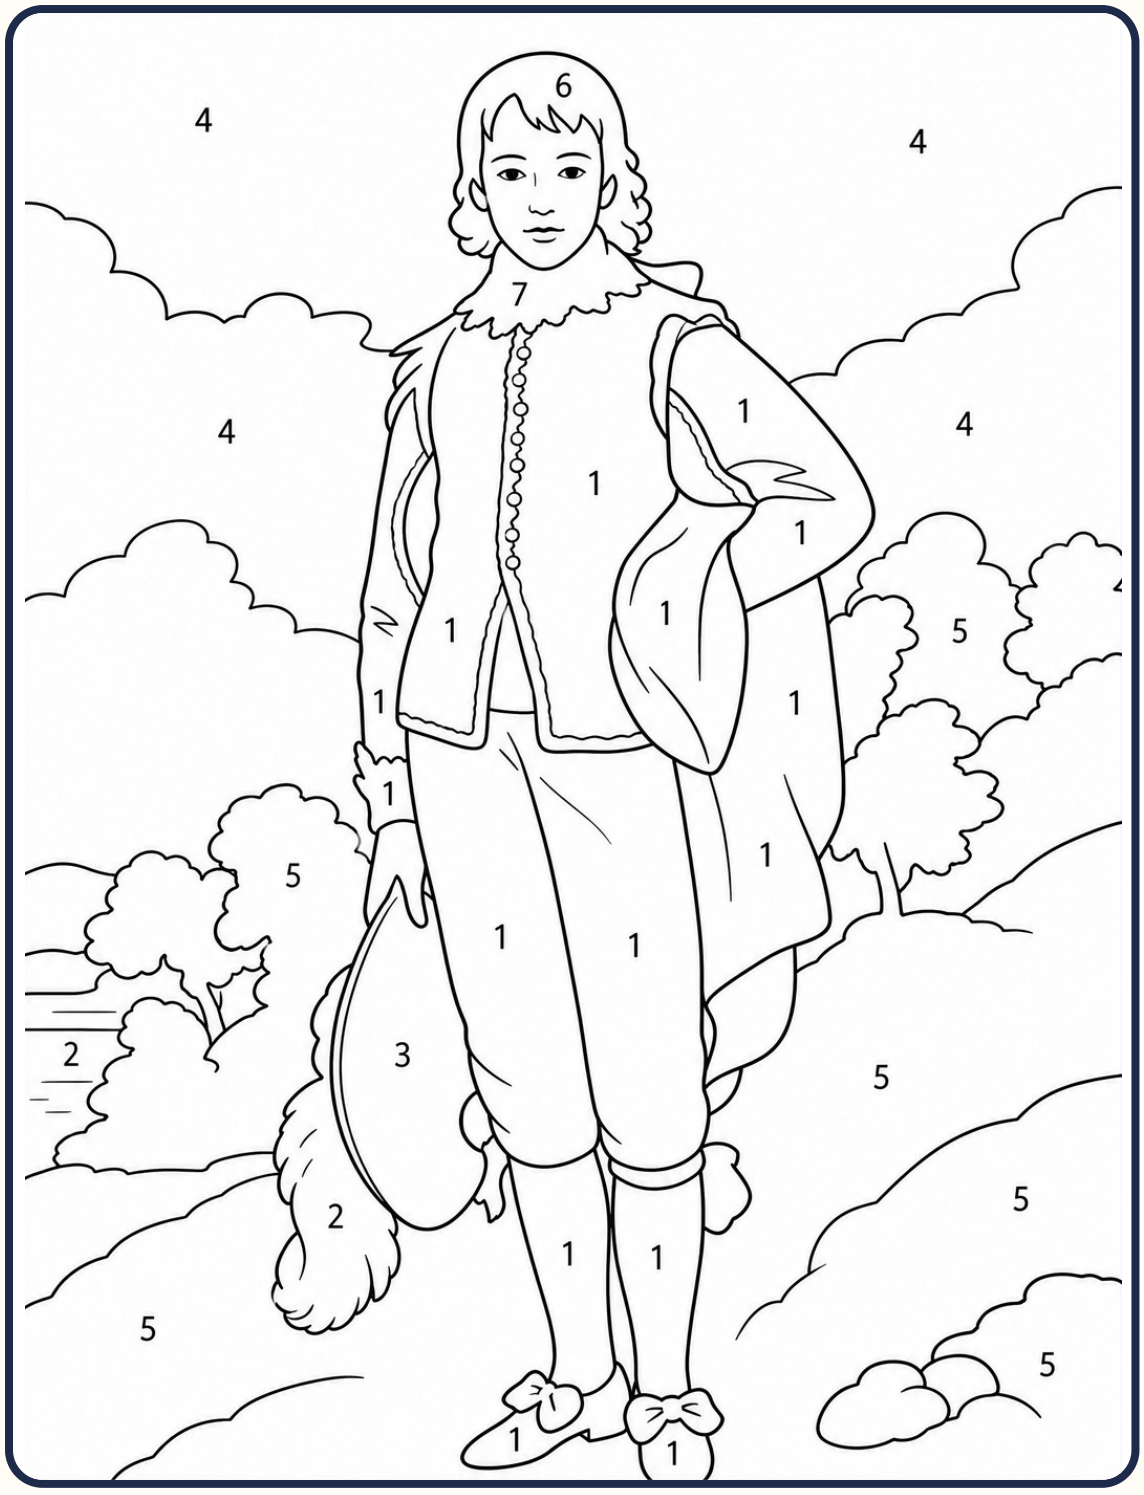
Who was Stubbs?
An English painter who knew horses better than anyone.

Why is it famous?
A racehorse rears up, life-size, against a very plain background.

Did you know?
Stubbs studied horse muscles for eighteen months to draw them just right.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Horse	Mane	Shadows	Background	Hooves	Tail	Ground



31

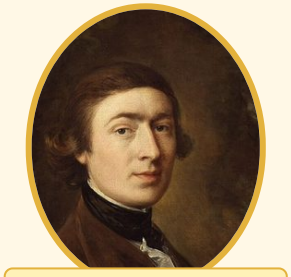
The Blue Boy

Thomas Gainsborough · c. 1770

English Rococo

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Thomas Gainsborough

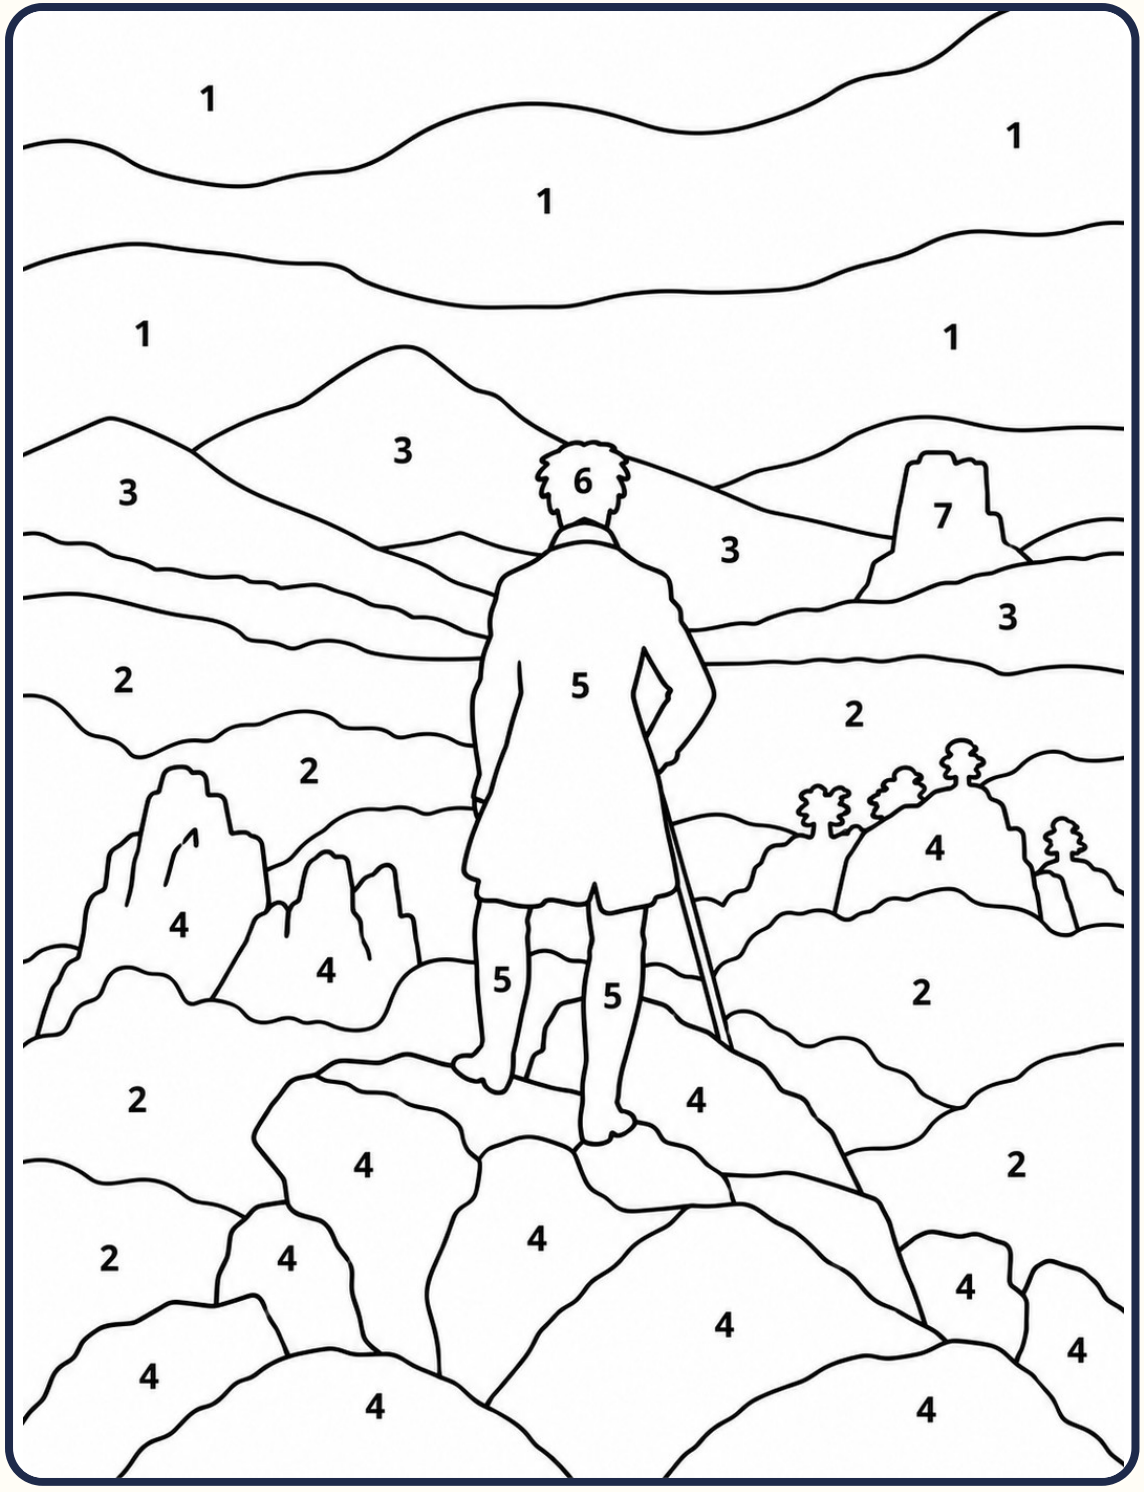
Who was Gainsborough?
An English painter who liked landscapes best, but was famous for his portraits.

Why is it famous?
The boy wears a blue satin suit that shines in the light.

Did you know?
It was sold for a lot of money to an American and crossed the ocean in 1922.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Suit	Shine	Hat	Sky	Landscape	Hair	Collar



32

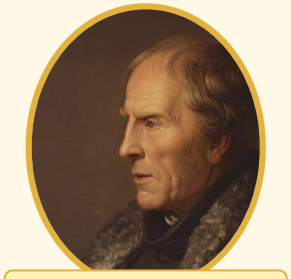
Wanderer above the Sea of Fog

Caspar David Friedrich · c. 1818

Romanticism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Caspar David Friedrich

Who was Friedrich?

A German painter who showed nature as a place of dreams and mystery.

Why is it famous?

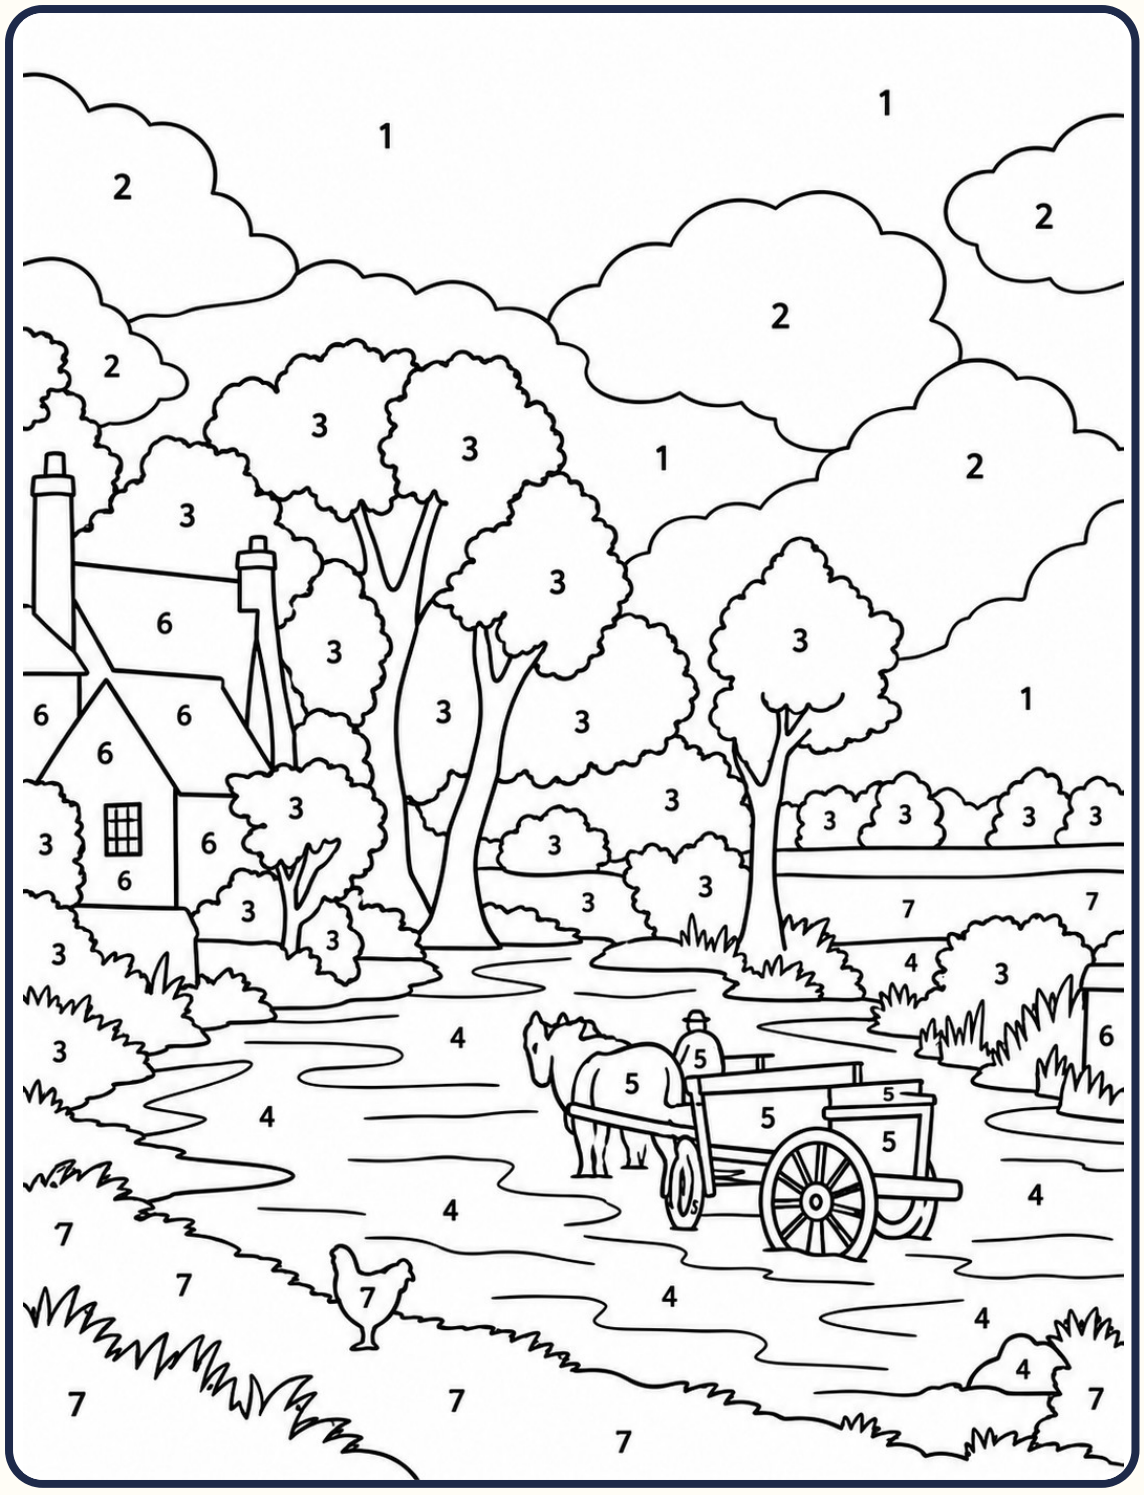
A traveler with his back to us looks at the fog, and we look with him.

Did you know?

The traveler faces the view, so we will never see his face.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Fog	Mountains	Rocks	Coat	Hair	Peaks



33

The Hay Wain

John Constable · 1821

Romanticism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

John Constable

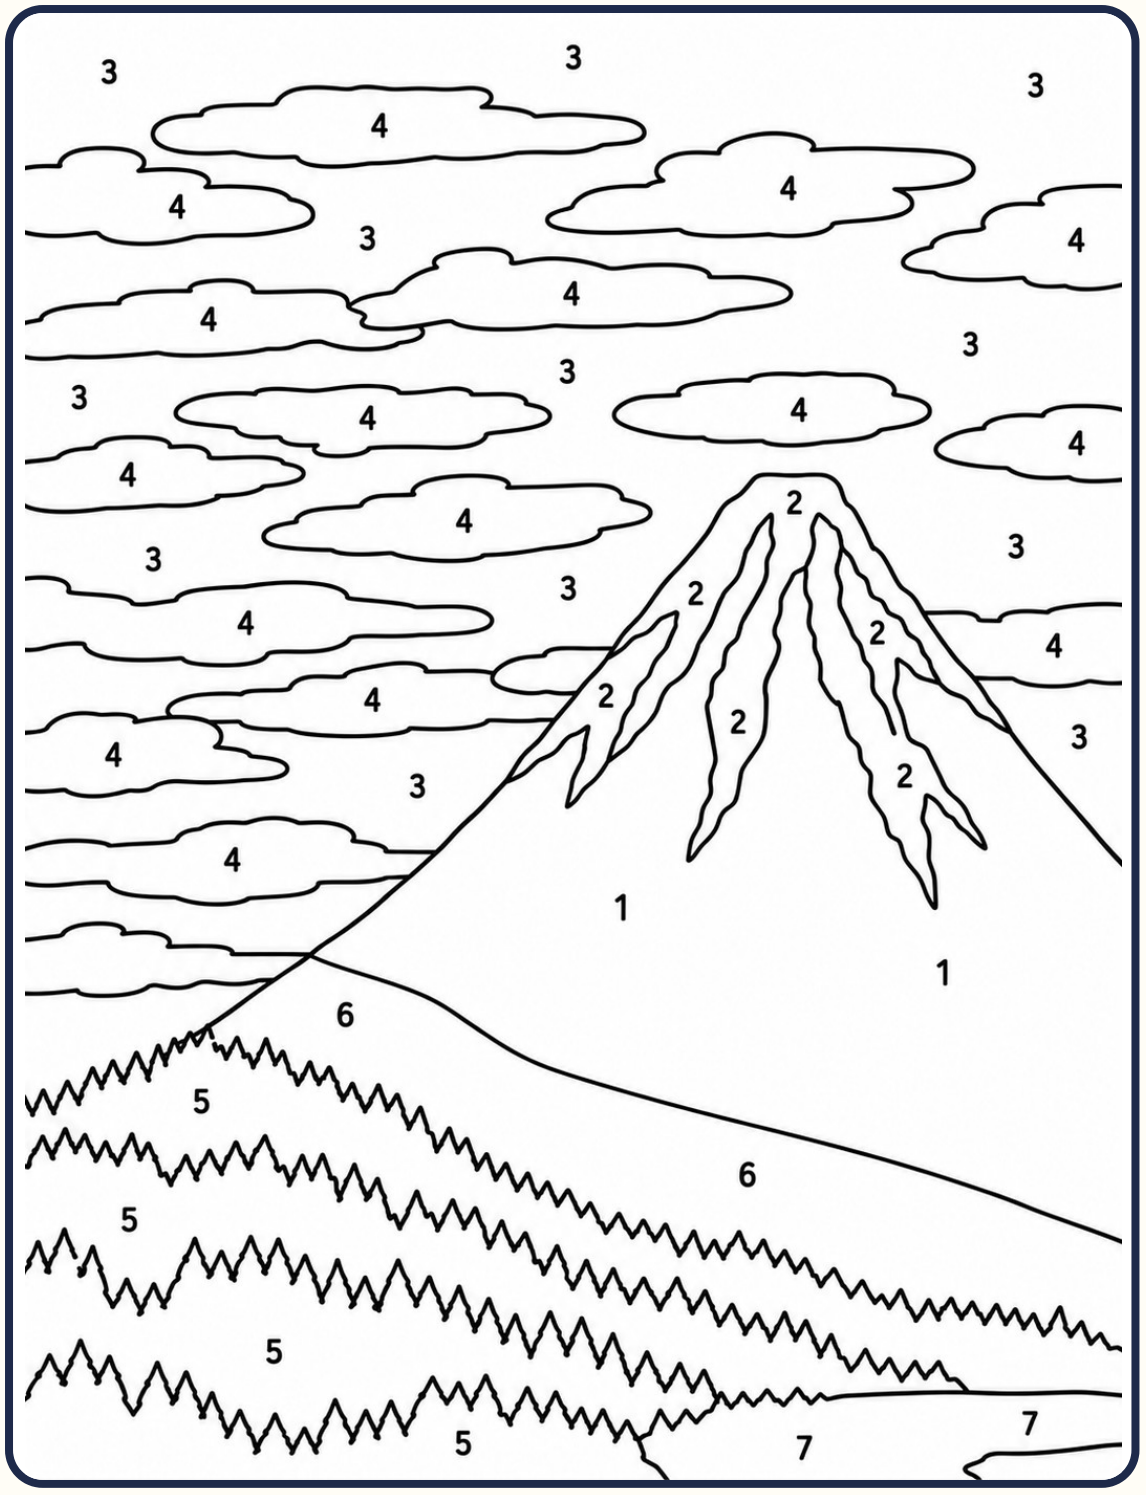
Who was Constable?
An English painter who loved painting clouds and the countryside where he grew up.

Why is it famous?
A hay cart crosses a quiet river on a sunny summer day.

Did you know?
The little house on the left is still standing in England.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Trees	River	Cart	House	Meadows



34

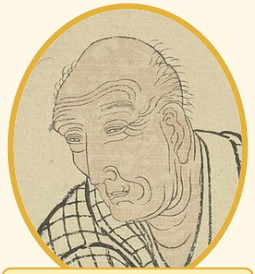
Red Fuji

Katsushika Hokusai · c. 1831

Japanese woodblock print

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Katsushika Hokusai

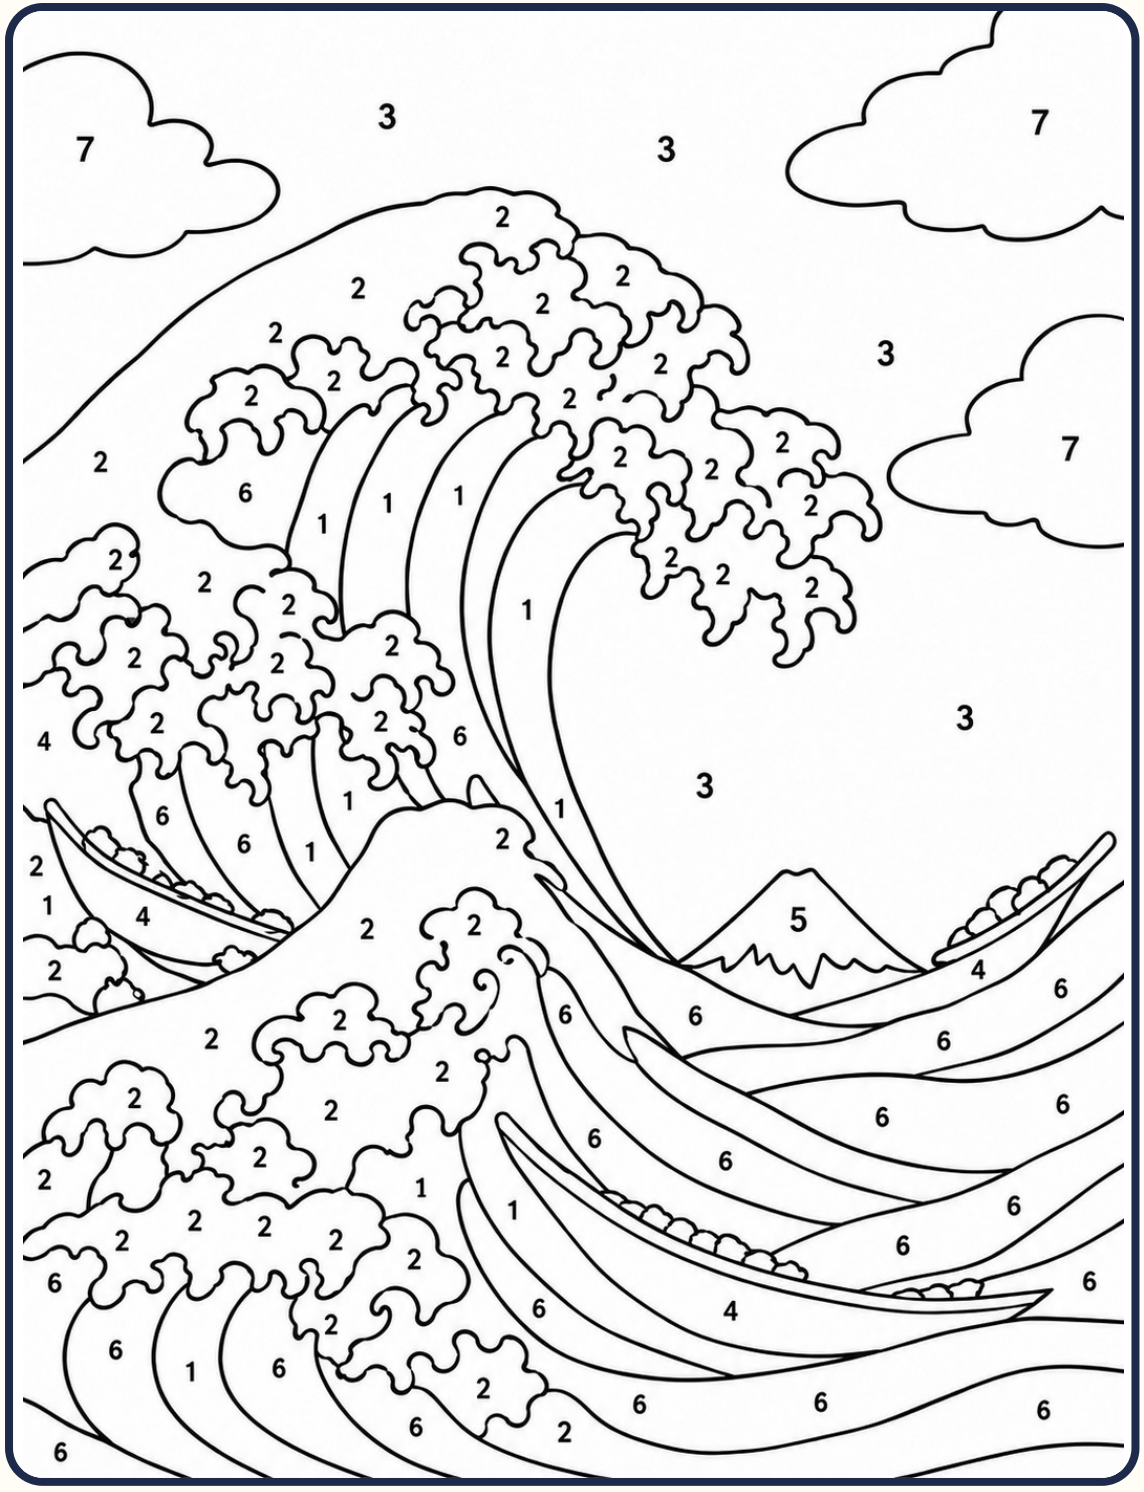
Who was Hokusai?
He changed his name more than thirty times during his life!

Why is it famous?
At sunrise, Mount Fuji turns bright red, as if it were on fire.

Did you know?
Mount Fuji is a volcano and the tallest mountain in Japan.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Mountain	Snow	Sky	Clouds	Forest	Slopes	Light sky



35

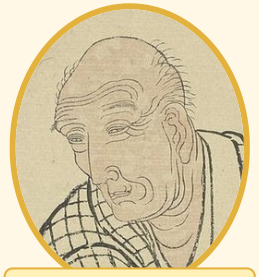
The Great Wave

Katsushika Hokusai · c. 1831

Japanese woodblock print

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Katsushika Hokusai

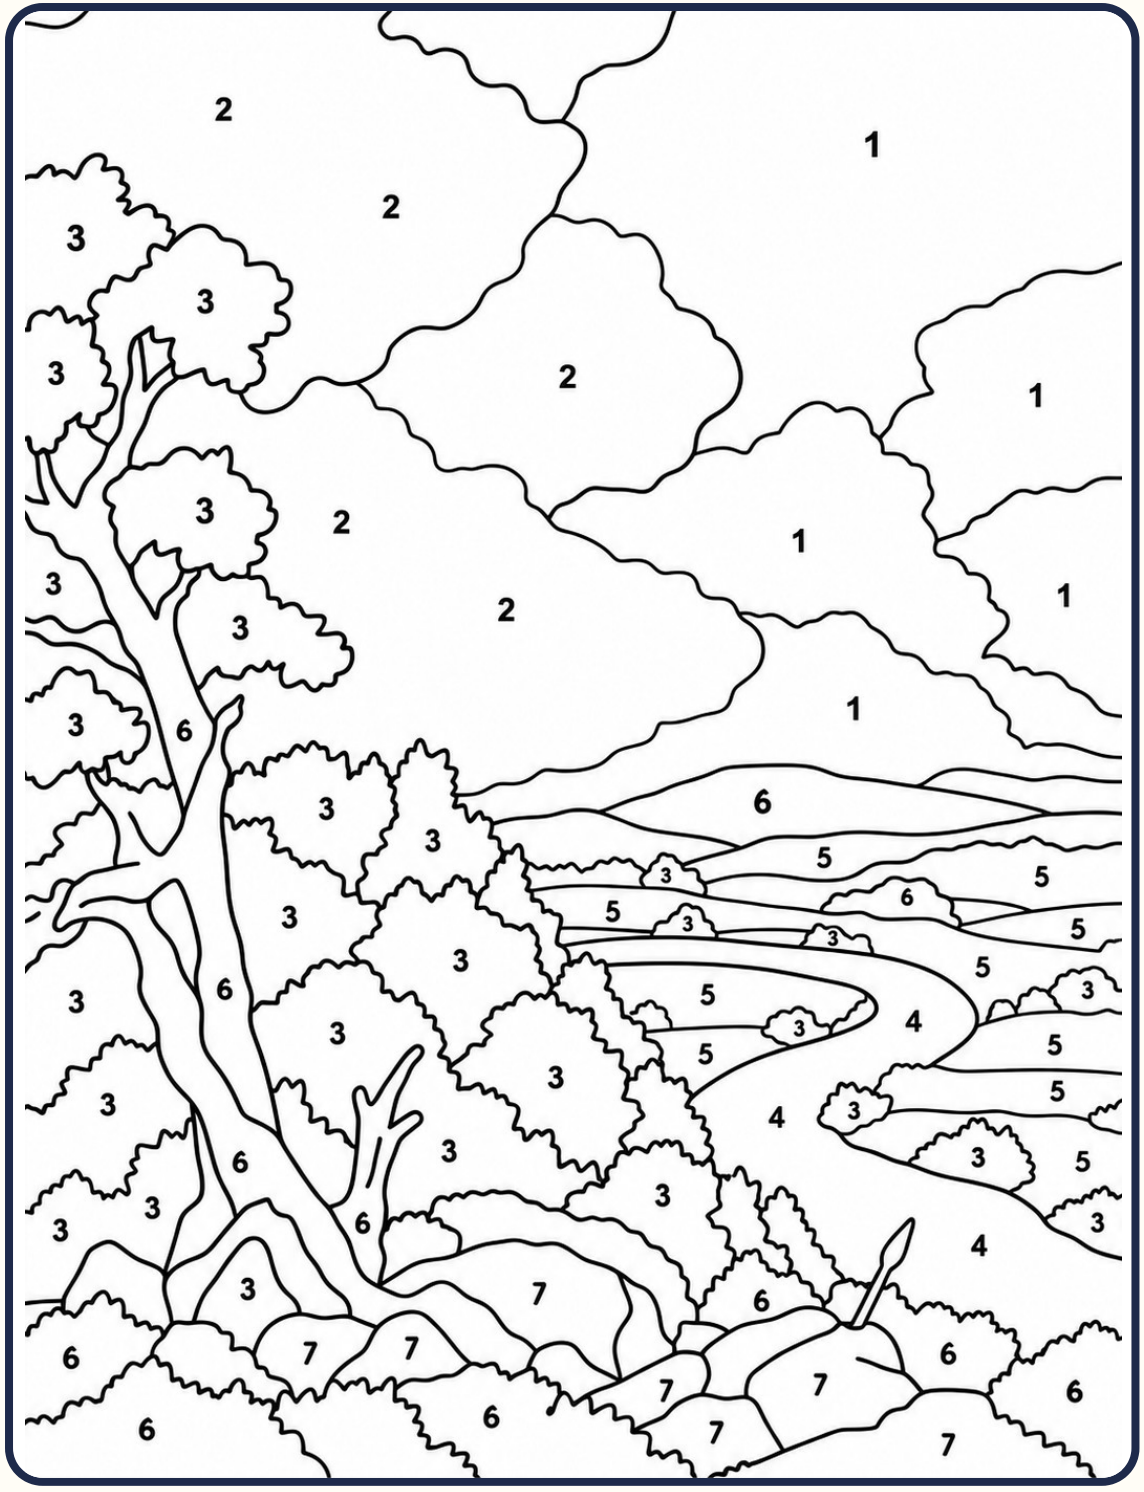
Who was Hokusai?
A Japanese artist who kept drawing all his life, until he was almost 90.

Why is it famous?
The giant wave looks like a hand with claws made of foam.

Did you know?
Look closely: tiny Mount Fuji is hiding in the back!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Wave	Foam	Sky	Boats	Mount Fuji	Light sea	Clouds



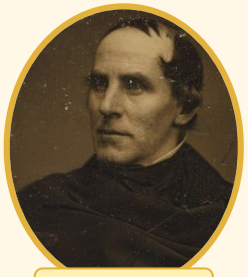
The Oxbow

Thomas Cole · 1836

Hudson River School

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Thomas Cole

Who was Thomas Cole?

A painter born in England who showed Americans how beautiful their land was.

Why is it famous?

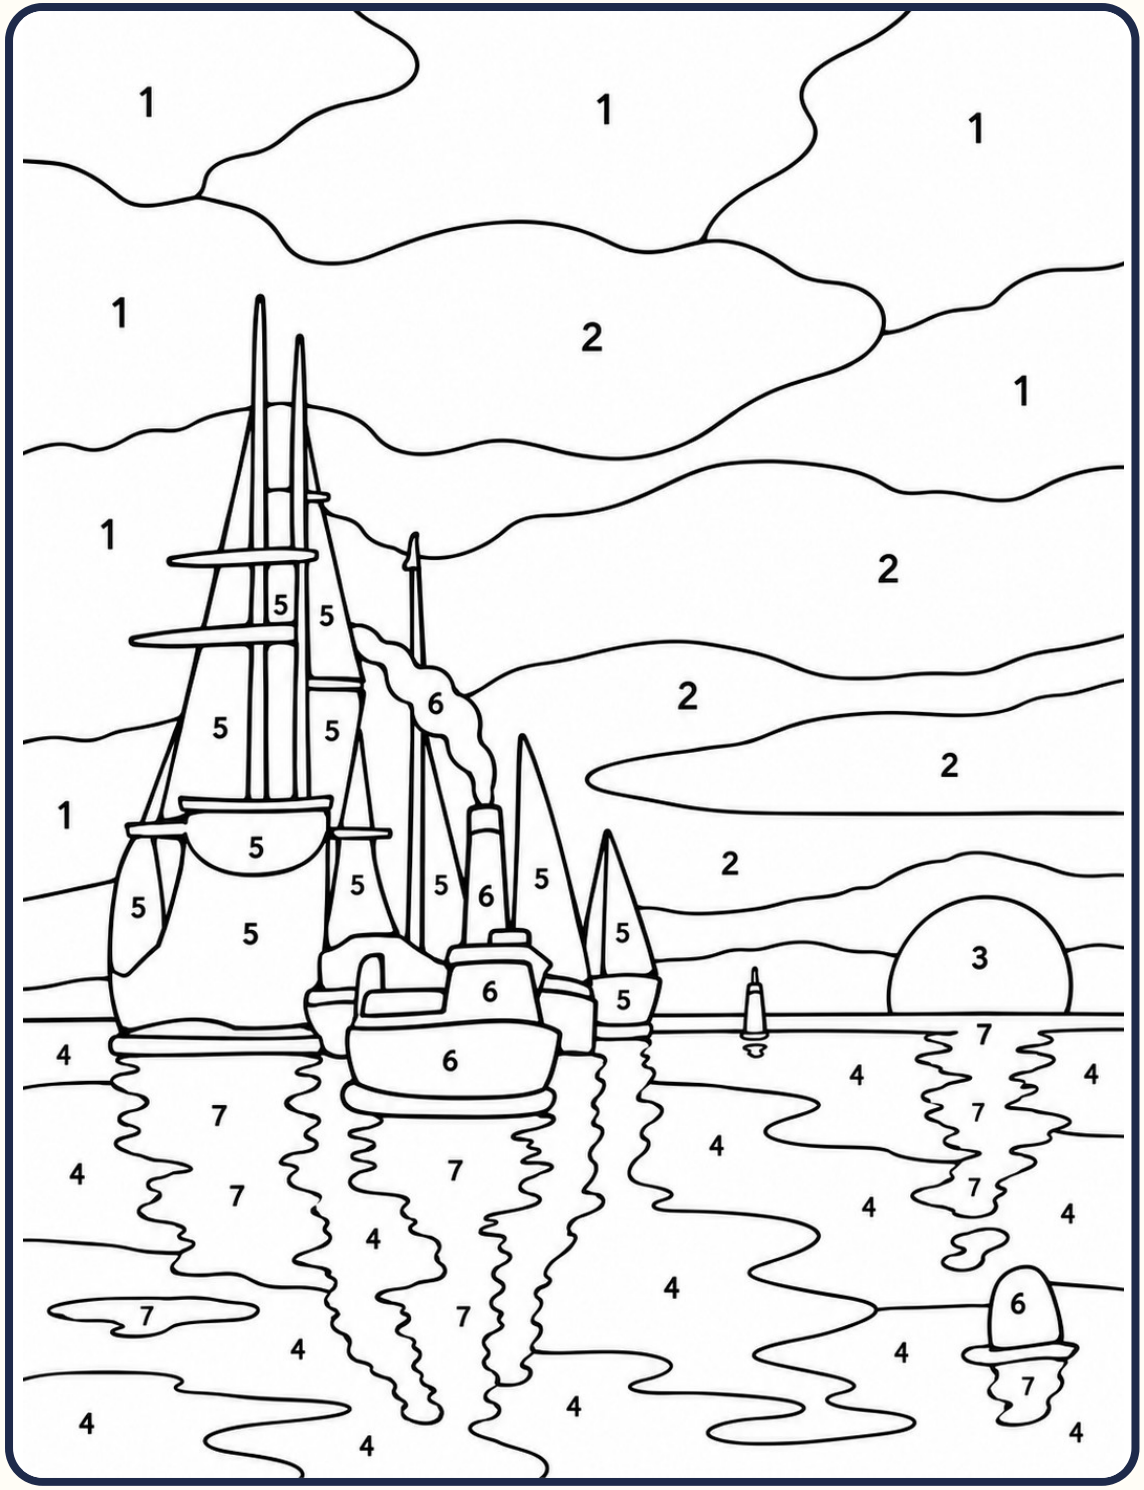
On the left, a wild storm; on the right, a calm valley with farms.

Did you know?

Thomas Cole painted himself very small, with his easel, at the bottom!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Storm	Forest	River	Fields	Meadows	Rocks



37

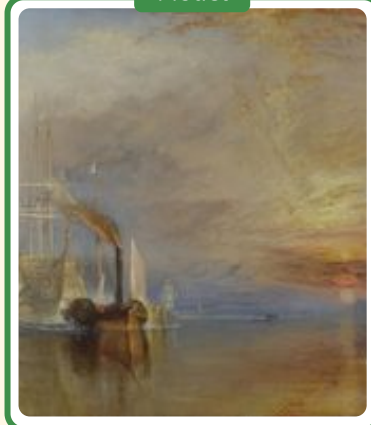
The Fighting Temeraire

J. M. W. Turner · 1839

Romanticism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



J. M. W. Turner

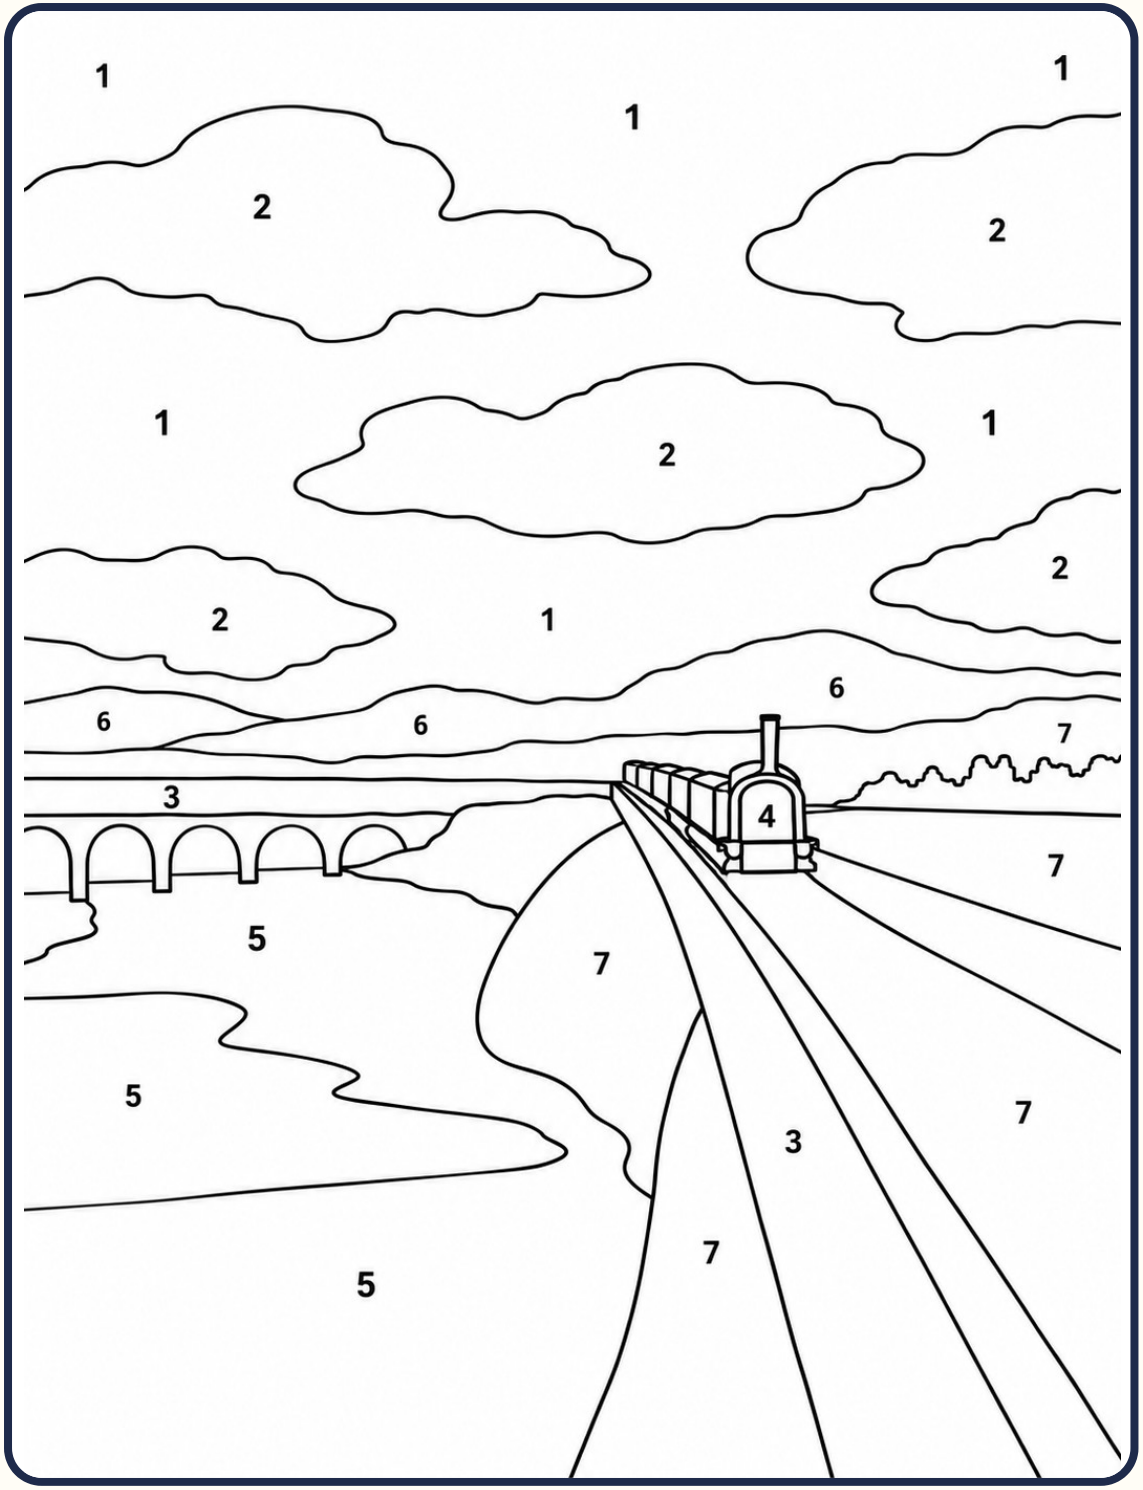
Who was Turner?
An English painter who loved light, fire and storms.

Why is it famous?
An old sailing ship is pulled by a little steamboat at sunset.

Did you know?
In 2005, people voted it the greatest painting in Britain.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Sunset	Sun	Water	Sailing ship	Tugboat	Reflections



38

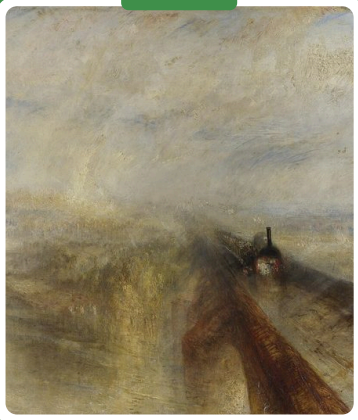
Rain, Steam and Speed

J. M. W. Turner · 1844

Romanticism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



J. M. W. Turner

Who was Turner?

People say he had himself tied to a ship's mast to watch a storm.

Why is it famous?

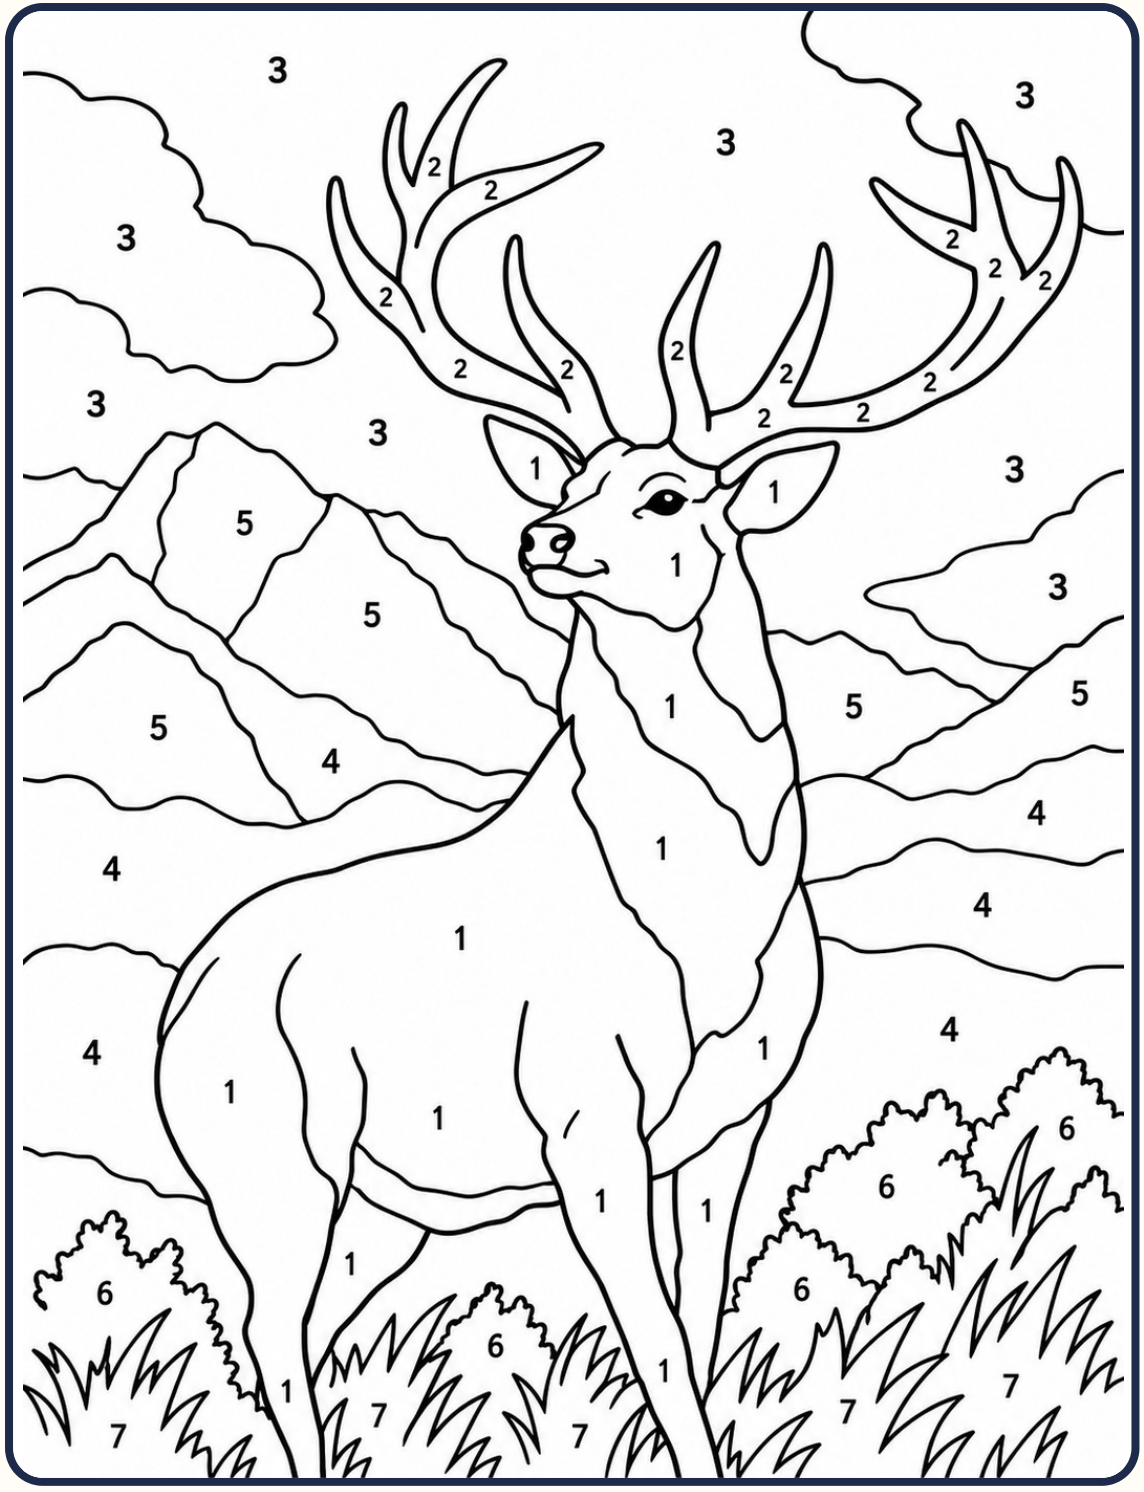
A train races through the rain. Back then, it was the fastest thing in the world.

Did you know?

In front of the train, Turner hid a tiny hare running on the tracks.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Bridge	Train	River	Mist	Fields



39

The Monarch of the Glen

Edwin Landseer · 1851

Animal painting

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Edwin Landseer

Who was Landseer?

An English animal painter, and Queen Victoria's favorite painter.

Why is it famous?

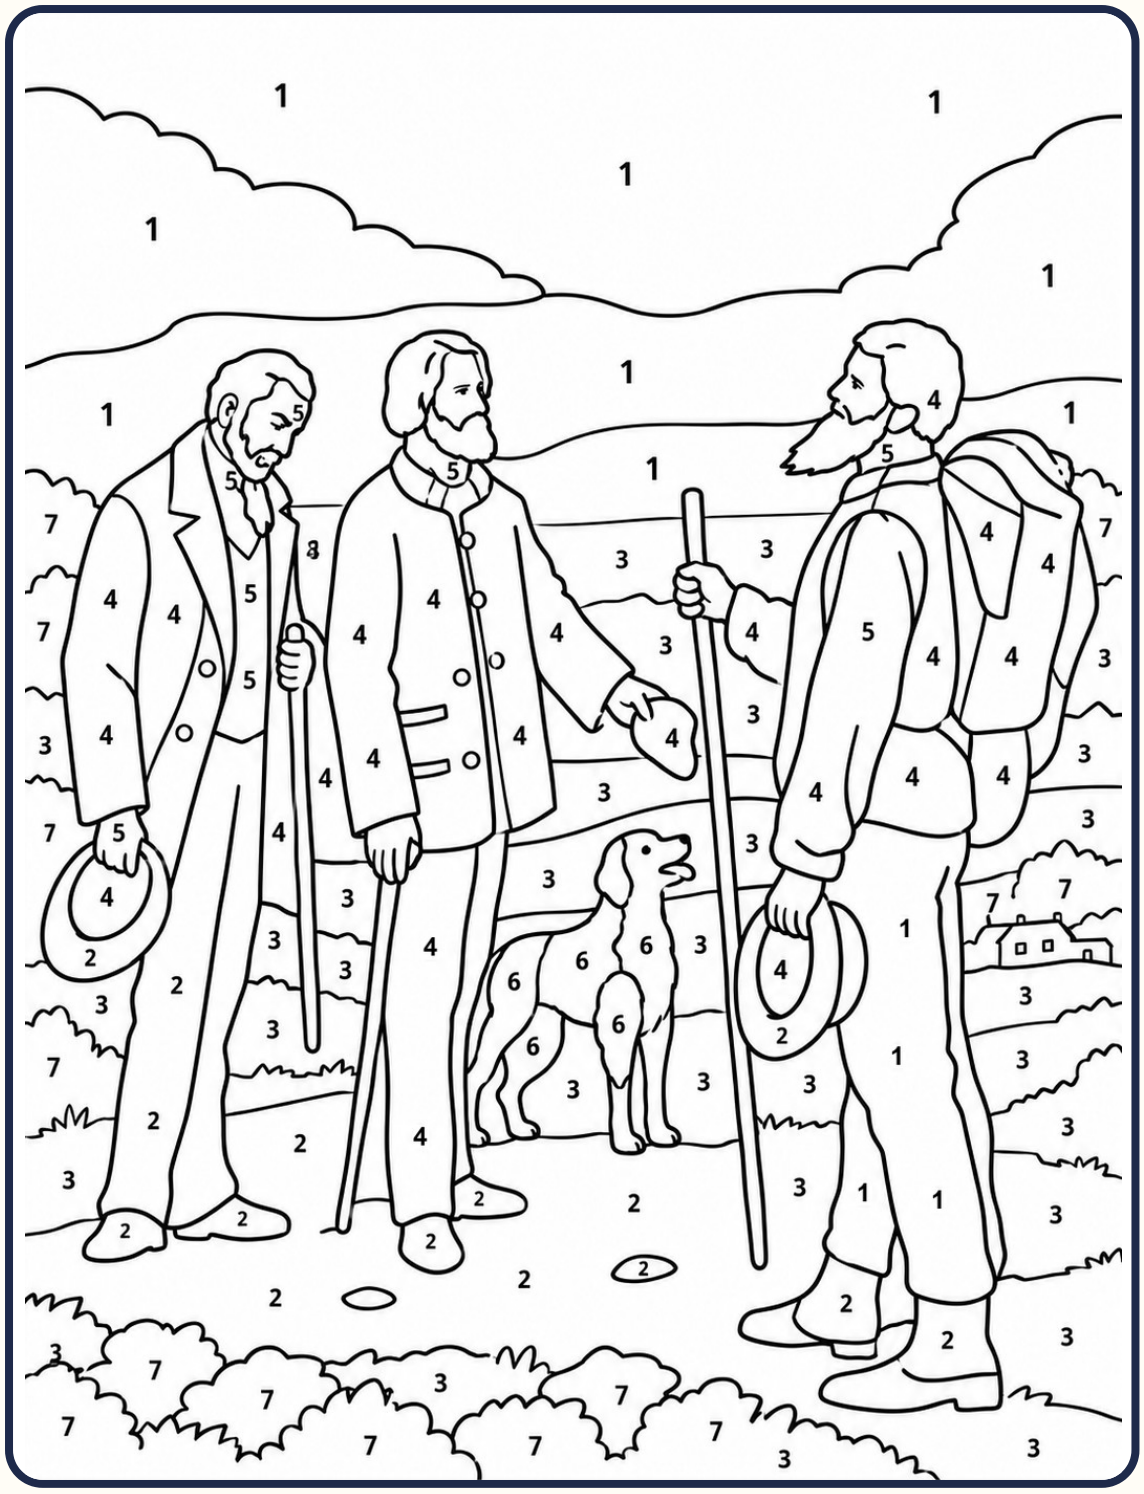
A big stag with huge antlers stands proudly in the mountains of Scotland.

Did you know?

Landseer also made the four big lions in Trafalgar Square, in London.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Stag	Antlers	Sky	Mist	Mountains	Heather	Grass



40

The Meeting

Gustave Courbet · 1854

Realism

🖍 Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Gustave Courbet

🔍 Who was Courbet?

A French painter who wanted to paint only what he saw, without making anything up.

⭐ Why is it famous?

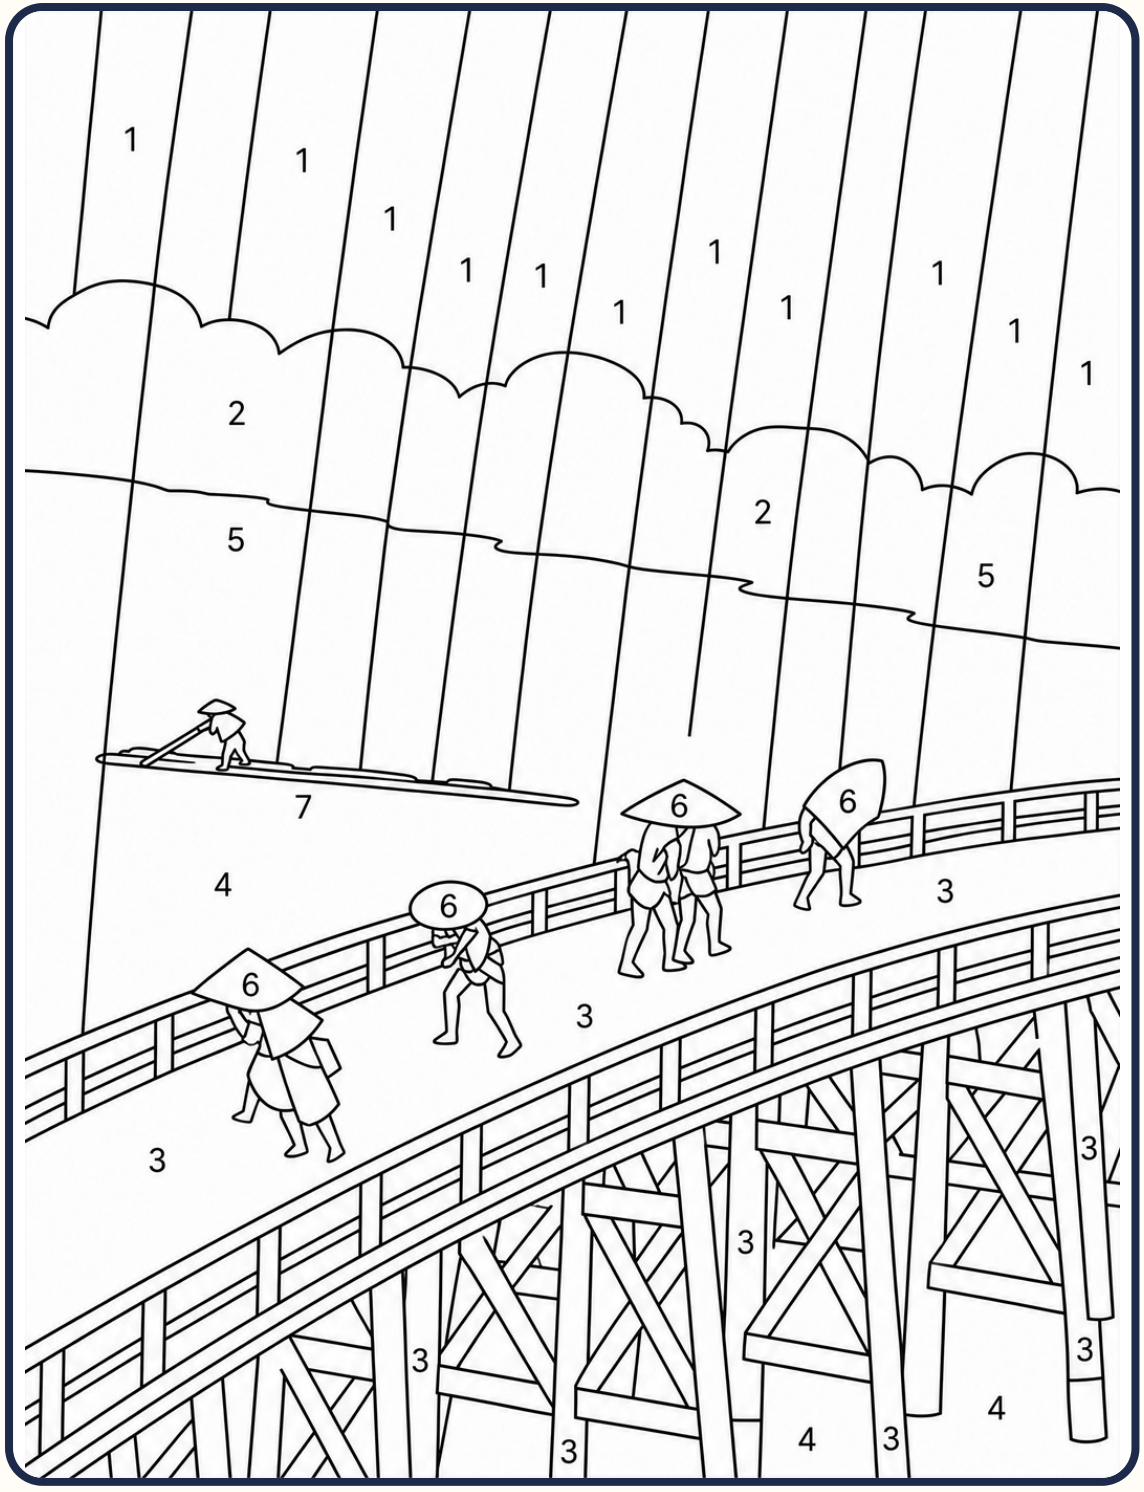
The painter himself, with a pack on his back, meets his friend on the road.

💡 Did you know?

The man saying hello is Alfred Bruyas, a collector who bought his paintings.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Path & pants	Meadow	Jacket	Shirt	Dog	Trees



41

Sudden Shower over Shin-Ohashi Bridge

Utagawa Hiroshige · 1857

Japanese woodblock print

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Utagawa Hiroshige

Who was Hiroshige?

A Japanese artist who traveled on foot to draw the landscapes of his country.

Why is it famous?

Rain falls in long lines as people hurry to find shelter.

Did you know?

Van Gogh loved this print so much that he copied it in paint!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Rain	Sky	Bridge	River	Shore	Umbrellas	Raft

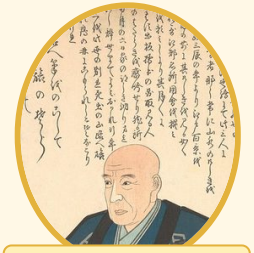
Plum Park in Kameido

Utagawa Hiroshige · 1857

Japanese woodblock print

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Utagawa Hiroshige

Who was Hiroshige?

He made more than five thousand prints in his lifetime.

Why is it famous?

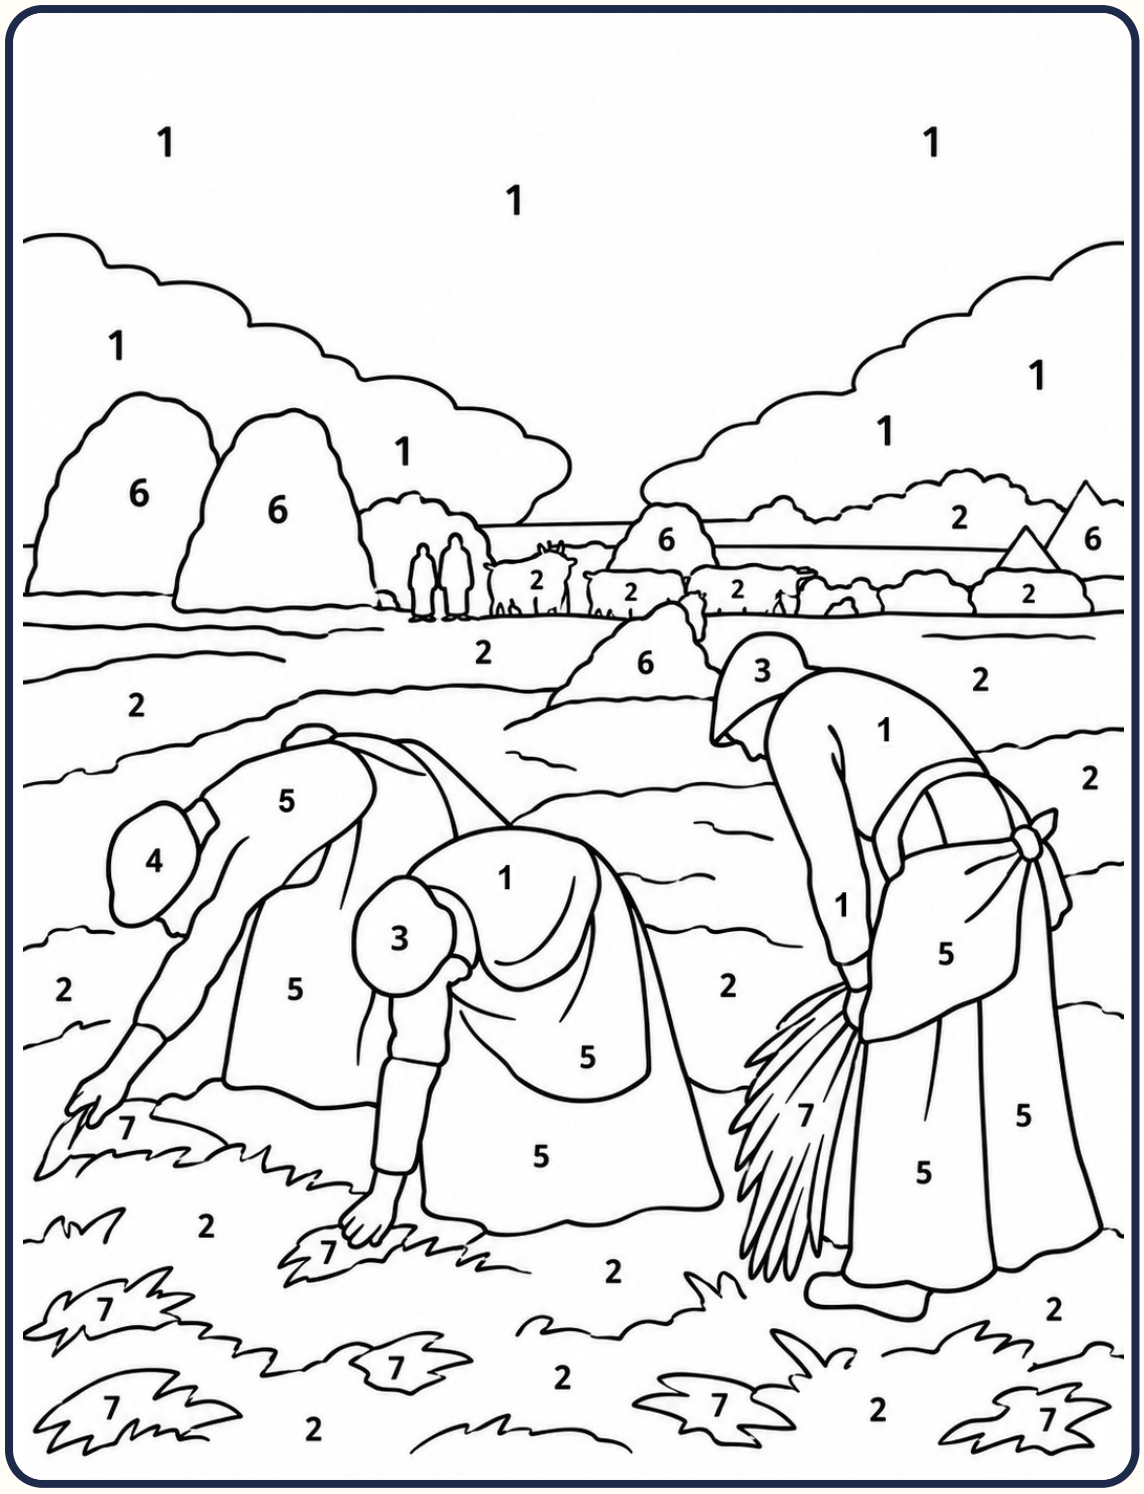
A big branch of a blooming plum tree passes right in front of our eyes.

Did you know?

Van Gogh copied this print too: the two artists talk to each other!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Red sky	Light sky	Branch	Blossoms	Centers	Ground	Walkers



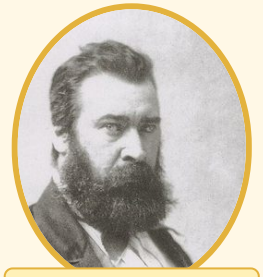
The Gleaners

Jean-François Millet · 1857

Realism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Jean-François Millet

Who was Millet?

A French painter who showed the hard work of farmers in the fields.

Why is it famous?

Three women pick up the last bits of wheat left after the harvest.

Did you know?

Far in the back, you can see a huge harvest, with haystacks and carts.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky & blouses	Field	Red cap	Blue cap	Skirts	Haystacks	Wheat

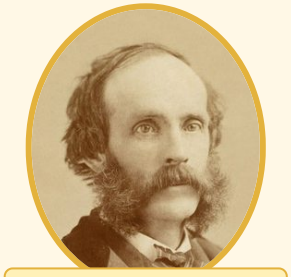
Niagara

Frederic Edwin Church · 1857

Hudson River School

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Frederic Edwin Church

Who was Church?

An American painter who traveled far to paint the most amazing landscapes.

Why is it famous?

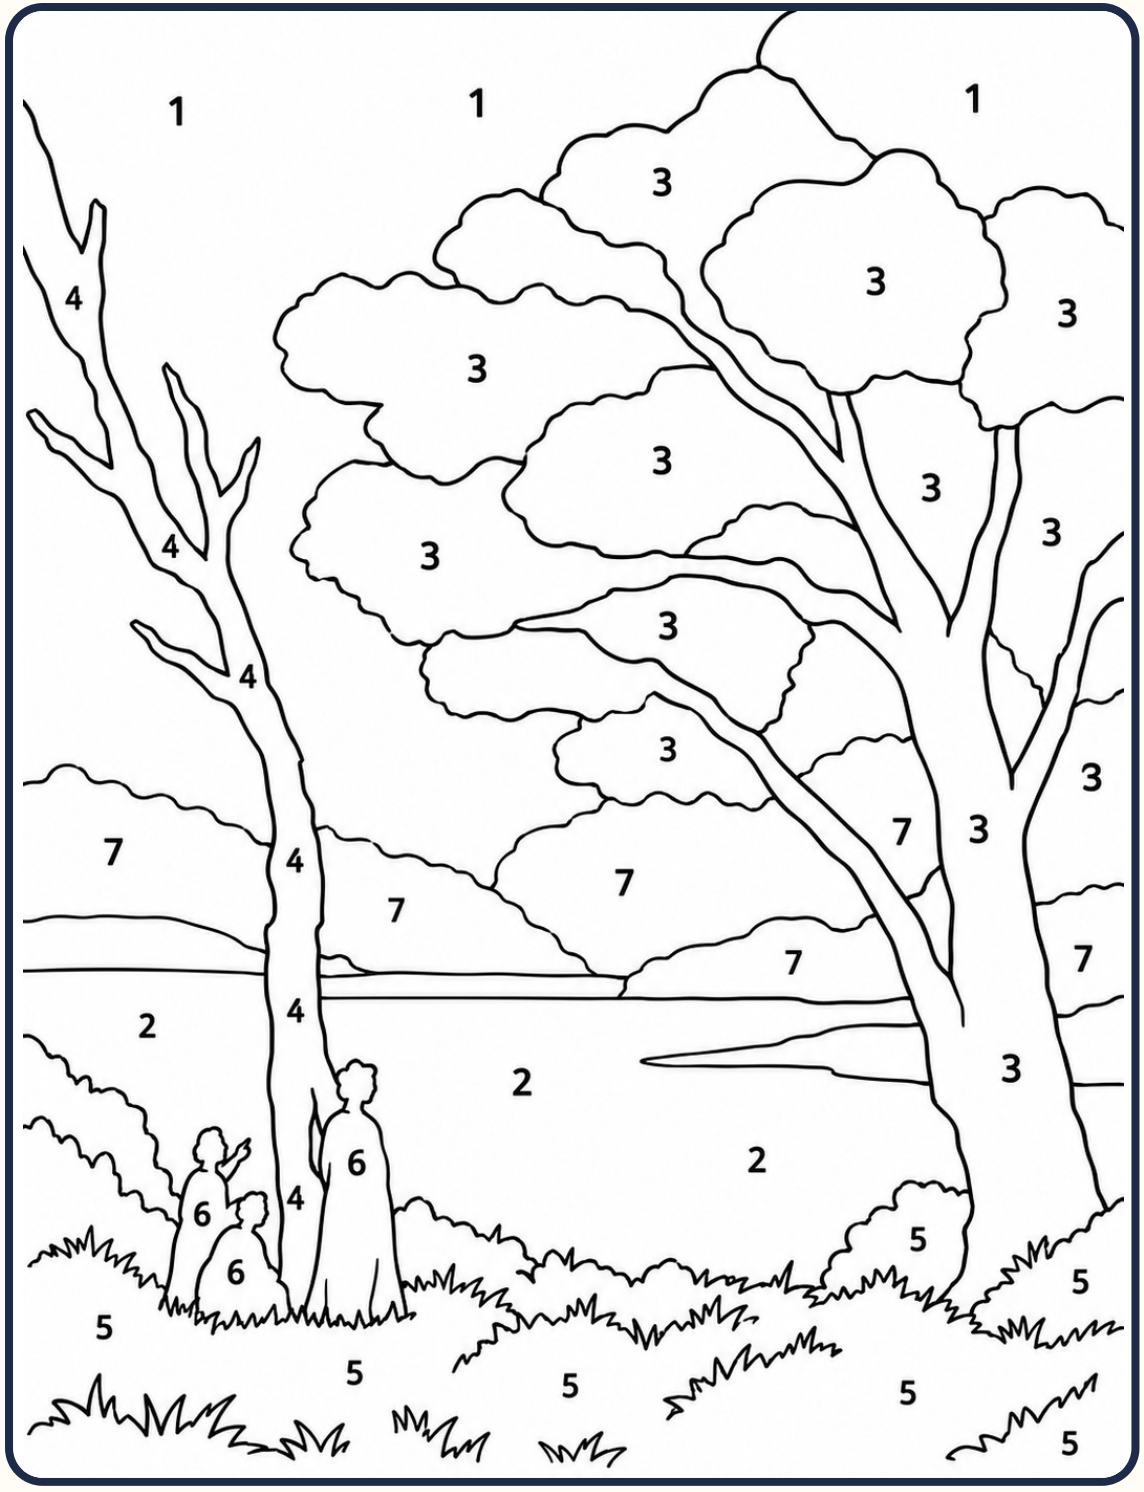
You feel like you are right at the edge of the falls, with nothing to hold on to.

Did you know?

Thousands of people bought tickets to see this painting when it was first shown.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Falls	Foam	Green water	Rainbow	Shore



45

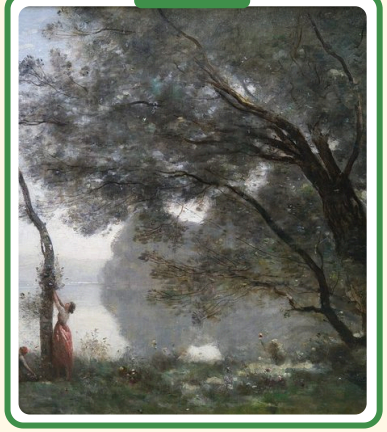
Souvenir of Mortefontaine

Camille Corot · 1864

Realism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Camille Corot

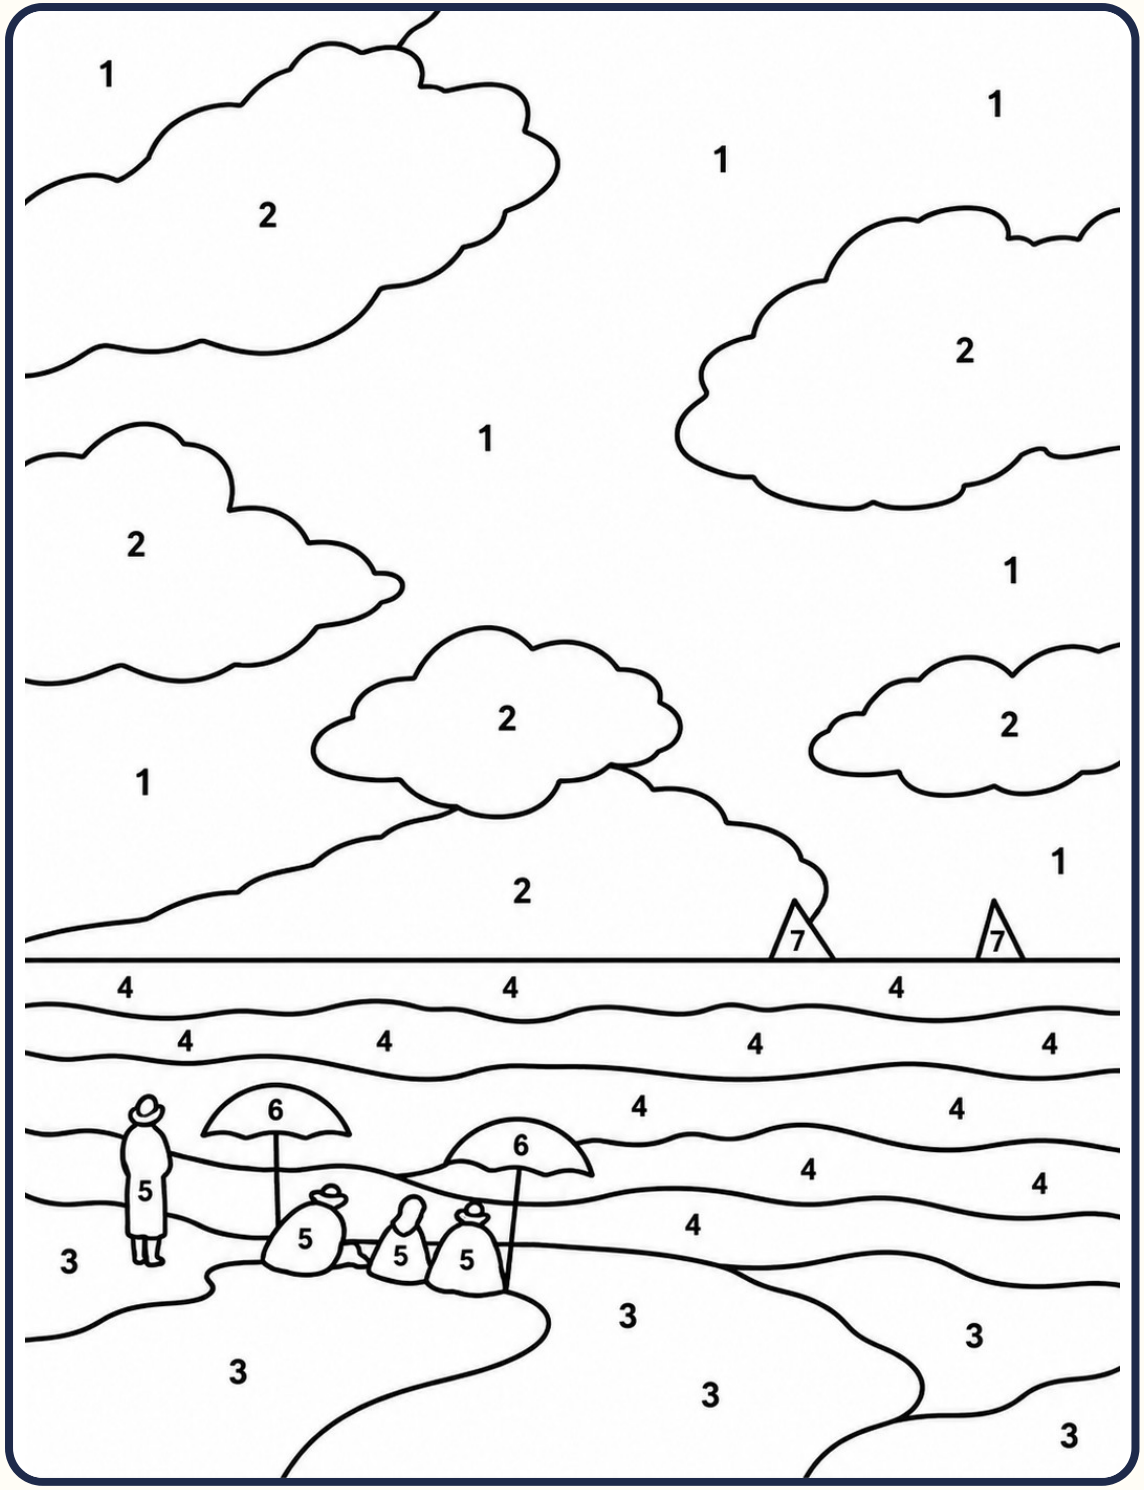
Who was Corot?
A French painter who made soft landscapes, like a dream.

Why is it famous?
A mom and her children pick something from a tree by a lake.

Did you know?
Corot painted this from memory, remembering a place he loved.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Lake	Big tree	Dead tree	Grass	Dresses	Mist



46

Beach at Trouville

Eugène Boudin · c. 1865

Pre-Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Eugène Boudin

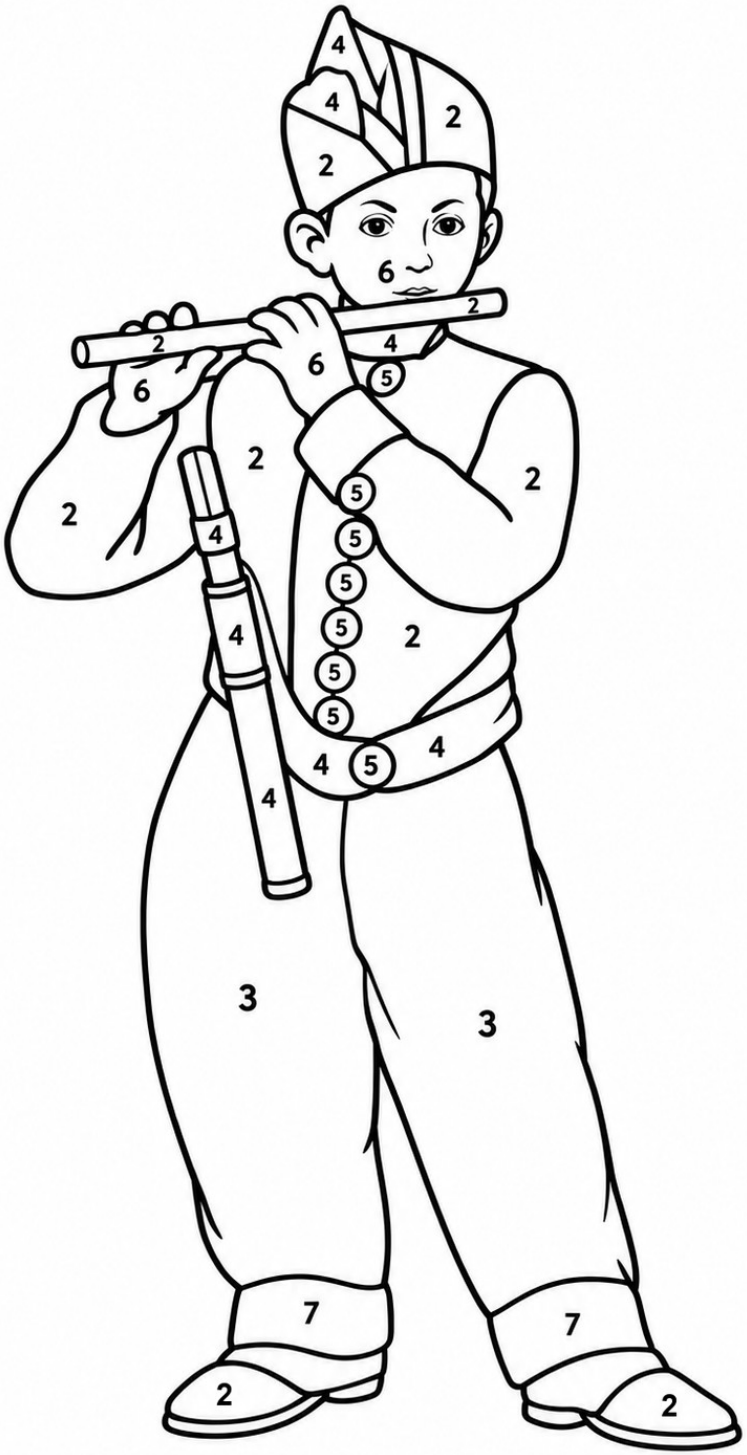
Who was Boudin?
A painter from Normandy, in France, nicknamed the "king of skies."

Why is it famous?
Ladies in long dresses relax on the beach under a huge sky.

Did you know?
Boudin taught young Claude Monet to paint outdoors, in the open air.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Sand	Sea	Dresses	Parasols	Flags



47

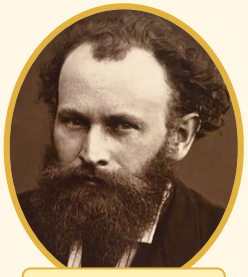
The Fifer

Édouard Manet · 1866

Realism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Édouard Manet

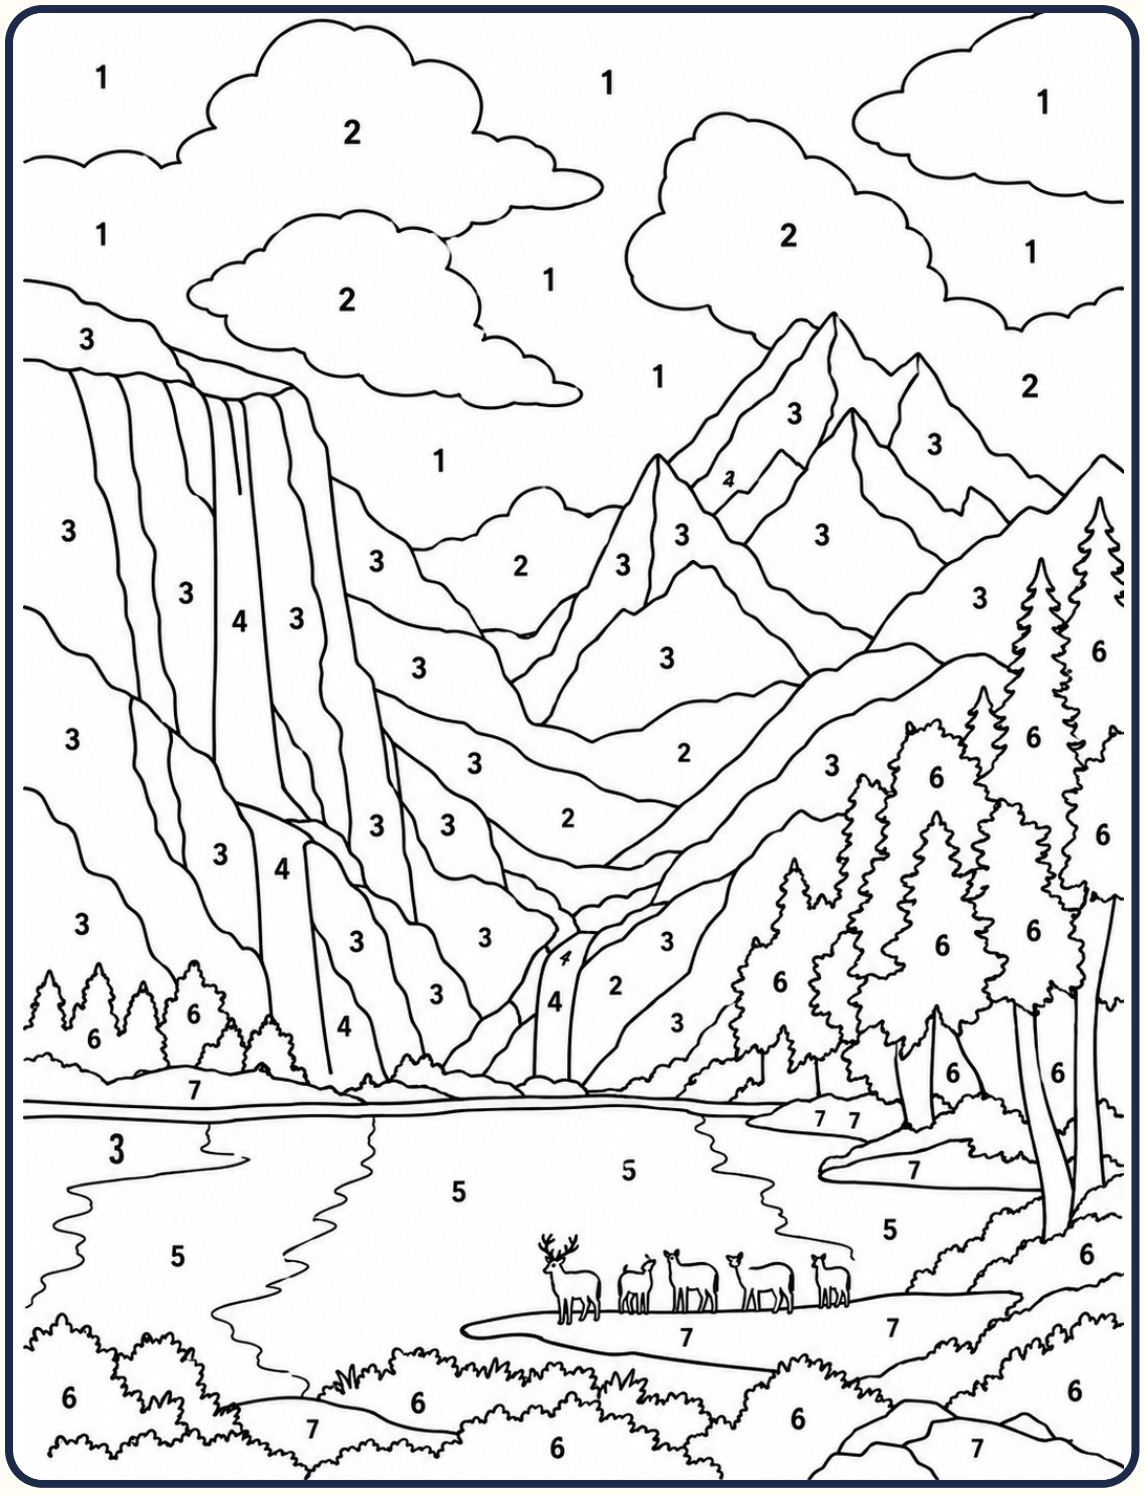
Who was Manet?
A painter from Paris who opened the way for the Impressionists.

Why is it famous?
A young musician in uniform plays his fife against a very plain background.

Did you know?
There is no floor and no wall, so the boy seems to float in space.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Background	Jacket	Pants	Stripes	Buttons	Face	Leggings



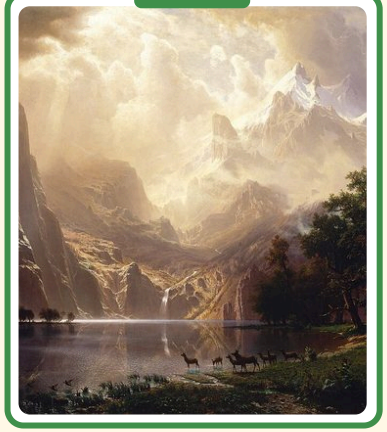
Among the Sierra Nevada, California

Albert Bierstadt · 1868

Hudson River School

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Albert Bierstadt

Who was Bierstadt?

An American painter born in Germany, who painted the wild American West.

Why is it famous?

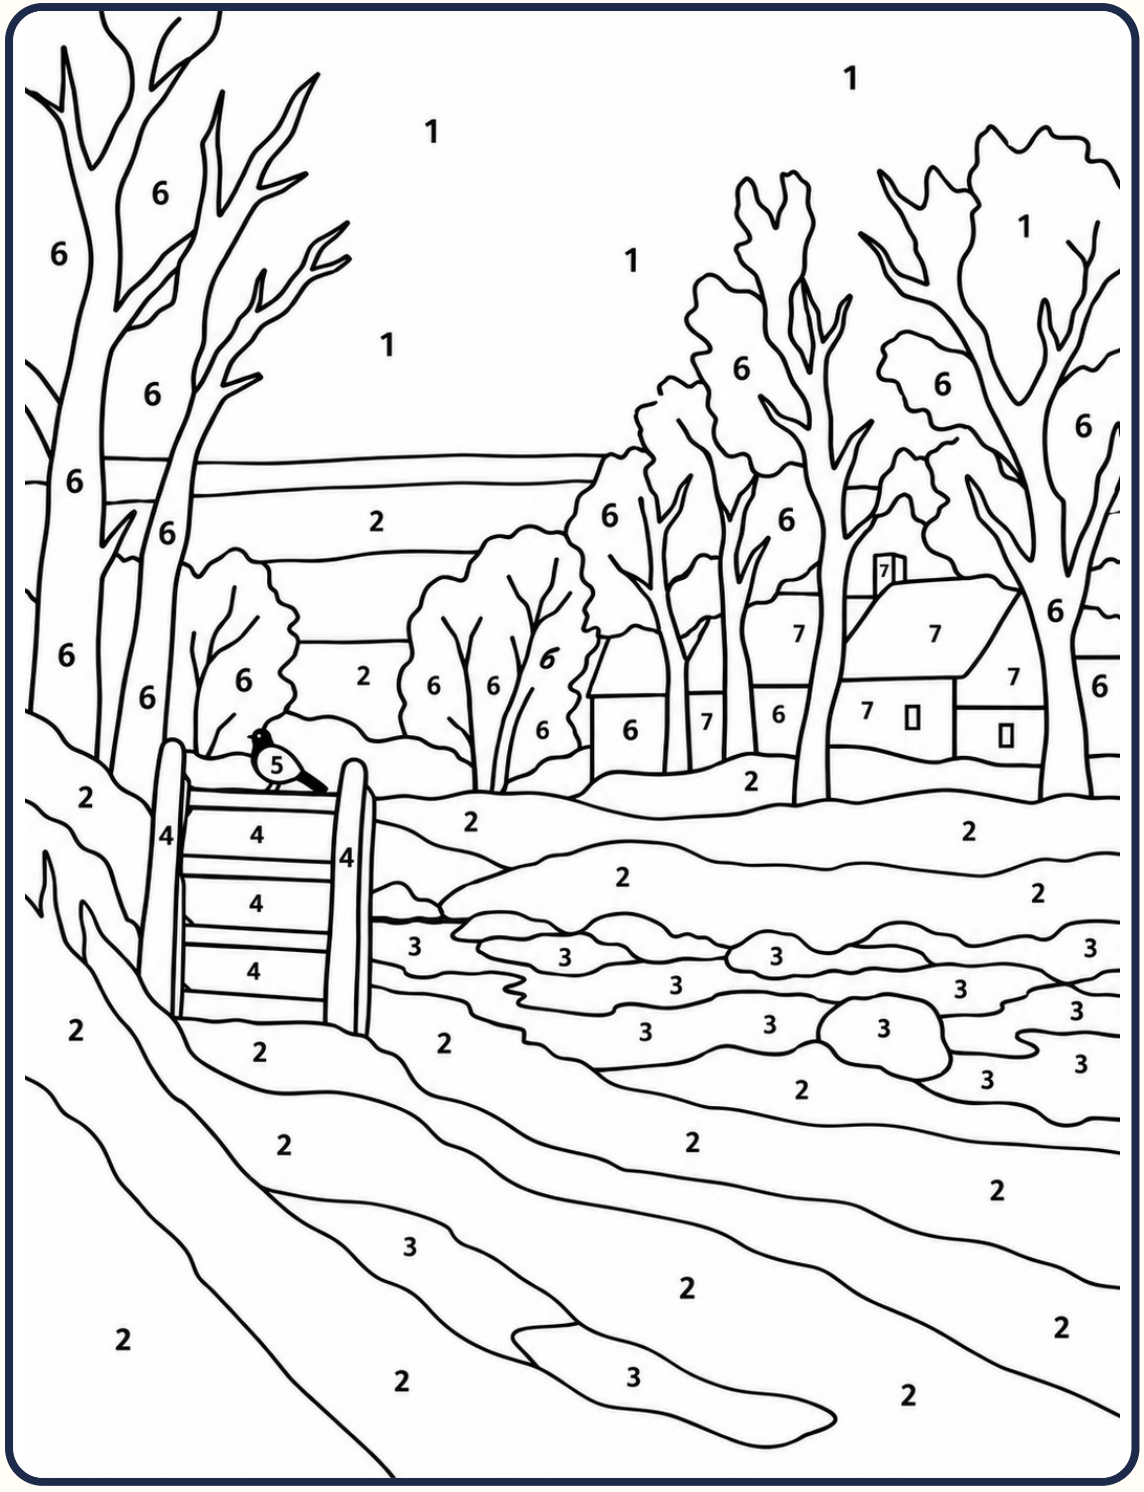
A ray of sunlight falls on a lake between giant mountains.

Did you know?

By the lake there are deer and ducks. Can you find them?

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Light	Mountains	Waterfall	Lake	Forest	Shore



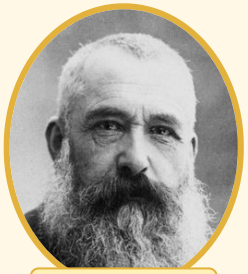
The Magpie

Claude Monet · 1869

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Claude Monet

Who was Monet?

He loved painting snow, even when it was freezing cold outside.

Why is it famous?

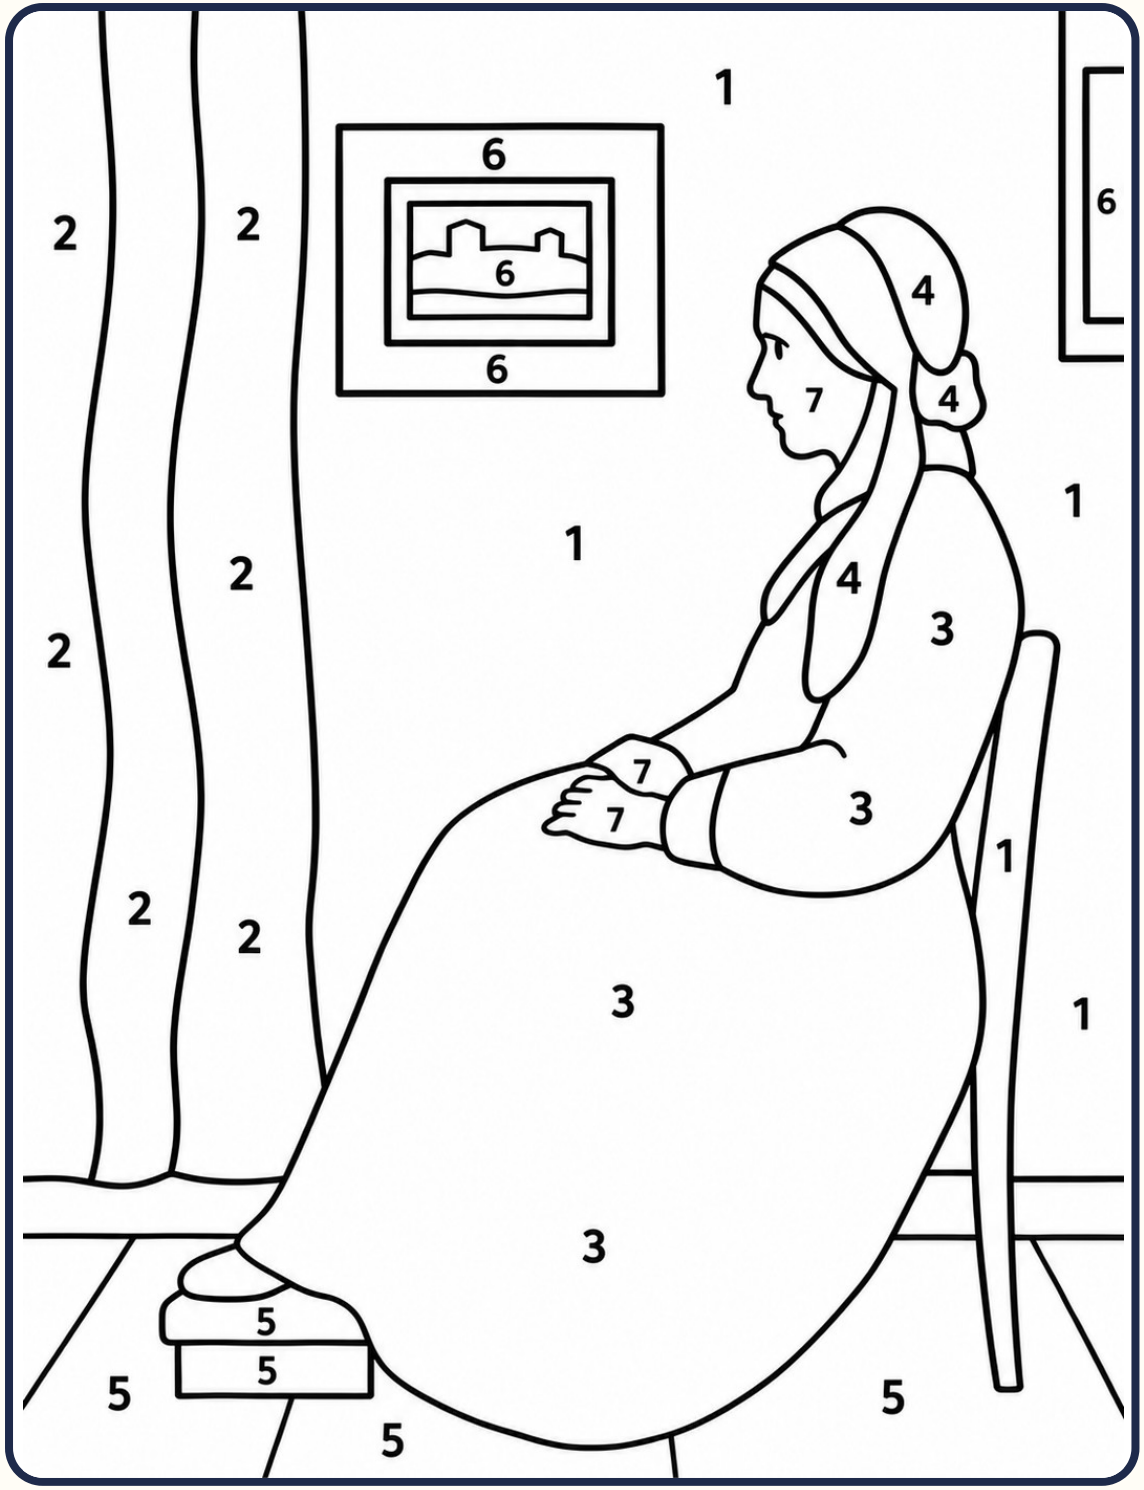
A tiny black magpie sits on the gate, in the middle of the snow.

Did you know?

The snow isn't white everywhere: Monet added blue and yellow to it.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Snow	Shadows	Gate	Magpie	Trees	House



50

Whistler's Mother

James McNeill Whistler · 1871

Tonalism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

James McNeill Whistler

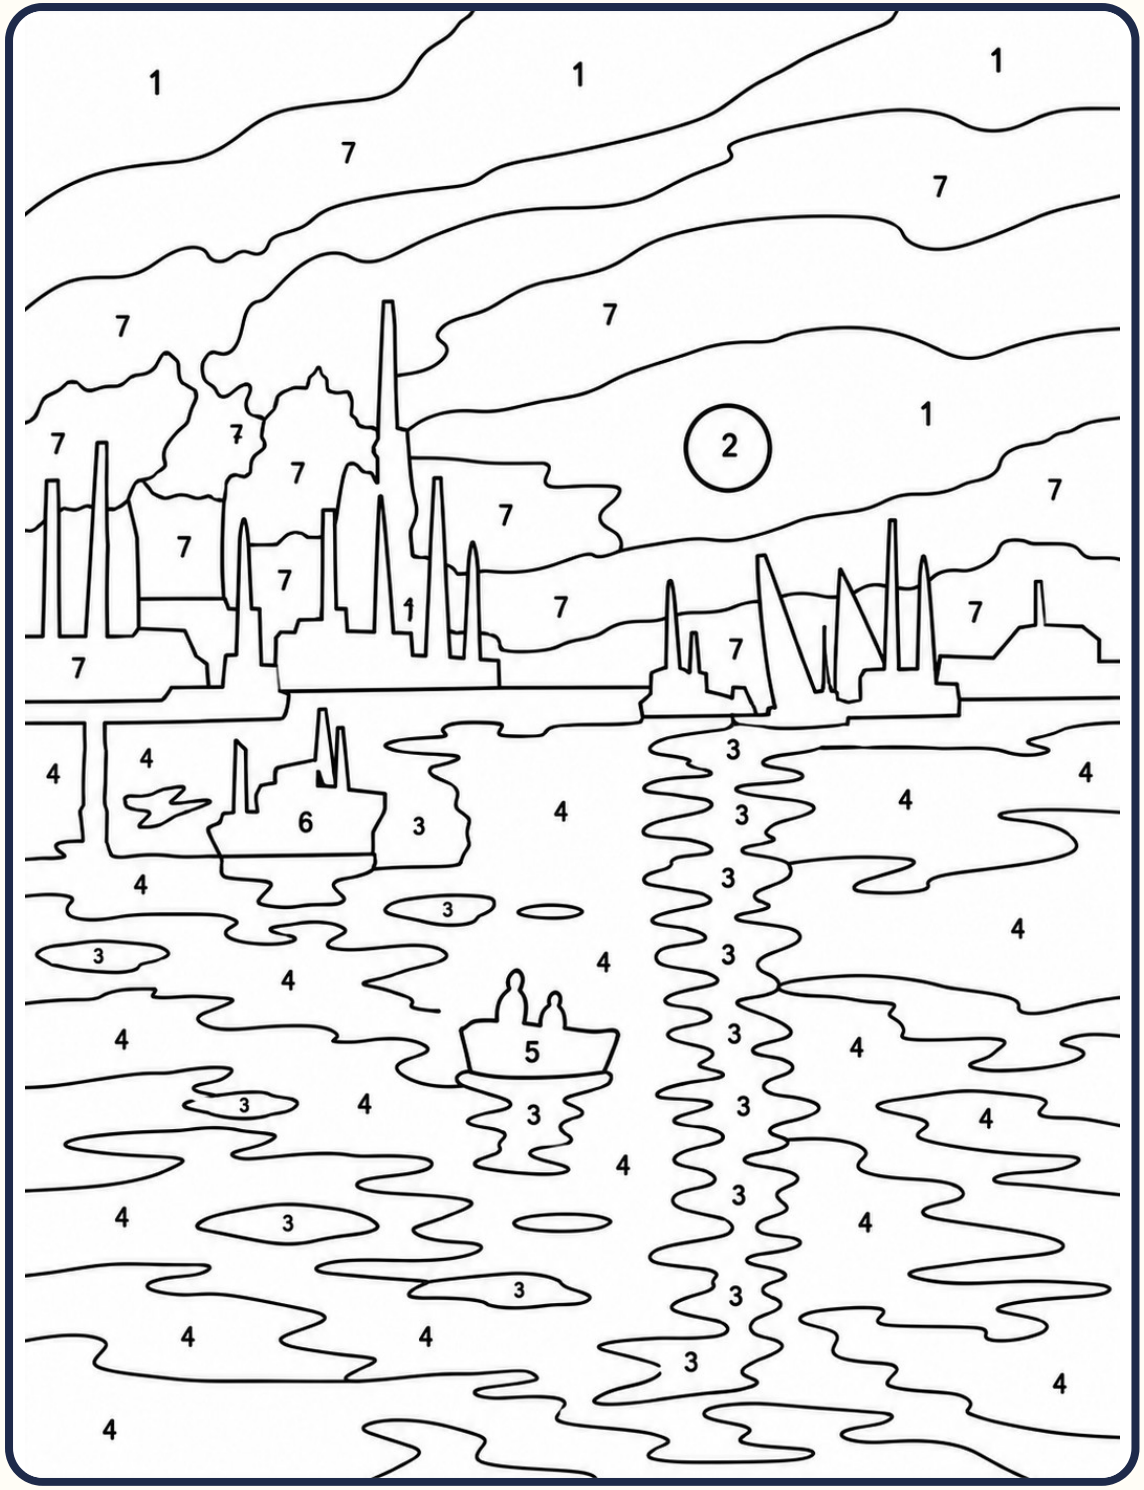
Who was Whistler?
An American painter who gave his paintings names from music.

Why is it famous?
His mom sits sideways, painted in soft shades of gray and black.

Did you know?
At first his mom was supposed to stand, but it was too tiring for her.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Wall	Curtain	Dress	Bonnet	Floor	Picture	Hands



51

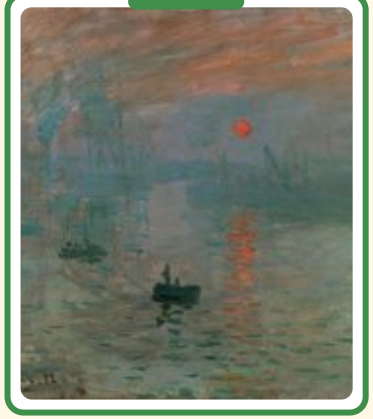
Impression, Sunrise

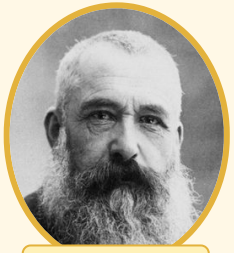
Claude Monet · 1872

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model





Claude Monet

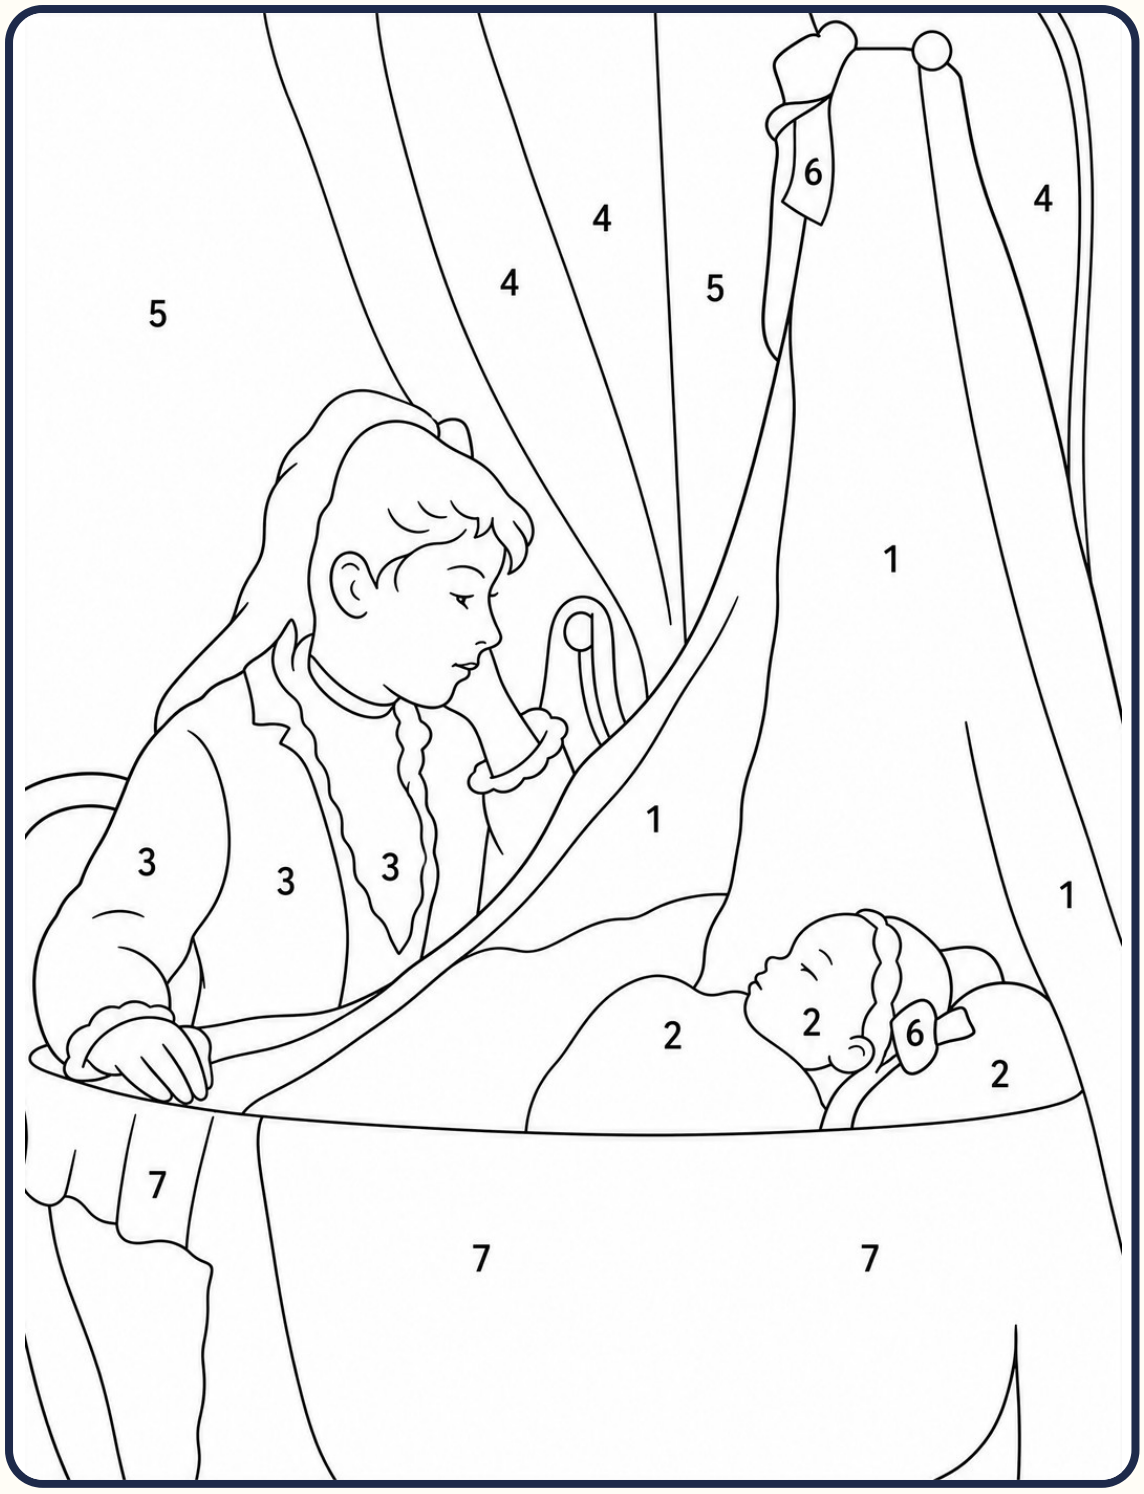
Who was Monet?
A French painter who wanted to paint what he saw in a single moment.

Why is it famous?
This painting gave its name to a whole art movement: Impressionism!

Did you know?
It shows the port of Le Havre, in Normandy, very early in the morning.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Sun	Reflections	Water	Rowboats	Ships	Mist



52

The Cradle

Berthe Morisot · 1872

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Berthe Morisot

Who was Berthe Morisot?

A French painter, the first woman to show her work with the Impressionists.

Why is it famous?

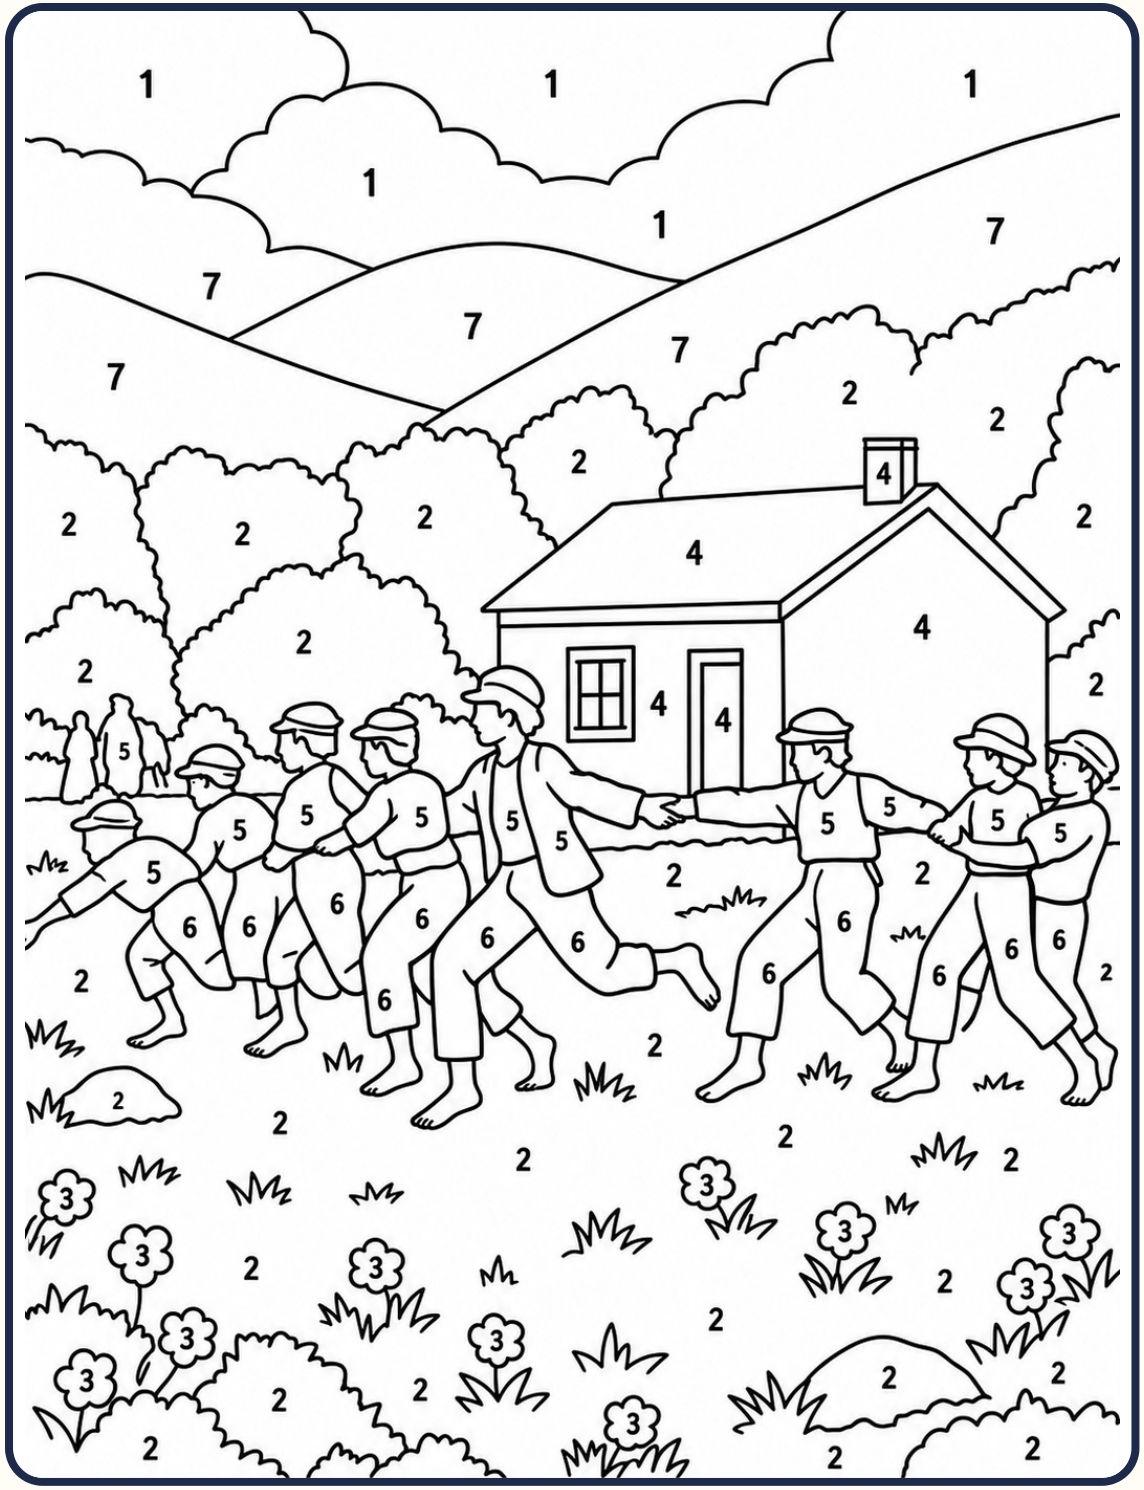
A mom watches over her baby sleeping behind a light veil.

Did you know?

The mom is Berthe's sister, and the baby is her niece Blanche.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Veil	Baby	Dress	Curtain	Background	Ribbons	Cradle



53

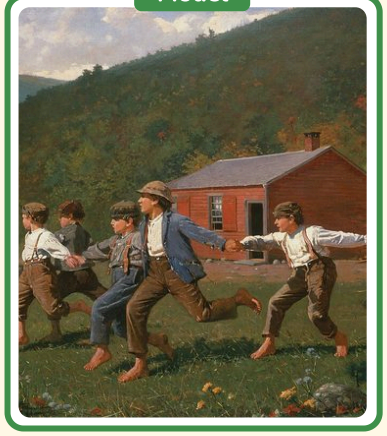
Snap the Whip

Winslow Homer · 1872

American Realism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Winslow Homer

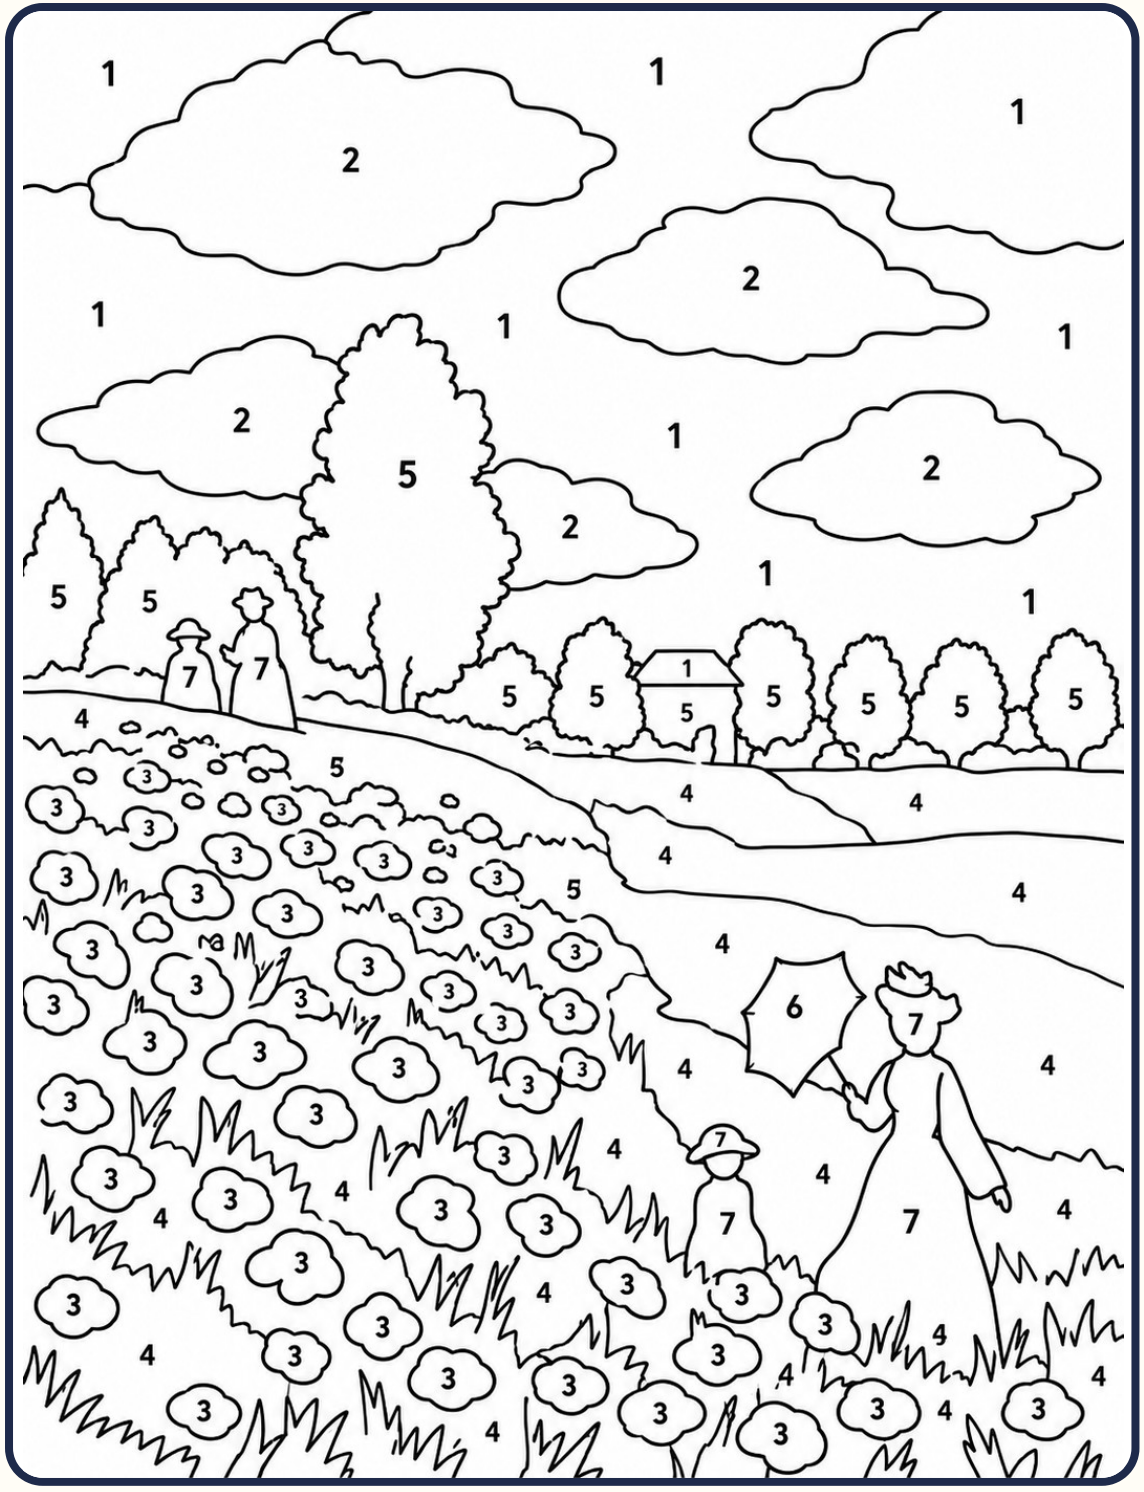
Who was Winslow Homer?
An American painter who loved the countryside, the sea, and children at play.

Why is it famous?
Boys run holding hands, and the ones at the end are about to fall!

Did you know?
"Snap the whip" was a real game kids played at recess long ago.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Grass	Flowers	School	Shirts	Pants	Hills



54

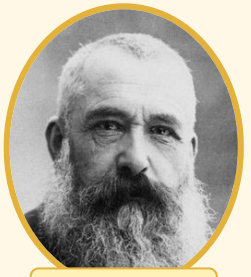
Poppies

Claude Monet · 1873

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Claude Monet

Who was Monet?

A painter who took his canvas out into the fields to paint nature.

Why is it famous?

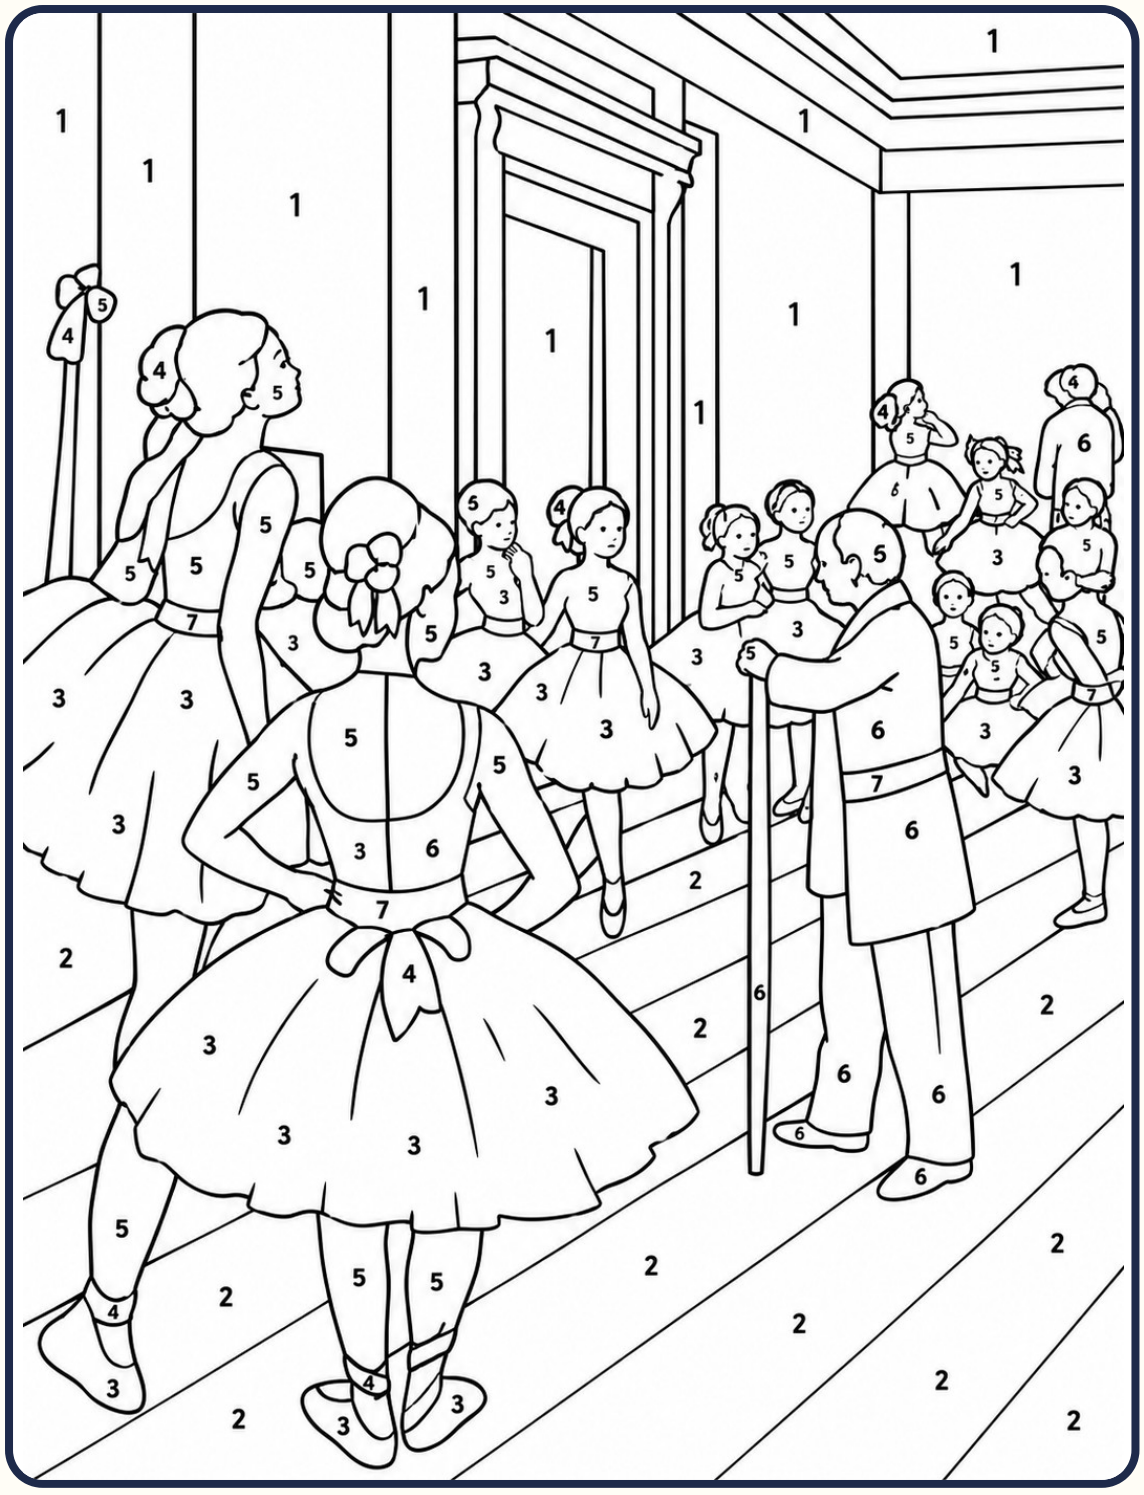
The little red dots of the poppies make the whole painting sing.

Did you know?

You can see the same mom and child twice: at the top and bottom of the path!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Poppies	Grass	Trees	Umbrella	Dresses



55

The Dance Class

Edgar Degas · 1874

Impressionism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Edgar Degas

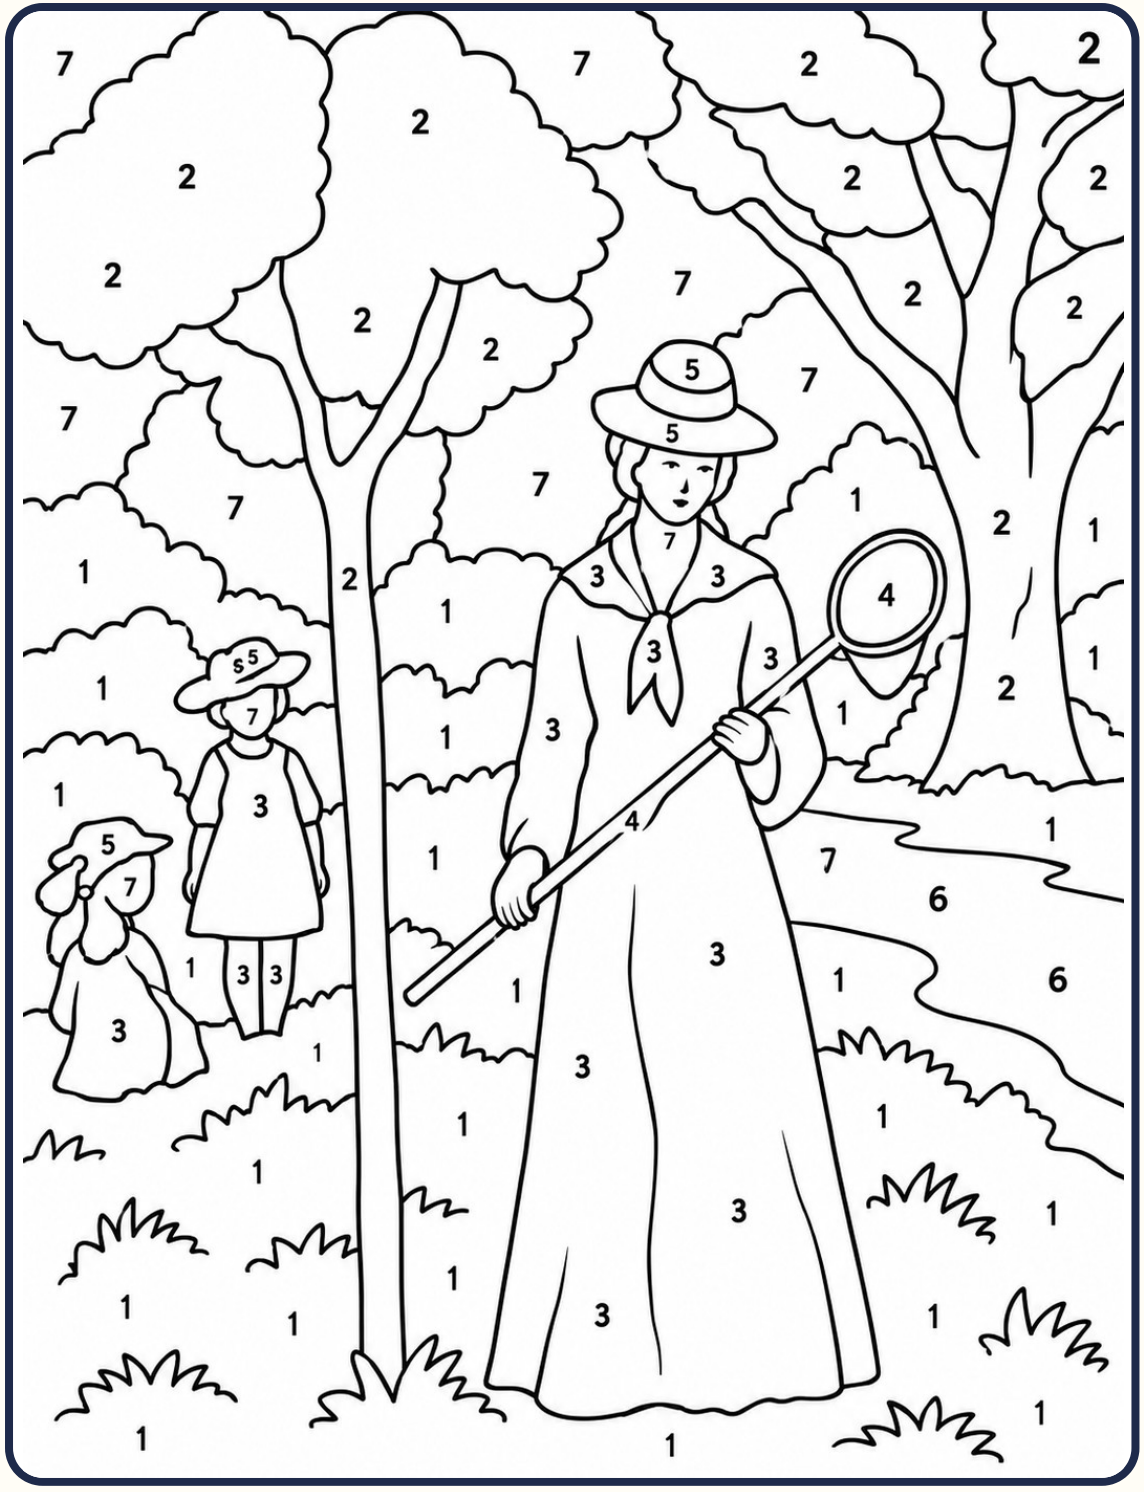
Who was Degas?
A French painter who drew the dancers of the Paris Opera all his life.

Why is it famous?
The little dancers wait, stretch or chat while the teacher talks.

Did you know?
Degas showed dancers in more than a thousand works!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Walls	Floor	Tutus	Ribbons	Skin	Teacher	Sashes



The Butterfly Hunt

Berthe Morisot · 1874

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Berthe Morisot

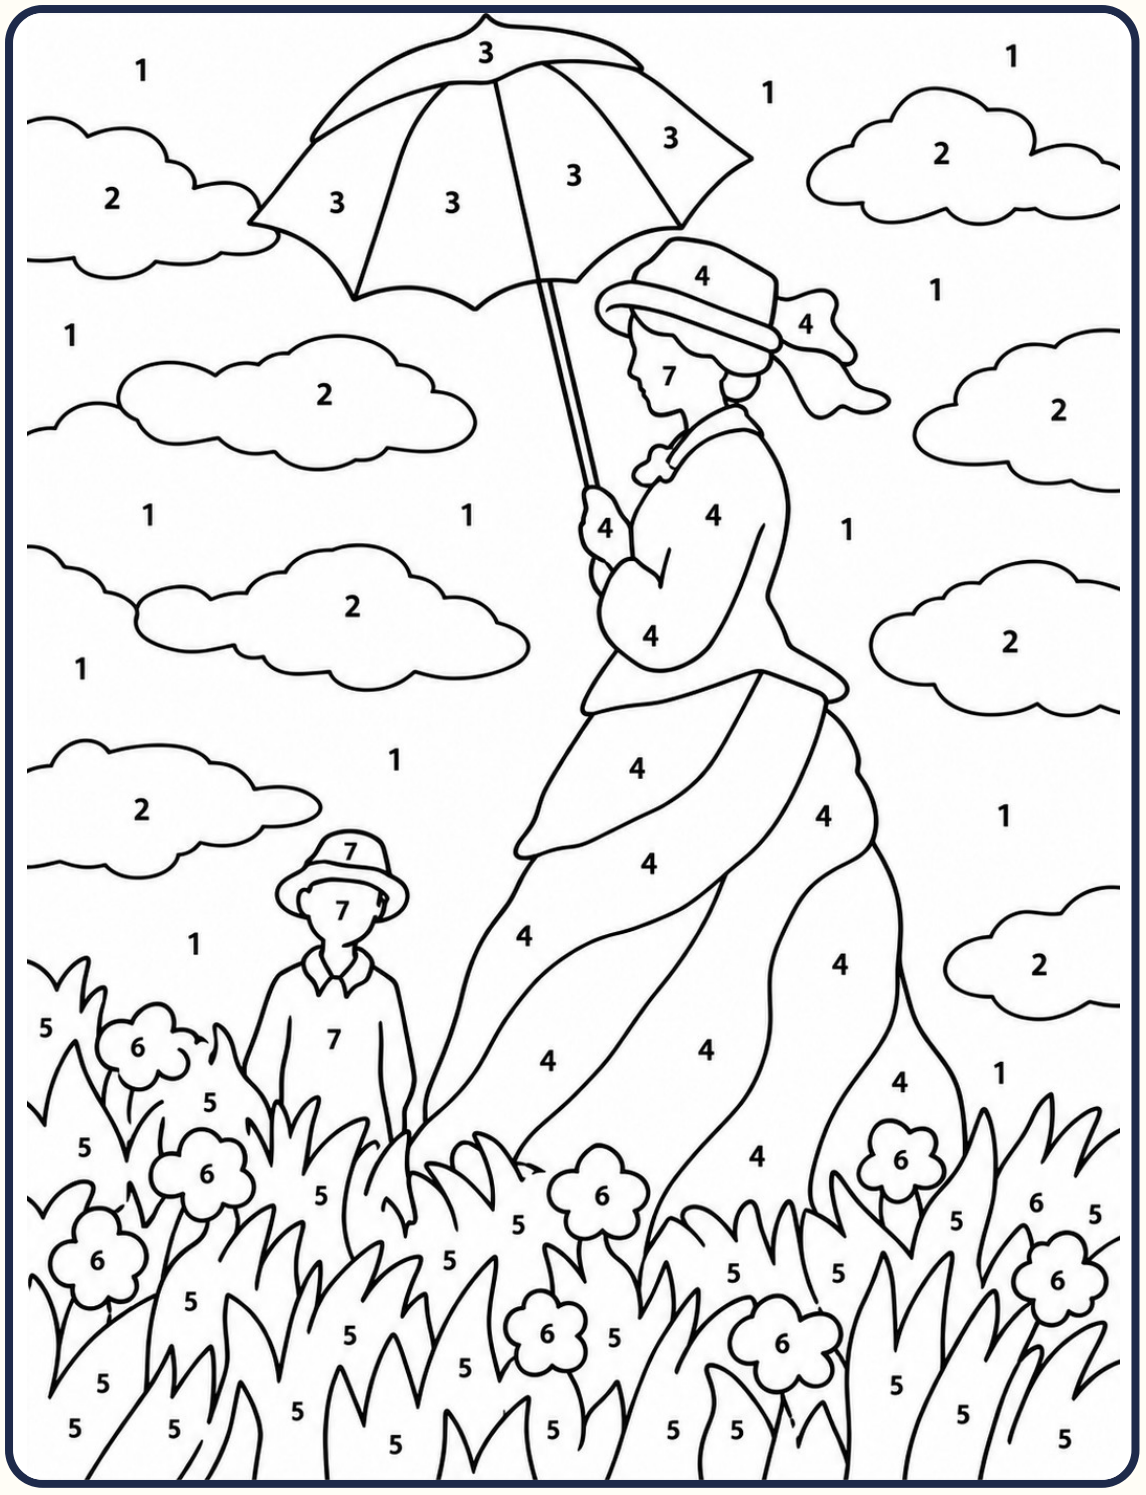
Who was Berthe Morisot?
She painted with quick, light brushstrokes, like feathers.

Why is it famous?
A mom and her children catch butterflies in a shady garden.

Did you know?
The lady is Edma, Berthe's sister, with her two little girls.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Grass	Trees	Dresses	Net	Hat	Path	Light



57

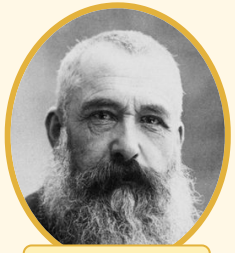
Woman with a Parasol

Claude Monet · 1875

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Claude Monet

Who was Monet?

He loved painting his family outdoors, in the sun and the wind.

Why is it famous?

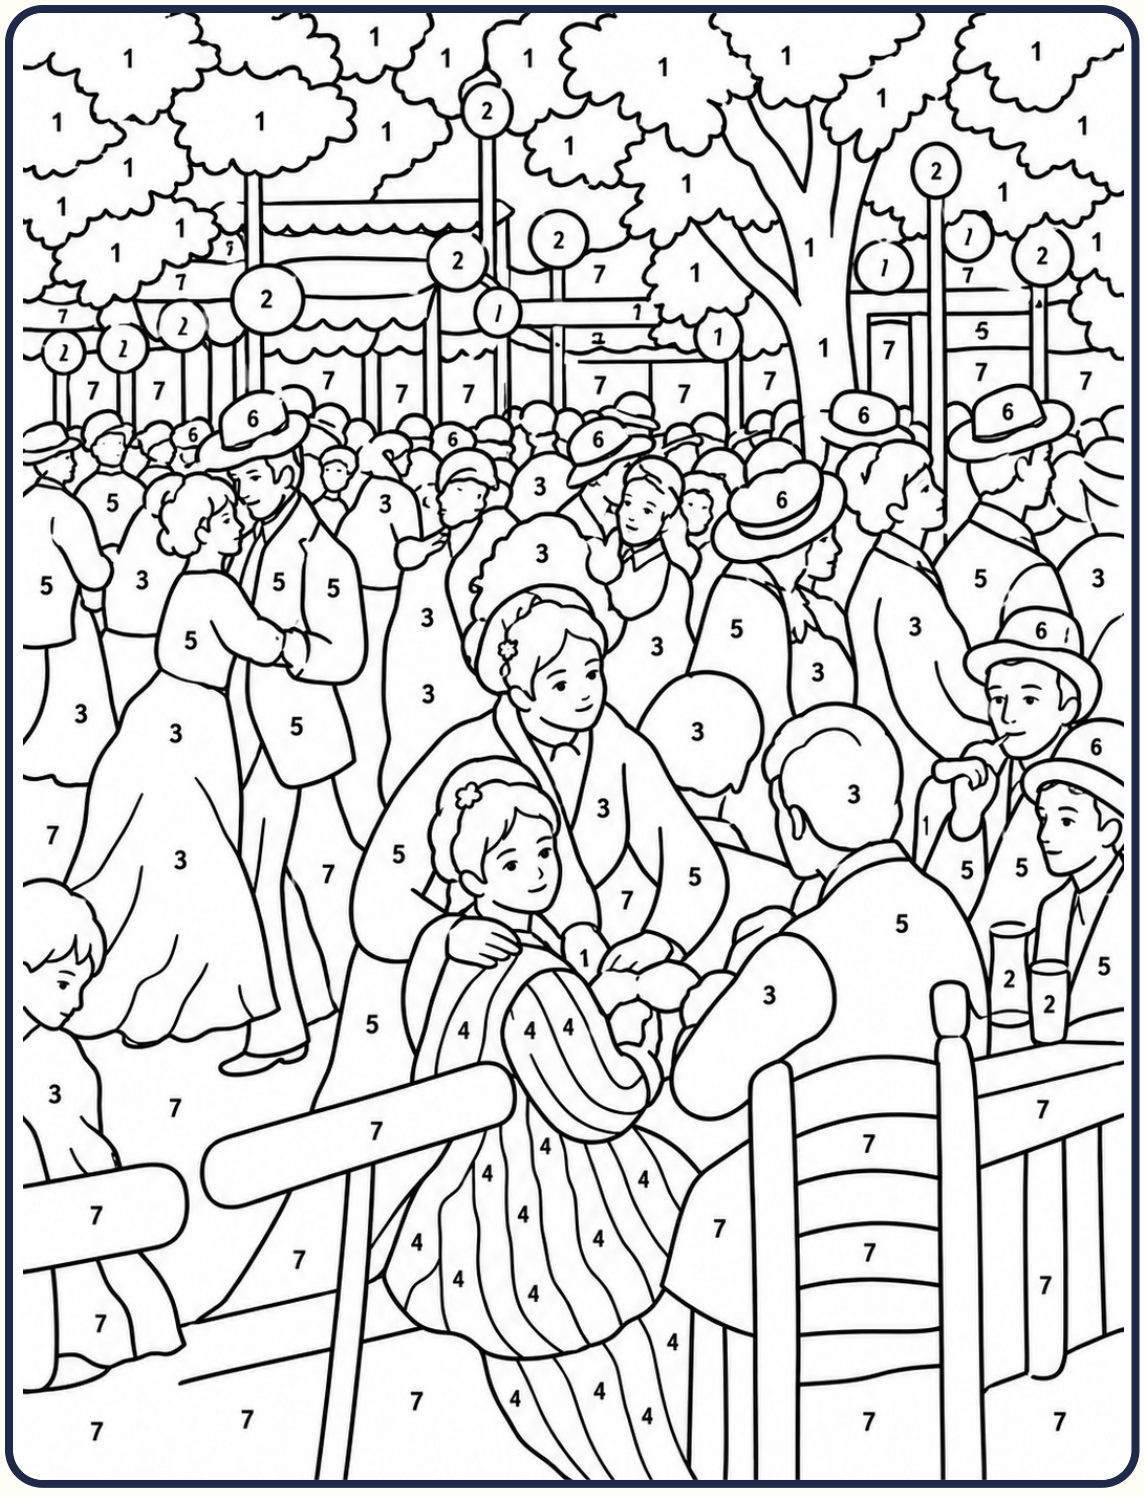
You can feel the wind blowing through the dress and the clouds.

Did you know?

The lady is Camille, his wife, and the little boy is their son Jean.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Parasol	Dress	Grass	Flowers	Boy



58

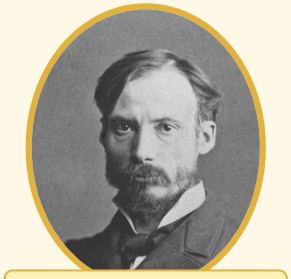
Dance at Le Moulin de la Galette

Pierre-Auguste Renoir · 1876

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Pierre-Auguste Renoir

Who was Renoir?

A French painter who only wanted to paint happy things.

Why is it famous?

Spots of sunlight shining through the leaves dance on the people.

Did you know?

Renoir carried his big canvas to Montmartre, with help from his friends.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Leaves	Sunlight	Dresses	Stripes	Jackets	Hats	Ground

Flood at Port-Marly

Alfred Sisley · 1876

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Alfred Sisley

Who was Sisley?

An English painter born in Paris, who mostly painted rivers and skies.

Why is it famous?

The river overflowed: boats float where there used to be a street!

Did you know?

Sisley painted this same flood several times, in just a few days.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Water	House	Roof	Trees	Boats

60

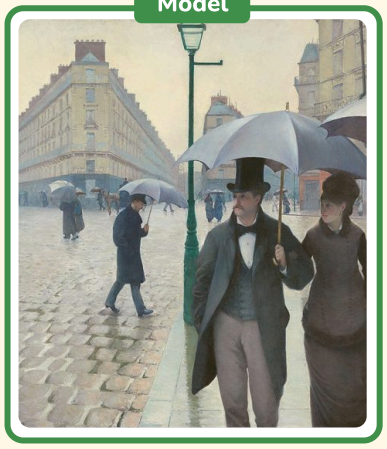
Paris Street; Rainy Day

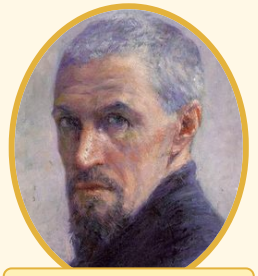
Gustave Caillebotte · 1877

Impressionism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model





Gustave Caillebotte

Who was Caillebotte?
A French painter and rich collector who bought his friends' paintings to help them.

Why is it famous?
Parisians stroll under their umbrellas on the wet cobblestones.

Did you know?
The big green lamppost cuts the painting exactly in half.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Buildings	Cobblestones	Umbrellas	Coats	Lamppost	Faces

61

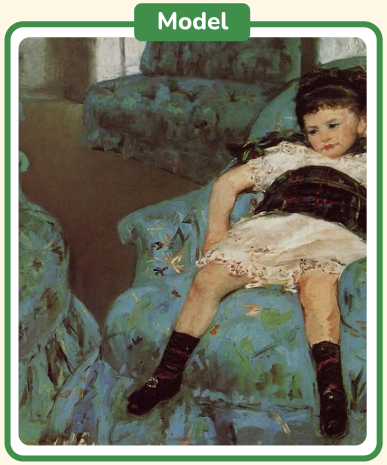
Little Girl in a Blue Armchair

Mary Cassatt · 1878

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Mary Cassatt

Who was Mary Cassatt?

She was one of the few women to show her work with the Impressionists.

Why is it famous?

A bored little girl slumps in a big armchair next to her dog.

Did you know?

The sleeping little dog belonged to Mary Cassatt herself.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Armchairs	Patterns	Dress	Sash	Dog	Floor	Windows

62

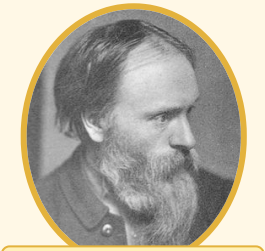
The Golden Stairs

Edward Burne-Jones · 1880

Pre-Raphaelites

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Edward Burne-Jones

Who was Burne-Jones?

An English painter who loved legends and fairy-tale worlds.

Why is it famous?

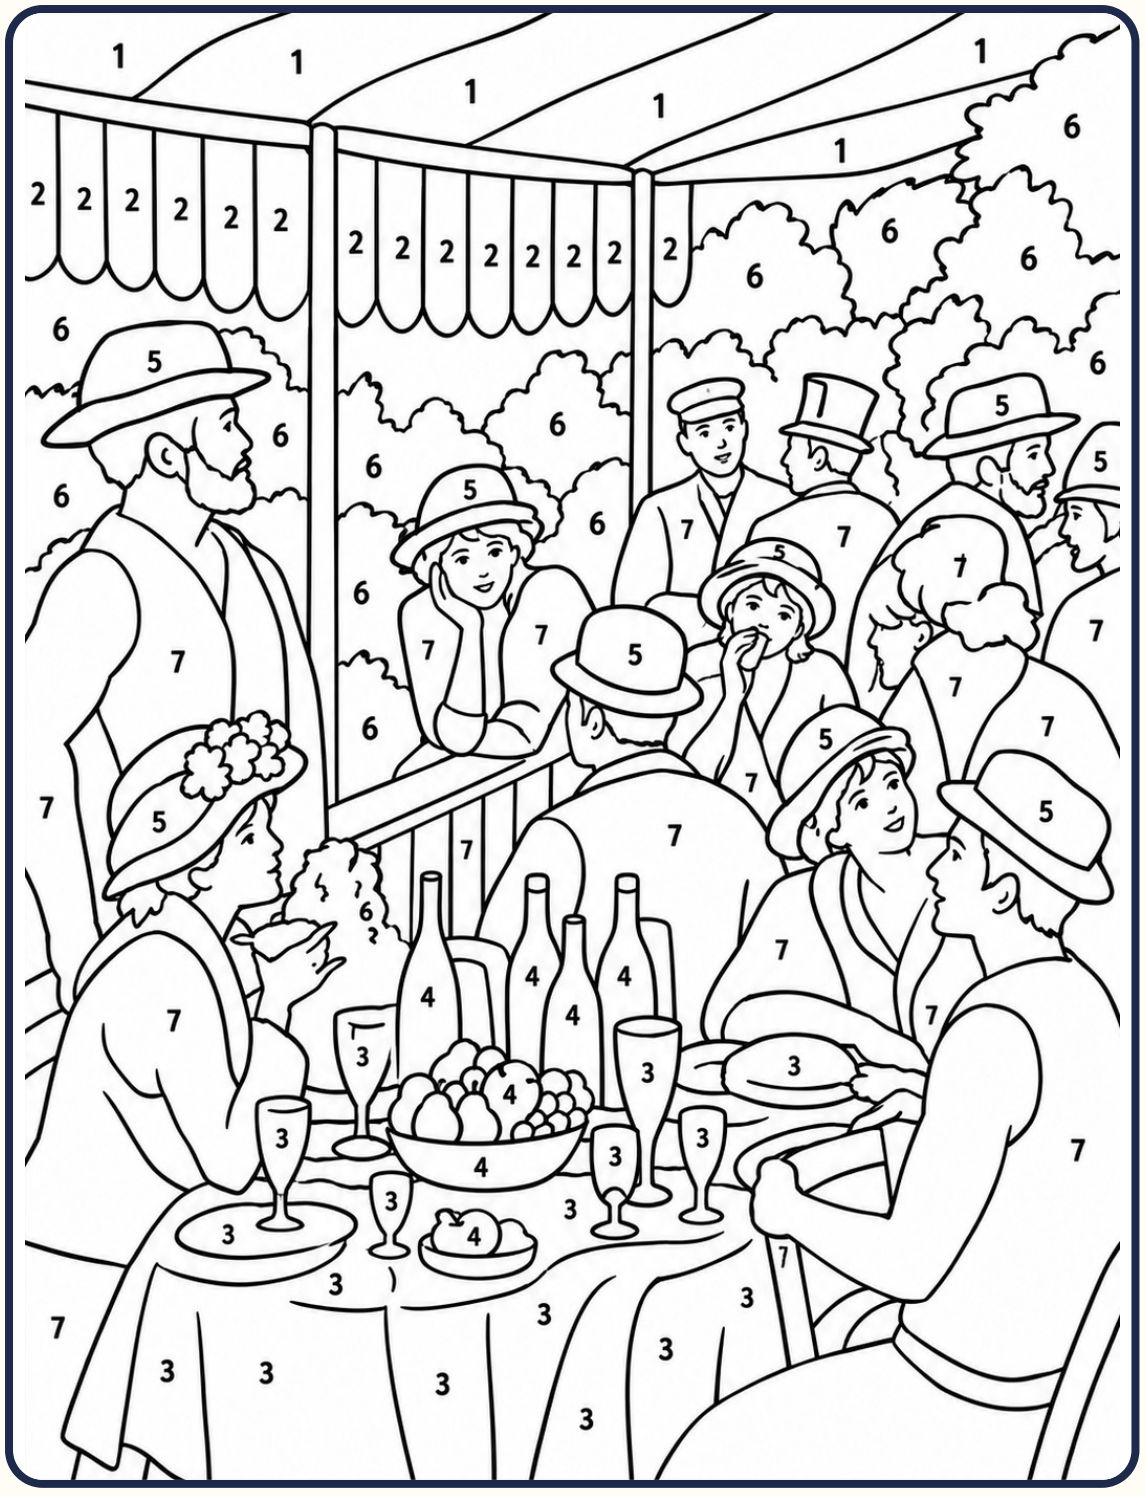
Eighteen young women walk down a winding staircase with their instruments.

Did you know?

Burne-Jones was best friends with William Morris, famous for his flowery wallpapers.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Stairs	Dresses	Folds	Hair	Instruments	Door	Sky



63

Luncheon of the Boating Party

Pierre-Auguste Renoir · 1881

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Pierre-Auguste Renoir

Who was Renoir?

Late in life, he painted with the brush tied to his hand.

Why is it famous?

Friends have lunch by the water, in the happy mood of a summer day.

Did you know?

The young woman playing with the little dog later became Renoir's wife.

Colors

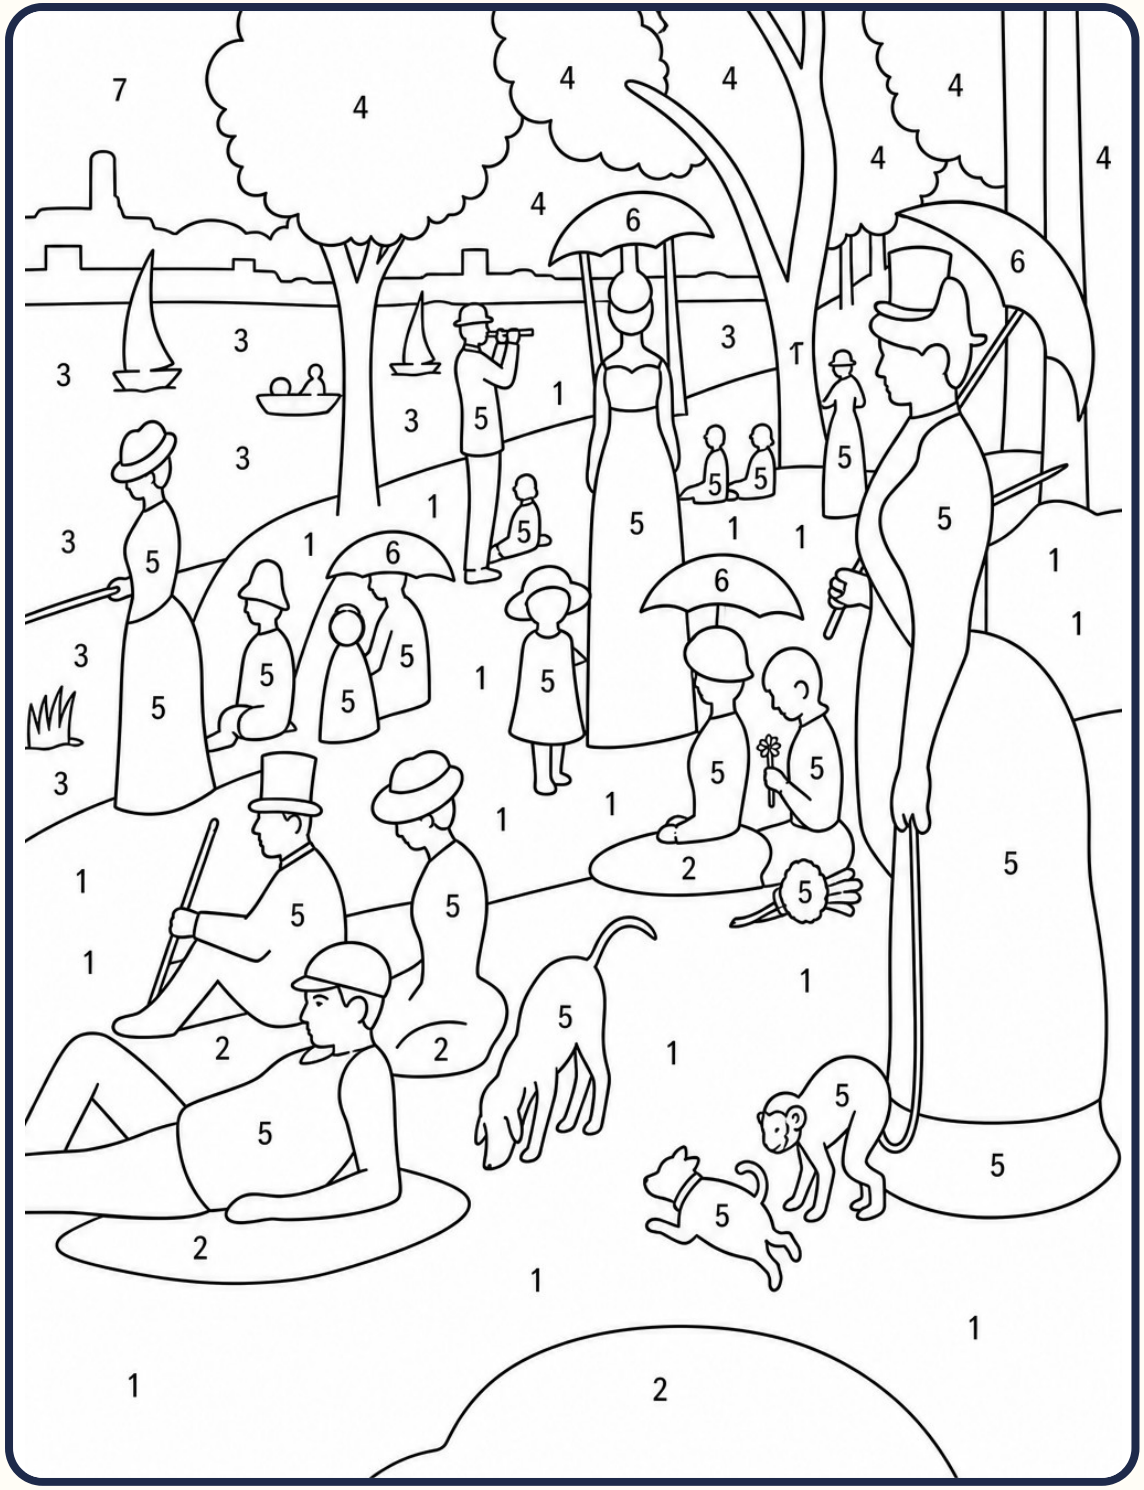
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Awning	Stripes	Tablecloth	Fruit	Hats	Leaves	Jackets

A Sunday on La Grande Jatte

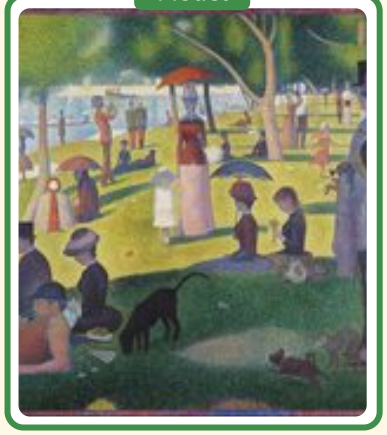
Georges Seurat · 1884

Pointillism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!



Model



Georges Seurat

Who was Seurat?

A French painter who painted with thousands of tiny dots of color.

Why is it famous?

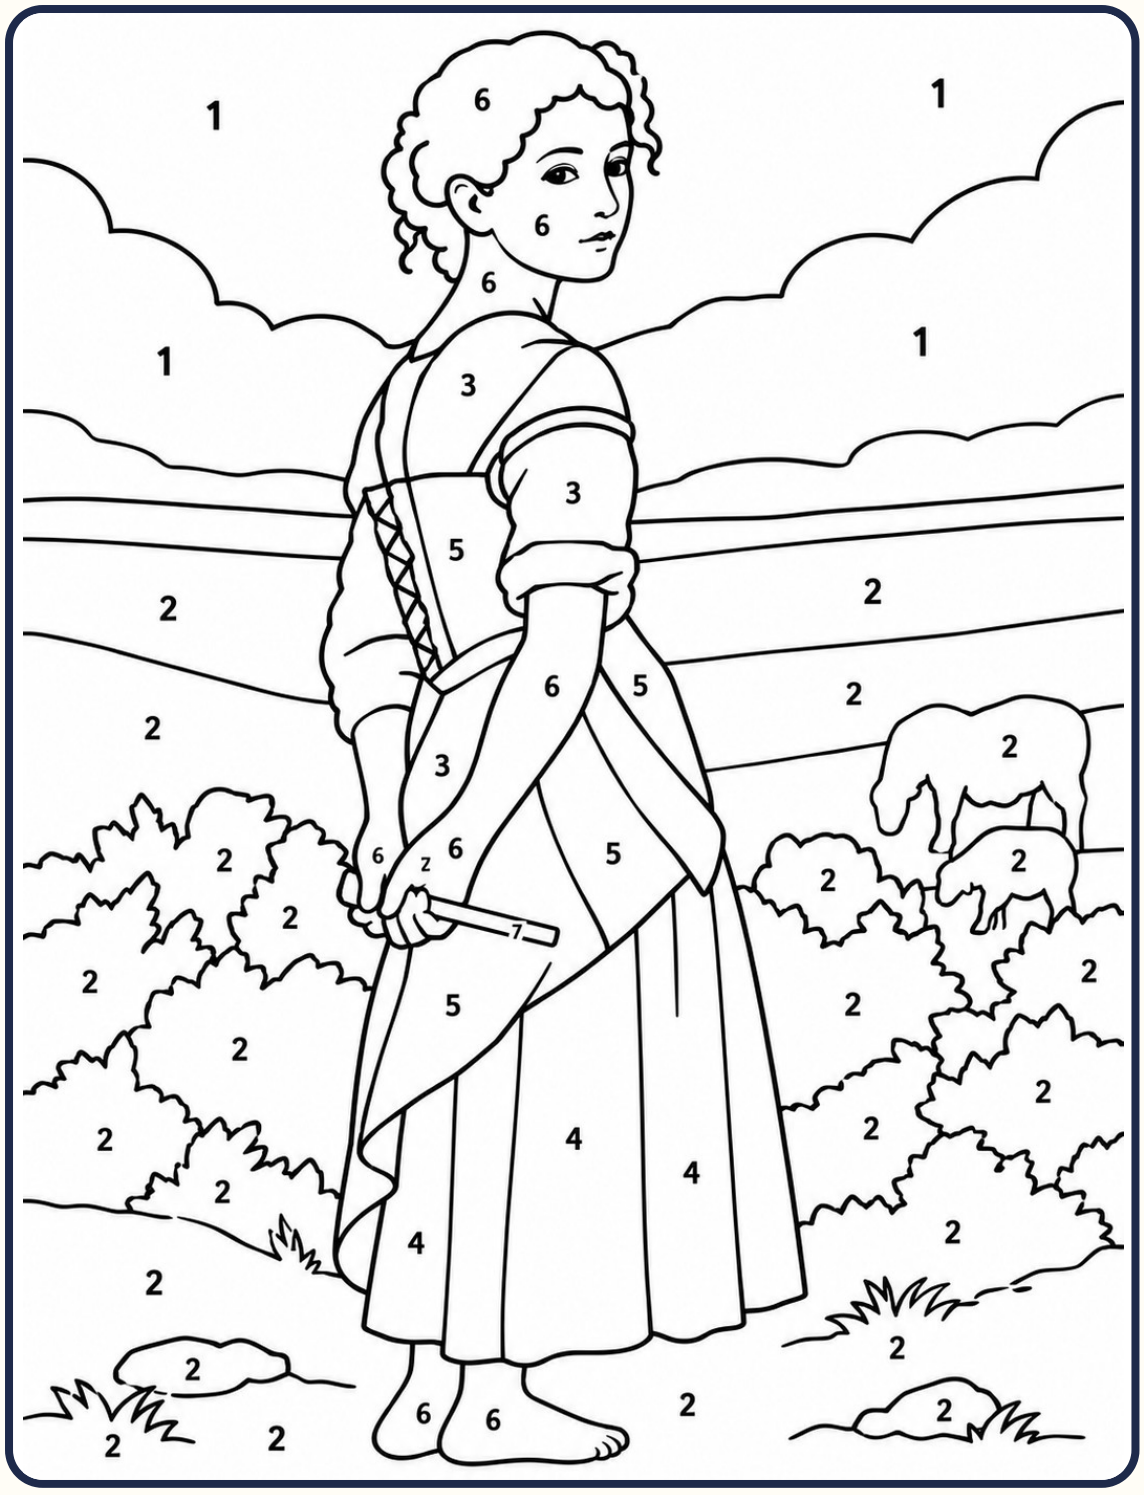
Parisians stroll by the water, and one lady is even walking a monkey!

Did you know?

Seurat spent two years painting this picture, dot by dot.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Grass	Shade	Water	Trees	Dresses	Parasols	Sky



65

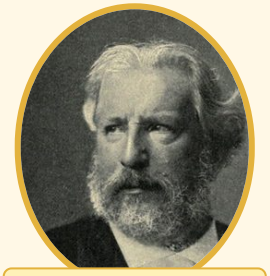
The Young Shepherdess

William Bouguereau · 1885

Academic art

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



William Bouguereau

Who was Bouguereau?
A very famous French painter of his time, who painted gentle faces.

Why is it famous?
A barefoot young shepherdess rests in the countryside, holding a stick.

Did you know?
Bouguereau drew so carefully that you can see every toe and every fold of the skirt.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Meadow	Blouse	Skirt	Apron	Skin	Stick

66

Carnation, Lily, Lily, Rose

John Singer Sargent · 1886

Impressionism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

John Singer Sargent

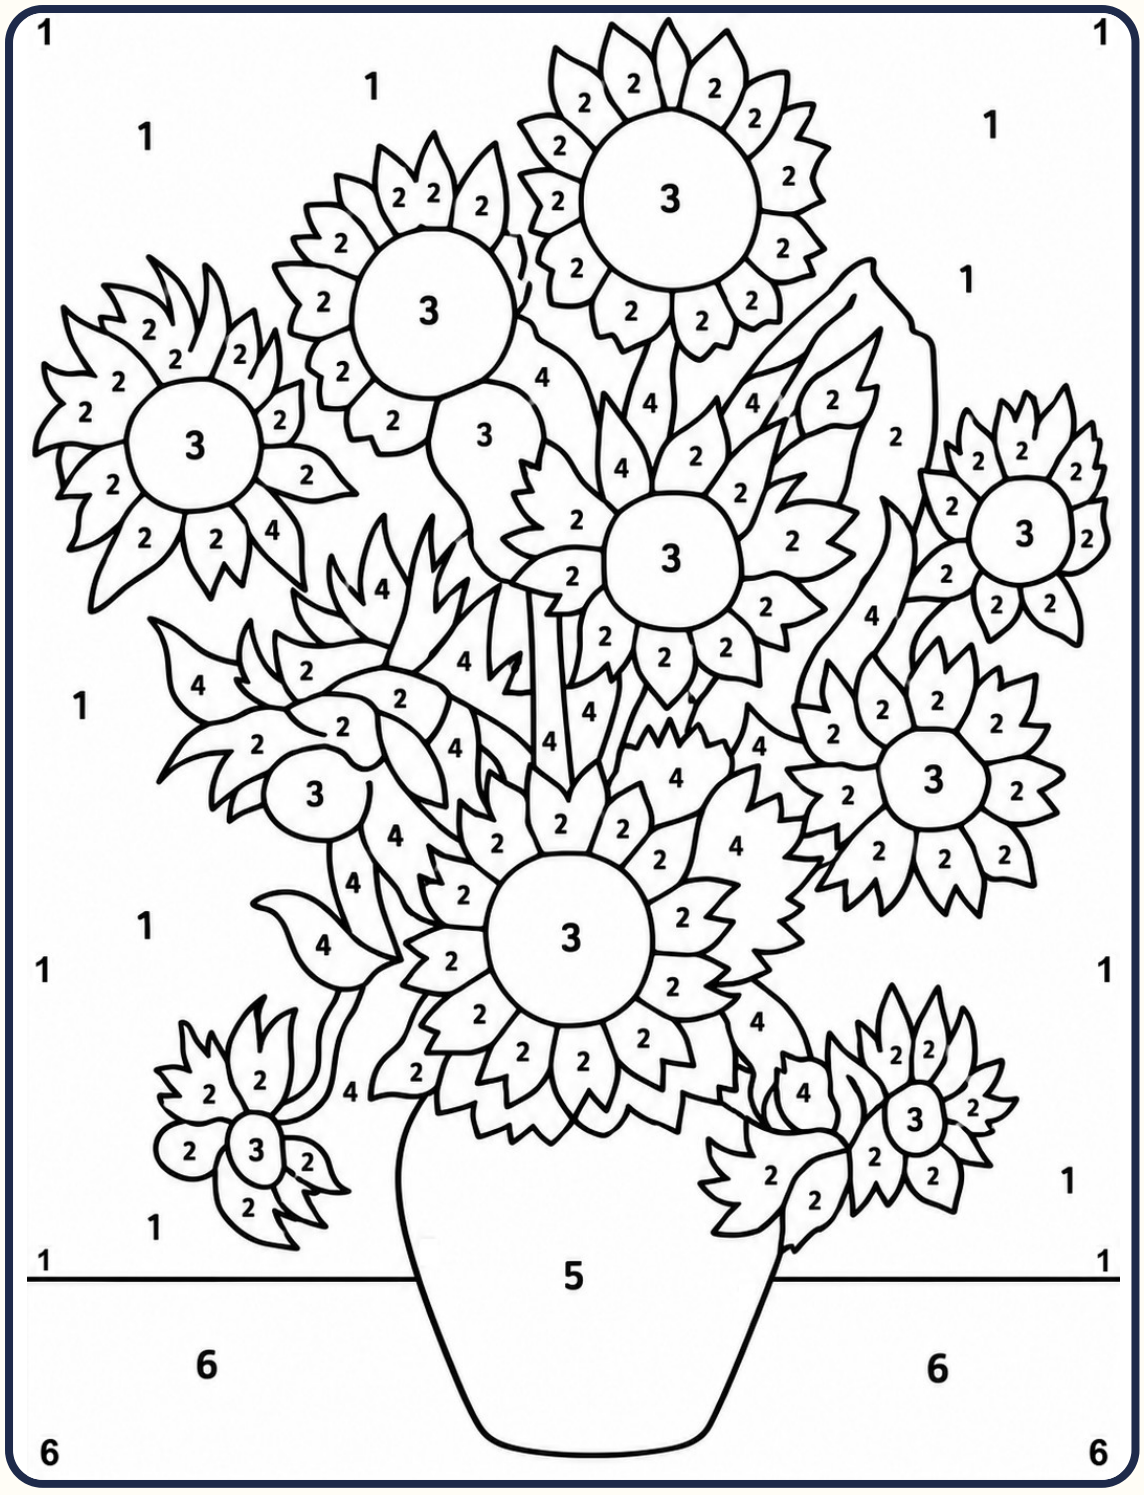
Who was Sargent?
An American painter born in Italy, who lived all over Europe.

Why is it famous?
Two little girls light paper lanterns in a garden full of flowers.

Did you know?
Sargent painted only a few minutes each evening, right at sunset.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Leaves	Lilies	Roses	Lanterns	Dresses	Hair	Grass



67

Sunflowers

Vincent van Gogh · 1888

Post-Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Vincent van Gogh

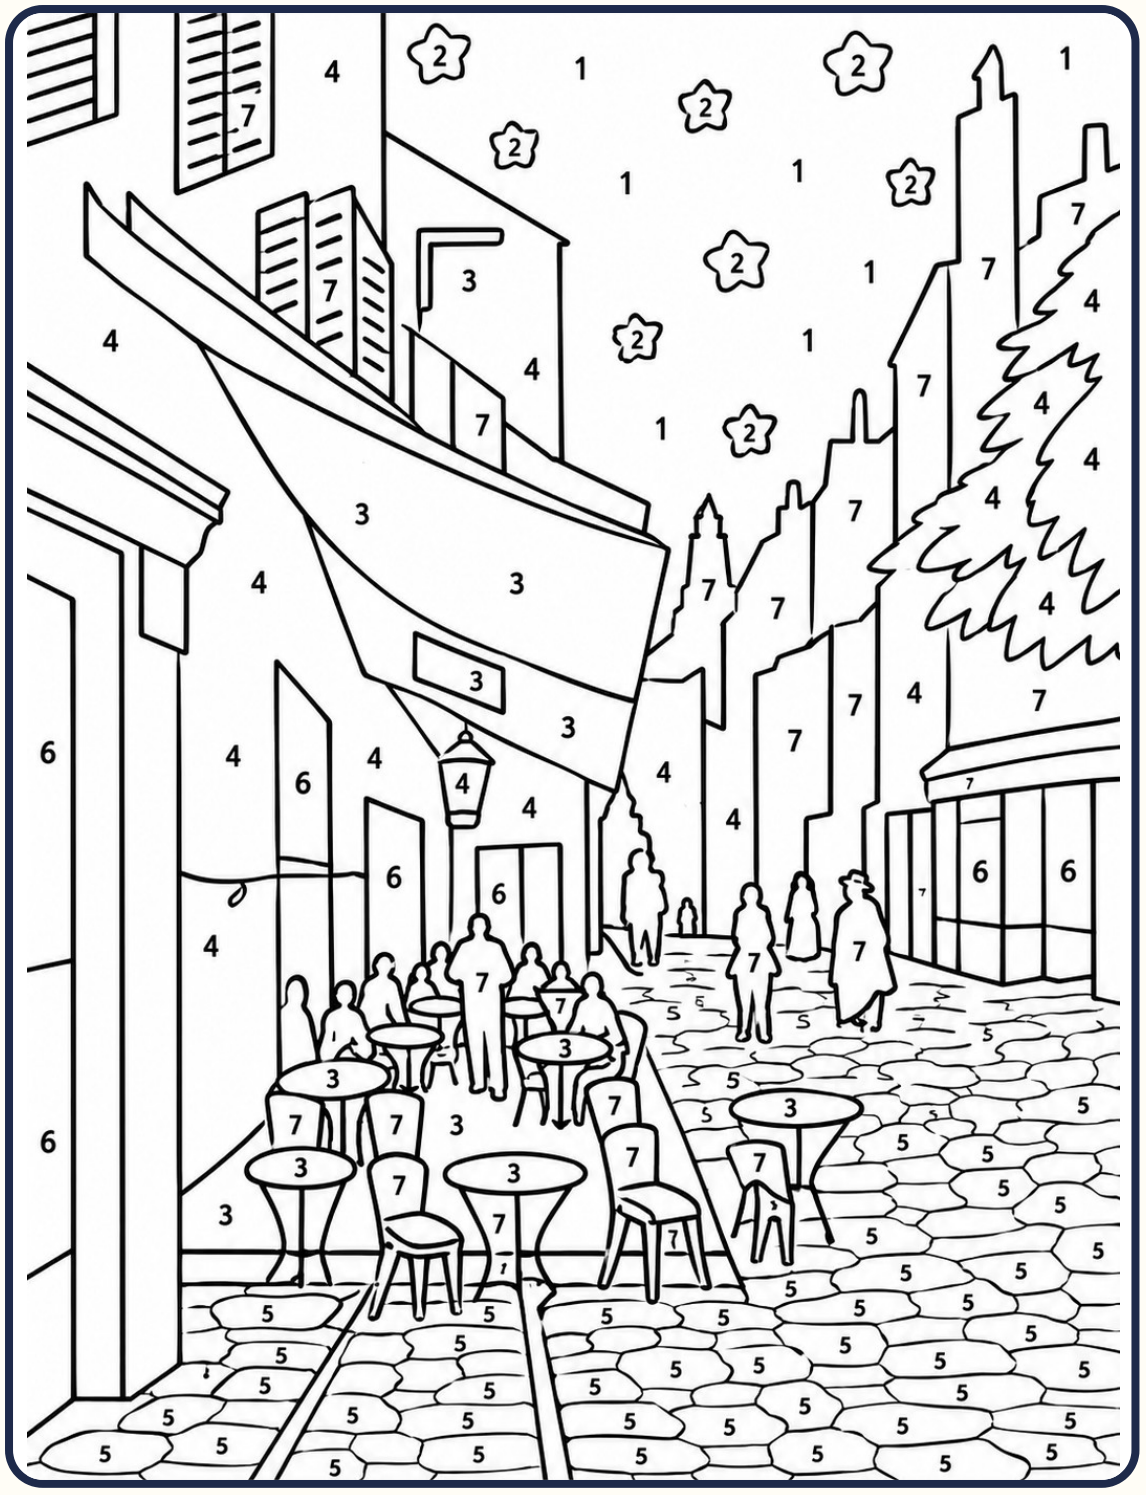
Who was Van Gogh?
A Dutch painter who lived in the south of France, where the sunlight is very strong.

Why is it famous?
Yellow is everywhere: it's as if the sun came into the vase.

Did you know?
Van Gogh painted these flowers to decorate his friend Gauguin's room.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6
Background	Petals	Centers	Stems	Vase	Table



68

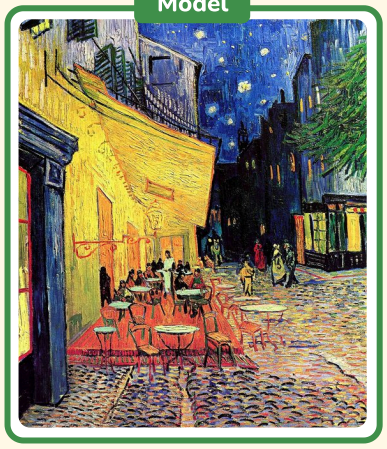
Cafe Terrace at Night

Vincent van Gogh · 1888

Post-Impressionism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Vincent van Gogh

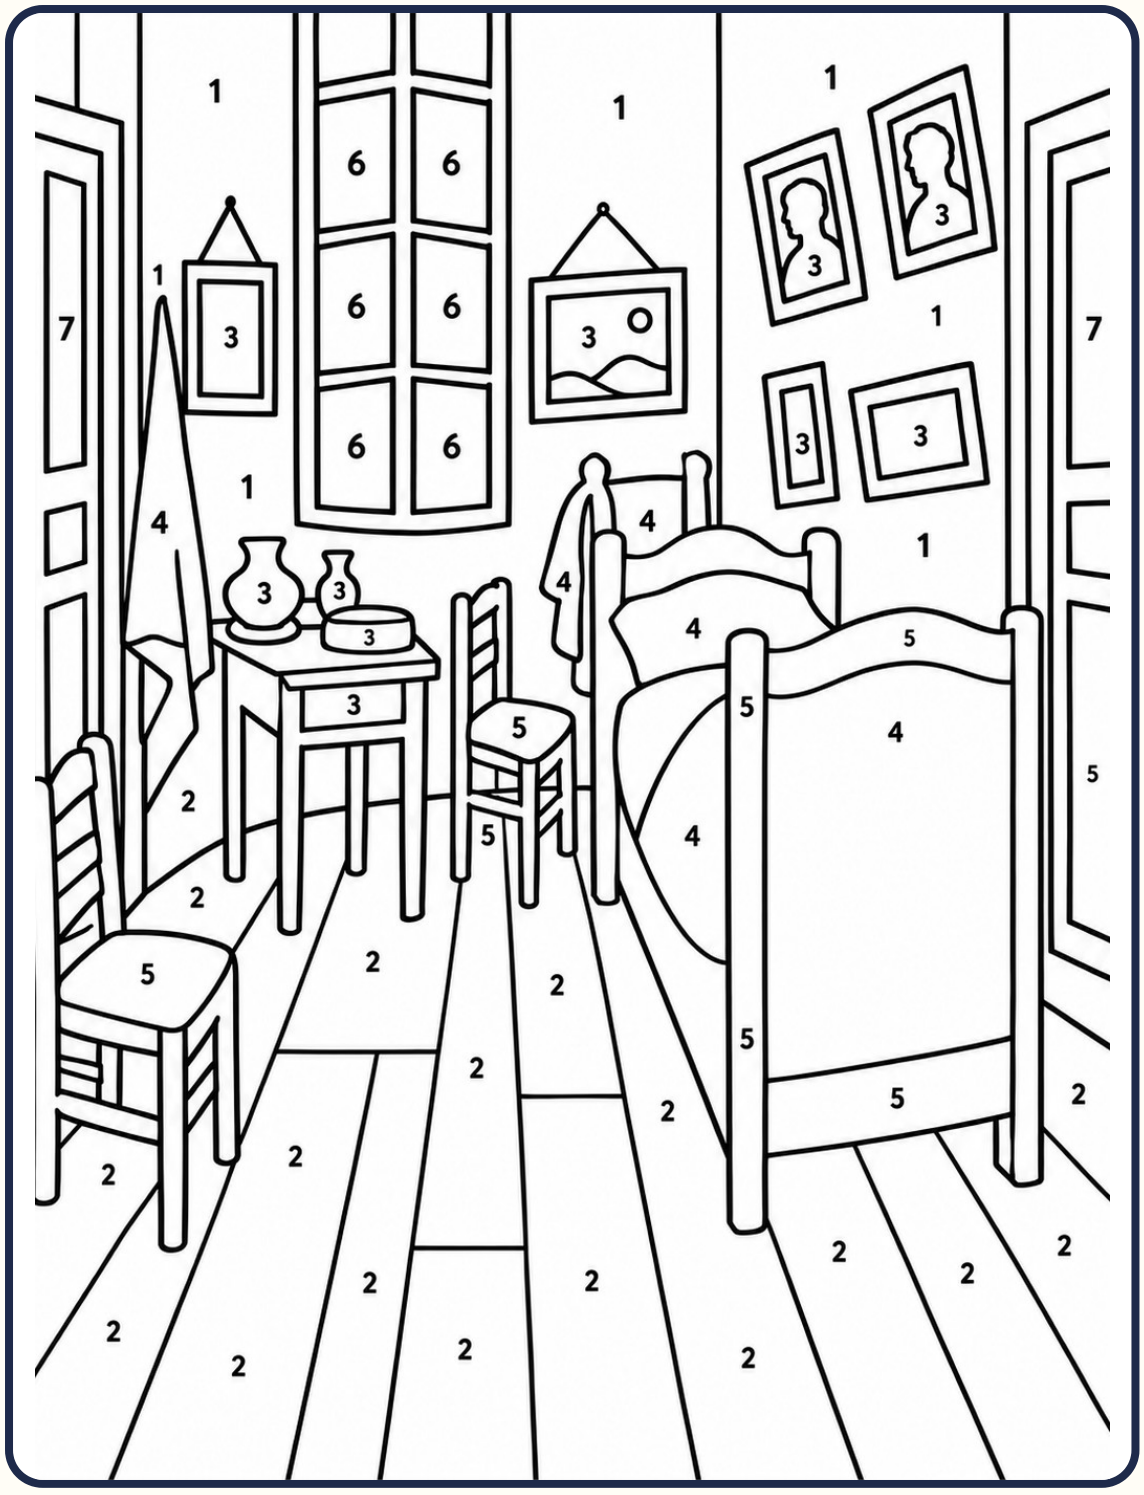
Who was Van Gogh?
He often worked outside, even at night, with his easel in the street.

Why is it famous?
It's a night painting without a single touch of black: just blue and yellow!

Did you know?
This cafe still exists in Arles, and you can still sit there.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Stars	Awning	Walls	Cobblestones	Doors	Houses & chairs



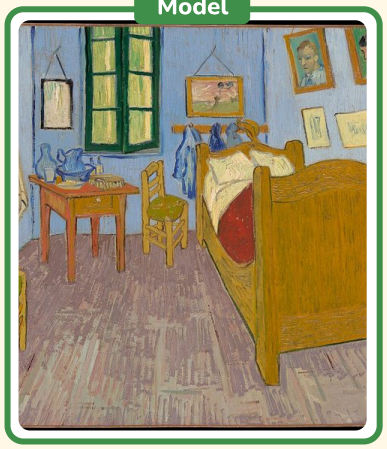
The Bedroom

Vincent van Gogh · 1888

Post-Impressionism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Vincent van Gogh

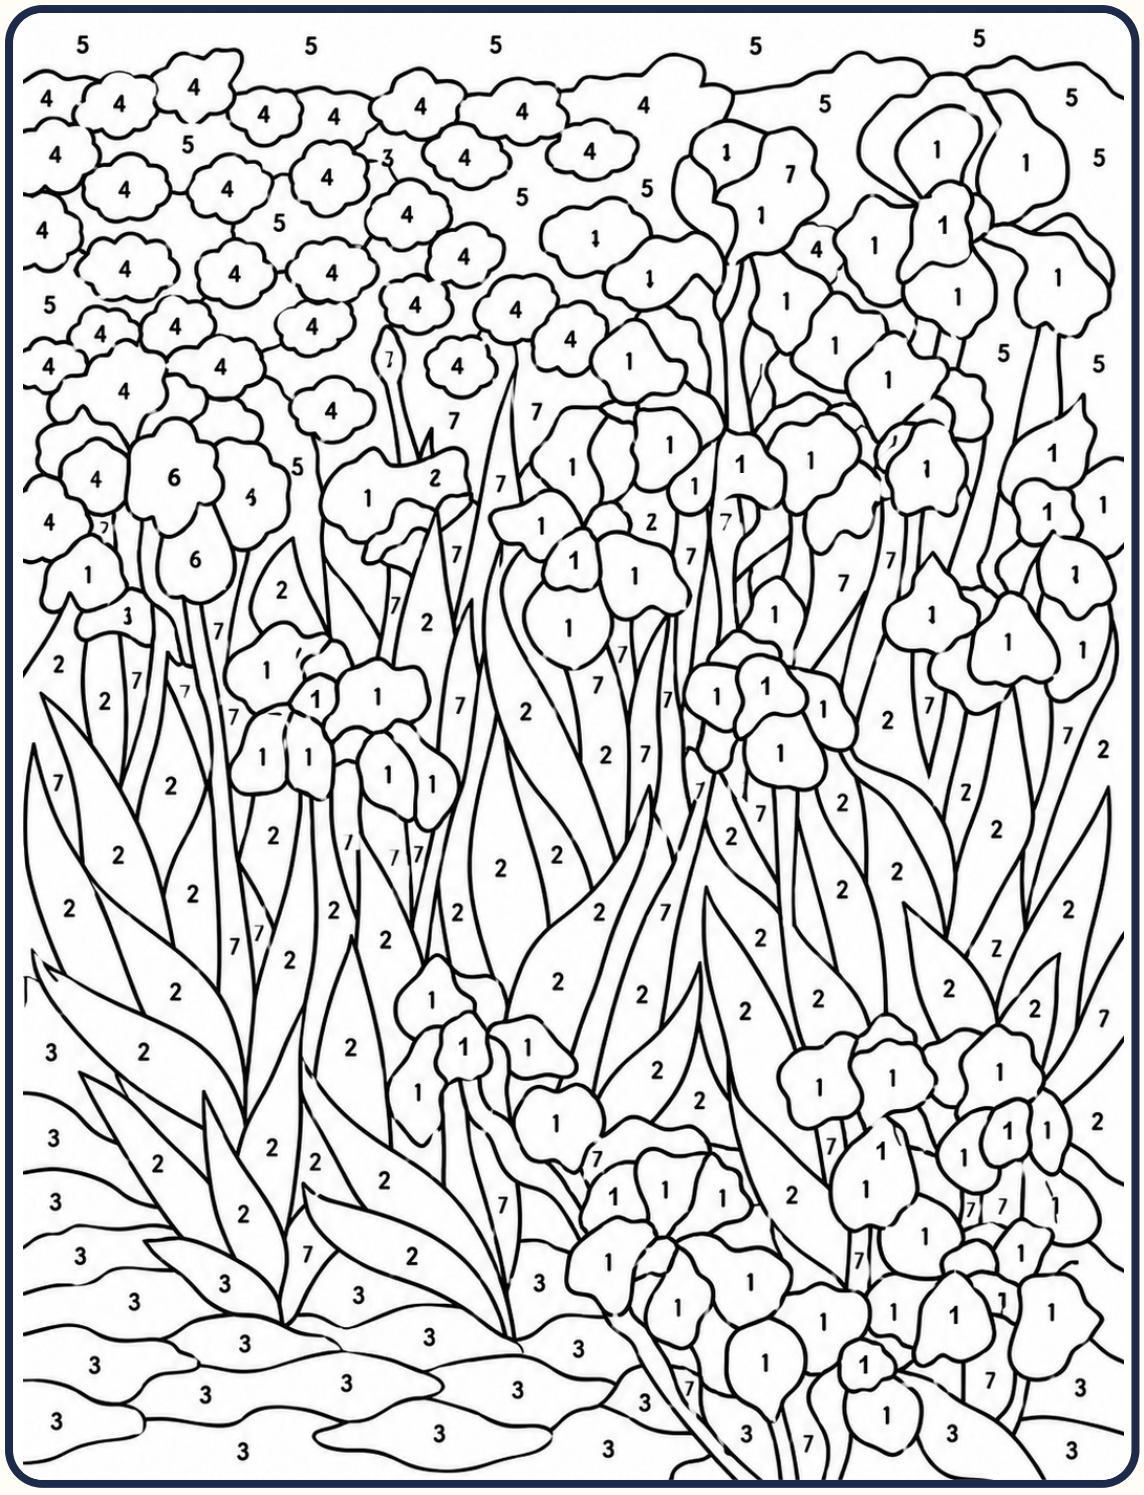
Who was Van Gogh?
An artist who painted more than 850 paintings in just ten years.

Why is it famous?
He painted his own bedroom to show a calm place to rest.

Did you know?
He loved this painting so much that he made three versions of it.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Walls	Floor	Table & frames	Blanket	Bed & chairs	Window	Doors



70

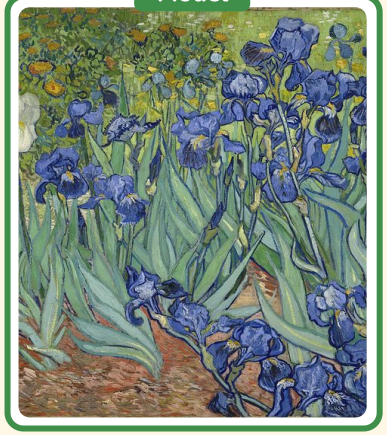
Irises

Vincent van Gogh · 1889

Post-Impressionism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Vincent van Gogh

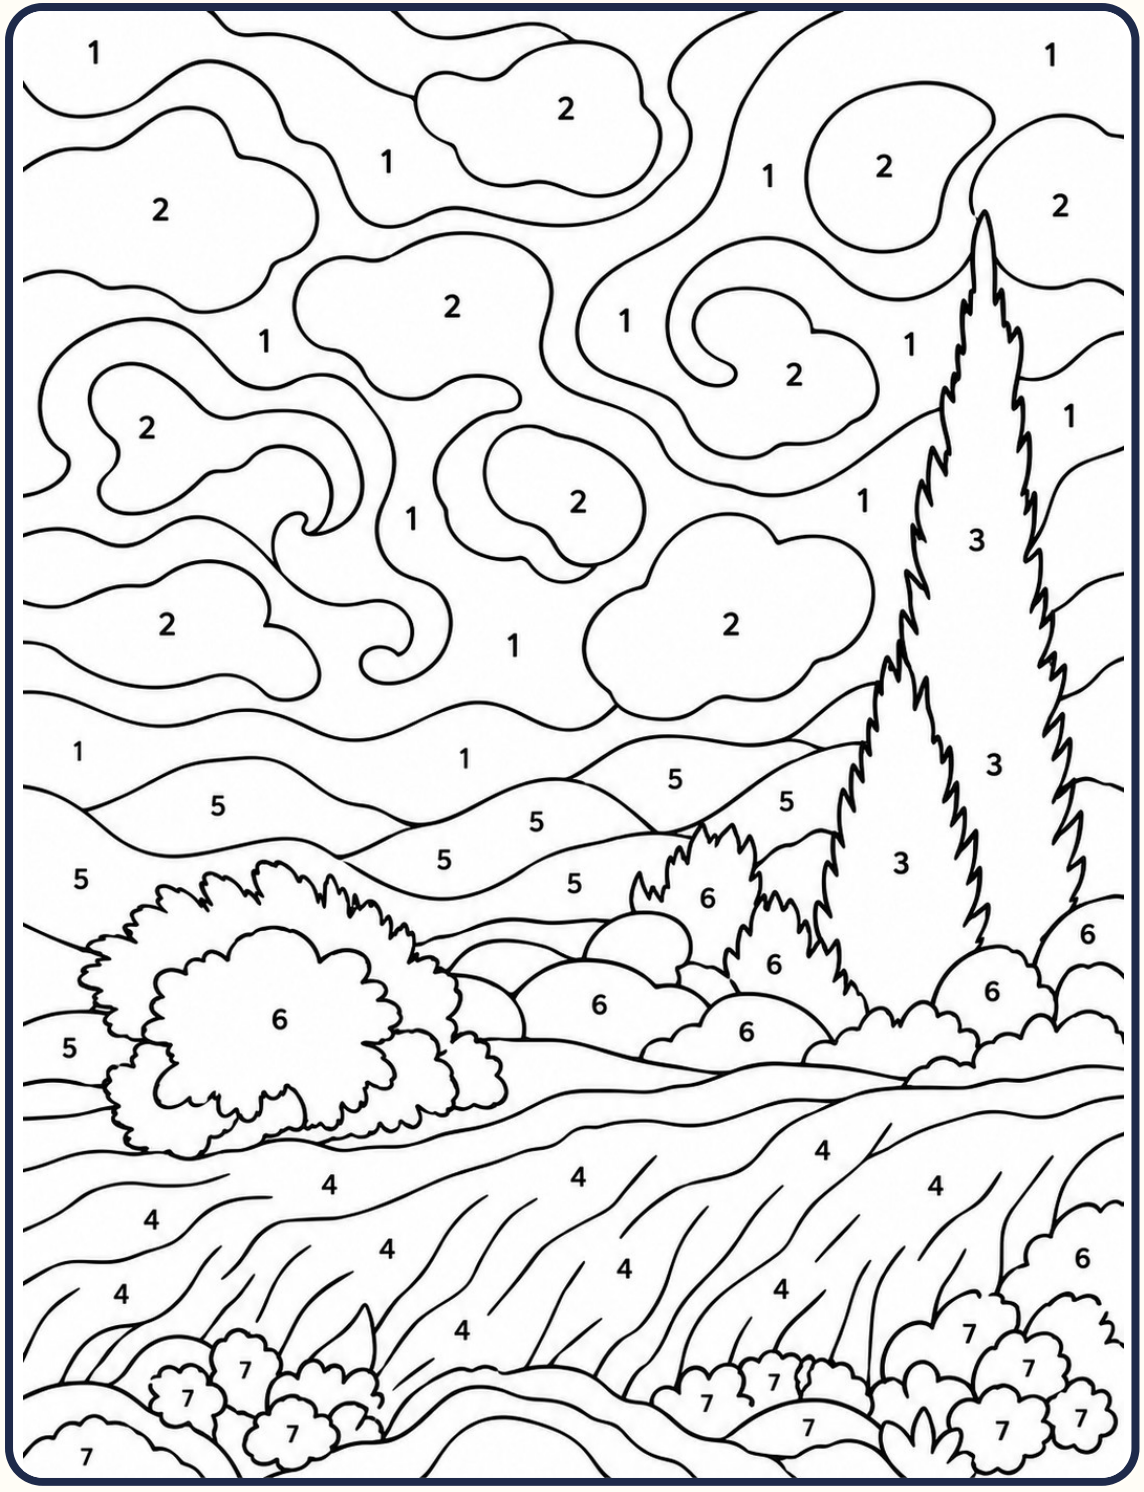
Who was Van Gogh?
He loved flowers and painted them with bright, thick colors.

Why is it famous?
Among all the purple flowers, only one is white: can you find it?

Did you know?
He painted these irises in the garden of the hospital where he was getting better.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Purple irises	Leaves	Soil	Orange flowers	Background	White iris	Grass



71

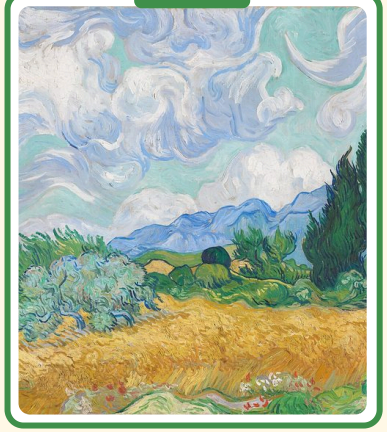
Wheat Field with Cypresses

Vincent van Gogh · 1889

Post-Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Vincent van Gogh

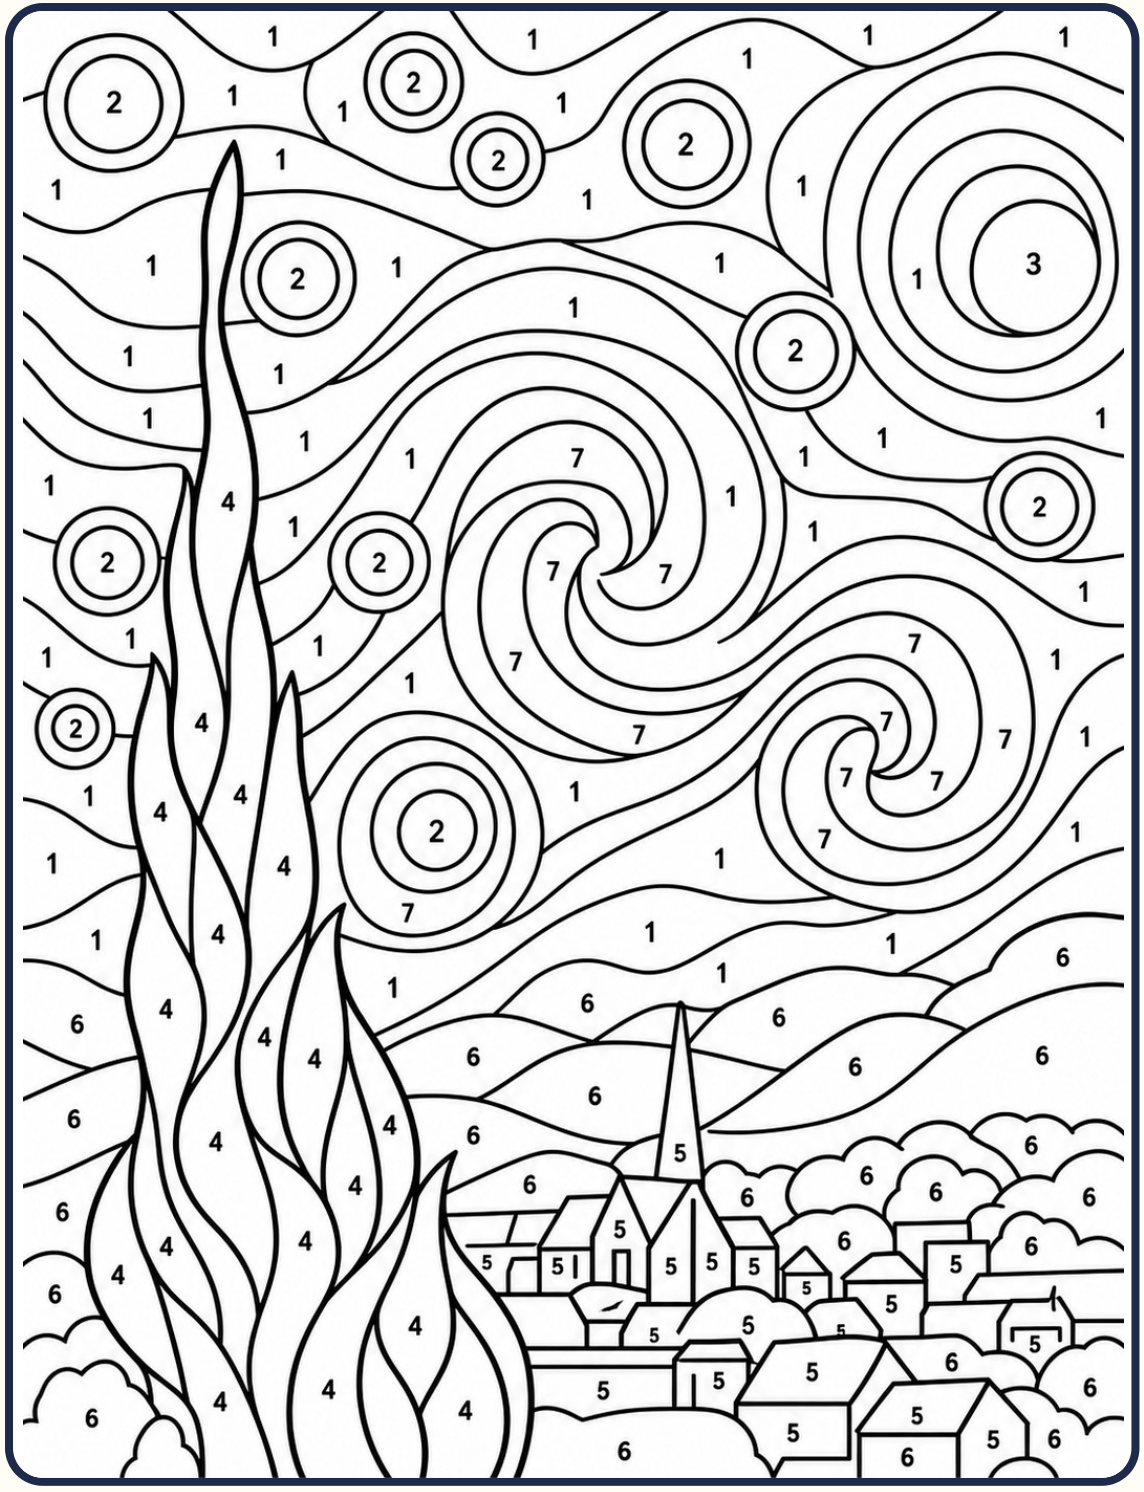
Who was Van Gogh?
He painted with brushstrokes shaped like waves and spirals.

Why is it famous?
Everything moves: the wheat, the trees, and even the clouds seem to dance.

Did you know?
Cypresses are very tall, pointy trees from the south of France.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Cypress	Wheat	Hills	Bushes	Flowers



72

The Starry Night

Vincent van Gogh · 1889

Post-Impressionism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Vincent van Gogh

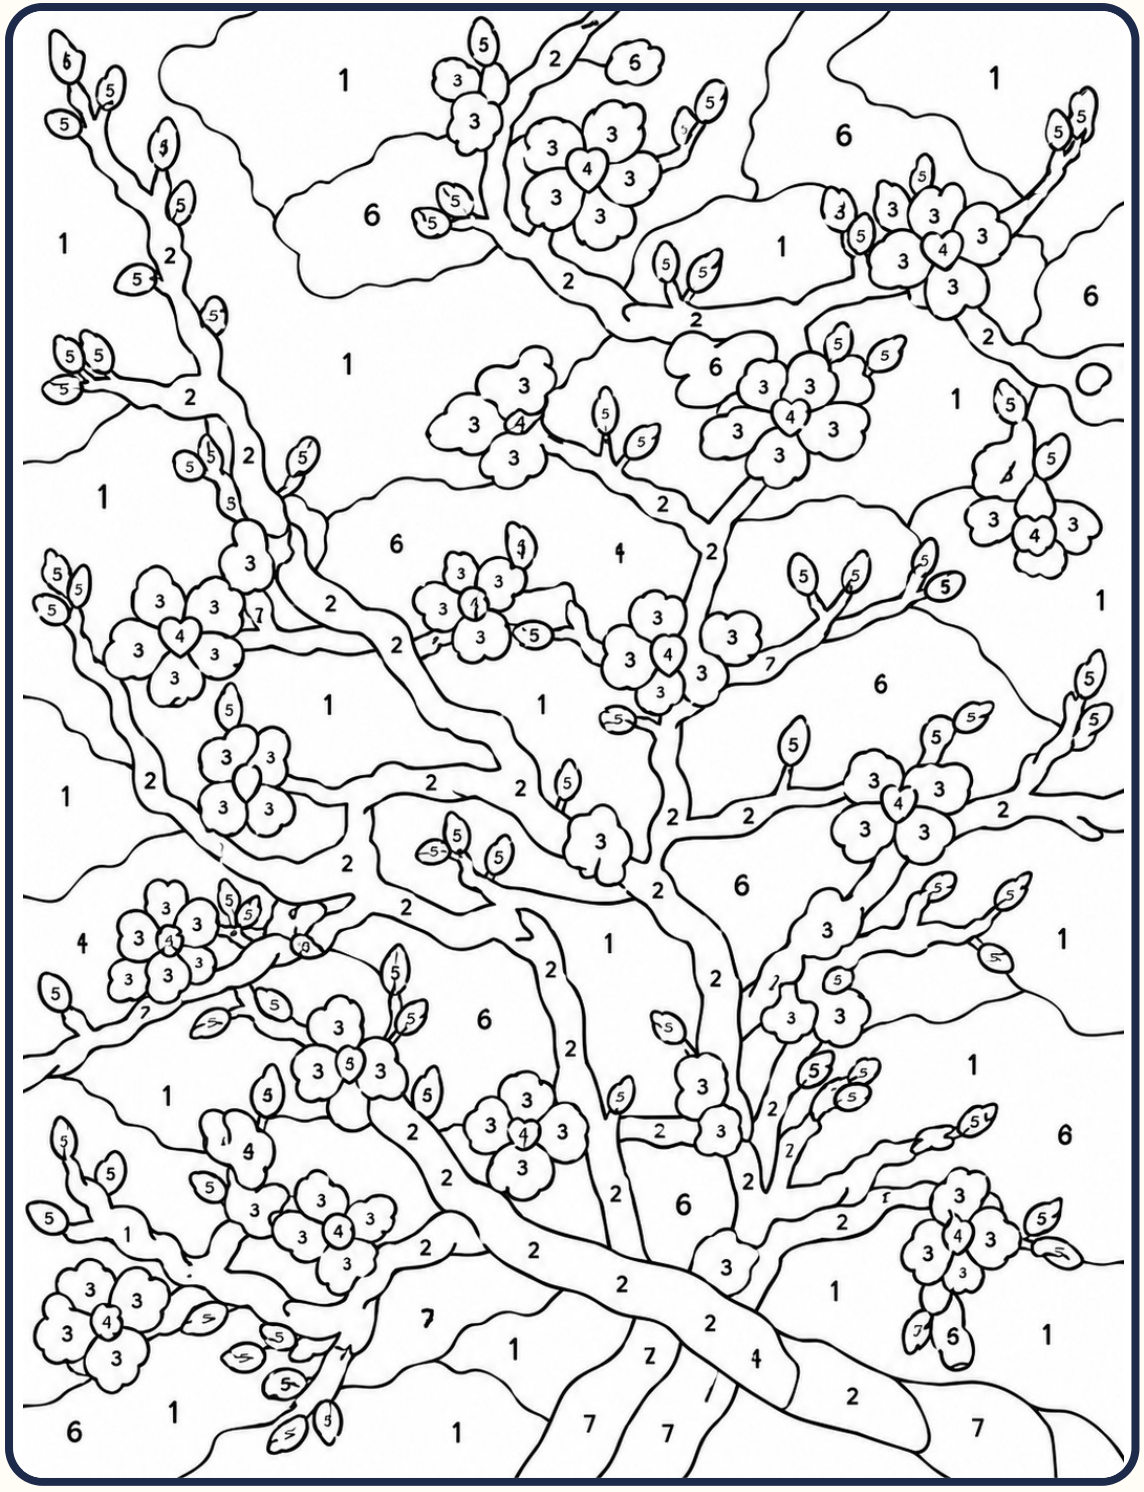
Who was Van Gogh?
A Dutch painter who loved bright colors and brushstrokes full of movement.

Why is it famous?
The sky swirls as if it were dancing with the stars.

Did you know?
He painted this view from his bedroom window.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Stars	Moon	Cypress	Houses	Hills	Swirls



73

Almond Blossoms

Vincent van Gogh · 1890

Post-Impressionism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Vincent van Gogh

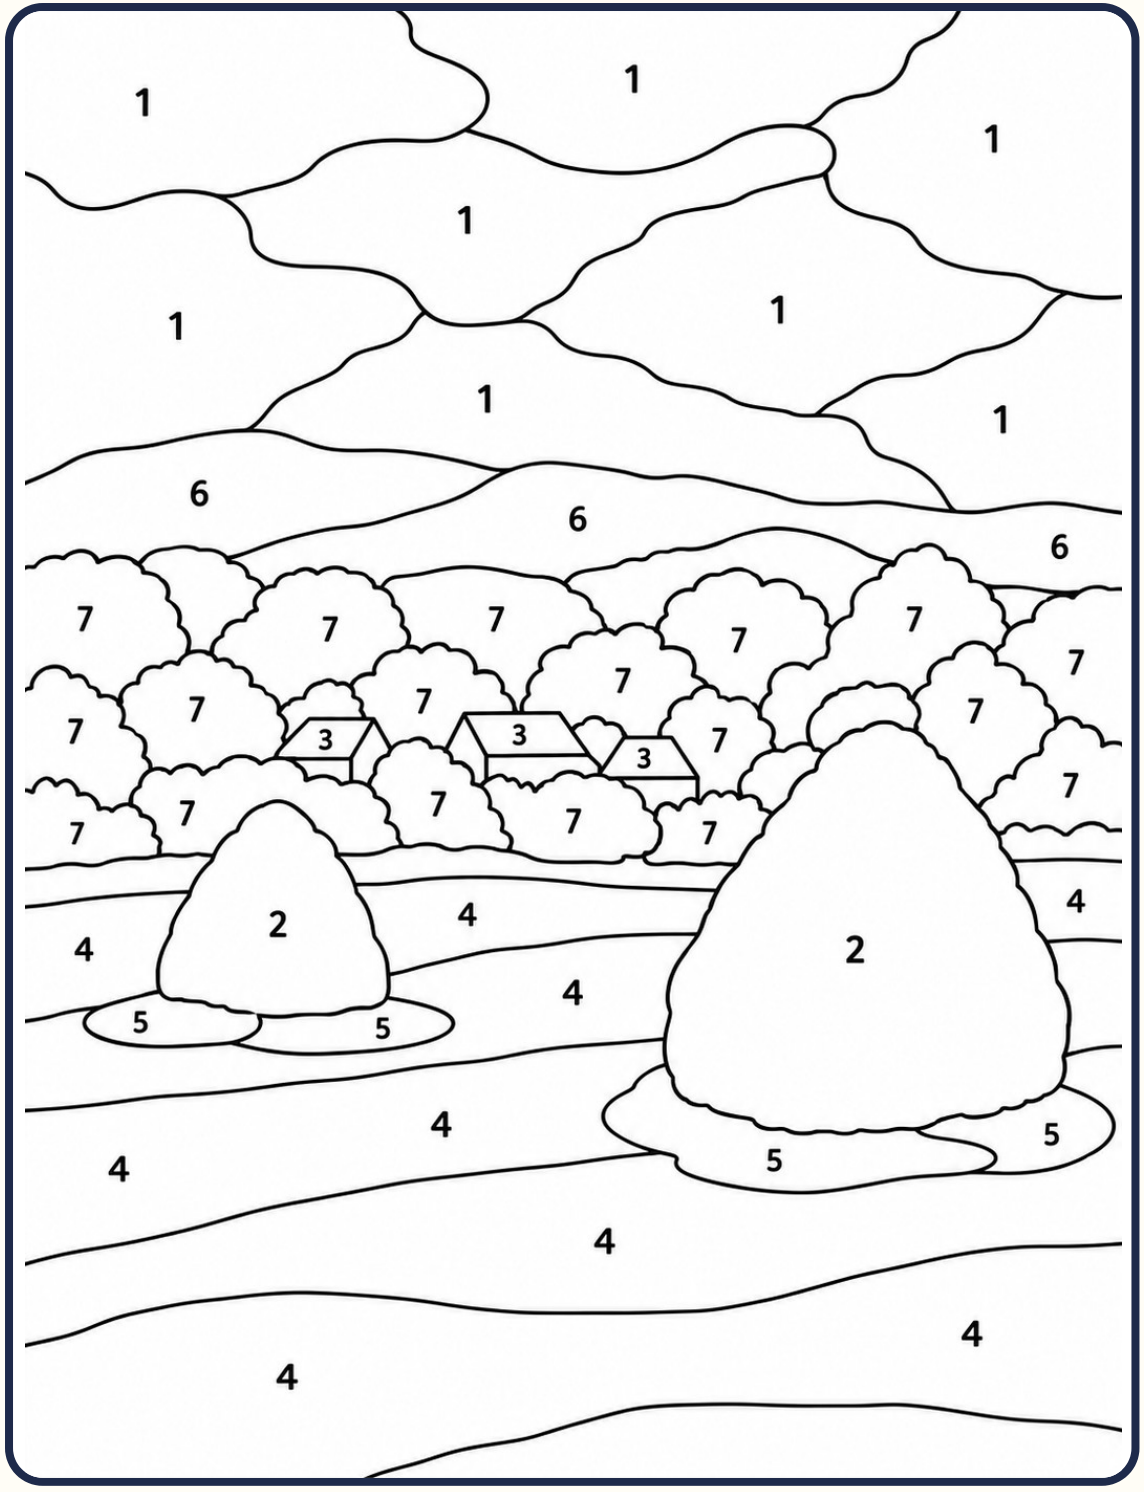
Who was Van Gogh?
He was the uncle of a baby who had the same name as him: Vincent.

Why is it famous?
White flowers open against a big turquoise-blue sky.

Did you know?
It was a gift for his baby nephew, to hang above his crib.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Branches	Flowers	Centers	Buds	Light sky	Shadows



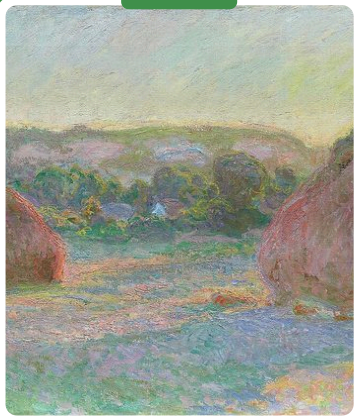
Haystacks

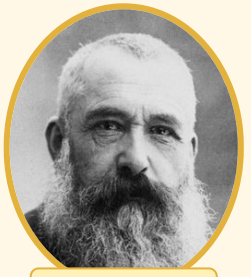
Claude Monet · 1891

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model





Claude Monet

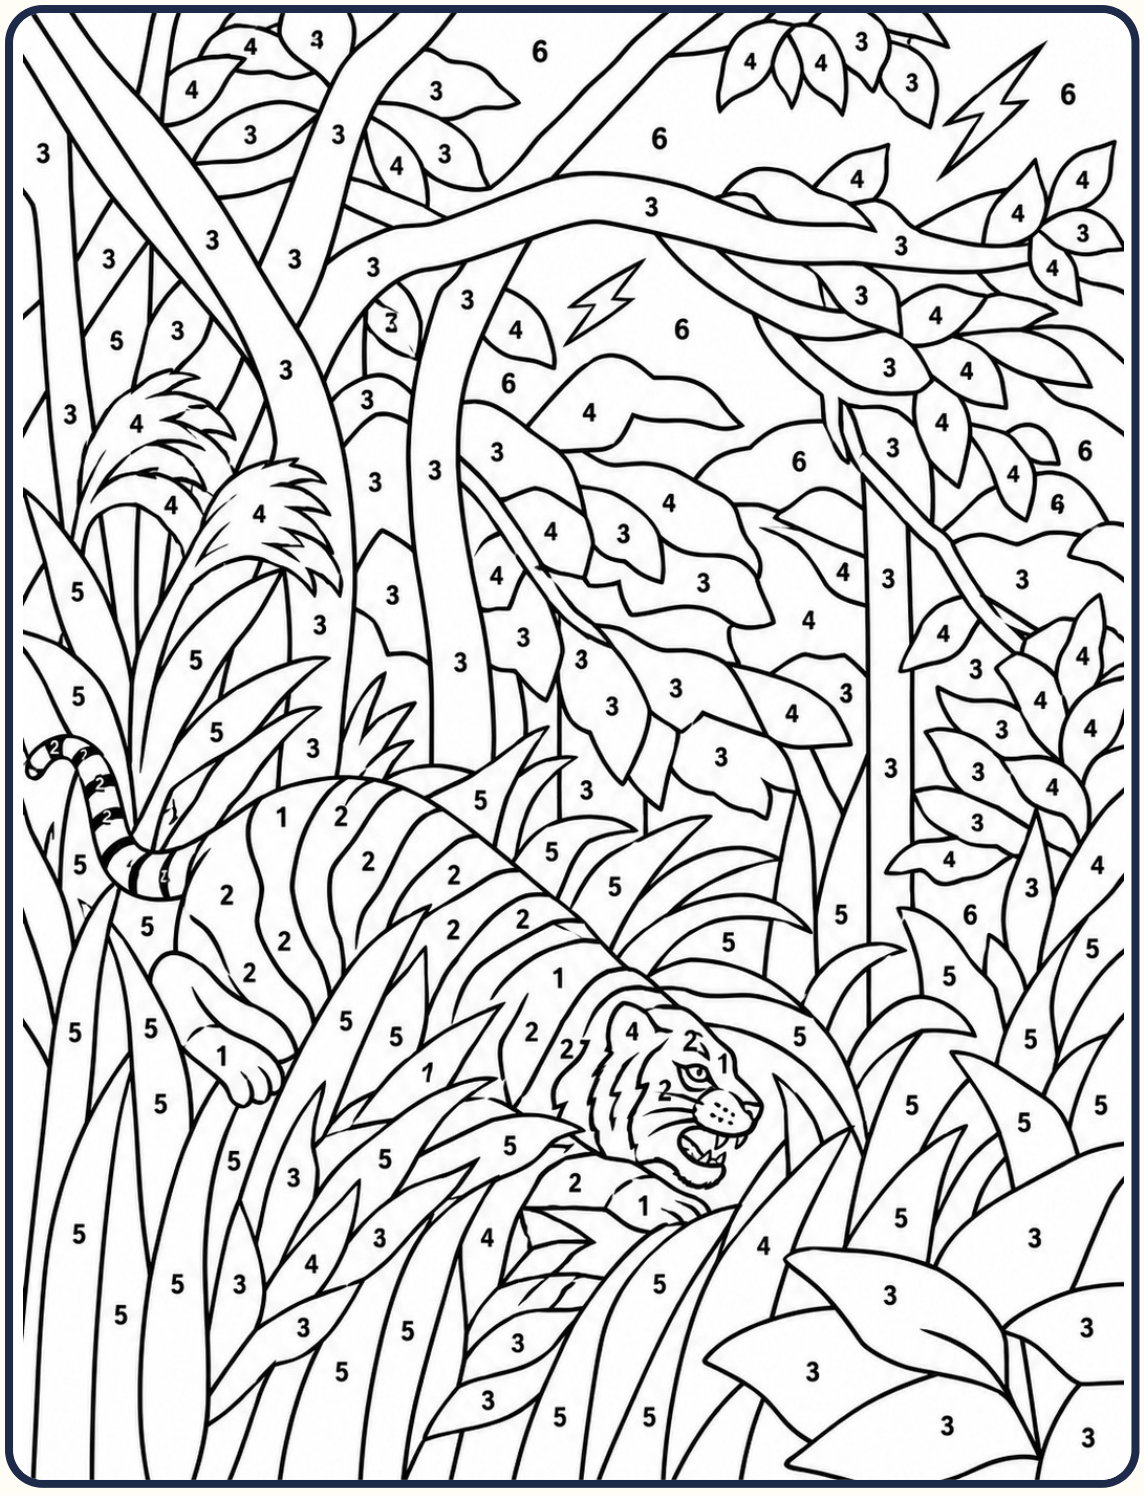
Who was Monet?
He painted the same place at different times of day to watch the light change.

Why is it famous?
Two simple stacks of wheat turn magical in the changing light.

Did you know?
Monet painted these stacks more than twenty-five times, in every season.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Stacks	Roofs	Field	Shadows	Hills	Trees



Surprised!

Henri Rousseau · 1891

Naïve art

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Henri Rousseau

Who was Rousseau?

A Paris toll clerk who painted on Sundays and never went to art school.

Why is it famous?

A tiger leaps out of a jungle shaken by a storm and lightning.

Did you know?

Rousseau never saw a jungle. He drew the plants in a big garden in Paris.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Tiger	Stripes	Leaves	Light leaves	Grass	Sky	Lightning

The Circus

Georges Seurat · 1891

Pointillism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Georges Seurat

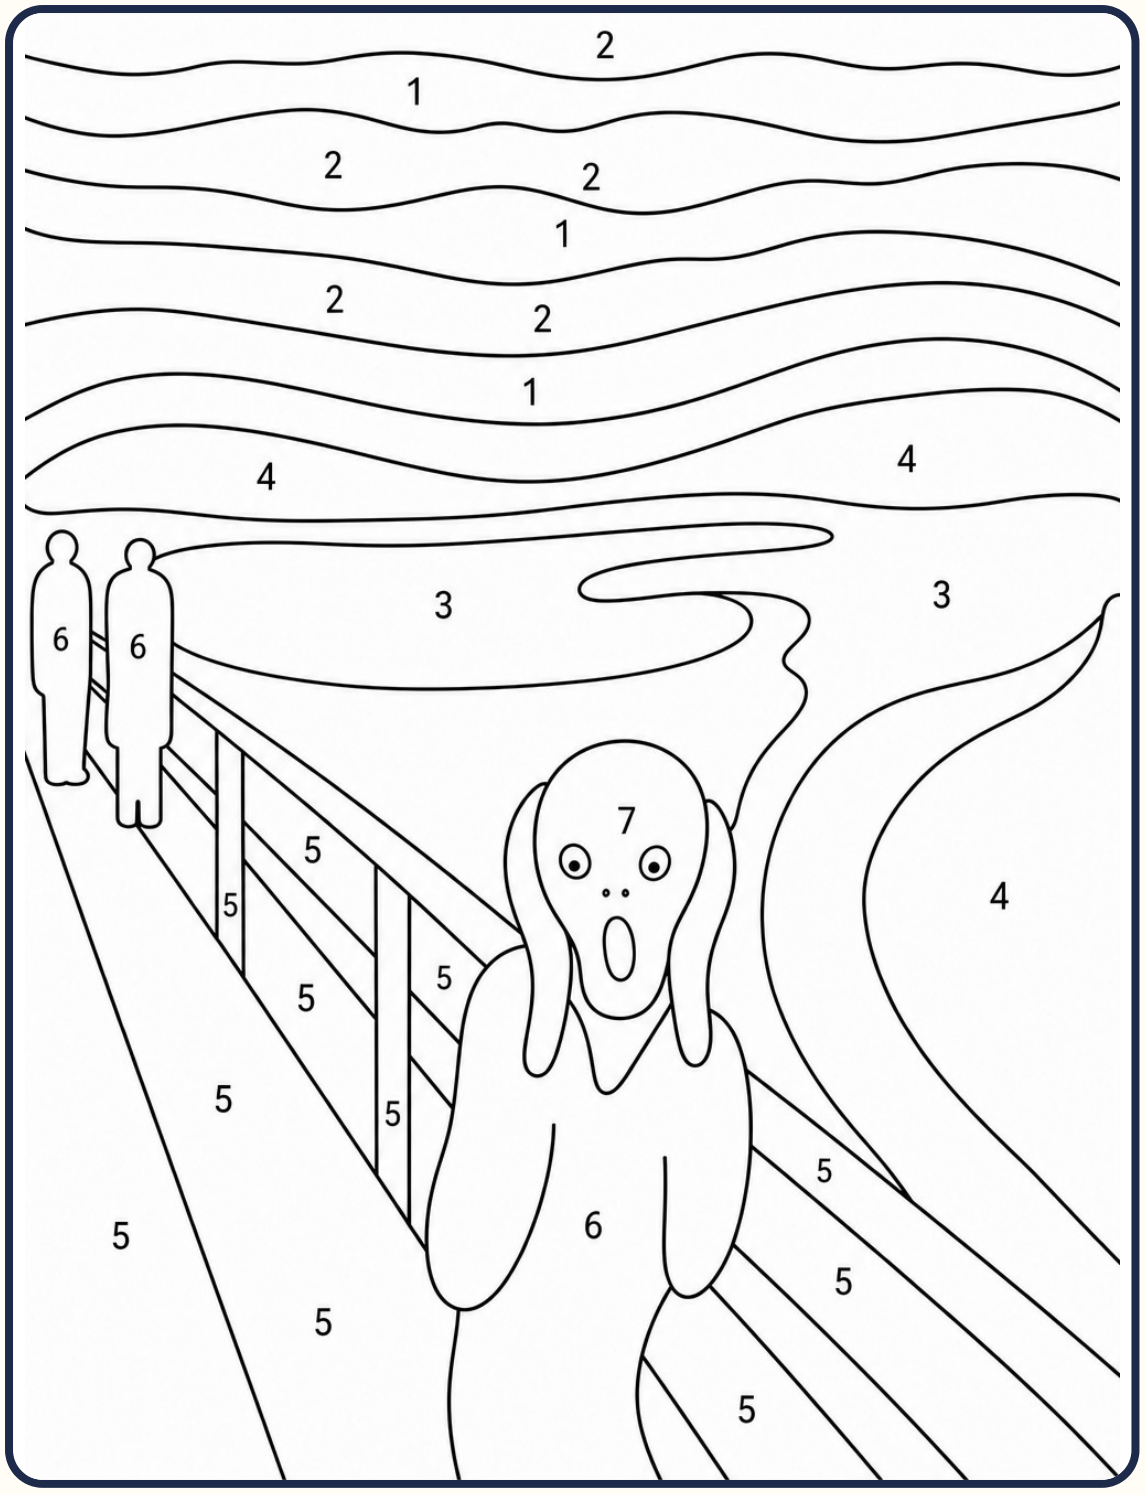
Who was Seurat?
He studied the science of color to learn how our eyes mix colors.

Why is it famous?
An acrobat balances on a white horse as it gallops.

Did you know?
It is Seurat's last painting: he died very young, at 31.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Ring	Horse	Acrobat	Clown	Audience	Bleachers	Frame



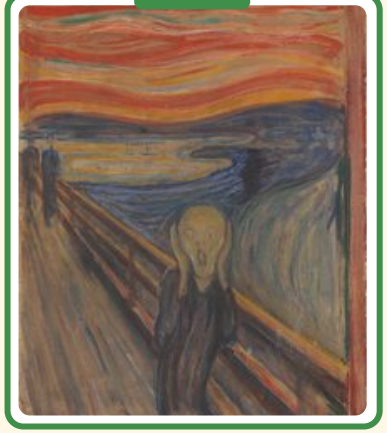
The Scream

Edvard Munch · 1893

Expressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Edvard Munch

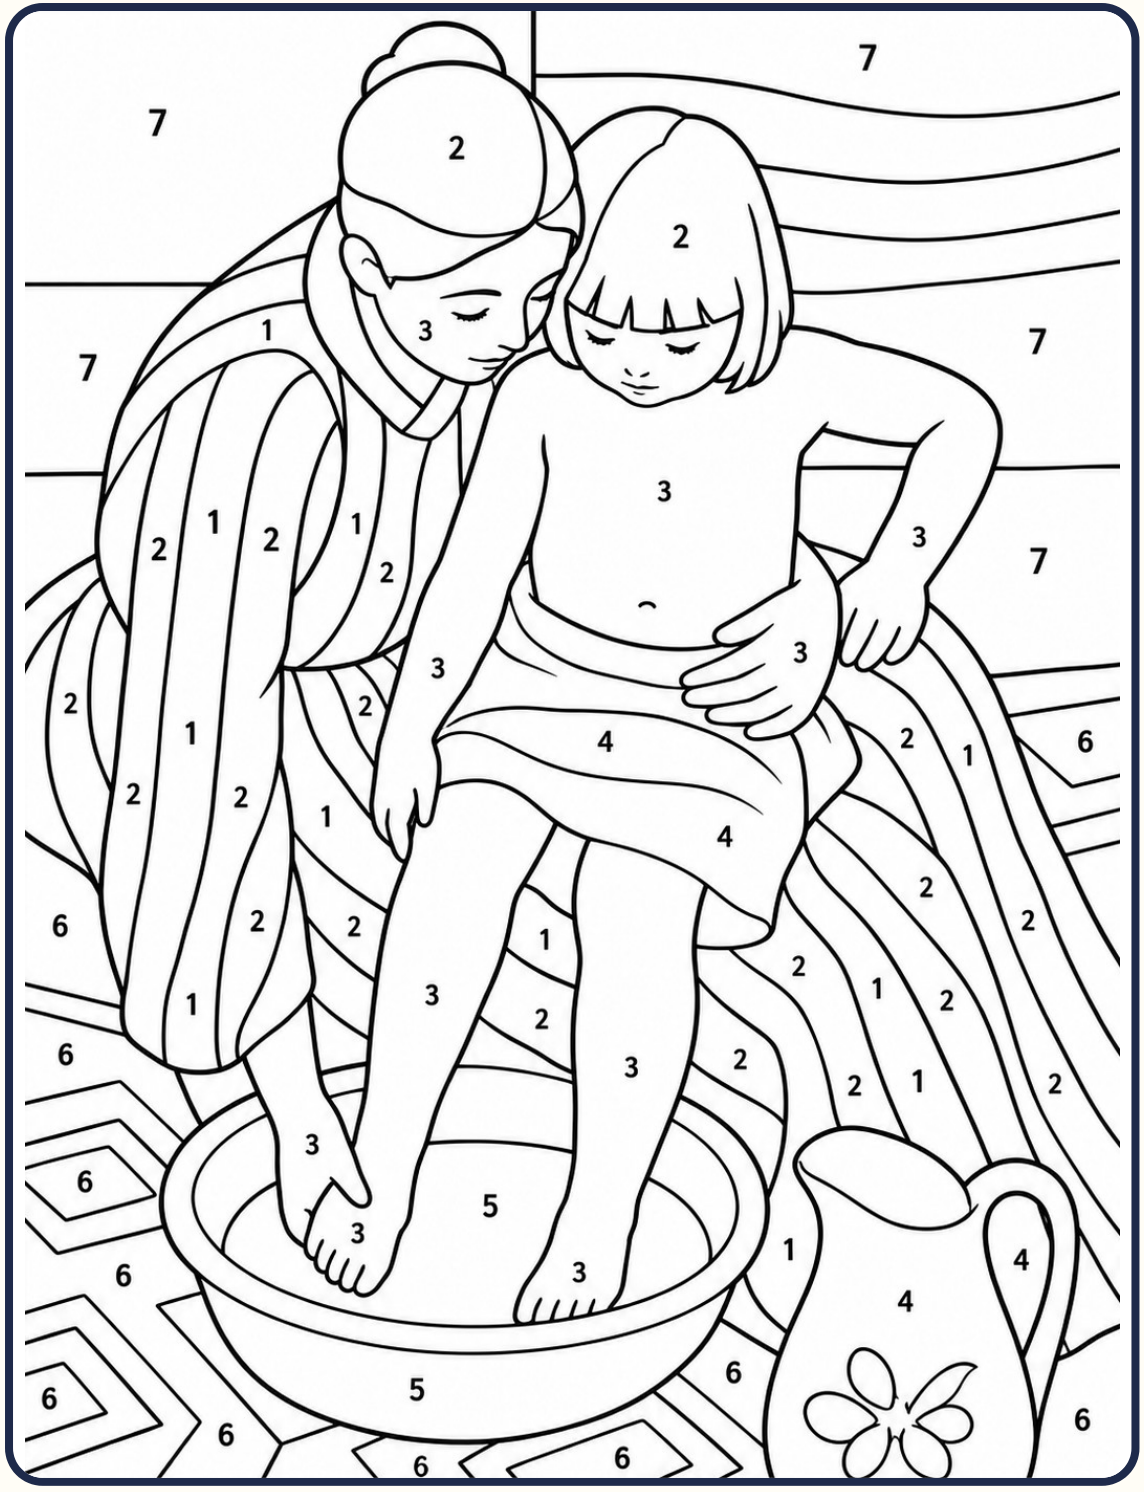
Who was Munch?
A Norwegian painter who wanted to show feelings, not just things.

Why is it famous?
The figure holds its head: it's as if the whole landscape is screaming too.

Did you know?
Munch made several versions of The Scream, in paint and in drawings.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Clouds	Fjord	Hills	Bridge	Figure	Face



78

The Child's Bath

Mary Cassatt · 1893

Impressionism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Mary Cassatt

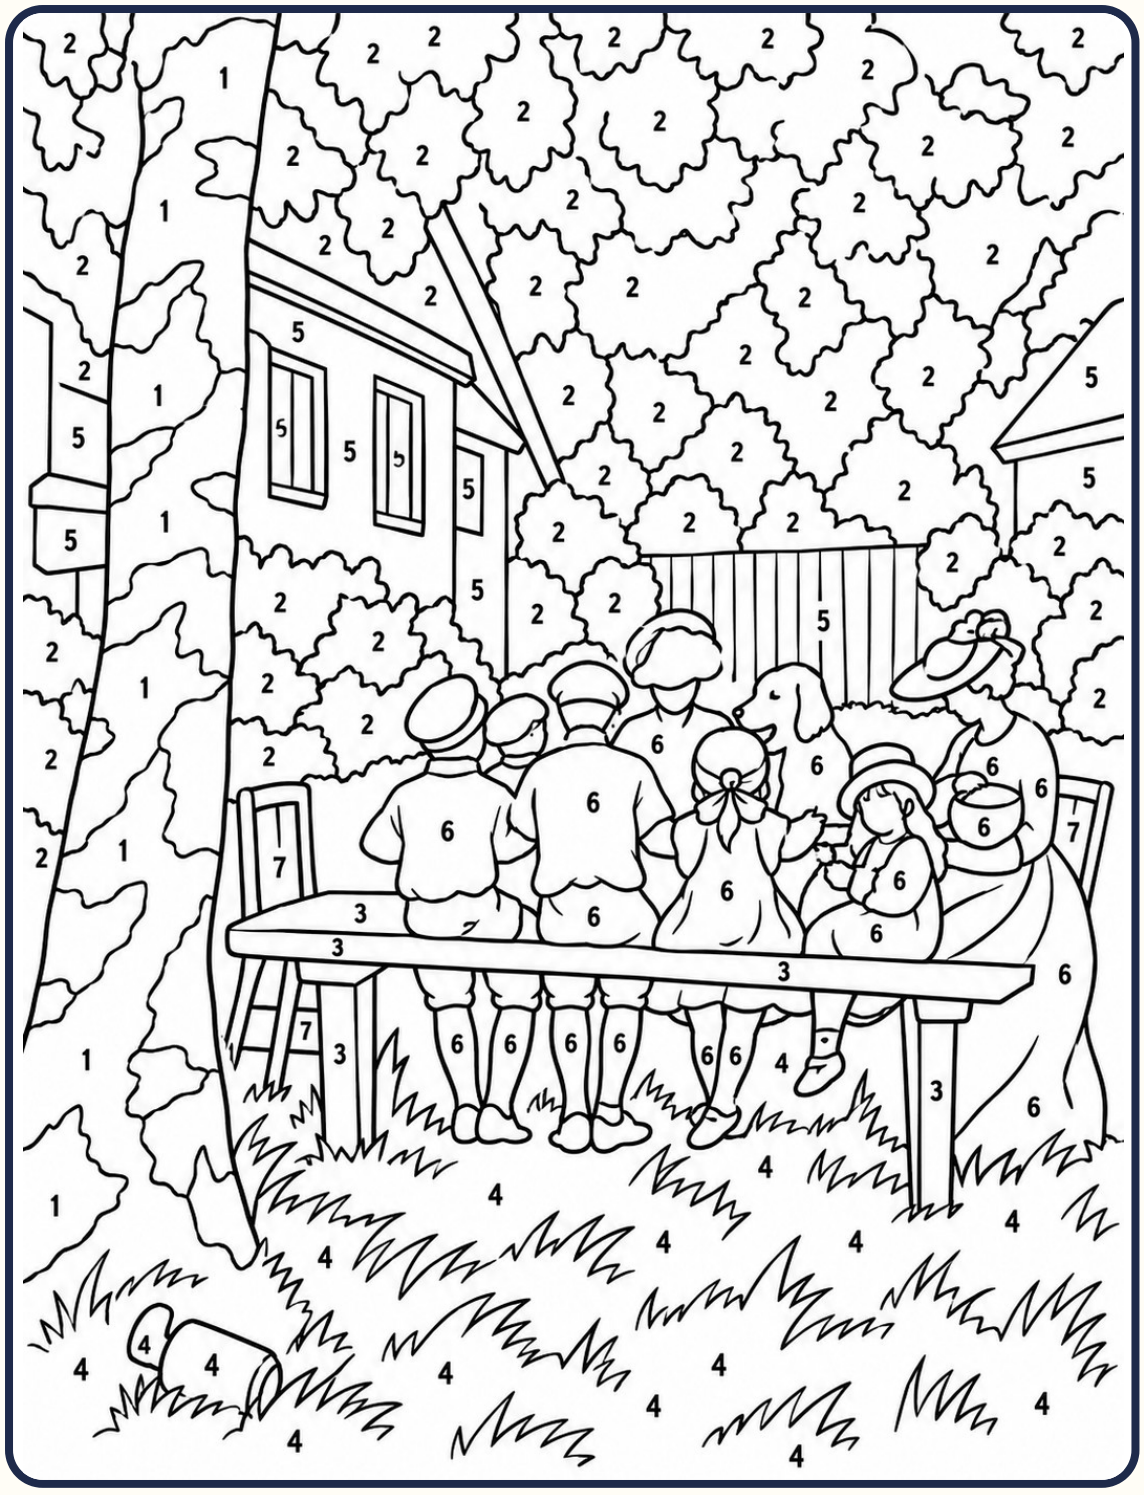
Who was Mary Cassatt?
An American painter who lived in Paris and mostly painted moms and their children.

Why is it famous?
A mom gently washes her little girl's feet: a sweet, everyday moment.

Did you know?
We see the scene from above, like in the Japanese prints she loved.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Striped dress	Stripes	Skin	Towel	Basin	Rug	Background



79

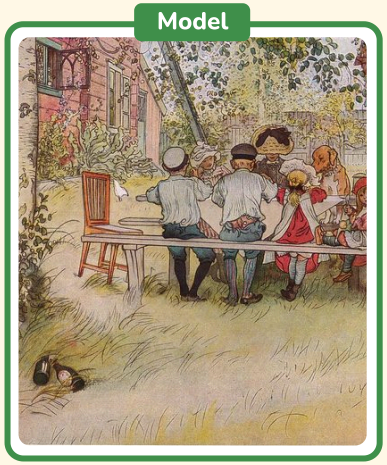
Breakfast under the Big Birch

Carl Larsson · 1896

Swedish Art Nouveau

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Carl Larsson

Who was Carl Larsson?

A Swedish painter who drew the happy life of his big family.

Why is it famous?

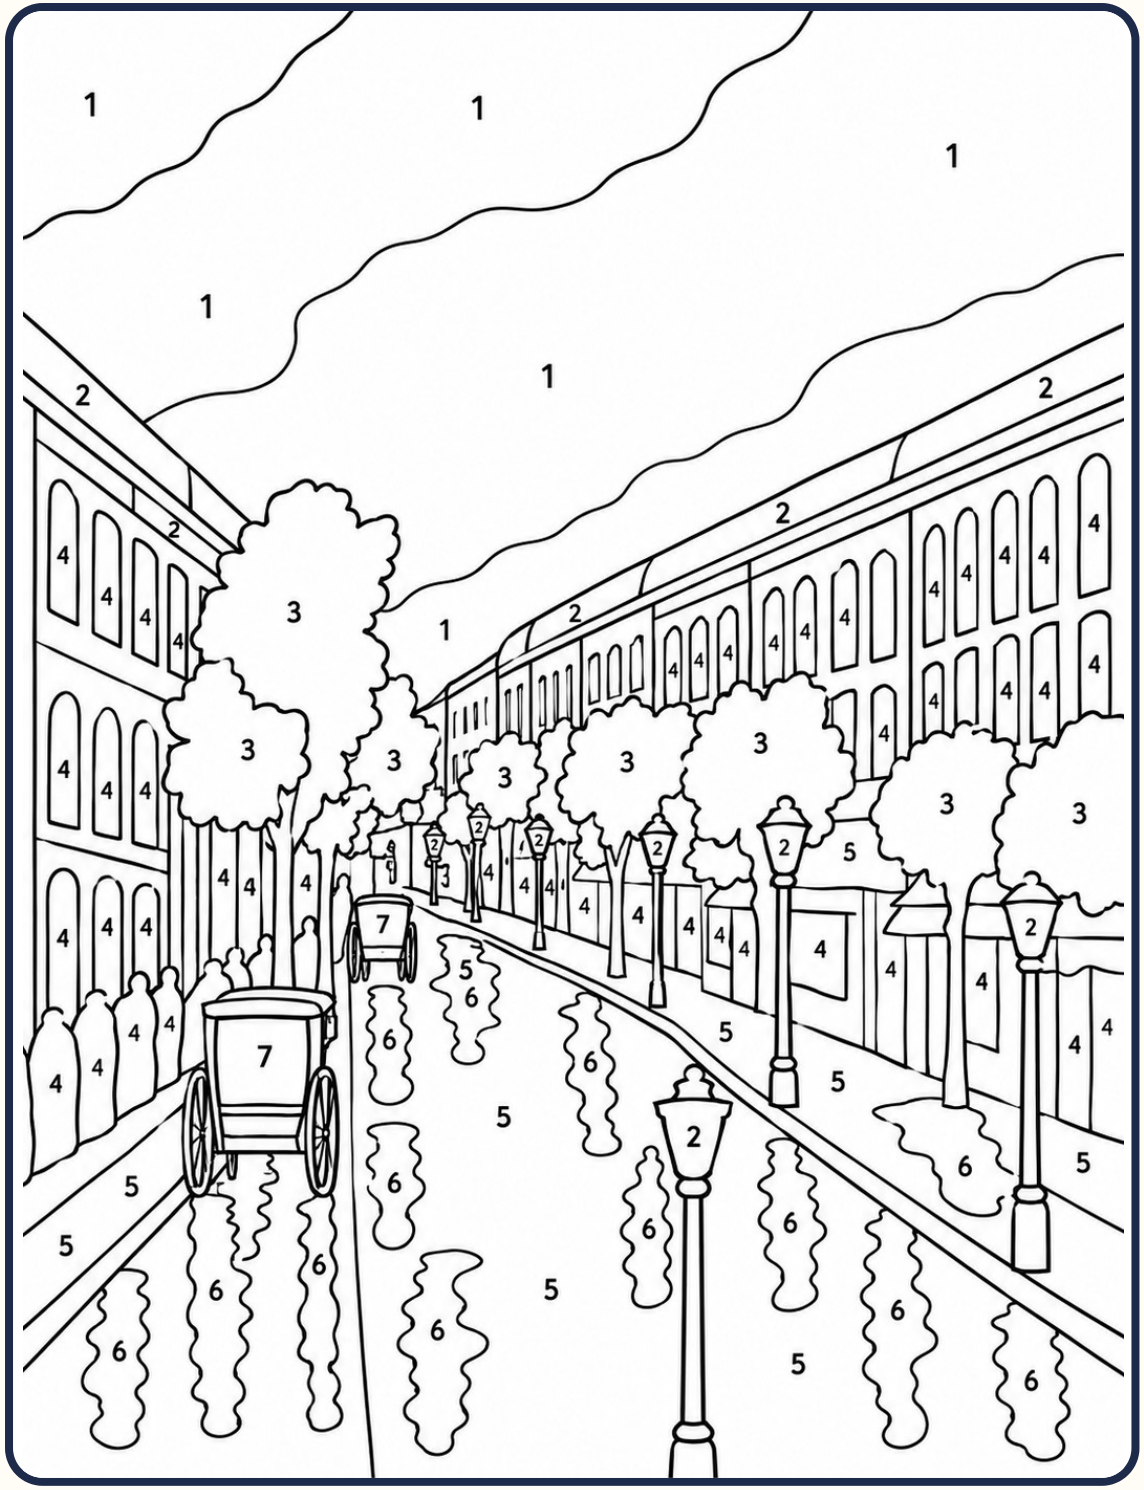
The whole family eats breakfast outside, in the shade of a birch tree.

Did you know?

Carl and his wife Karin had eight children, who appear in his paintings.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Birch	Leaves	Table	Grass	House	Dresses	Chairs



80

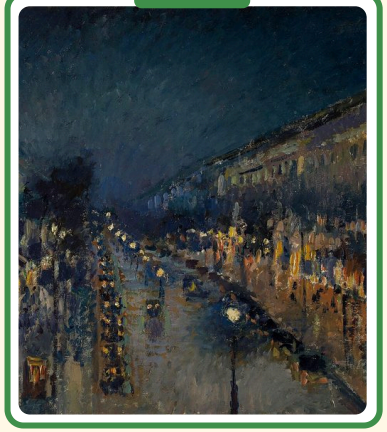
Boulevard Montmartre at Night

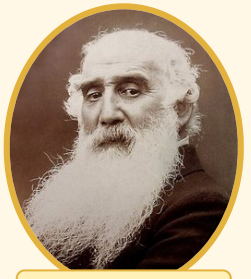
Camille Pissarro · 1897

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model





Camille Pissarro

Who was Pissarro?

A painter born in the Caribbean, whose friends called him the “father” of the Impressionists.

Why is it famous?

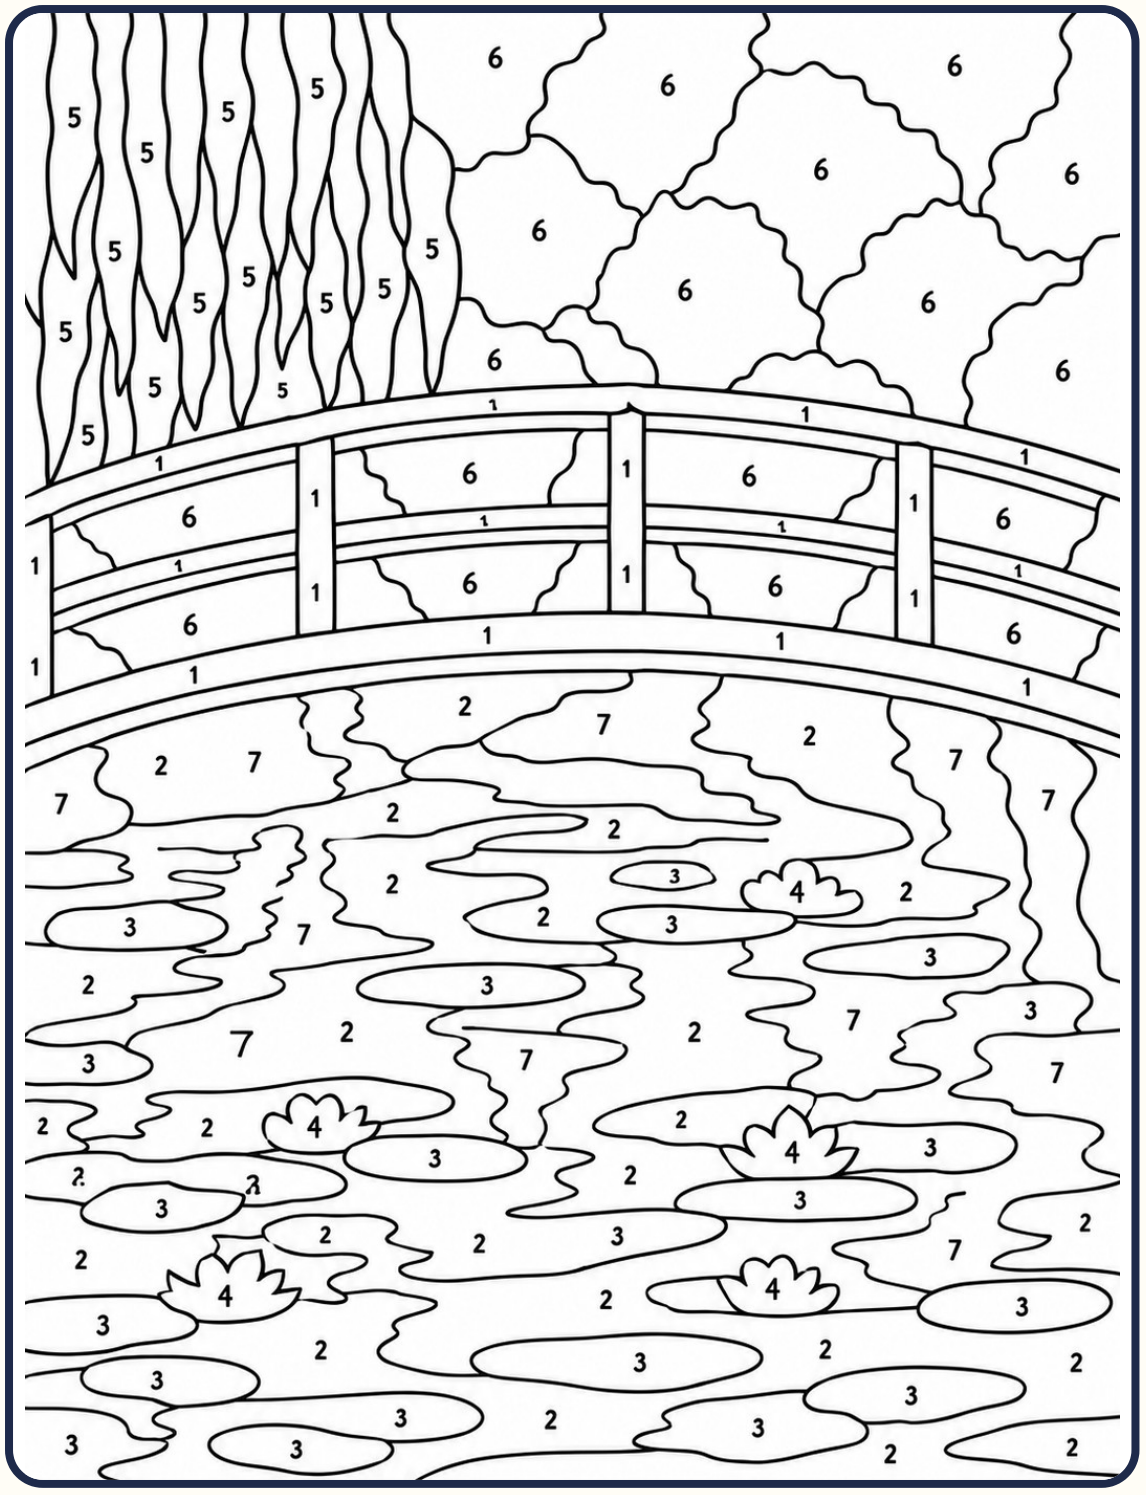
The streetlights shine on the street, wet with rain.

Did you know?

Pissarro painted this street from his hotel room window.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Lights	Trees	Buildings	Street	Reflections	Carriages



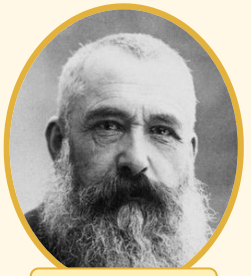
The Japanese Footbridge

Claude Monet · 1899

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Claude Monet

Who was Monet?

A passionate gardener who planted the flowers he painted himself.

Why is it famous?

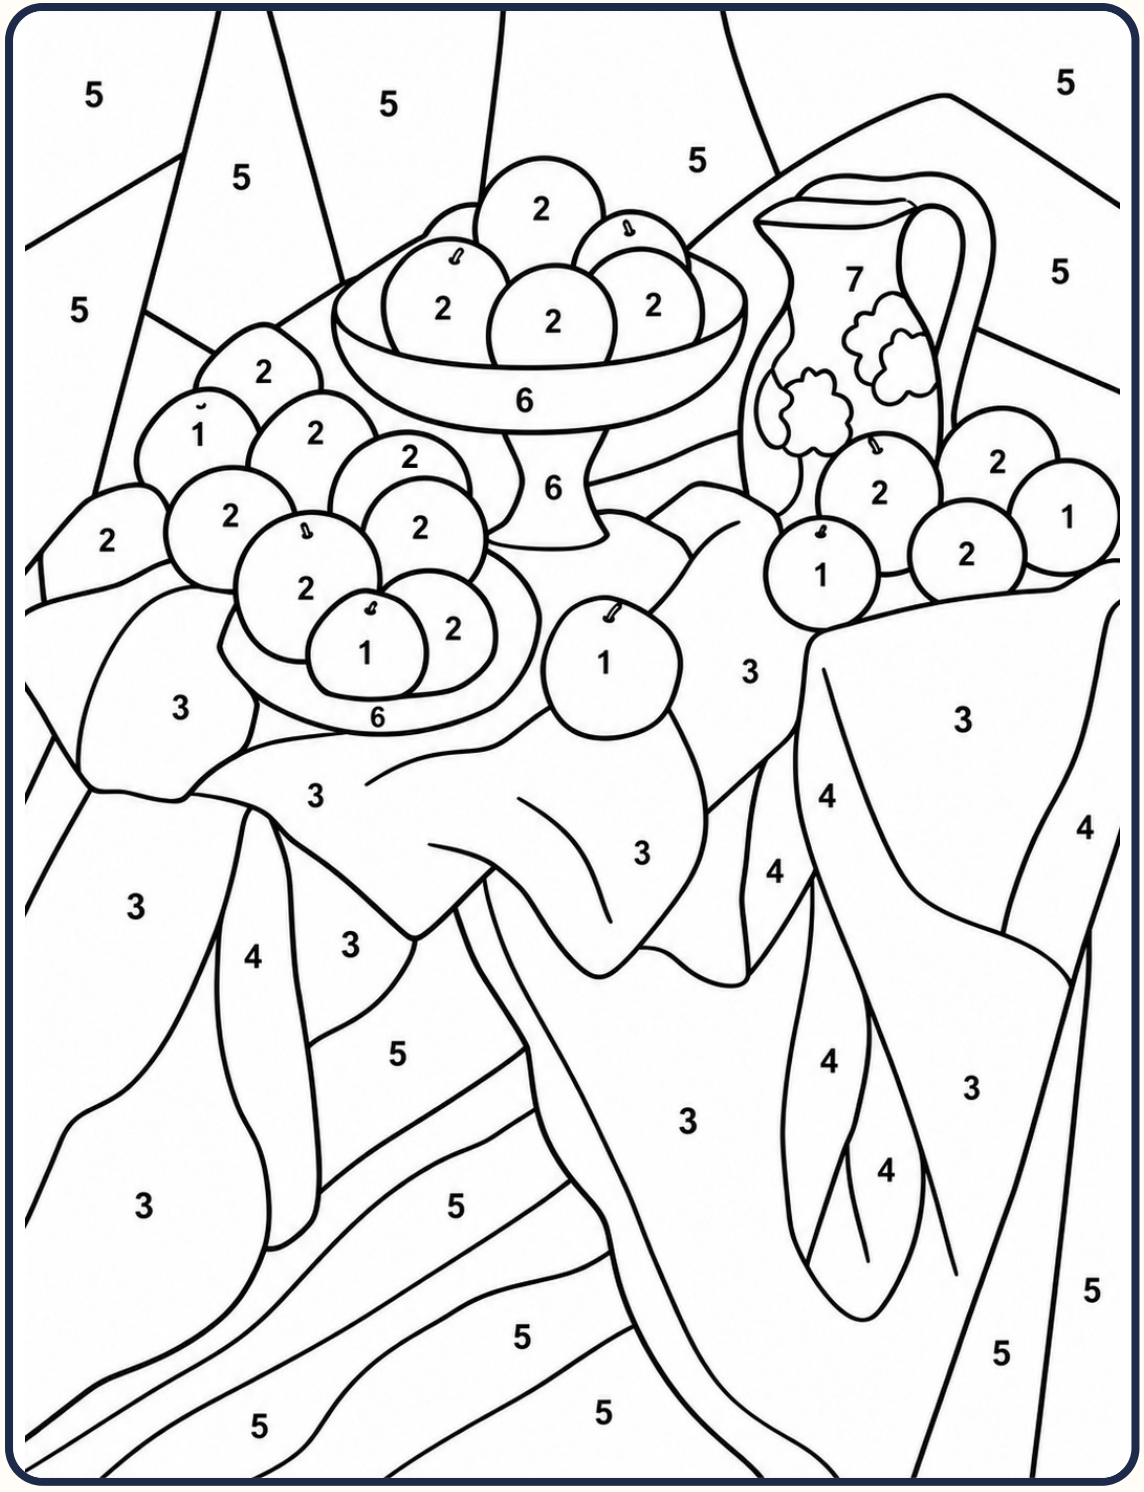
The little green bridge seems to float above the water lilies.

Did you know?

This bridge really exists in his garden in Giverny, and you can walk across it.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Bridge	Water	Lily pads	Flowers	Willows	Leaves	Reflections



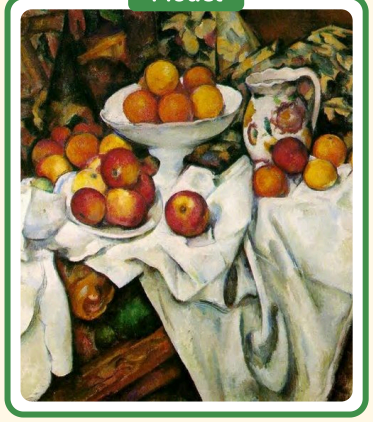
Apples and Oranges

Paul Cézanne · c. 1899

Post-Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Paul Cézanne

Who was Cézanne?

A painter from Provence who wanted to "astonish Paris with an apple."

Why is it famous?

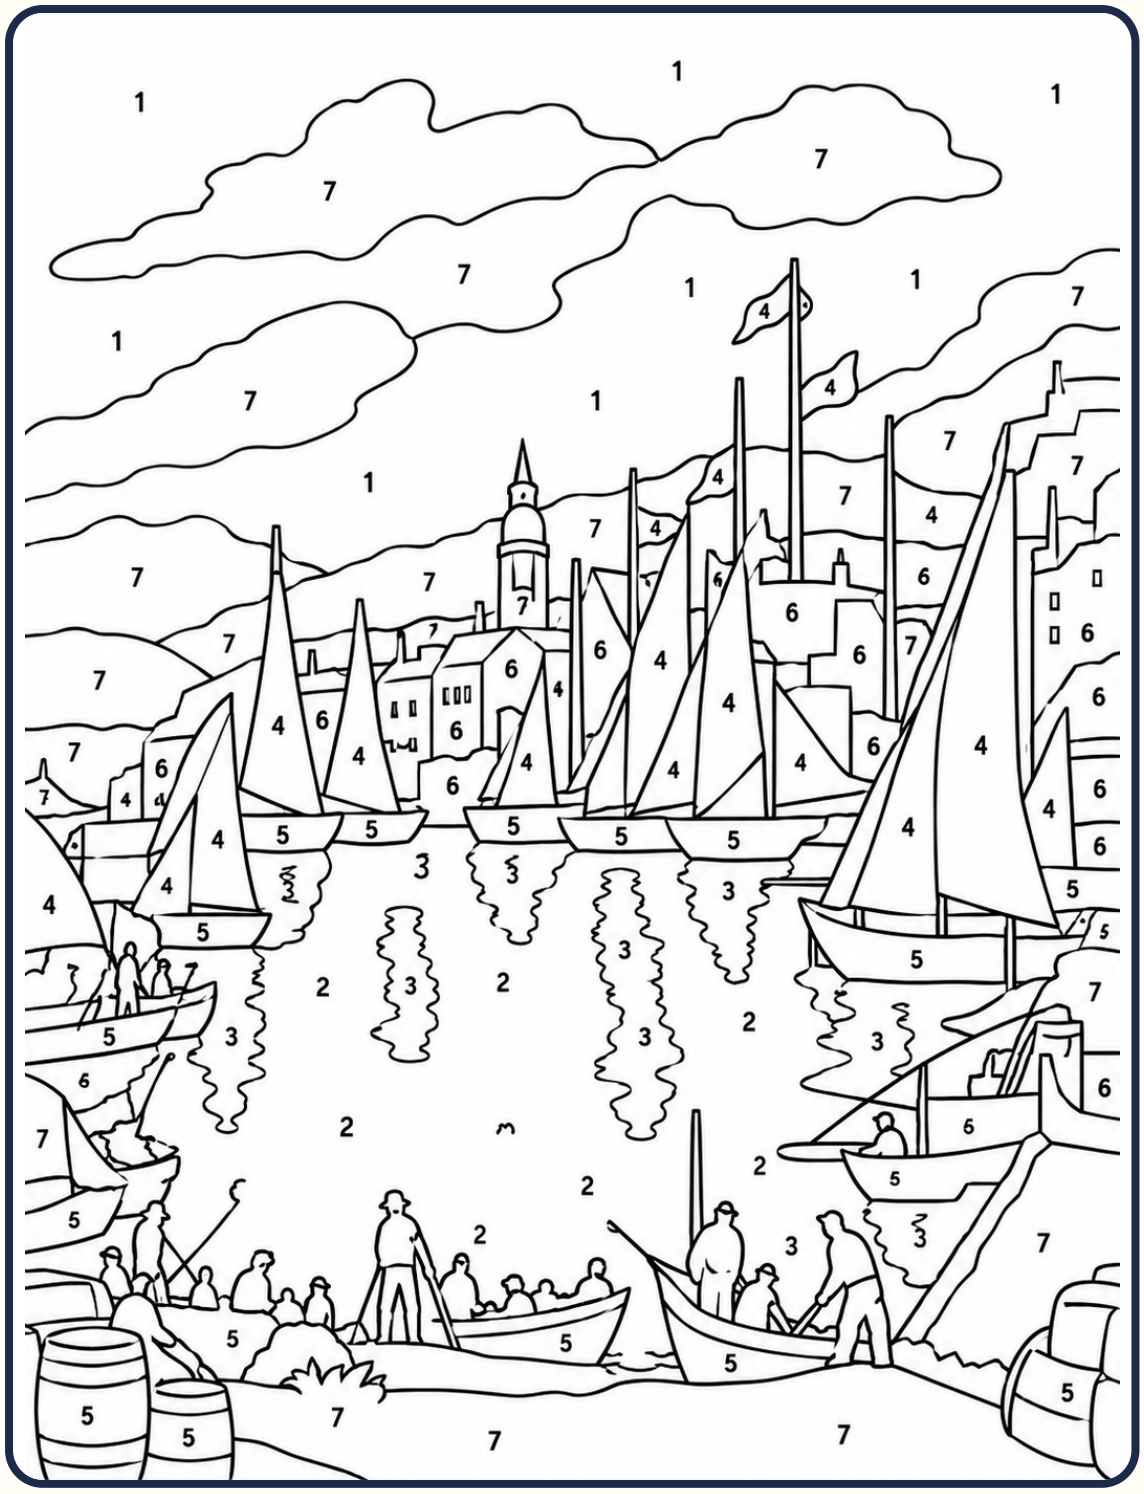
Simple fruit becomes a great painting, full of shapes and folds.

Did you know?

Cézanne painted so slowly that his fruit sometimes went bad!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Apples	Oranges	Tablecloth	Folds	Rug	Plate	Pitcher



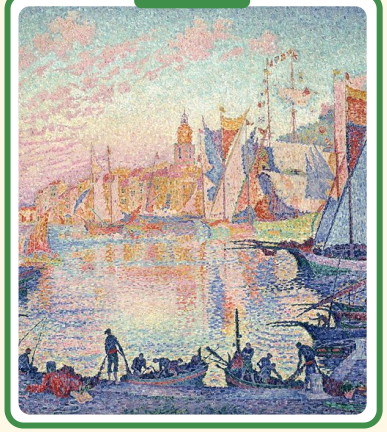
The Port of Saint-Tropez

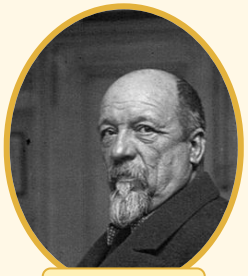
Paul Signac · 1901

Pointillism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model





Paul Signac

Who was Signac?

A French painter who loved the sea and sailboats.

Why is it famous?

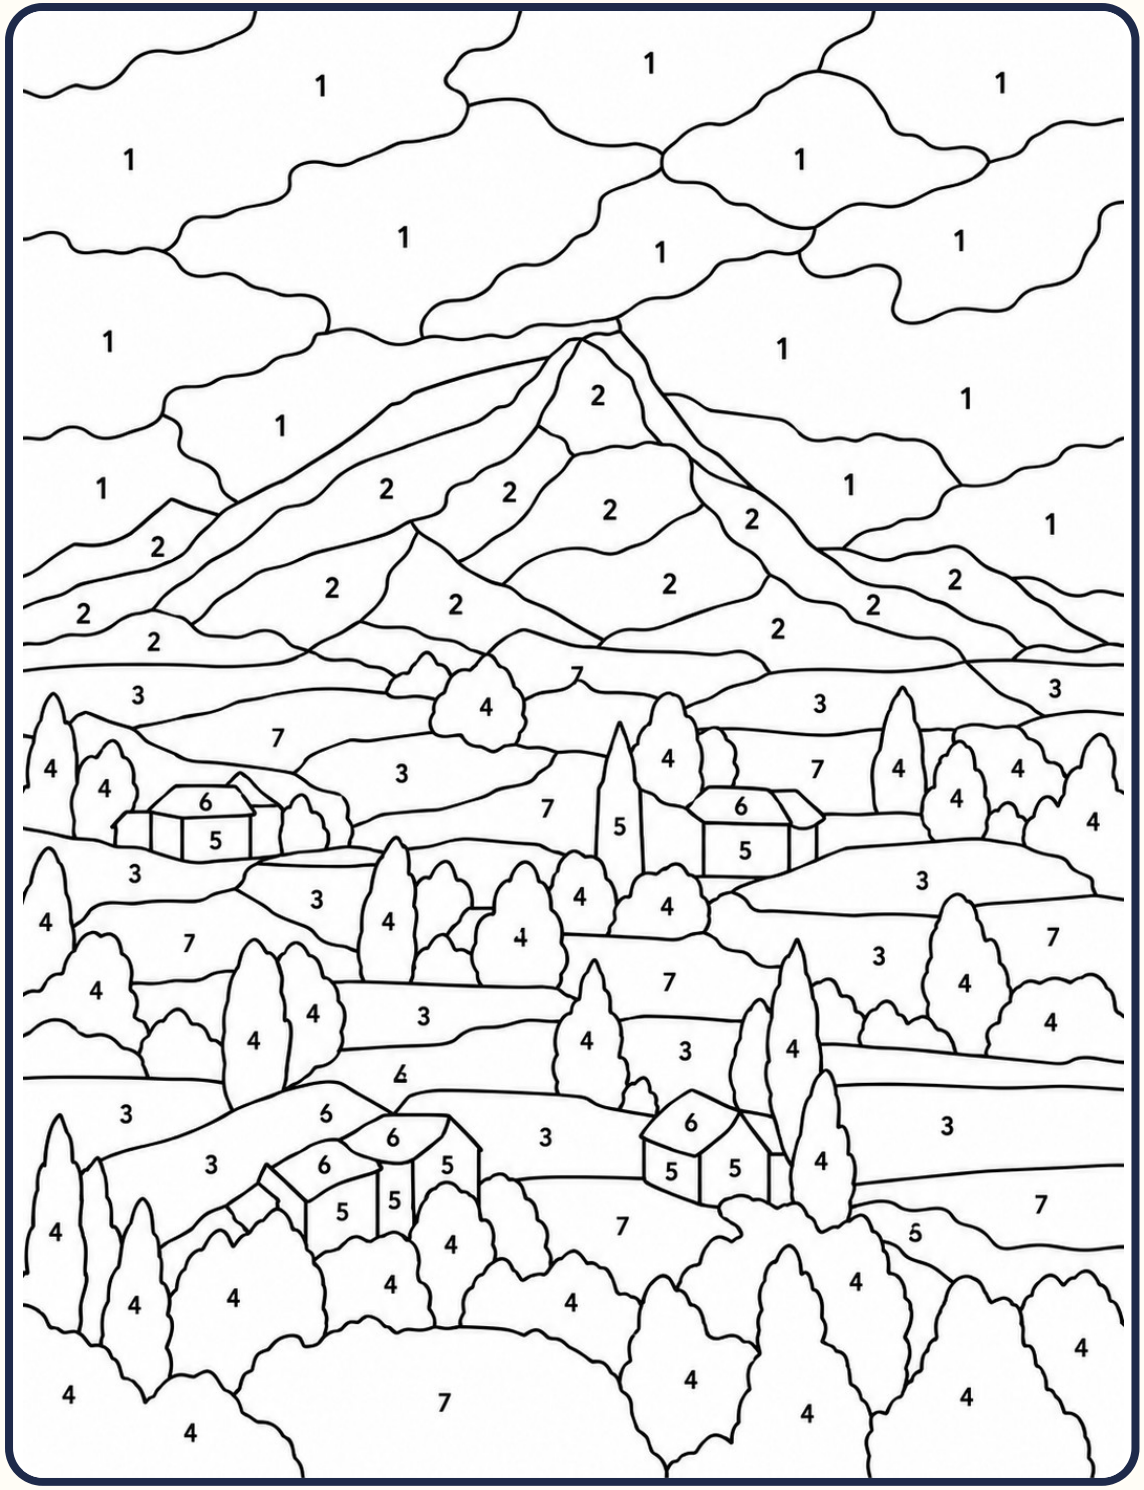
The water, the sky and the boats are made of little squares of pure color.

Did you know?

Signac loved sailing and lived for a long time in Saint-Tropez, by the sea.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Water	Reflections	Sails	Hulls	Houses	Hills



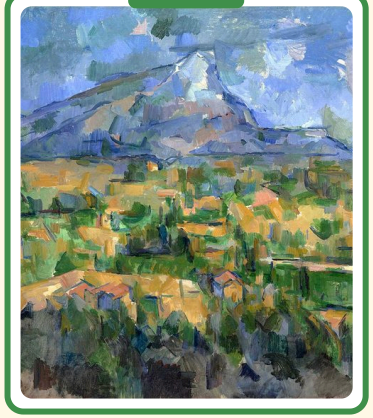
Mont Sainte-Victoire

Paul Cézanne · c. 1904

Post-Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Paul Cézanne

Who was Cézanne?

He spent almost his whole life in Aix-en-Provence, in the south of France.

Why is it famous?

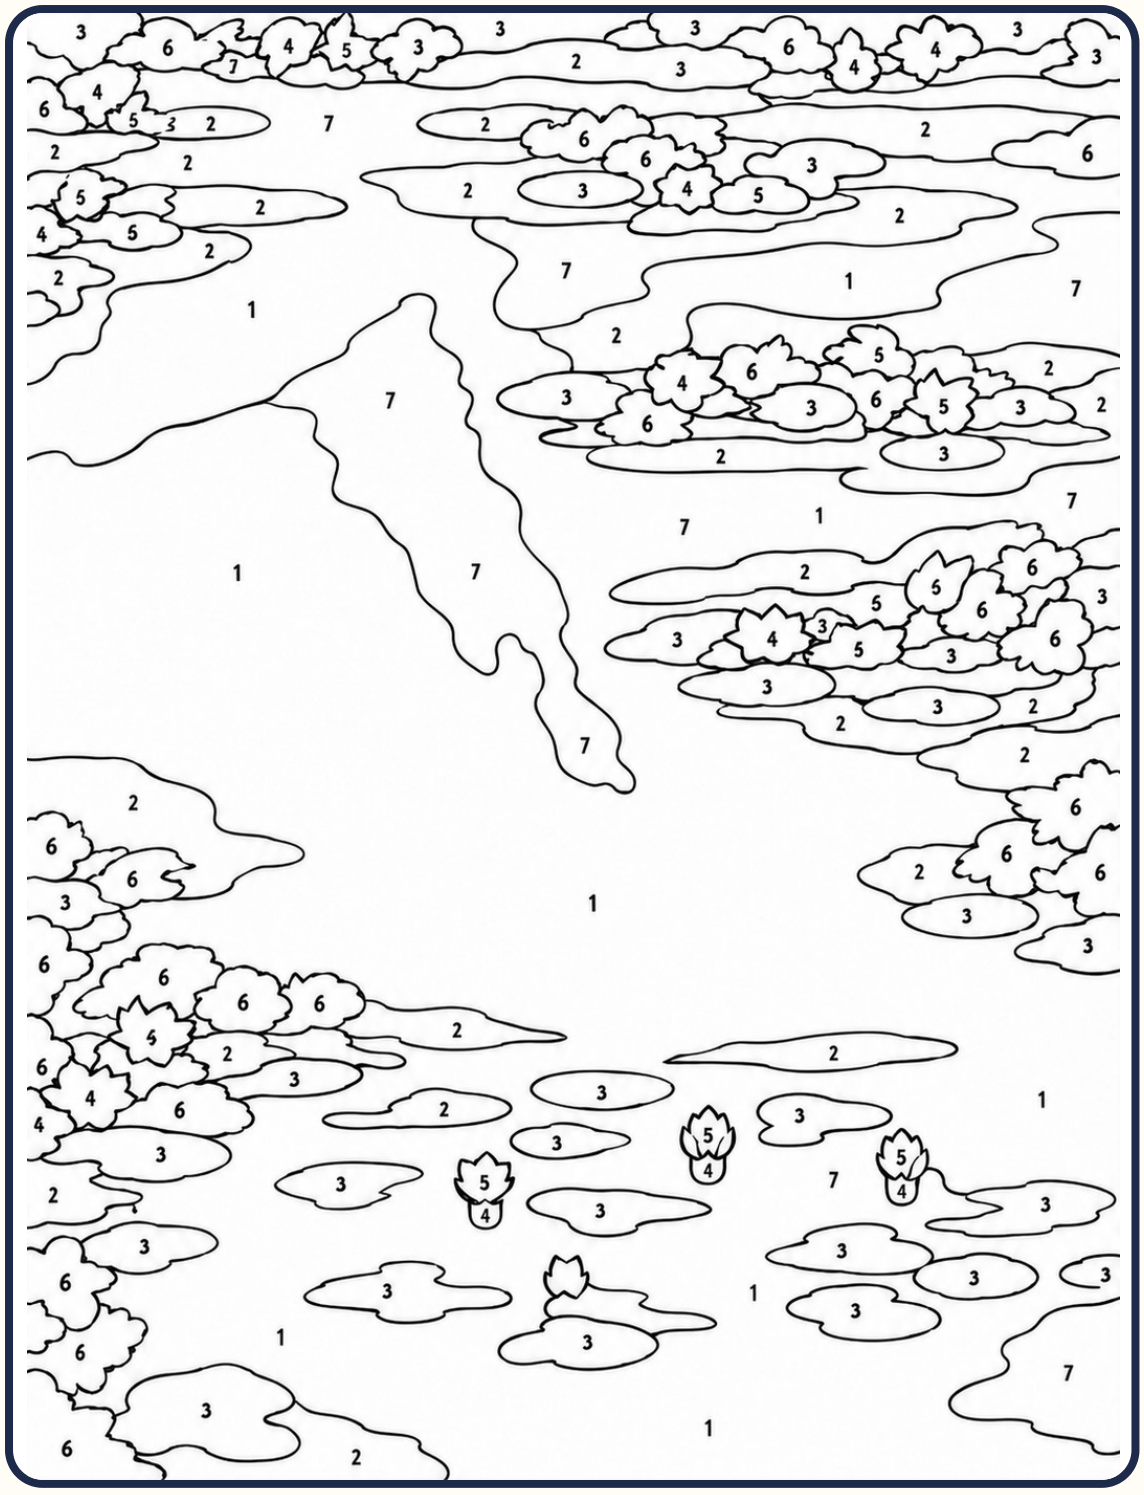
The landscape is built from little square brushstrokes, like a puzzle.

Did you know?

Cézanne painted this mountain more than eighty times!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sky	Mountain	Fields	Trees	Houses	Roofs	Meadows



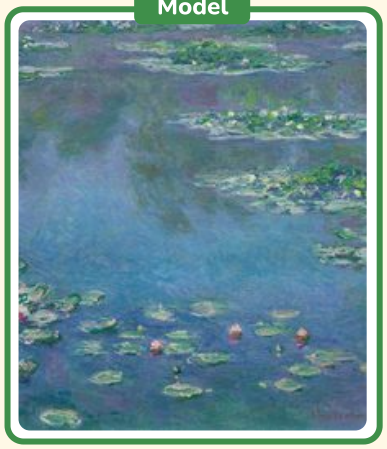
Water Lilies

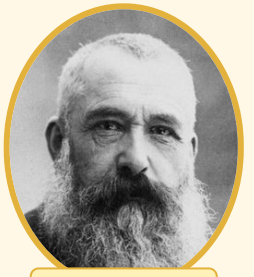
Claude Monet · 1906

Impressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model





Claude Monet

Who was Monet?

A French painter who loved painting light outdoors, in the fresh air.

Why is it famous?

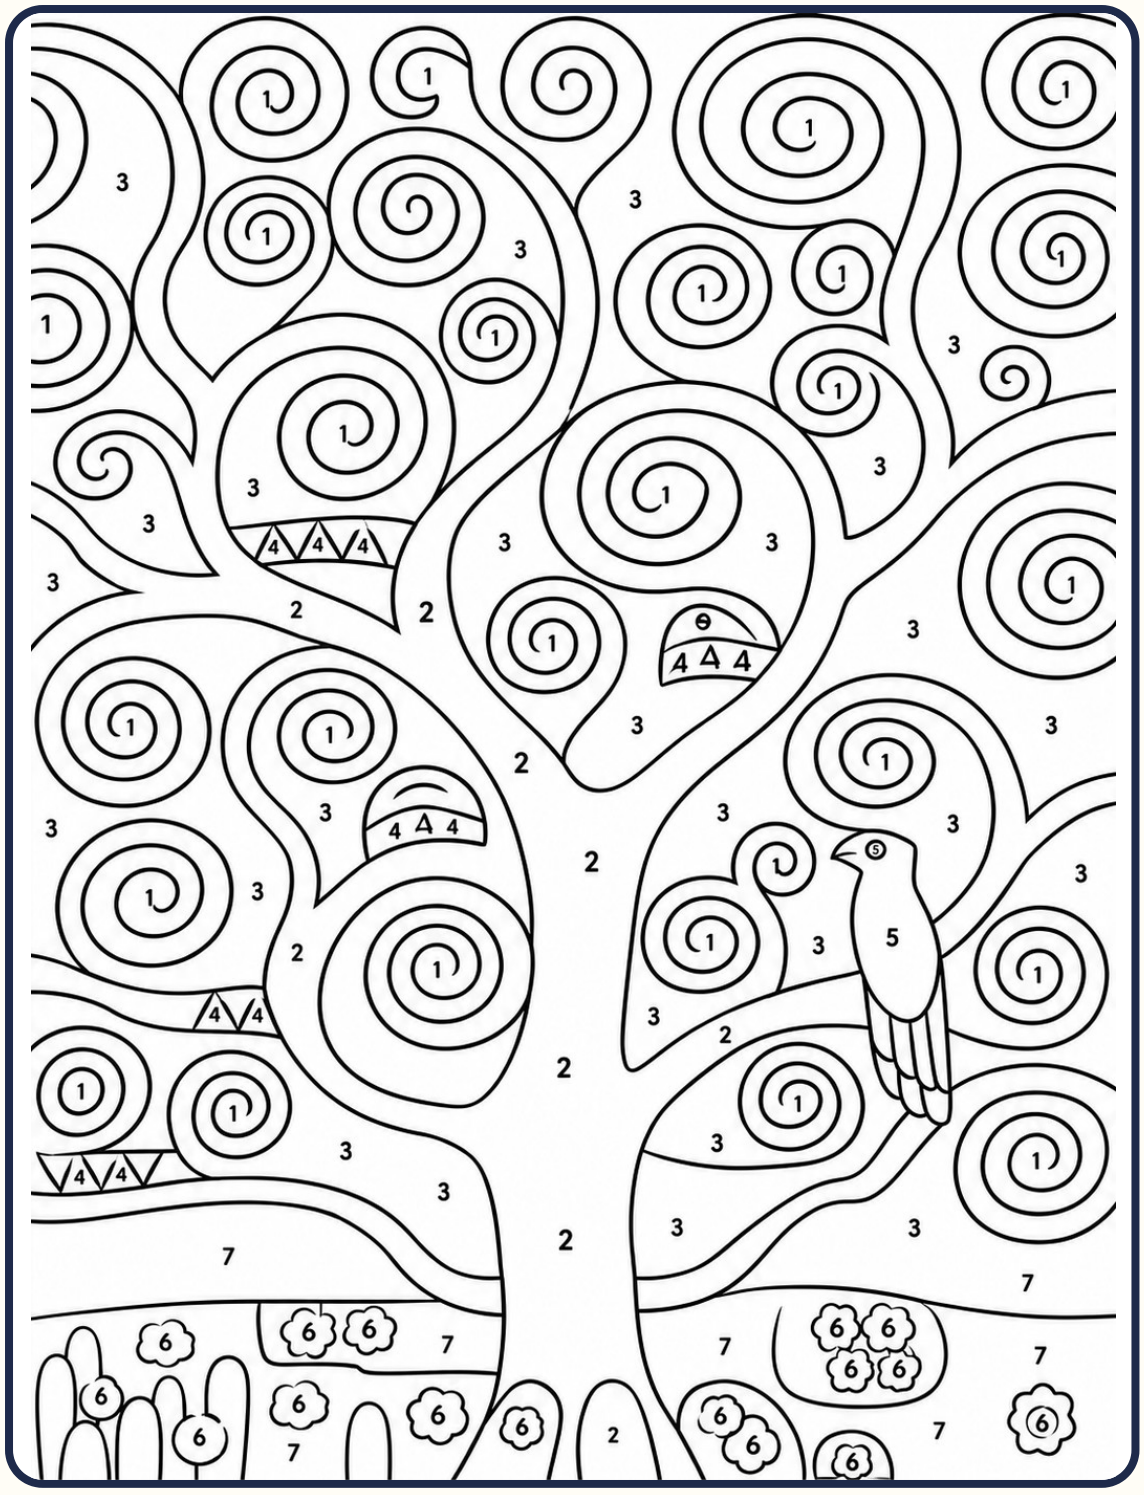
The water in the pond looks like it really shines and moves.

Did you know?

Monet built this water garden in Giverny himself and painted it hundreds of times.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Water	Reflections	Leaves	Pink flowers	White flowers	Grass	Shadows



The Tree of Life

Gustav Klimt · 1909

Art Nouveau

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Gustav Klimt

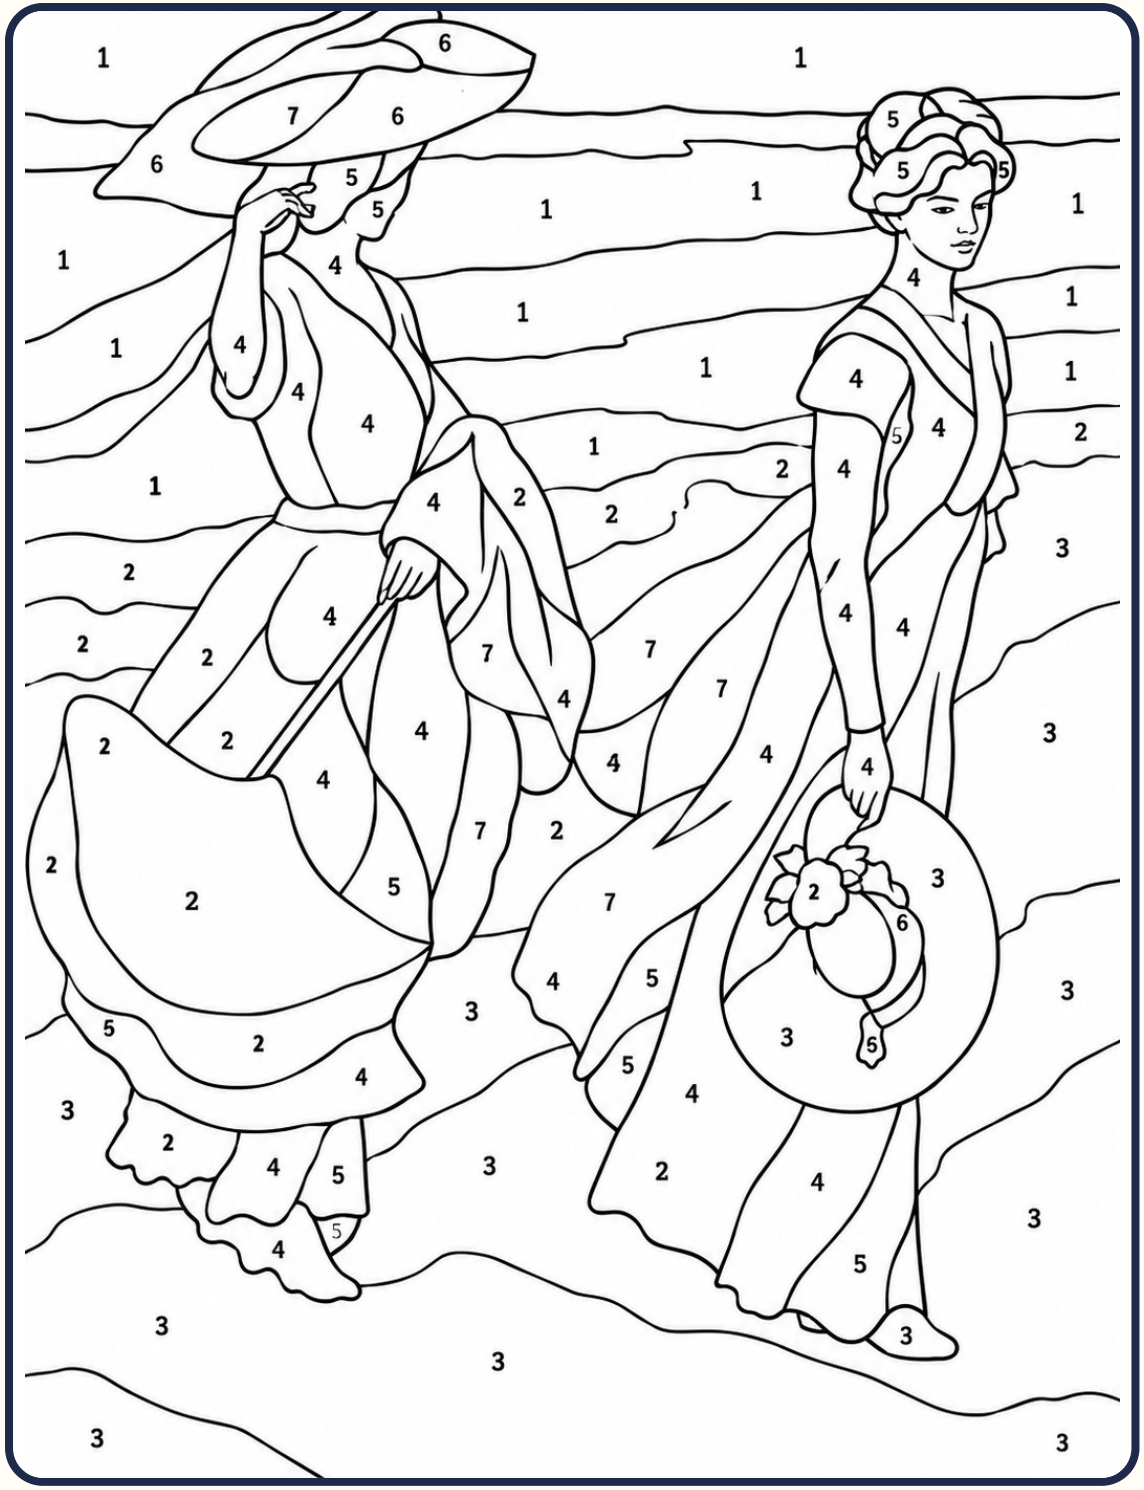
Who was Klimt?
A painter from Vienna, in Austria, who put real gold in his paintings.

Why is it famous?
Its branches curl into endless spirals, as if the tree never stopped growing.

Did you know?
This artwork decorates the dining room of a big house in Brussels.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Spirals	Trunk	Background	Leaves	Bird	Flowers	Ground



87

Walk on the Beach

Joaquín Sorolla · 1909

Luminism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Joaquín Sorolla

Who was Sorolla?

A Spanish painter people called the "painter of light."

Why is it famous?

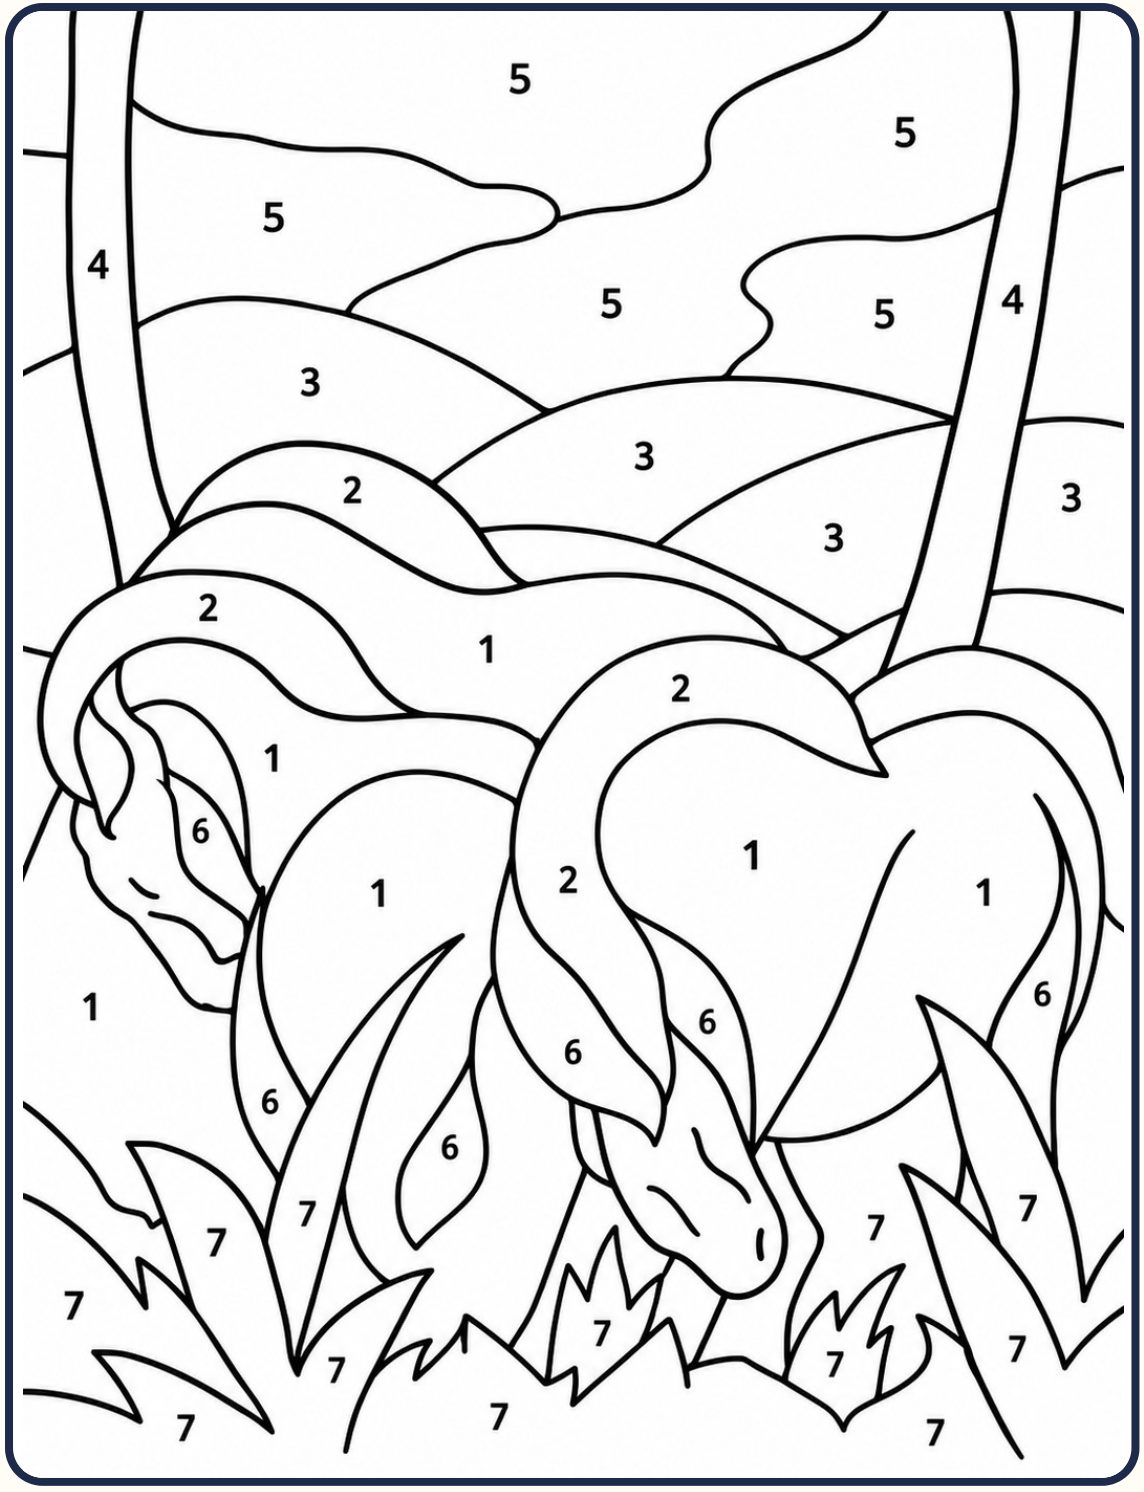
The sea breeze blows the white dresses and the lady's long veil.

Did you know?

The two walkers are Sorolla's wife and daughter, on a beach in Valencia.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sea	Foam	Sand	Dresses	Shadows	Hats	Veil



88

The Large Blue Horses

Franz Marc · 1911

Expressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Franz Marc

Who was Franz Marc?

A German painter who loved animals more than anything.

Why is it famous?

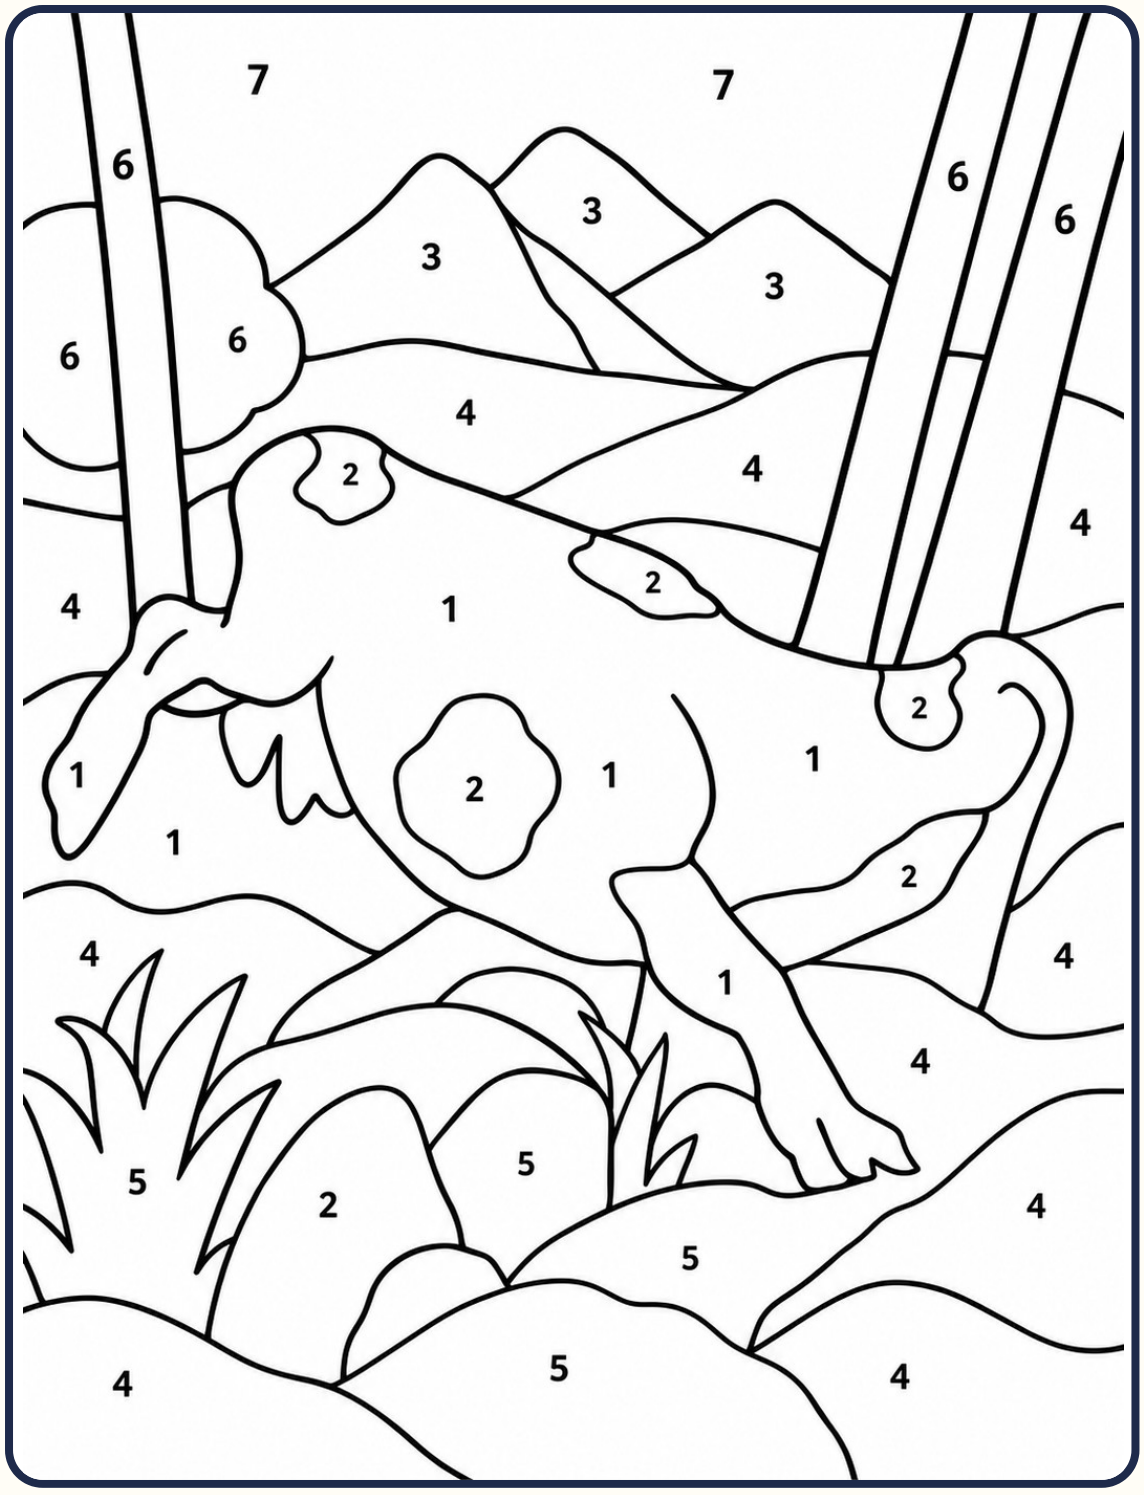
Blue horses don't exist! But Marc felt blue was calm and strong.

Did you know?

For him, every color had its own personality: blue, yellow, and red.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Horses	Manes	Hills	Trees	Sky	Shadows	Grass



89

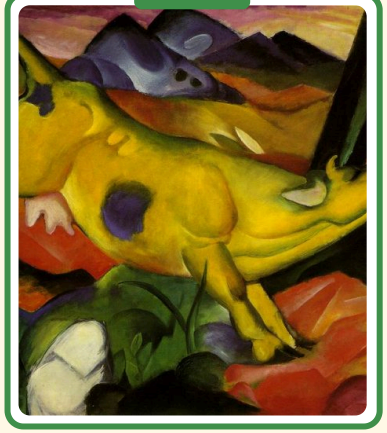
The Yellow Cow

Franz Marc · 1911

Expressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Franz Marc

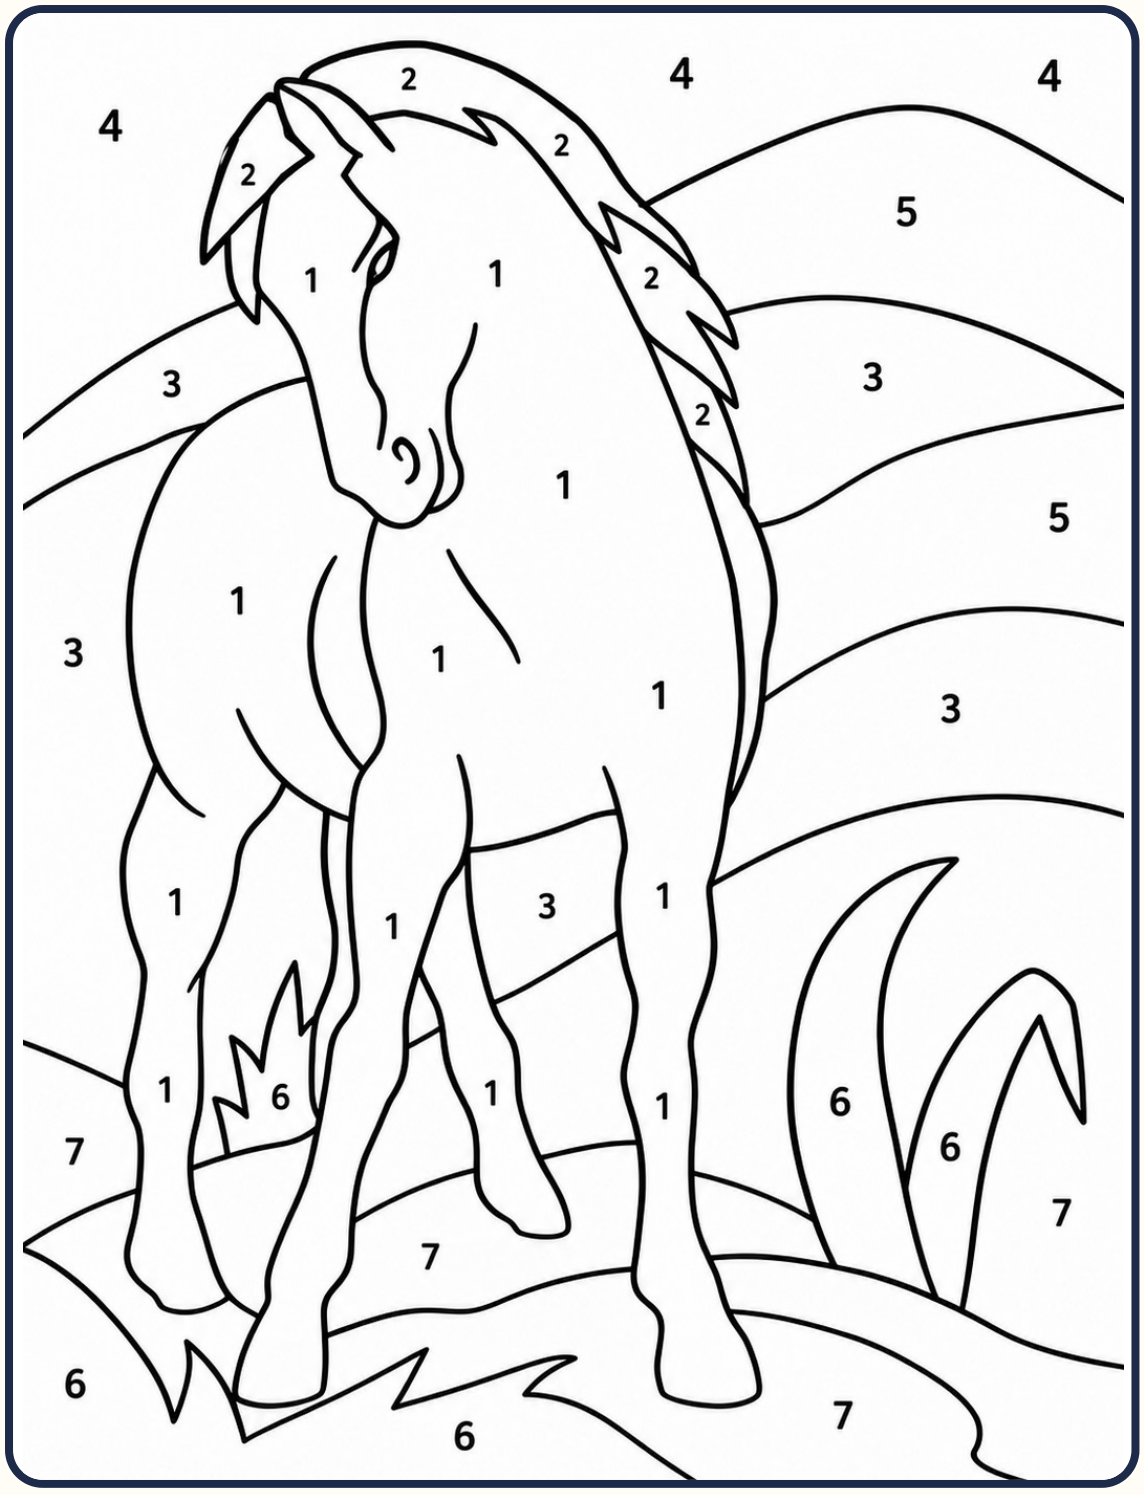
Who was Franz Marc?
With Kandinsky, he started a group of artists called "The Blue Rider."

Why is it famous?
A yellow cow jumps for joy in a landscape full of colors.

Did you know?
Marc painted this happy cow the year he got married.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Cow	Spots	Mountains	Hills	Grass	Trees	Sky



Blue Horse I

Franz Marc · 1911

Expressionism

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Franz Marc

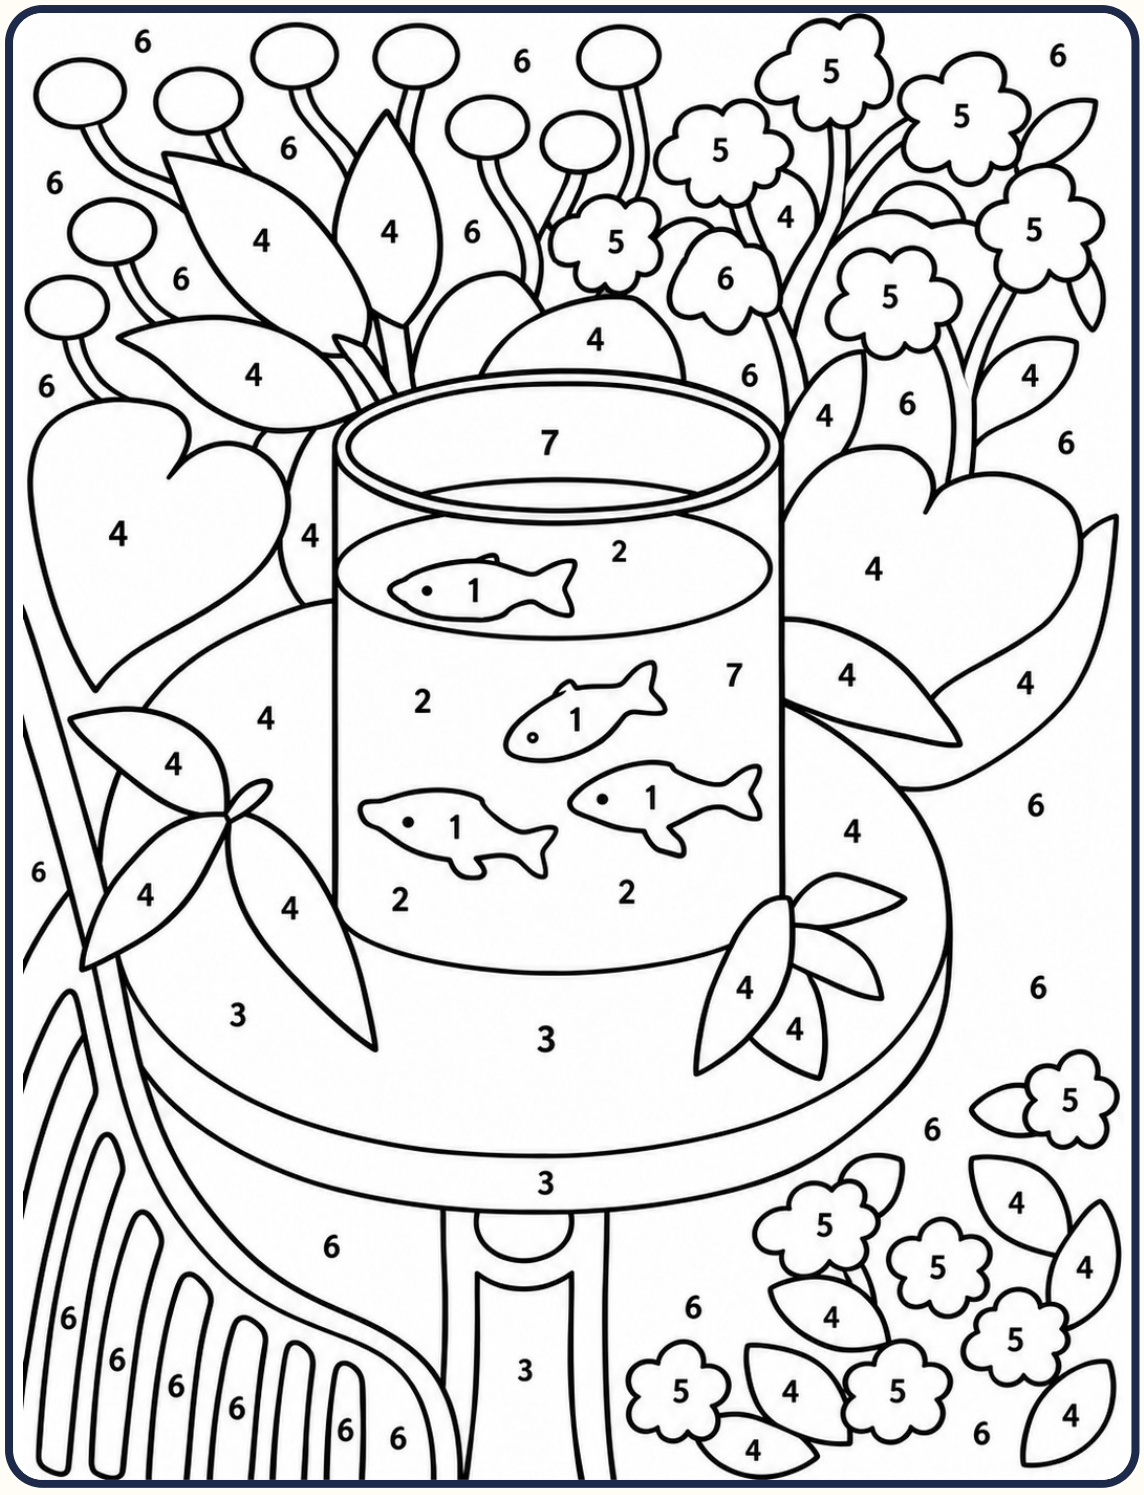
Who was Franz Marc?
An artist who wanted to show the world the way animals see it.

Why is it famous?
A young blue horse stands proudly in front of hills of every color.

Did you know?
Today, this horse hangs in a museum in Munich, Germany.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Horse	Mane	Hills	Sky	Mountains	Grass	Ground



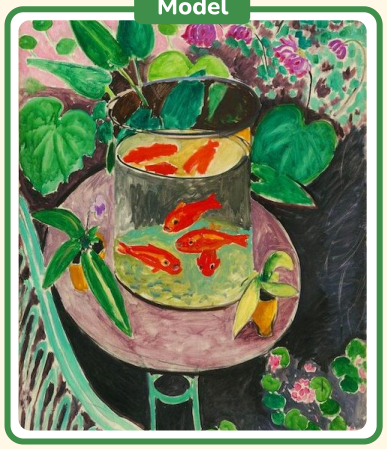
Goldfish

Henri Matisse · 1912

Fauvism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Henri Matisse

Who was Matisse?
A French painter who used very strong colors, without being afraid.

Why is it famous?
Four orange fish swim in a bowl surrounded by flowers.

Did you know?
Matisse liked watching goldfish: he found it very relaxing.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Fish	Water	Table	Leaves	Flowers	Background	Bowl

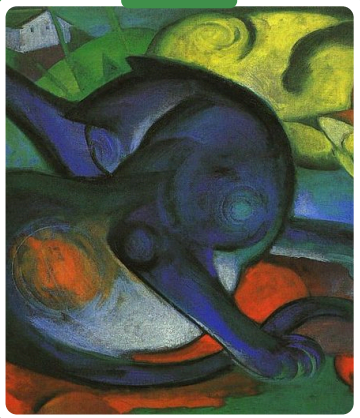
Two Cats, Blue and Yellow

Franz Marc · 1912

Expressionism

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Franz Marc

Who was Franz Marc?

He watched animals for a long time before painting them in made-up colors.

Why is it famous?

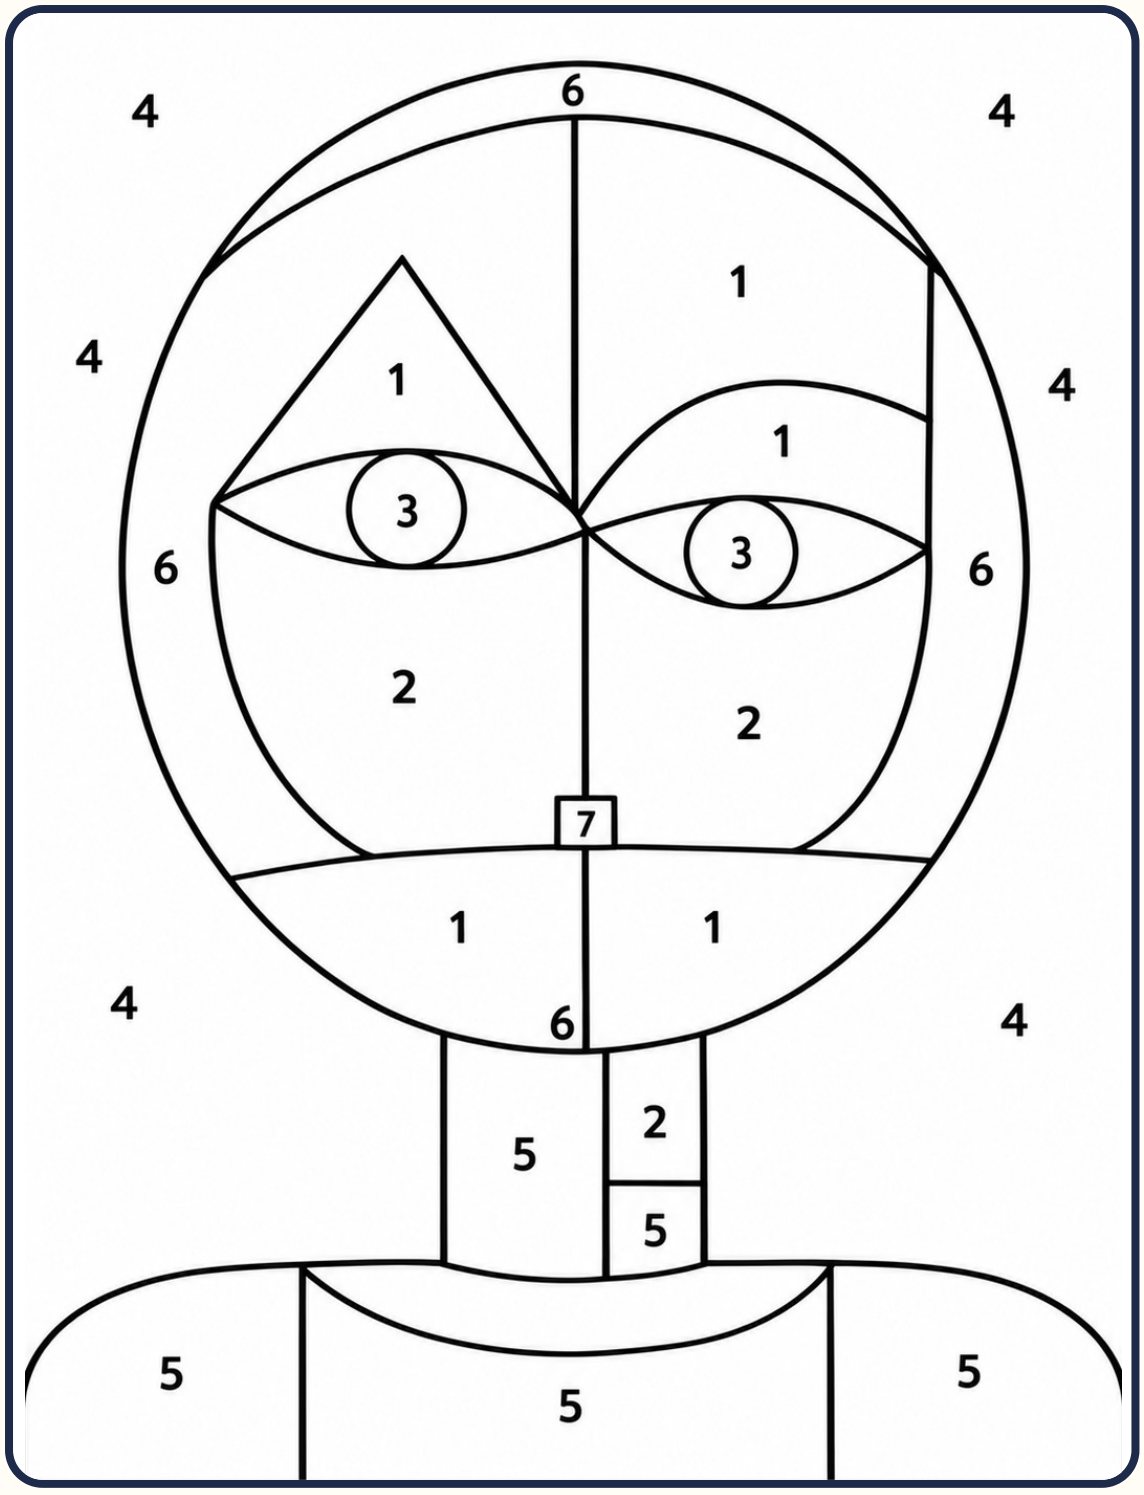
A blue cat and a yellow cat are curled up in a ball, nice and warm.

Did you know?

Franz Marc painted lots of animals: cats, foxes, deer, and horses.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Blue cat	Yellow cat	Cushion	Background	Stripes	Shadows	Green



93

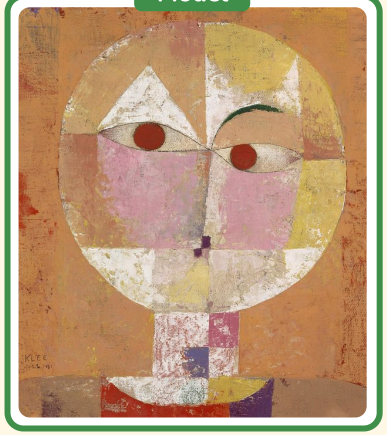
Senecio

Paul Klee · 1922

Modern art

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Paul Klee

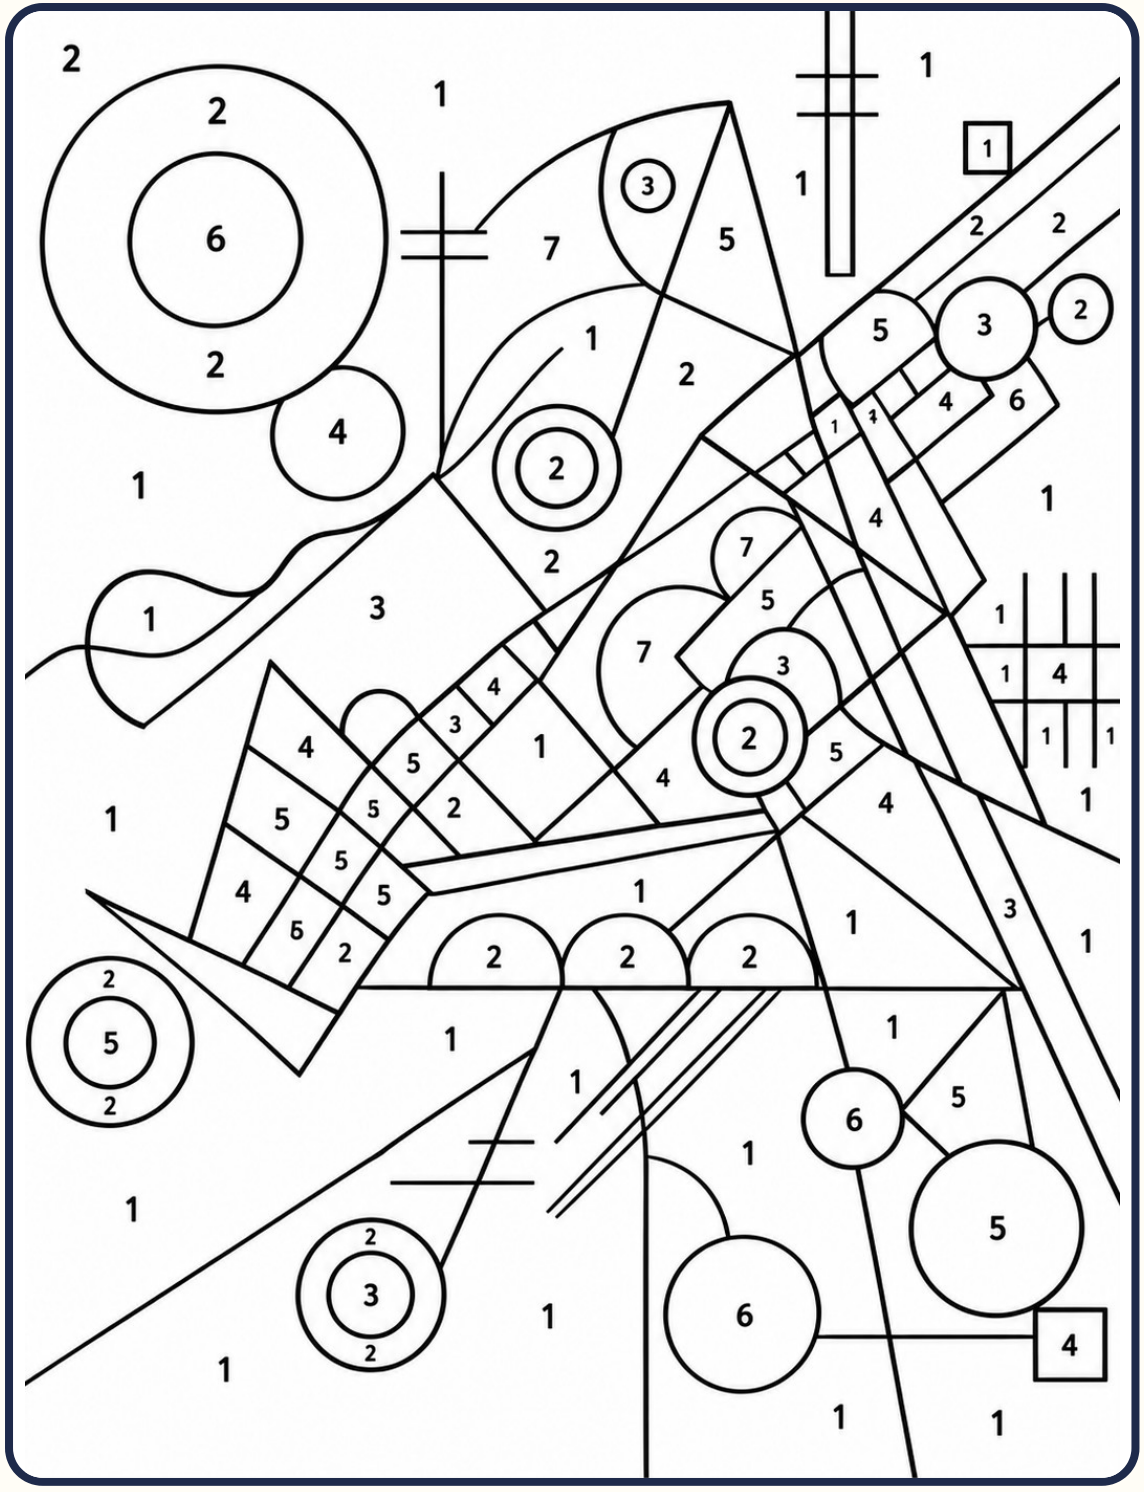
Who was Klee?
He taught art at a famous school in Germany, the Bauhaus.

Why is it famous?
A round face made of simple shapes looks at us with funny eyes.

Did you know?
Senecio is the name of a plant, and it comes from a word meaning "old man."

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Face	Cheeks	Eyes	Background	Neck	Outline	Mouth



94

Composition VIII

Wassily Kandinsky · 1923

Abstract art

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Wassily Kandinsky

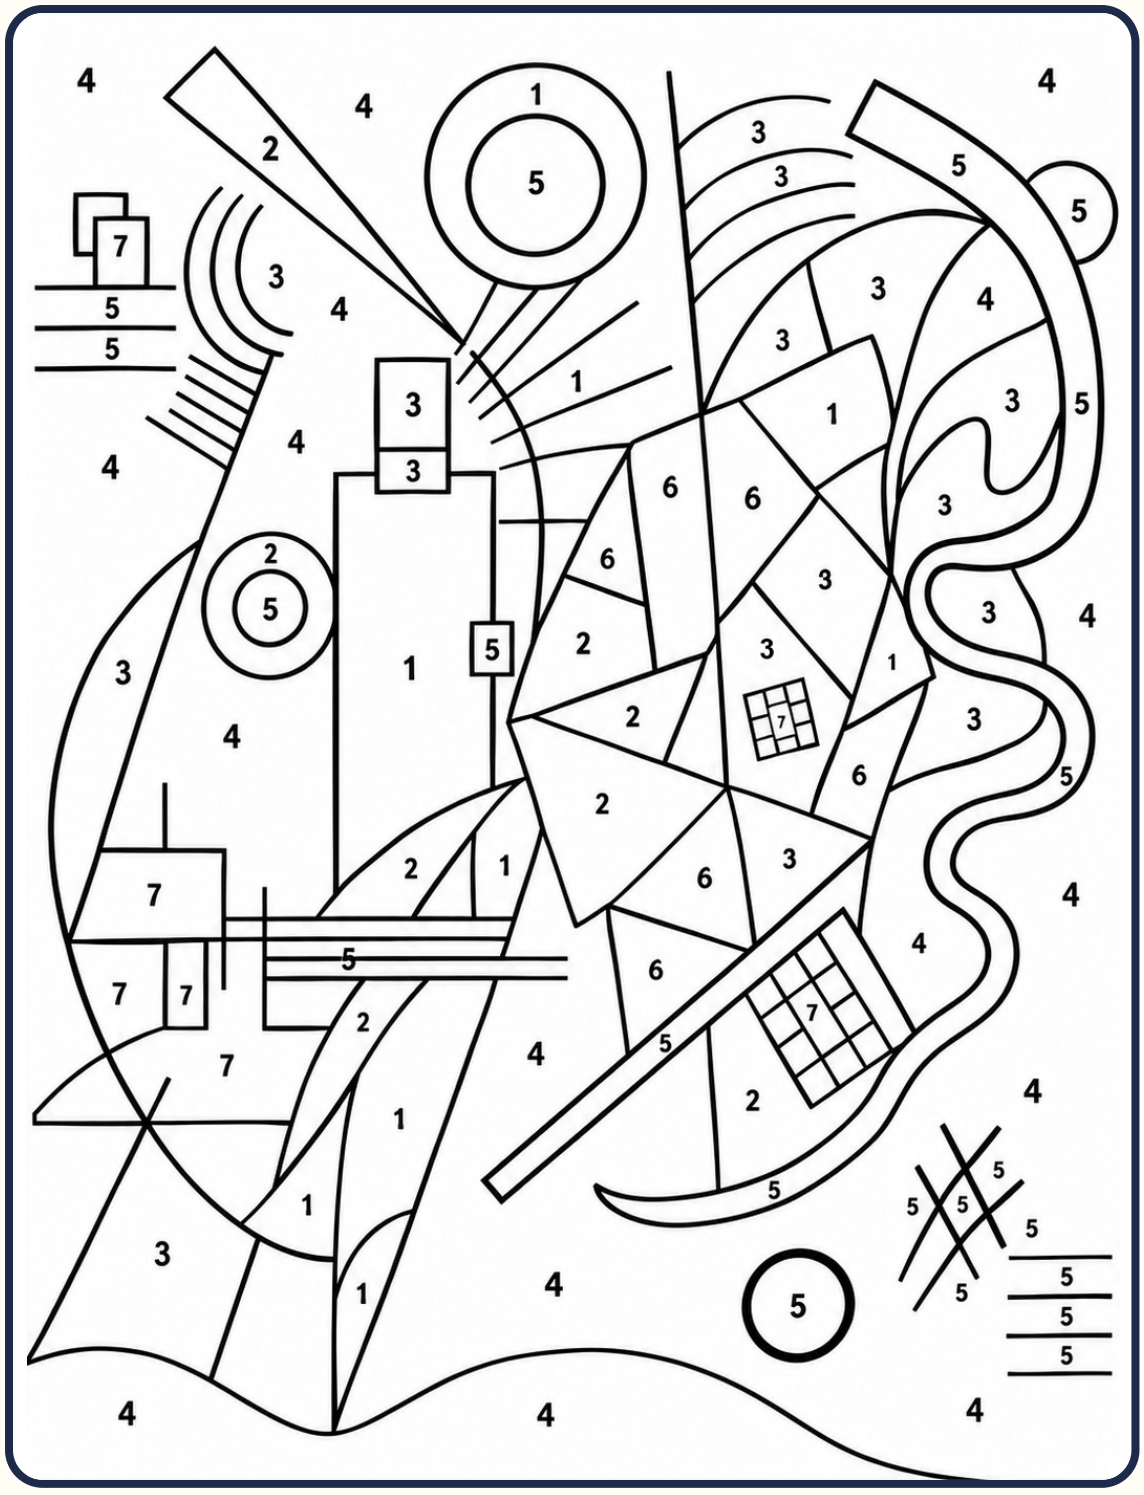
Who was Kandinsky?
He was one of the very first artists to paint abstract pictures.

Why is it famous?
Circles, triangles, and lines work together like an orchestra on the canvas.

Did you know?
The circle was his favorite shape, like the big black one at the top left.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Background	Circles	Blue	Red	Yellow	Purple	Pink



95

Yellow-Red-Blue

Wassily Kandinsky · 1925

Abstract art

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Wassily Kandinsky

Who was Kandinsky?

A Russian painter who heard music when he looked at colors.

Why is it famous?

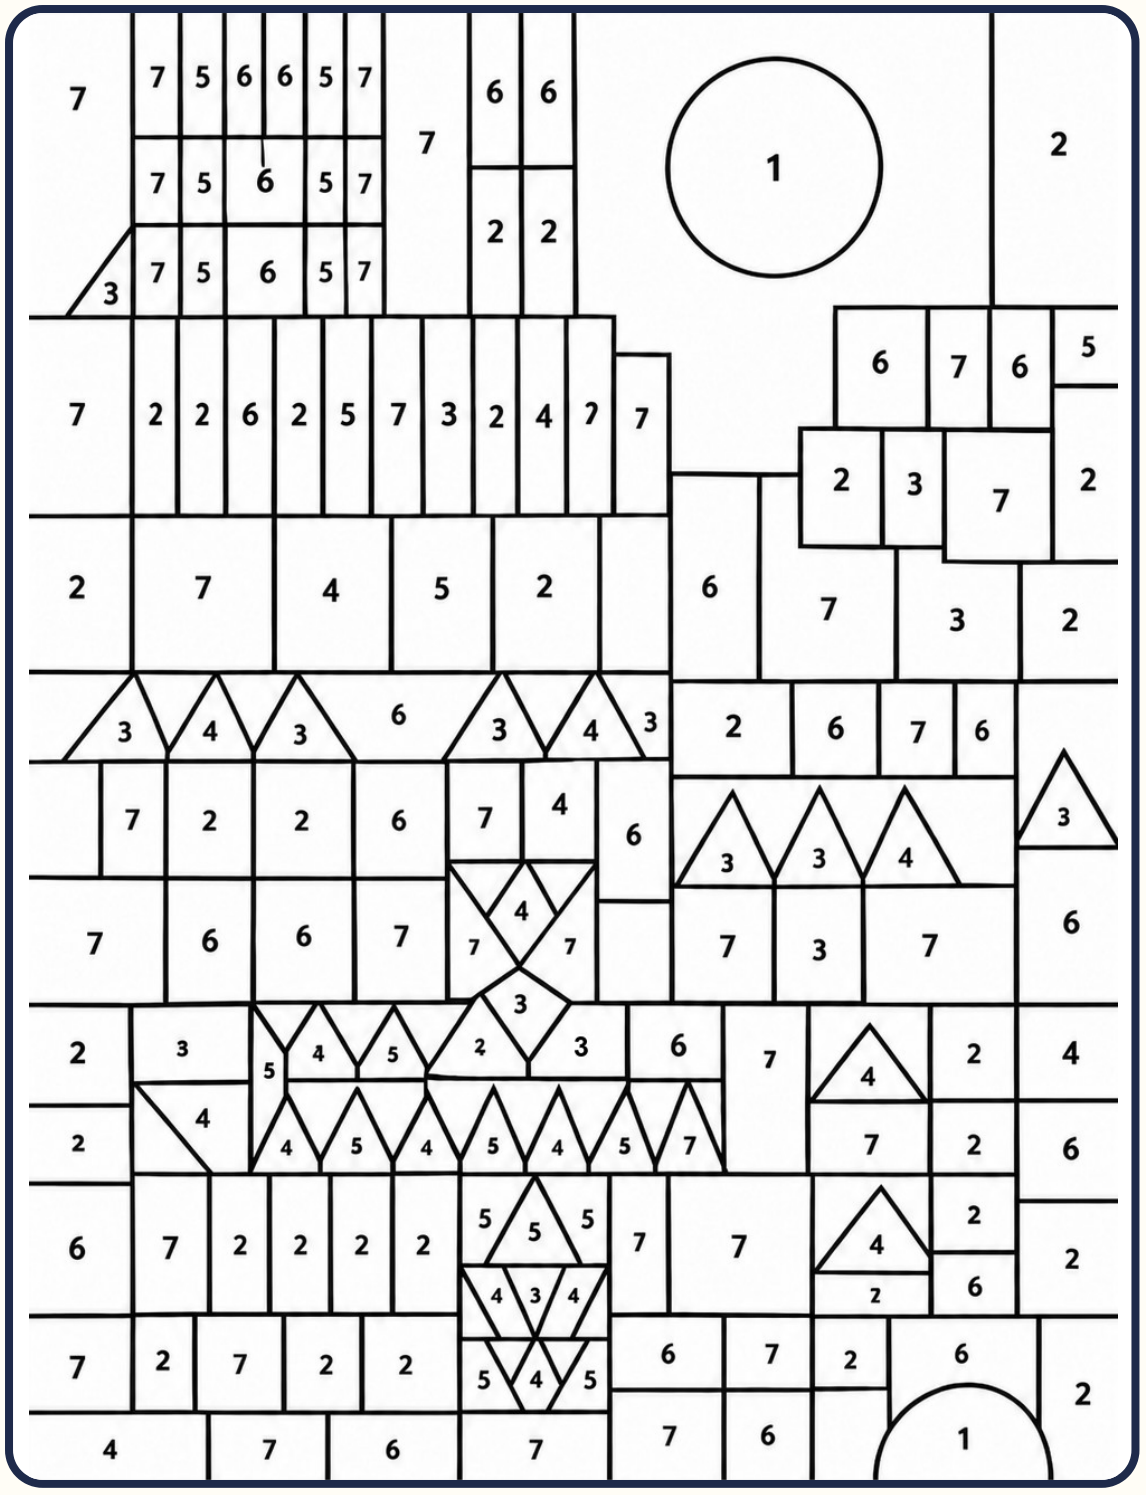
No houses, no faces: just shapes and colors playing together.

Did you know?

For Kandinsky, yellow sounded like a trumpet and blue like a cello!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Yellow	Red	Blue	Background	Black	Purple	Green



96

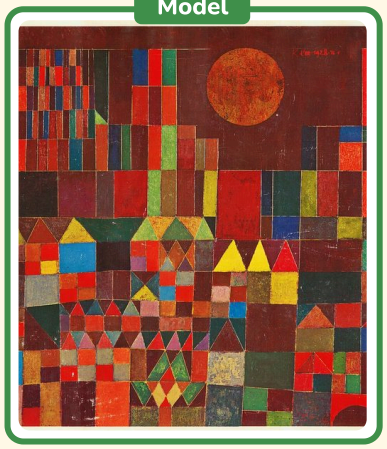
Castle and Sun

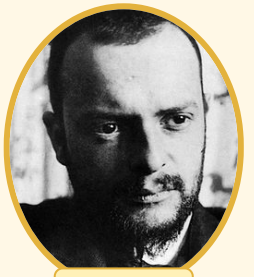
Paul Klee · 1928

Modern art

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model





Paul Klee

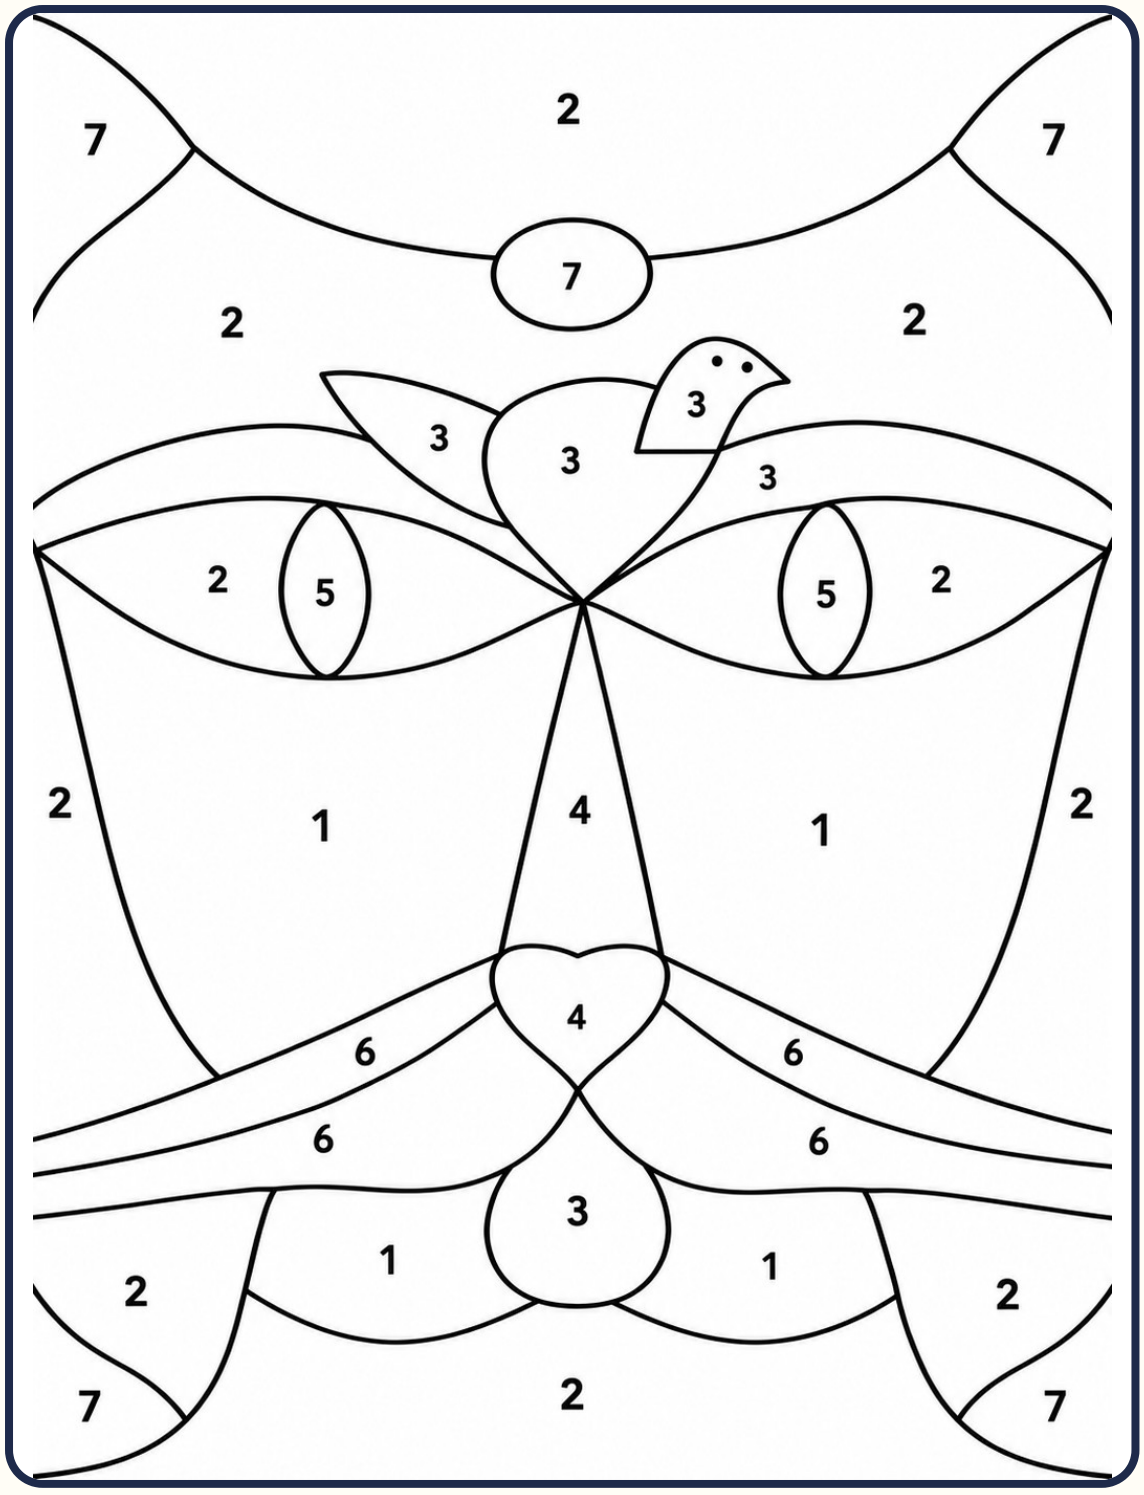
Who was Klee?
A Swiss-German artist who drew like a child at play, on purpose!

Why is it famous?
A whole castle built only with squares, rectangles and triangles.

Did you know?
Klee was also a very good violinist. He played almost every day.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Sun	Orange	Yellow	Pink	Purple	Blue	Brown



97

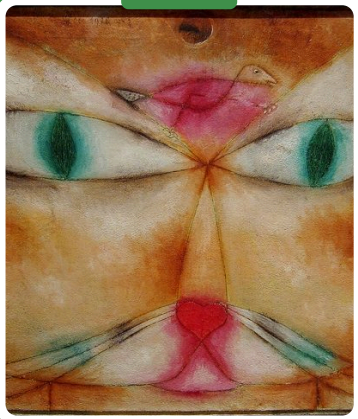
Cat and Bird

Paul Klee · 1928

Modern art

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Paul Klee

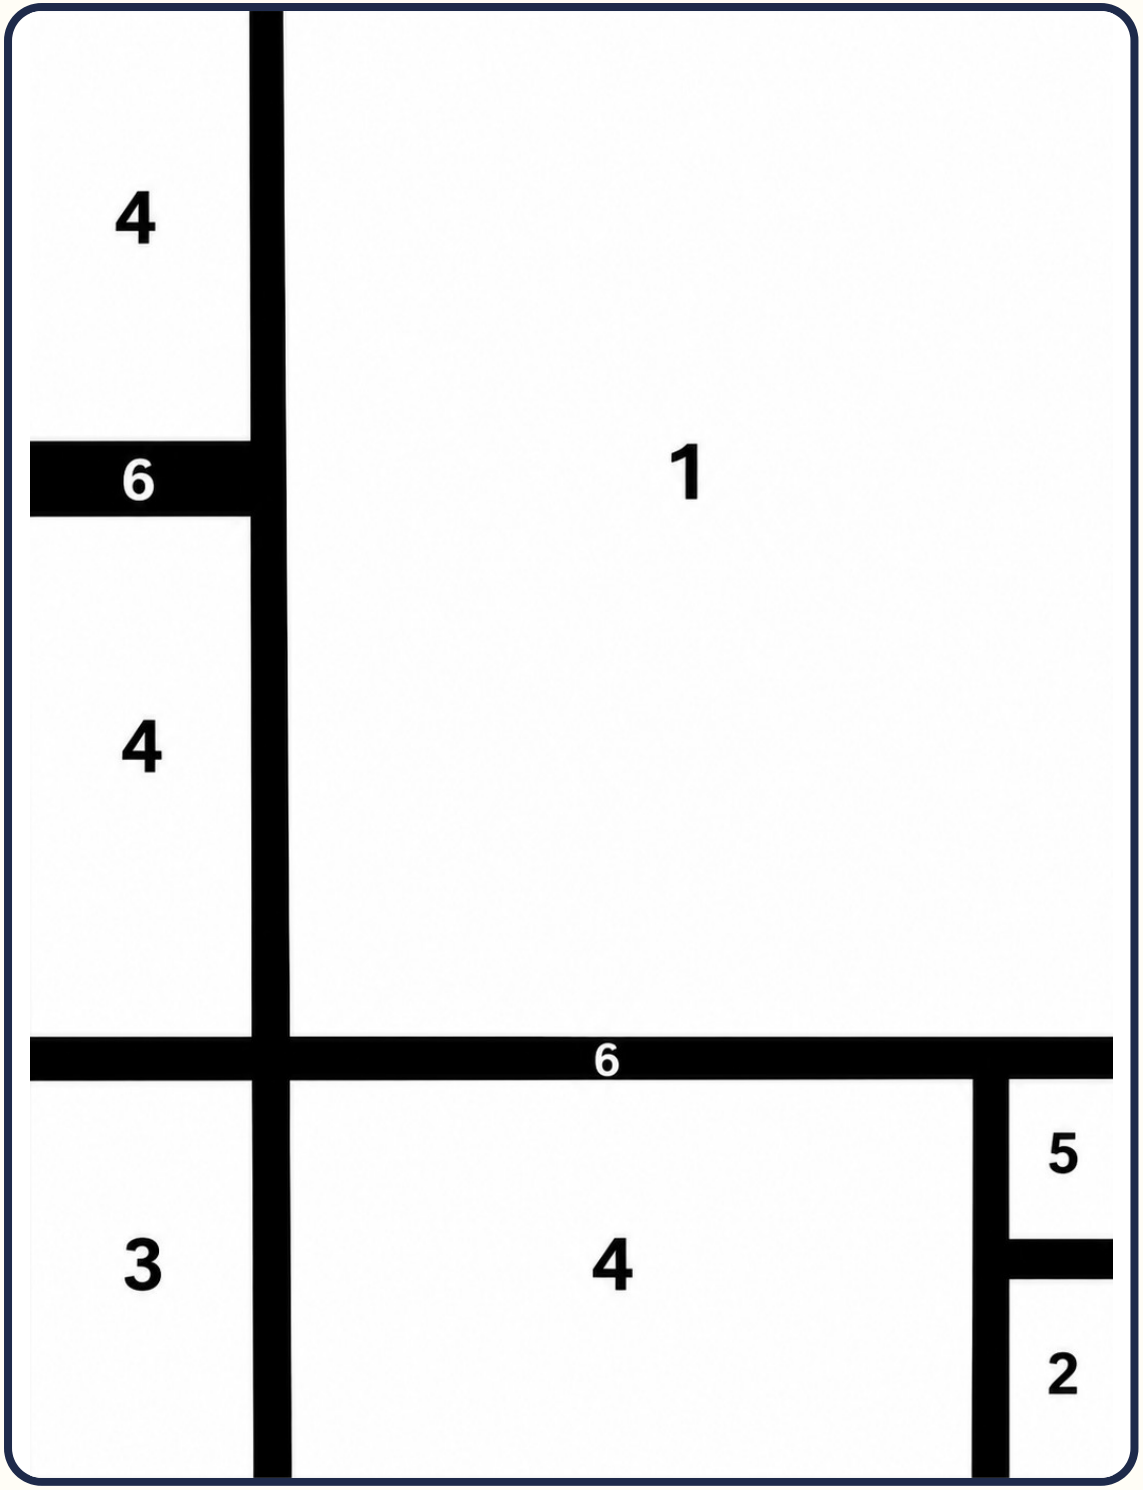
Who was Klee?
He loved cats and had several. They walked all over his drawings.

Why is it famous?
The cat thinks so hard about the bird that it's "on his mind," right on his forehead!

Did you know?
The cat has big green eyes that seem to stare right at us.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Face	Background	Bird	Nose	Eyes	Whiskers	Ears



98

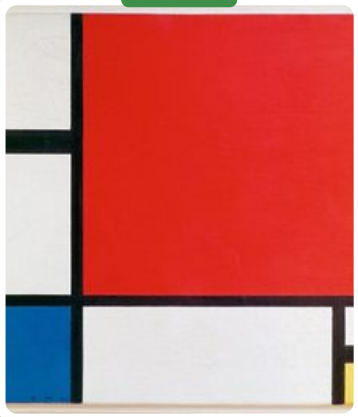
Composition with Red, Yellow and Blue

Piet Mondrian · 1930

Abstract art

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Piet Mondrian

Who was Mondrian?

A Dutch painter who used only straight lines and three colors.

Why is it famous?

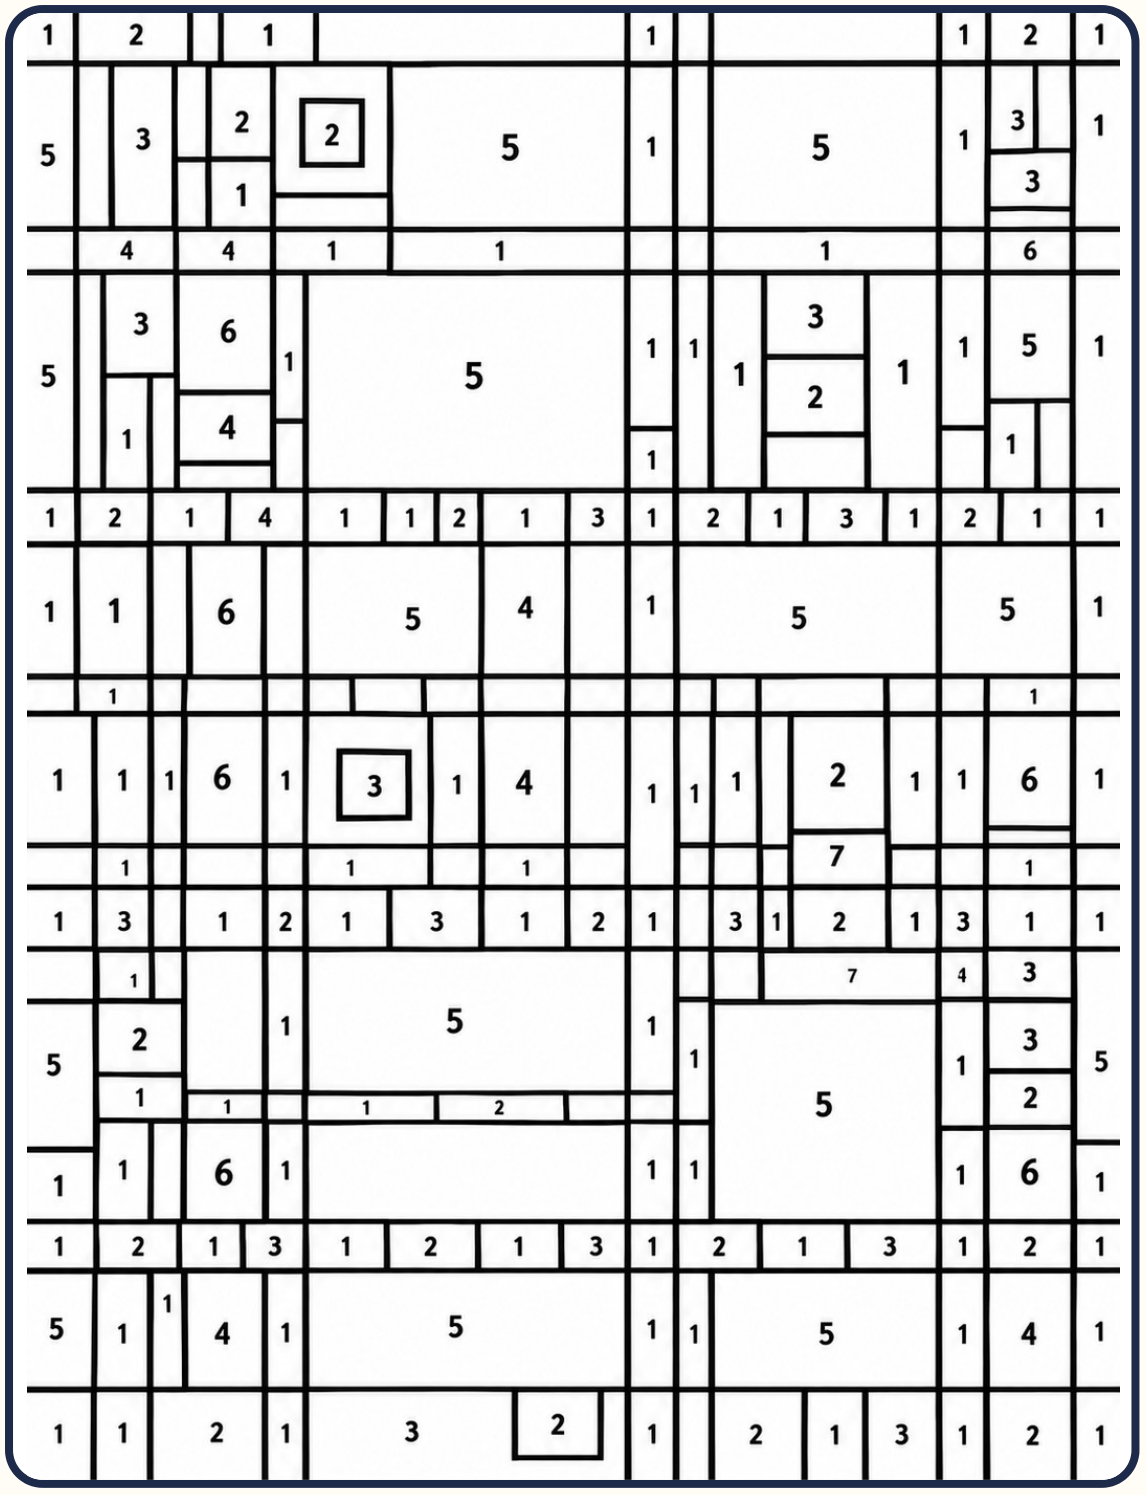
With just squares and black lines, he makes a perfect balance.

Did you know?

His paintings inspired dresses, bags and even cakes!

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Red	Yellow	Blue	White	Light gray	Lines	Cream



99

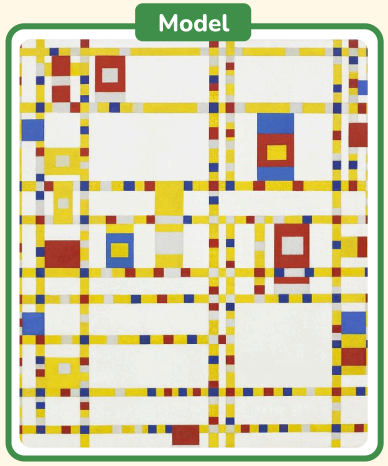
Broadway Boogie Woogie

Piet Mondrian · 1943

Abstract art

Color by the numbers and discover the story of the artwork!

Model



Piet Mondrian

Who was Mondrian?

Late in life, he moved to New York, a city he found very cheerful.

Why is it famous?

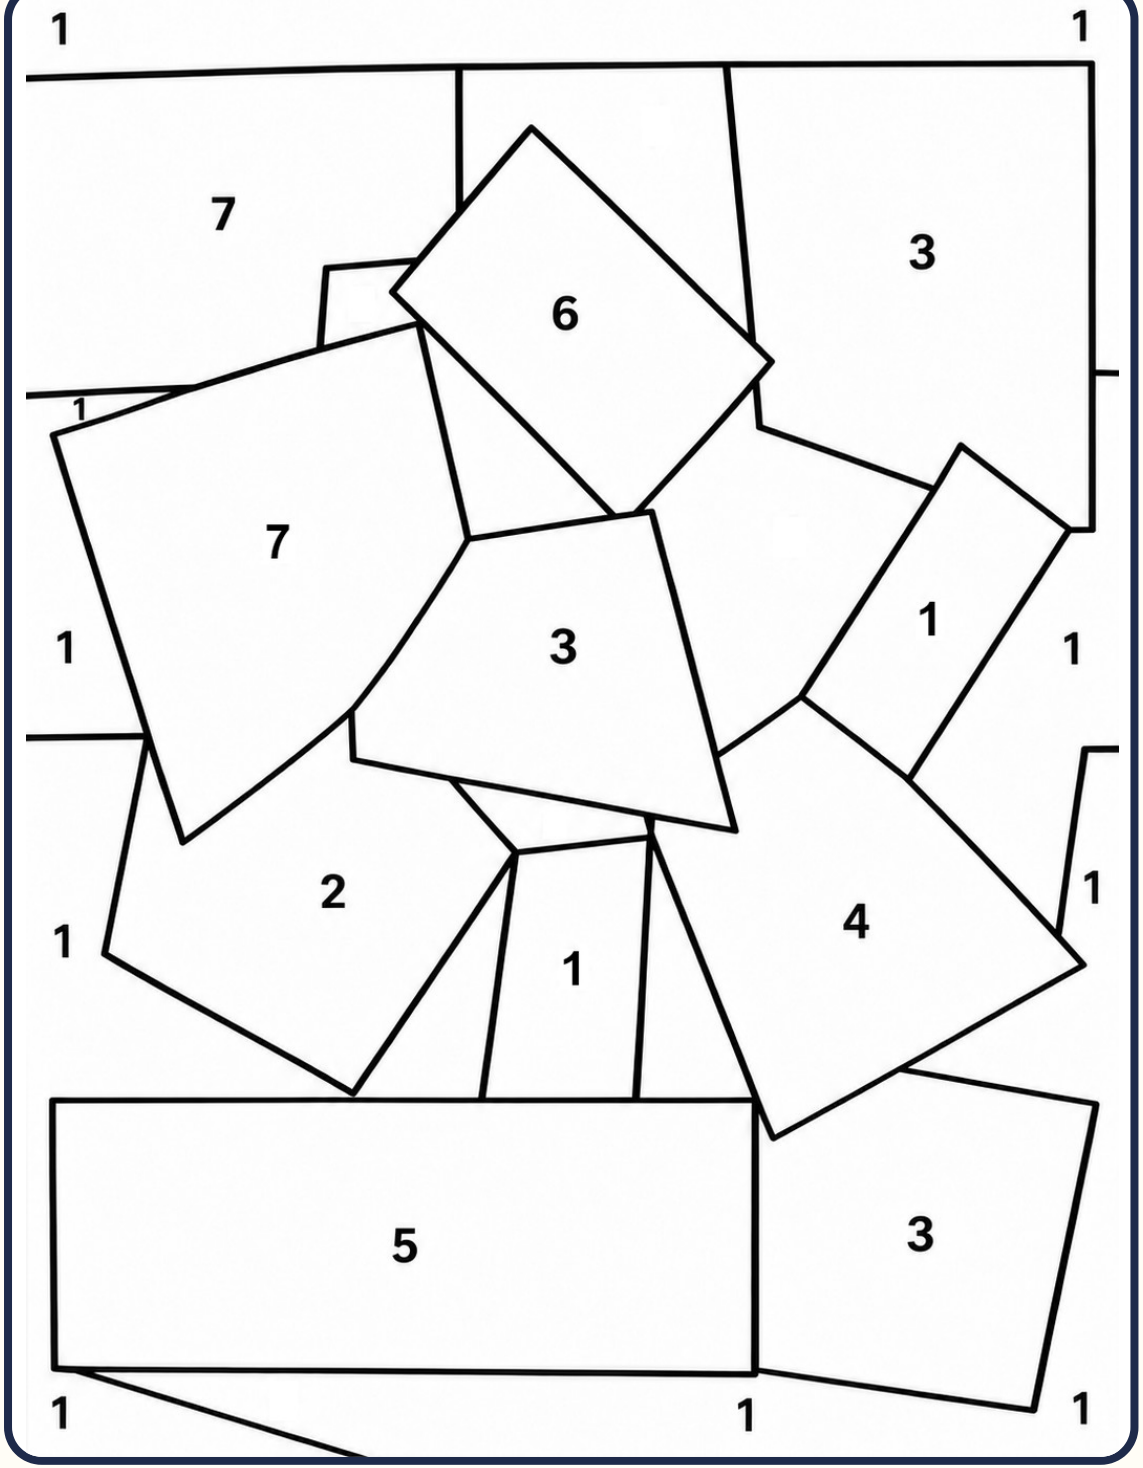
The little colored squares look like the taxis and street lights of New York.

Did you know?

Boogie-woogie is fast music that Mondrian loved to dance to.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Yellow	Red	Blue	Gray	Background	Cream	Pink



100

The Snail

Henri Matisse · 1953

Paper cut-outs

Color by the numbers
and discover the story of the artwork!

Model

Henri Matisse

Who was Matisse?
When he could no longer paint standing up, he cut out colored paper with scissors.

Why is it famous?
The pieces of color spiral around, like a snail's shell.

Did you know?
Matisse was 83 years old when he made this giant paper artwork.

Colors

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Orange	Yellow	Green	Red	Blue	Black	Purple